

The Raleigh Daily Times

Vol. LXIX. No. 22.

The Weather—RAIN.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1911.

LAST EDITION.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Double the Number of Paid Subscribers in the City of Raleigh of Any Other Newspaper.

ANTI-NEAR BEER BILL UP IN THE HOUSE

Made Special Order for Thursday Night Feb. 2 and Copies of Bill Ordered Printed

THE INCOME TAX BILL

Income Tax Amendment Came Up at 12 O'clock as Special Order But Action Was Postponed Until Tuesday Night, January 31—Bill Introduced by Grier to Establish a State Highway Commission—Several Bills by Battle—Bill Relating to State Banks—Many Local Bills.

Speaker Dowd convened the house at 11 o'clock, Rev. Milton Barber, of Christ church, Raleigh, offered prayer.

Petitions.
Woodson: From citizens of Shelby, asking that health laws relating to water be maintained in the present form.

McNeill: From citizens of Moore county in reference to pensions.

Committee Reports.
Agriculture: To amend the drainage law of Clarke's Creek in Lincoln county.

To allow Jackson county commissioners to consolidate and improve the stock law of the county.

Corporations: To incorporate the Maxton Alma and Southbound Railroad Company.

Counties, Cities and Towns: To amend the charter of St. Paul's in Robeson county.

To create North Robeson and Rowland counties out of parts of Robeson (Unfavorable.)

To promote more efficient municipal government. (Unfavorable.)

To allow Hertford county to make appropriation to Confederate monument.

To amend the act relating to charter of Greensboro.

To incorporate the town of Woodville.

To amend the law of 1909 establishing a public board for Asheville.

To repeal the police commission law of Asheville.

Finance: To allow Fayetteville to issue waterworks bonds and to install a filter.

To allow Fayetteville to use funds accruing from assessment on paved streets.

To amend the revisal increasing the compensation of Cumberland county.

To divide the commissions of Gaston county into two classes and to fix their compensation.

To allow Lexington to tax persons acting as agents of out of town laundries. (Unfavorable.)

To increase the pay of Pitt county commissioners.

Fish and Fisheries: To regulate fishing in Lumber River and its tributaries.

REBELS CAPTURE CITY OF CEIBA, HONDURAS

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Puerto Barrios, Guatemala, Jan. 26.—The city of Ceiba, Honduras, has fallen after a terrific battle between the revolutionists, headed by General Loe Christmas, American aide of ex-President Bonilla, and the forces of the United States.

The government forces of President Davila are in flight and American and British marines are patrolling the streets to prevent attacks on citizens of these two countries.

Christmas led the vanguard of the invaders attacking the trenches east of the city. The rebels had a machine gun which they had planted under the cover of darkness upon a height commanding a large section of the trenches and the defenders were compelled to retreat.

Almost simultaneously with the attack upon the east General Bonilla's detachment attacked the Gables upon the westward side, the roar of his artillery spreading panic into the hearts of the regular forces. The "battleship" Tatubula of the Honduran regular navy, which had been in the harbor, hoisted her anchor at the outbreak of hostilities and steamed away.

utaries in Columbus and Robeson counties.

Internal Improvement: Resolution regarding the recommendation of the governor and for investigation of the offering of certain railroads mentioned in the report of the Board of Internal Improvements.

Judiciary, No. 1: To amend the revisal by inserting the word felony in place of misdemeanor in certain sections.

To provide for the preservation of certain records.

To tax dogs in Caswell county and make them subjects of larceny.

For relief of clerk of superior court of Randolph county.

To amend the revisal with reference to what constitutes marriage. (Unfavorable report.)

Liquor Traffic: To prohibit the sale of near-beer, beerine and other like drinks. (Minority report filed by Kellum of New Hanover.) Bill made special order for Thursday night, February 2 at 8 o'clock. (500 copies ordered printed.)

Bills Introduced.

Grier: To establish a state highway commission.

Taylor of Brunswick: To allow Southport to subscribe to stock of Wilmington & Southport Railway Company.

Thorne: To allow Farmville to issue bonds.

McPhaul: To incorporate the town of Dunderberg in Robeson county.

