SOCIETY

By Miss Susan Iden

JANUS.

Fair morns that have been in the silent years,
Glad days and long with friends who've gone away,
Lone love-lock'd castles moated round with tears,
Rise up before me with this rising day.
Sweet sun that through my humble lattice smiles,
Whose golden magic makes the world anew;
Shall I yield up my sadness to your wiles,
Let go the past and take the opening view?
Yes, and farewell, ye dear seductive wees!
This soul knows nought of doubting or despair;
Lead on, bright vision, till the last day close;
The past was well—the future shall be fair!
O God, thou Wonder-Worker! what high dreams
Hast thou safe garner'd in the vast To Be!
Thou keep'st well the secret of thy schemes;
I guess the meaning of mortality.
Fling open wide, ye golden gates of morn!
New friends, new hopes shall crown this virgin day;
All the dead days are with this day new born;
Death now is dead—the shadows flee away!

A GREAT SUCCESS.

Scenes in Union Depot Played to Packed House Last Night.

It is seldom that a local talent play has attracted such a large audience as witnessed the "Scenes in Union Depot," presented at the Academy of Music last night. The theatre was packed to the doors. It was a most appreciative and good natured audience that greeted the performance with hearty applause and a continual roar of laughter. The cast appreciated the kindly support of the audience and put forth their best efforts to the end that the show was a great success.

The performance was preceded by a short program of specialties that pleased the audience immensely. Miss Emily Ross, Knox rendered a violin solo, there was a vocal solo by Mr. Will Heller and Miss Percy Fleming and a reading by Miss Frances Bennett. Mr. P. D. Gold, Jr., gave some amusing dialect stories of southern drolls that pleased the audience so much that he had to answer to an encore.

Miss Flora Creech, Miss Ellen Durham and Dr. Horton presented a successful little scene at the beginning of the play, a depot scene that fitted in well with the rest of the play.

The characters were practically all comical and it would be hard to say who were the stars of the performance as all played their parts so well, the most pitiless scenes of course meeting with the most favor. The cast was composed of:

Ticket agent, Will Heller, trainmaster, C. V. Albright; Woman at lunchstand, Mrs. Gilbert; Coalman, Boothblack, O. M. Burton; Mrs. Brown, Mrs. A. T. Horton; Johnny Brown, Franklin Sherman; Mrs. Larkin, Miss Pattie Carroll; Mrs. Snyder, Miss Irene Lacy; Miranda Snyder, Miss Fannie Brooks; Uncle John, Dr. C. O. Abernathy; Mr. Jones, T. E. Petty; Mrs. White, Miss Mary Ray; Miss Piper, Miss Loula Riddle; Josiah Potter, Dr. C. O. Abernathy; Nancy Potter, Miss Bell Fleming; Mr. Armstrong, J. C. Allison; Peter; Mr. Hardee; Murphy Ray; Thomas Jefferson, Kenneth Parker; Sarah, Jamie Smith; Sarah, May Ghirkin; Boss, Miss Jane Ray; Dot, Annie Wilson; Trix, Miss Helen Brown; Duke, C. F. Kirkpatrick; Mr. Martindale; G. L. Jones; Mrs. Martindale, Miss Sarah Burkehead; Mrs. Hummer, Mrs. M. C. Brinson; Groom, Mr. Norton; Bride, Miss Belva Huntington; Rosy, Miss Jennie Proctor; Molly, Miss Mildred Hall; Dick, Ben Tongue; Bob, Ivy Riddick; Cassiopea, Mrs. E. W. Barber; Jupiter, Kenneth Smith.

Henderson News.

(Special to The Times.)

Henderson, Jan. 28.—Miss Laura Weddell, the beautiful and gifted young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weddell, of Tarboro, North Carolina, has been honored with the Vassar College scholarship.

We are proud of our North Carolina girls, few equal them in any walk of life, and we hope this fair young girl will continue to reap honors while there.

The Daughters of the Confederacy in general convention assembled, at Little Rock, refused to endorse the monument design selected by the veterans to be erected at the capital of each southern state, to the women of the Confederacy. They claimed the design was not worthy the women of those times, our mothers and grandmothers. A New Orleans woman led the movement.

Henderson Social News.

Henderson, Jan. 28.—The Alma Club, comprising art, literature, music and amusement was beautifully entertained yesterday by Mrs. Andrew Harris at her hospitable home on William street. The president, Miss Leona Curran in the chair. Most of the members were present.

Program as follows:
Paper—Rural Italy—Miss Jessie Harris.
Women and Home Life of Italy—Miss Florence Curran.
The Madonnas in Italian Art—Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, Jr.

