

TEACHERS WILL UNITE

In Association Work With the Teachers Assembly

All Organizations Will Become Body, But With Separate Rules and Officers—Spirited Debate Over Text Book Commission and Uniformity in Text Books—Superintendent Judd of Wake Favors Increase School Taxes.

After a very interesting meeting yesterday morning, the afternoon session began by Superintendent H. B. Craven, of Newbern, moving that the nominating committee be instructed to bring in three nominations for vice president, and secretary.

Dr. L. R. Wilson, of Chapel Hill, very briefly spoke on the subject of the state library commission. Mr. R. D. W. Connor, secretary of the state teachers assembly reviewed the work of the assembly and the various associations of teachers, and recommended that the associations of Superintendents and Principals, Primary Teachers, and County Superintendents all unite in their sessions with the Teachers' Assembly.

After a very interesting meeting yesterday morning, the afternoon session began by Superintendent H. B. Craven, of Newbern, moving that the nominating committee be instructed to bring in three nominations for vice president, and secretary.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner addressed the body concerning some criticisms he heard had been made of his recommendation to the legislature. The first was that to the state text book commission be added two primary teachers, and two city superintendents, the second was to uniform text books in country and city.

Superintendent F. M. Harper wanted a delay for his report on an outline of opinion as to the text book commission in order that he may consult with State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner. Superintendent Bruce Craven strongly objected to any delay, that a report should be made now. Quite a heated argument followed over it.

Prof. E. C. Brooks, of Trinity, took sides with Prof. Harper, declaring the association had complete confidence in Dr. Joyner's doing the right thing and criticized the position taken by Superintendent Craven.

Superintendent Graham, of Charlotte, declared in favor of Dr. Joyner's position and said he was very glad the legislature would accept his recommendations. He believed that Dr. Joyner could be counted on to stand by the schools and see that justice is done them.

Prof. R. E. Fattrell, of Lumberton, and Superintendent Carr, discussed the issues. Prof. Carr finally presenting a bill he had drafted that the state should take steps to provide for the education and training of the feeble-minded, a committee named by the legislature to report in 1913 as to grounds, buildings, etc.

After this the young women of the high school served a delightful luncheon, consisting of tea and many kinds of sandwiches, made by the cooking class.

Night Session. The attendance at the night session was greatly increased. A strong paper was read by Prof. H. B. Craven, of Newbern on "Testing Results of School Work."

He contrasted the work of the Newbern schools in 1908 with the present year.

"Retardation of Pupils" was the subject of an interesting paper read by Superintendent E. D. Pussey, of Laurinburg. It was one of the best and most instructive of the session.

Prof. R. E. Sentelle offered a resolution for the general supervision of the graded schools of the state. He declared that the State Department would soon cease the supervision and now is the time for this body to take action.

The time arriving for the annual election of officers the following were elected: President, Superintendent W. D. Carmichael, of Durham; vice president, Superintendent S. L. Sheep, of Elizabeth City; secretary and treasurer, Superintendent A. T. Allen, of Salisbury.

The following resolution was adopted: Returning thanks to the retiring secretary and treasurer, Prof. C. W. Wilson, of Greenville, for his prompt and business like methods in discharging the duties of his office; to Superintendent F. M. Harper, of Raleigh, for his attention and courtesies and the use of the High School auditorium; to the young ladies of the Domestic Science Department of the High School for the refreshments served, substantial proofs of their skill; to the press for full and accurate reports of the meetings; to the program committee for the excellent program; endorsing the educational policy of State Superintendent Joyner; giving hearty approval to the State Library Association; endorsing the bill for the case of the feeble-minded to be submitted to the legislature.

A resolution was introduced by Prof. John J. Blair of Wilmington commending the bills of Senator A. H. Boyden, and Representative Ashley Hone for a new state building, which was adopted.

County Superintendent Z. V. Judd then spoke of the wisdom of the recommendation of Dr. J. Y. Joyner that the tax rate for schools be increased from 18 to 25 cents by a statutory enactment.