Pace: To amend the revisal so as to allow railroads to give transportation to widows and minors of deceased employees and to employees who are out of work.

Dillard of Cherokee: To amend the laws of 1909 relative to the seizure and destruction of distilleries.

Dillard of Cherokee: To allow register of deeds of Cherokee county to correct certain grants.

Woodson: To allow Shelby to buy and erect and operate an electric plant and to issue bonds therefor.

Marshall: To provide good roads in Elkin township, Surry county.

Edwards: To protect fish in Yellow Creek, Graham county.

Alspaugh: To amend the Forsyth county quail law.

Battle: To establish liens for licensed livery stable keepers.

Battle: To amend the law relating to statistics of leaf tobacco.

Judd: To permit Wendell graded school district to vote $10,000 in bonds.

Judd: To incorporate school district No. 1, Marks Creek, Wake county.

Pitt: To amend the revisal relating to public holidays.

Teague: For relief of ex-sheriff of Alexander county.

Roberts: To provide for better enforcement of liability of stockholders in state banks.

Tomlin: To allow Rowan, Catawba, Burke and Caldwell counties to issue road bonds under certain conditions.

Mitchell: To allow commissioner of agriculture to contract for printing required for its own operation.

Markham: To enlarge the powers of board of county commissioners.

Alderman: To appoint three justices of the peace in Pender county.

Kelly: For support of State School for the Blind and Deaf.

McWilliams: To protect deed and squires in Currituck township in Hyde county.

Carr of Durham: To provide engineering assistance for construction of county roads.

Carr of Durham: To extend state aid for care of Confederate room at Richmond.

Turkington: Resolution of North Carolina Press Association relative to public roads. (Referred to committee on public roads and turnpikes.)

Special order on constitutional amendment providing income tax was taken up at 12, and on motion of Ray, of Macon, was postponed until Tuesday, January 31st.

Special Order On Divorce.

The special order on the minority report of the judiciary committee, filed by Representative Devin, arriving, Mr. Devin explained the bill.

The committee reporting the bill unfavorably, he said, was about equally divided, the tie vote being decided against the bill by the chairman. The bill provides that subsection 1661 of the revisal be amended, so as to read, "If the husband shall commit adultery." The purpose, he said, was not to let down the bars to divorce but to correct a glaring inequality which stares one in the face. North Carolina should join the other states that have made this change. The marriage vows are mutual, and the statute law of a people ought to get a right ideal of righteous citizenship. The law now permits numerous infidelities on the part of the

(Continued on Page Two.)

Jacob Schiff, financier and one of the most prominent Hebrews in the world, who enthusiastically supported the resolution adopted by the National Council of the Hebrew Congregations of America, in session in New York, urging the United States government to terminate all existing treaties with Russia unless guarantees be given that the American passport shall no longer be disregarded when in the hands of Jews as that country has done in the past. Mrs. Schiff donated $20,000 to Jewish schools and synagogues during the session of the council.

A BRILLIANT EVENT

Reception At the Mansion For General Assembly

Governor and Mrs. W. W. Kitchin received in honor of members of General Assembly and their wives. One of the most beautiful events ever given at the Executive Mansion—Decorations Especially Beautiful—Many Handsomely Gowned Women and Distinguished Men Present—Music and Refreshments Added to Success of the Evening.

There was no lack to the gracious hospitality of Governor and Mrs. William Walton Kitchin and those accompanying them in receiving at the mansion last night.

Given in honor of the members of the general assembly, the reception was easily one of the most beautiful and brilliant that have transpired within the walls of the executive mansion. There was gathered within the hospitable doors of the mansion a vast assemblage of people, representative of the state's highest citizenship and most beautiful womanhood. From 8:30 until a late hour the stream of people continued, nearly 1,500 guests calling during the evening.

The spacious halls and rooms of the mansion are such as to enhance the beauty of such a scene. Flare both state and national formed the chief decoration, especially in the south drawing room where the receiving line was formed. Draped from all the chandeliers were graceful festoons of gray moss, making a most attractive effect. Ferns, palms, smilax and cut flowers as well as the distinctive North Carolina pine and cypress added to the beauty of the decorations.

