SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root, and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Bennett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

One dollar bottles guaranteed. Henry T. Hicks, and Tucker Building Pharmacy, special agents.

"In Search of a Sinner" a Great Success Wherever Presented. Lillian Russell, the famous beauty, is soon to be seen in The Grand Theatre, where she will offer her latest success, "In Search of a Sinner." It has been cordially received along the Russell tour this year and most critics say that it is the best thing of the kind the fair Lillian has done since she left musical comedy for the more trying characters she is now portraying. Charlotte Thompson made the comedy for Miss Russell and has hit upon a novel idea in working out this unique plot.

BIG WEEK AT THE GRAND

Strong Vaudeville Acts and Then Comes "The Climax"

Some Feature Acts Booked at This Popular House—Annie Abbott, the Georgia Magnet, One of the Features—"The Climax" Plays Matinee and Night Saturday.

Next week is going to be a star week at The Grand, for Aronson and Browne, the managers, have prepared a weeks' bill that will give their patrons one of the best shows in the history of The Grand.

Beginning with Monday's opening, Annie Abbott will be the feature for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Annie Abbott was seen at The Grand some fourteen months ago, and her work is nothing short of marvelous. She accomplishes many unexplainable feats by her magnetic power and her act is indeed a pleasing one.

During these three days Fagg and White, in a comedy singing and talking act, will also be at The Grand. This is a strong pair of comedians and they have an act that is a winner.

For a change of programme Thursday and Friday three strong acts have been booked. Arthur Lee, a dancing star, Goodman, a novelty ventriloquist, and Gladstone and Talmage, in a comedy singing and talking act. Either one of these three acts would be a feature within themselves and this will make a strong show for Thursday and Friday.

Saturday the house will be closed to the vaudeville as Joe Weber's great production, "The Climax," will play a matinee and night engagement. "The Climax" is well remembered in Raleigh and it will be a pleasure to many to witness its return engagement here. Seats will be placed on sale Wednesday morning at The Grand box office for "The Climax," both matinee and night.