Several members came in yesterday to swell the number already in attendance, among them were:

Superintendents C. R. Spencer, of Mt. Olive; I. C. Griffin, of Cullowhee; L. J. Bell, of Rockingham; J. J. Blair, of Wilmington; J. D. Everett, of Weldon; D. F. Giles, of Marion; Alex. Graham, of Charlotte; W. R. Mills, of Louisburg; J. H. Melver, of Wadesboro; H. B. Smith, of Greenville; G. B. Strickland, of La Grange; S. R. Underwood, of Durham; L. P. Wilson, of Monroe; D. V. Woodley, of Asheboro; R. P. Gentry, of Dunn; Hay Taylor, of Biscoe; H. L. Koonitz, of Ayden; J. C. Crawford, of Morenci; S. G. Lindsay, of Graham; M. B. Dey; of Cary; J. N. Hauss, of Thomasville; J. R. Aiken, of Scotland Neck; Ray Funderbark, of Grifton; Dr. J. H. Highsmith, of Wake Forest and President R. H. Wright, of Greenville.

Fell In Drug Store.

Today about 12 o'clock a man named Lee was standing at the counter in the Tucker Building Pharmacy purchasing some tickets for the show, "Viola Allen" when in some manner he fell, inflicting a slight scalp wound. He was taken by Dr. Freeman out to Rex Hospital, where the wounds were dressed. Several were standing in the drug store at the time and no one seems to know just how he came to fall. He had handed a bill to the clerk and as he turned to get the change, he fell, cutting his head against something.

The wounds are not serious and after having them dressed he remained at the hospital only a few minutes.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c at King-Crowell Drug Co.

Four women who will grace the Colorado House of Representatives at this session. From left to right is Mrs. Ames L. Riddle, representative from Adams, Arapahoe and Elbert counties. Next to her, standing, is Mrs. Louise M. Kerwin and Mrs. Alma V. Lafferty. Seated is Mrs. Louise C. Jones. All three are from Denver. Mrs. Riddle, republican and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Kerwin, democrats, are making their first appearance as legislators. Mrs. Lafferty, who is a democrat, returns for her second term. Party lines will not interfere when the quarter gets into action. They have already outlined a campaign to promote the interests of farmers' wives and children and will also seek legislation to stamp out the grasshopper which destroyed one-half of the hay crop in North Colorado last year.

To amend the act incorporating the city of Greensboro, January 17, 1911. To incorporate Womble's Chapel in Anson county. To allow Hertford county to pay $1,000 to complete Confederate monument. To provide general jurisdiction for the February and August terms of superior court in Moore county. To regulate the fishing with gill nets in Croatan Sound. To provide an additional term of court for Macon county. Resolution inviting the Tuberculosis Convention to use the hall of the house Monday night. (The resolution read "Tuesday night" but upon being notified by Chairman Buck, of the committee on counties, cities, and towns, that the Piedmont county bill had been set for hearing in the hall of the house Tuesday afternoon and night, the resolution was changed to Monday night. Mr. Battle, of Wake, insisted that the Piedmont county matter be deferred to another night. Mr. Doughton said however important the meeting of the doctors was, and it was both important and highly beneficial, the advocates and opponents of Piedmont county had vested rights in the use of the hall, which had been set apart for them two weeks ago. To say that the hundreds of citizens of that section, who had made arrangements to be here then, should have to be made to change those arrangements at this late date, was impossible. At this point it was announced that the physicians appreciated the situation and did not desire to interfere with the appointment heretofore made for Piedmont county. Chairman Buck suggested that the S-S-senate chamber would accommodate the physicians Tuesday night and the incident closed with a hearty laugh.

CANADA SATISFIED. Likes the Proposed Treaty With the United States.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 28—As far as Western Canada is concerned the reciprocity agreement could not please the masses better. It will put millions of dollars into the pockets of the farmers. Every bushel of wheat will be worth 5 to 12 cents more than it has been. Barley will again become a desirable crop. Livestock all around will be worth more than has been and will give a great impetus to mixed farming.

This means increased values to farm lands in the west, where farm lands are much lower proportionately than they are in the east and in the United States. Real estate values in the cities and towns of the west will stiffen because of the improved outlook for the agriculture and indeed this tariff agreement means more for the Canadian west than anyone else.