The handrail of the wide stair case leading from the center of the hall was decorated in a tracery of southern smilax against a background of white. Continually passing up and down these wide stairs was a throng of handsomely gowned women and distinguished men, many in all the glory of glittering uniform.

The third regiment band added greatly to the delight of the evening, the beautiful music being heard above the hum of conversation and laughter.

It was certainly a charming picture to watch the constantly changing throng, the gowns of the ladies being especially handsome.

The guests were received in the hall by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gold, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Timberlake and Mr. Henry Litchford.

The receiving line was a long one extending in semi circle through the south drawing room and into the music room.

Stationed at the door of the drawing room announcing the guests were Adjutant-General R. L. Lemster and Major R. T. Daniel, of Weldon, in full uniform.

In the receiving line were Governor William Walton Kitchin with Mrs. Kitchin, in cream marquisette over champagne, trimmed in sable and jewels and carrying pink roses; Mrs. Archibald McDowell, of Scotland Neck, in

(Continued From Page Six.)

NO AGREEMENT YET

Schenck Jury Not Able to Agree

Jury in Chesapeake Poison Case Still Out and Seemingly as Far From Agreement as in the Beginning.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 26.—After being deadlocked for more than 24 hours, the jury at this place today decided the fate of Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenck, accused of trying to poison her husband, John O. Schenck.

Mrs. Schenck, a widow, during the suspense attending the jury's deliberations, which had lasted a few black days, manifested the greatest anxiety as to the outcome and telephoned several times for news from the criminal justice building.

Mob About the Court Room.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 26.—The Schenck jury today was deadlocked over the question of the guilt or innocence of Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenck, accused of trying to poison her husband, John O. Schenck.

The jury, reported in Judge Jordan's morning paper, had failed to arrive at a verdict and were sent back for further deliberations.

There was a great deal of excitement among those in the court room and those gathered about the court house when the jury, after several hours of deliberation, dashed up to the court house still at a few minutes before 1 o'clock from the Stamm House where they had been sequestered.

It was reported that the jury was deadlocked 11-1, and that they showed traces of being just like a mob. When the jury entered the court room, they were met by a mob of men and women, and the jury was surrounded by a mob of men and women.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so. The jury was asked to return a verdict, but they were unable to do so.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The Countess Di Moise, whose engagement was dropped in the United States district court in New York on Wednesday.

The president of the State Library, in explaining in detail the provisions of the agreement.

A statement analyzing the effect of tariff laws on trade with Canada in the past and the probable results that would be obtained by the proposed reciprocity agreement will be transmitted through the president from the state department with the message.

A statement by Secretary of State Knox, concerning the reciprocity negotiations, will also be sent to congress with the message.

The proposals to congress are the culmination of long-standing negotiations. In Canada, the western farmers have been clamoring for lower duties on manufactured products, and have petitioned the dominion government to effect such an arrangement with the United States. Manufacturers in Canada have vigorously opposed the policy. The farmers also have asked for free trade in agricultural implements and natural products.

Simultaneously with the sending of the message to congress at 4 o'clock today, Mr. Fielding, Canadian minister of finance, will submit the agreement to the Canadian parliament in session at Ottawa.

While the usual course in such cases is to submit a draft treaty to the senate for its approval and accompany this by a project for legislation to make the necessary changes in the tariff schedules, it is possible that there will be a departure from the established order in the case of the Canadian reciprocity project. This looks to the abandonment of the treaty entirely in favor of purely legislative action. No good reason is seen why all purpose will not be served by the passage of a simple joint resolution by both senate and house, making the tariff schedules correspond to the rate proposed by the commissioners, so far as they relate to Canadian products only.

BOMB EXPLODED.
House of Persons in Tenement Thrown Into Panic.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
New York, Jan. 26.—Scores of persons in the tenement house at No. 511 East 83d street were thrown into a panic today when a bomb, believed to have been left by blackmailers, exploded in the basement.

After the explosion occupants of the house began stampeding to the street and several of them were cut and bruised in the rush.

John Gargiulo, of No. 82 East end avenue, has a grocery on the first floor of the tenement house. Since November 12 he has been receiving letters demanding $1,000 and threatening him with death if he failed to pay the sum. He ignored the letters, and did not even report them to the police.

