TWO FIRE ALARMS.
One Last Night and One This Afternoon.

Last night about 9 o'clock the fire alarm was turned in from box 5 and the fire companies made a quick response, particularly exciting was the dash of the Capital Hose Company down Fayetteville street. An investigation showed that the alarm was caused by the automatic fire alarm in the Barber's Warehouse, which was started by some trick of the machinery.

This afternoon the alarm was turned in from box 47. The companies quickly responded and found that there was a small blaze in a closet of a residence beyond Peace Institute. The flames were extinguished by the time the ladies arrived, and the loss was very small.
