The appointment of Rev. John H.
Hall will be heard with pleasure as the best appointments. He will move his family into the parsonage here in a few days and will begin his duties by holding quarterly conference at Youngsville on February 4th and 5th. To the Kinston church, left vacant by Dr. Hall the Bishop has appointed Rev. F. S. Love, of Zebulon, the Zebulon church to be supplied by Rev. T. J. Dailey, of Cary, who has no charge. Rev. Mr. Love has served the Kin-ston church before, having filled out the unexpired term of the late Rev. Mr. Swindell, whose death left the church vacant. He is a young preacher and was greatly liked by the Kin-ston people and his appointment is sure to meet with favor. He will be the host of the next North Carolina Conference which meets at Kinston.

Lewis, president, presiding. The association was called to order by Dr. Albert Anderson, of Raleigh and invocation delivered by Rev. George W. Lay, rector of St. Mary's School

Tae address of welcome was delivered by Governor William Walton Kitchin on benalf of the State of North Carolina . He was indeed happy to welcome an organization that such an aim as this, a body of doctors who were fighting for the prevention of one of the worst diseases in the history of man.

The response to the address of welome was delivered by Dr. Charles O'H. Laughinghouse, of Greenville. it was a short but delightful speech on behalf of the visiting members of the North Carolina Association.

North Carolina Sanatorium for the Treatment of Tuberculosis was the subject of a strong and interesting paper read by Dr. J. E. Brooks, of Montrose. It outlined the needs and proper equipment for such an instltution here in our state.

Dr. Albert Anderson then read a paper on "The Economic Importance of Tuberculosis in Life Insurance. He spoke of how particular the insurance companies are in writing policies of any trace whatever of this disease in the family of the proposed policy holder.

"The Sin of Unbelief," was the ubject of a paper read by Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of Greensboro. It was a well prepared paper, forcibly written. Dr. J. W. McGehee, of Reidsville read one of the strongest papers of he-morning session on 'The Home Treatment of Tuberculosis. It was a strong paper and a subject well handled. In (act all the papers were closely listened to, and after the reading of them a general discussion took place by the various members of the association, showing the deep interest taken in these subjects by the doctors . To all these meetings, the general public is not only invited but urged to attend, because matters are being discussed that tend toward the physical uplift of the people.

At Shaw University. The North Carolina Anti-Tuberculosis League for Negroes met at Shaw University this morning, J. B. Dudley, president of the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the Colored Race, presiding, and Dr. W. P. Carter, of Reidsville, acting secre tary. The object of the league was explained by the president to be the dissemination of information necessary for the preservation of health. but principally to encourage the organization of health clubs in every negro church and school in the state.

Dr. W. P. Carter, of Reidsville read a well prepared paper upon Tuberculosis, explaining how communicated and how prevented.

An address was made by Dr. G. A Gerran upon the Segregation of Consumptives at Certain Stages. In the address Dr. Gerran said the league should ask the legislature to assist in providing a sanitarium for negro consumptives. Short talks were made by Drs. Coleman and Capehart, of this city, and also by Rev. A. A. Vincent.

The afternoon session will be held at 3 o'clock, the night session at 8 o'clock, Rev. G. W. Lay and Dr. W. S. Rankin will speak at the night session. The public is urged to at-