One of the last letters received here was a picture of a man in a coffin, and beneath it the words, "You'll get this if you don't pay."

ROBBERY IN CAR.
Masked Bandits Held Up Car and Rob Passengers.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 26.—Two masked bandits held up a Beach suburban car on the outskirts of Santa Monica early today, robbed twenty-five passengers and shot one of them.

One of the bandits was shot as the car fled and was captured when he came here for treatment. He gave the name of Roy Fox and said he was only 19 years old.

Henry L. Mitchell of Santa Monica, was shot in the neck during the fusillade.

The car was approaching Tokyo station when the two bandits, yelling like Indians and carrying revolvers in both hands, jumped before the car and ordered the motorman to stop. When he did so they leaped aboard.

DeJohan Girl Married.
(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 26.—It became definitely known today that Roberta Buford DeJohan, the Philadelphia heiress, who once eloped with a waiter, had become the bride of Stephen W. Glazer. The couple were held in a vine-clad cottage on South Burlington avenue and admitted that they had been married. They will spend their honeymoon in the cottage.

Hurt by Falling Girders.
(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
New York, Jan. 26.—Two men were hurt and Street Cleaning Commissioner William Edwards, who saved Mayor Gaynor's life last August, had a narrow escape from death today when a thirty-ton steel girder crashed from the skeleton structure of the new municipal building at Duane street and Park Row. The two who were hurt were injured getting out of the way of the falling girder.

NO MATCHES OTHER THAN THE SAFETY

Bill Introduced in the Senate By Cotton of Pitt Relating to Matches

SENATOR PINNIX VOTES

Was Not in the Senate Yesterday and Asked Unanimous Consent to be Allowed to Have His Vote Recorded Today on the Governor's Salary Bill—Voted For the Graham Amendment—Senator Hobgood Explains T. Gilbert Pearson's Position in Regard to the Quail Matter.

The senate spent over an hour of its session today debating Senator Cotton's bill taxing dogs in North Carolina, and finally tabled it. A number of senators objected to their districts being included and advanced strong arguments in support of their contentions.

Senator Bellamy introduced a bill prohibiting shipping coots and rice birds out of the state and a bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of matches other than safety matches in the state was offered by Senator Cotton. Senator Long offered a bill relating to the cases of the superior court judges. A dozen or more local measures were introduced by different senators and several bills of this character progressed in the legislative mill.

The bill incorporating the Lenoir and Blowing Rock Turnpike Company came up as a special order and was passed and sent to the house with an amendment of Senator Bassett providing that if after investigation by the governor and his council they find that there will be no loss to the state they may hire convicts to work on the turnpike.

A resolution was read from the North Carolina Press Association favoring legislation for public road improvement in the state.

Unfavorable reports were made on the bills establishing North Robeson and Rowland counties out of Robeson.

The same committee sent in a favorable report on establishing Hoke county out of Cumberland and Robeson and it was made special order for next Tuesday at 12 o'clock. A minority report on this bill was submitted.

DETAIL OF THE SENATE.
The senate met at 11 o'clock. President Newland in the chair, and the invocation being made by Rev. Mr. Poe.

Senator Pinnix of Yadkin announced that he was not in the senate chamber yesterday during the debate.

(Continued on Page Two.)

BISHOP SCORED FOR INTERFERENCE

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Senator Roosevelt, the insurgent leader, issued a statement this afternoon in reply to the charge of Bishop Ludden of the Catholic diocese of Syracuse, that bigotry rules at Albany, in which he scored the prelate for interfering in the United States senatorial controversy.

Senator Roosevelt said: "Bishop Ludden's interference is uncalled for, unnecessary, and unfortunate. He does not seem to know what he is talking about or some one had deliberately misinformed him."

Wants Extra Session.
(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Washington, Jan. 26.—In the house today Representative Ransdell, of Texas, a democratic member of the ways and means committee, urged an extra session of congress to revise the tariff.

The special committee investigating the charges of the ship subsidy lobby continued its hearing.

"Madame Troubadour" has made such a hit in Chicago that they are trying to prolong its engagement.