Poem—Miss Rebecca Watkins.
It proved an interesting and instructive afternoon. After the meeting-adjourned Mrs. Harris served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting will be February 3 and Miss Agnes Hays will be hostess.

The Woman's Tuesday Club, another literary organization of our city held its last meeting with Mrs. Brooks Parham, on Charles street. The subject under discussion, Peppercorn.

Conclude, the Palace of the French Drama.

The "Theater Club" Mrs. D. Y. Cooper, etc.

Some of the Actors—Mrs. Alderman, Music—Fra Diavolo, Mrs. Wauhill, Mrs. Sidney Perry, Cooper is president of this organization and thought almost a girl in years, she is able and energetic and always interested in anything that is for the good of Henderson.

This literary society was organized by Mrs. Gilmer, a former resident of our town, in 1891 and disbanded in 1902. Mr. Gilmer at that time had charge of the male school here. Mrs. Gilmer frequently visits friends here and enjoys attending the Woman's Tuesday Club.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Kilpatrick, of Wyanoak, N. C., and their children, Mr. Preston, the former and little Miss Ethel (Christmas) have arrived in Henderson to make it their home. Mr. Kilpatrick is the able minister of the second and third Methodist churches here. They will reside on William street. Mr. Kilpatrick has been here sometime and is popular with his church. Mrs. Kilpatrick is a cultivated, refined lady and has already made many friends here. Her son formerly attended the Bingham school at Asheville, but will remain here for the present, as Henderson has a good school system, and will attend college later.

Our town has also recently welcomed

HER FRIEND IN NEED

After Mrs. Graham Was Relieved, She Told the Good News to Her Neighbor.

Willard, Ky.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Effie Graham says: "I was so weak I could hardly go. I suffered nearly every month for three years, and often I would have to lie in bed. I had pains in my side, and would swell up, and my back hurt awfully.

When I began to take Cardui I weighed only 99 pounds. Soon I began to feel a great deal stronger. Not long after I weighed 115 pounds. Now I am doing my work, and am in good health.

Cardui has done wonderful things for me. I feel like a new person. I will always praise Cardui to my friends. I recommended it to a neighbor, and she is now looking fine."

Fifty years of proof has convinced us and those who have tested it of the value of Cardui, in womanly weakness and disease.

The only way you can get the benefit of the genuine Cardui herbs is by getting a bottle of Cardui or your druggist. He does not keep the crude drug, as it is especially imported by the manufacturer. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Rev. W. H. Royal, the new pastor of the First Methodist Church, of Henderson, and his accomplished wife and children.

These gentlemen are not only blessed by members of their own congregation but have made many friends among our citizens of other denominations. Mrs. W. H. Royal, of Wilmington, D. C., and Mrs. Walter Powell, of New York, are guests of Mrs. John D. Ross, of Gardner street.

Mrs. Charles, of New York is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Brooks Parham, on Charles street.

Miss Mollie Dunn left today to visit her friend, Mrs. Lewis Strain, of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. Thad E. Manning, our popular editor of the Good Leaf, is still at the Virginia Hospital, Richmond, Va., but his condition is somewhat improved, and after three weeks' stay there, he is starting homeward to get home. He has been up by a rubber chair twice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Conrade are in Oxford, Mrs. Montgomery, sister of the groom, will entertain in honor of Mrs. Conrade tomorrow evening.

Pierce-Campbell.

The following nuptials have been issued:
"Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their son,
Paul Pierce
to
Miss Fonzato Jackson Pierce
Thursday afternoon, February ninth nineteen hundred and eleven
at three o'clock
704 West Jones street,
Raleigh, N. C."

Mr. Pierce has been for a number of years a popular clerk at Brice's Hardware Store and has many friends who will congratulate him on his good fortune.

OF ARISTOCRATIC FAMILY.

Frederick Manning Who Stabbed Man Refused to Give His Identity.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.)
Kalamazoo, Mich., Jan. 28.—The aristocratic family connections of Frederick Manning, who was sentenced to Jackson prison two days ago for stabbing a man, were revealed today for the first time by the prisoner's sister, who came here from New York. During the trial Manning persistently refused to speak of his family. He is the son of a prominent Methodist minister in Georgia, and a nephew of one of the firm of Lowman Brothers, the biggest stove manufacturers in the south. Manning is heir to a vast fortune, but ran away from home. A sister who came here from New York is said to have offered a sum to the family of the stabbed man if the prosecution were dropped.

ROOSEVELT'S ITINERARY.

Places Where He Will Stop on Trip Through the South.

(By Leased Wire to The Times)
Atlanta, Jan. 28.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who will shortly visit the southern states, has announced his itinerary as follows:
