

THE REGISTERED STORE

The prescription department of our store is in charge of thorough experienced and registered druggists. You are particular in selecting your doctor, so you should be in selecting your druggist. Phone for our messenger and let him call for the next prescription.

KING-CROWELL DRUG COMPANY,

The Quality Drug Store.

SOCIETY

By Miss Susan Iden

GOLDEN WEDDINGS.

"Dear love," he said that morning long ago.

"Where life may lead the wisest cannot know.

Or through what changing weather, if I could choose, no cloud should dim the sky.

She smiled, "What matter where the road may lie, so we two walk together?"

"Dear heart," he said when they had journeyed far.

And the calm radiance of the evening star above the shining.

"The road was rough, and life the master taught lessons with bitter wisdom sometimes fraught.

Beyond our hearts' dividing.

"Yet good has sometimes come from seeming ill.

And love unchanging led us safely still through storms and sunny weather.

She smiled, "What matter though the road be rough.

The lessons bitter, this was joy enough. That we have walked together."

Mrs. R. T. Vann has gone to Asheville.

Mrs. W. R. Newsum has gone to Petersburg.

Mrs. J. M. Daulin, of Rocky Mount, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. M. Proctor.

Mrs. J. W. Trull and daughter, Virginia, are visiting Mrs. Charles J. Parker.

Miss Anne Hoge, of Richmond, has arrived in the city to visit Mrs. E. C. Hillyer.

Mrs. Virginia Mallett, of Waynesville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles J. Parker.

Mrs. J. M. Pruden, of Edenton, is the guest of Mrs. F. W. Stronach on Boylan Avenue.

Gen. and Mrs. William Rufin Cox, of Richmond, are guests at the Yarnborough House.

Mrs. J. M. Pruden, of Edenton, is in the city as the guest of Mrs. F. M. Stronach, on Boylan Ave.

Mrs. William S. Baskerville, of Monroe, and Miss Stule Baskerville, of Charlotte, are guests of Miss Rose Maglenn.

Miss Martha Haywood and Mrs. George Snow, returned this evening from Halifax, where they attended the Mumford memorial.

Mrs. W. L. Cunningham and Mrs. Bourne are the guests of Mrs. Fletcher Phillips for a few days before going to Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. J. D. Mann, of Baltimore, is at the home of her father, Mr. A. Dugli, called here by the illness of her brother, Mr. Christian Dugli.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Drewry, Miss Emmie Drewry, and Master John C. Drewry, accompanied by Misses Margaret and Josephine Boylan, have gone to New York.

Miss Louise Wright leaves tomorrow for Goldsboro and Wilmington.

Marriage License.

One marriage license was issued today in the register of deeds' office to Mr. Frank Edward Shaw and Miss Estel Kirkland, both of this county.

With Miss Dee Duncan.

Miss Dee Duncan entertained her card club at her home on Morgan street this morning, the occasion proving to be most enjoyable.

With Miss Katherine Boylan.

Miss Katherine Boylan charmingly entertained her sorority last afternoon at St. Mary's yesterday afternoon. The decorations were in sorority colors.

Kenneth Book Club.

The Kenneth Book Club held a delightful meeting yesterday afternoon with the Misses Johnson on North Peterson street.

The subject of the afternoon was India, entertaining papers being read by Miss Louise Briggs and Miss Eganor Voss.

Tuesday Afternoon Club.

Mrs. D. H. Hill was hostess to the Tuesday afternoon club at her home in West Raleigh yesterday afternoon.

George Ellis recited an interesting subject of kind.

The program is as follows: Sketch of George Ellis, by Her Domestic Life, by Her Literary Life, by Her Religious Life, Miss Mabel Royce.

Her Magarine Work, Mrs. Charles Boylan.

Scenes from "Clerical Life," Mrs. J. S. Whinn.

Reading, Missy Barlow, Mrs. Franklin McNeill.

VALENTINE RECEPTION.

Delightfully Evening Spent With the Philatheas of the Tabernacle.

The Philatheas Club of the Tabernacle Baptist church gave a delightful Valentine reception in the Sunday school room last night, attended by about two hundred and fifty guests.

Nothing was omitted to make the occasion an enjoyable one. The valentine decorations of red hearts and other symbols of the day combined with ferns and palms were most attractive.

Hosting were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Monnier, Superintendent and Mrs. R. B. Broughton, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cooper, Mr. A. H. Moonshine, Miss Maude Boyd, teacher of the class and other hostesses. Miss Carrie Broughton, president; Mrs. E. W. Yates, Miss Nannie Bessant, Mrs. R. T. Hunter, Mrs. P. L. Hollaway, Mrs. W. C. Hollaway.

Miss Rose Goodwin and Miss Elizabeth Lovell, of Meredith college, were invited in no small degree to the pleasure of the evening. Miss Goodwin with a solo and Miss Lovell with a recital.

The reception was given in honor of Superintendent Broughton, it being his birthday and an interesting feature of

A VERY STUBBORN CASE

Mrs. Phillips Describes Her Experience - Unable to Sit Up When Deliverance Arrived.

Indian Valley, Va.—My condition was such," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of this place, "that I was under the treatment of two doctors. They pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up when I commenced to take Cardui. I used it about one week before I discovered much change in my condition.

"The severe pain that had been in my side for years has gone, and I don't suffer at all. Now I am feeling better than I have for years, and therefore I cannot speak too highly of the Cardui treatment."

You may be sure of Cardui will relieve and cure such stubborn cases as Mrs. Phillips'—and it is doing so every day—that it will reach you quickly and certainly help those women who have no serious symptoms, but are just weak and ailing.

Cardui is a medicine of real merit, as a general tonic for women, to improve the appetite, and to build up the constitution.

You can always depend on Cardui, for every bottle contains the ingredients necessary to help you. Fifty years of success attest its merit.

Cardui is the ideal woman's tonic. Try it. For sale at your druggist's.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

The evening was the presentation to him of a beautiful lamp as a token of the cooperation and sympathy with the work of the class. The presentation speech was graciously made by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Monnier. It was accepted by Mr. Broughton with a happy response.

Refreshments of salad, sandwiches, coffee, tea and water were served during the evening.

Music was furnished by an orchestra under the direction of Mr. John Check, stamps set as a strong address.

WITH MRS. ASHBY LAMBERT.

Reception Yesterday Afternoon in Honor of Mrs. R. E. Whitaker.

One of the most charming social events of the week was the reception yesterday afternoon given by Mrs. Ashby Lambert, complimentarily to Mrs. R. E. Whitaker, who has lately come to this city to reside. Mr. Whitaker being agent for a Philadelphia (Central) company. Mrs. Whitaker, who was formerly a resident of Philadelphia, will be a charming addition to this city's social circles.

About two hundred and fifty guests called during the afternoon, and were glad to give their cordial welcome to the city.

Valentine offers endless clever ideas for decorations and these were made full use of by the hosts and the result was among the most beautiful decorations of the season's social events. Southern snuff was used throughout the house, the color scheme being varied in the different rooms.

Cards were provided at the table by Miss Edith Crow and Miss Annie Barwell Crow. Received in the hall were Miss Sallie Clark and Mrs. George Blackhall.

The reception room was most attractive in yellow, jonquille and chrysanthemum being used especially with the lighted candles. In the receiving line were the hosts, Mrs. Lambert and her guest of honor, Mrs. R. E. Whitaker also Mrs. A. E. Escott, Mrs. Grimes, Haywood and Mrs. Thomas Mackay, of Charlotte.

At the end of the reception, Mr. David Elias ushered the guests into the dining room, where they were received by Mrs. James Litchford.

The color scheme in the dining room was of pink. The centerpiece of the table was unique and attractive, suggestive of Valentine, it was a heart of pink sweet peas and similar suspended from the chandelier. The candles and mints and other valentine novelties were all of pink, the same color appearing in the loaves. Refreshments were served by Misses Margie, Maudie, Grizelle Hinton, Jean Thackston and Rebecca Norwood.

The punch room was in red, pinks and red hearts being used. A shower of red hearts fell from the chandelier. They were also used on the punch table, where dispensing punch were Miss Hal Morrison and Mrs. Murray Allen. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Frank Simpson, Miss Katherine Mackay and Miss Sue Thackston. Mrs. G. Lyle Jones received the guests at the punch room door.

During the afternoon an orchestra rendered delightful music and altogether the reception was one of the most successful of the season.

GANTT-ROGERS.

Wedding at Christ Church This Evening at Six O'clock.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Rogers, daughter of Mr. J. Rowan Rogers, of this city and Mr. James Jerome Gantt, of Asheville, N. C., took place at Christ Episcopal church this evening at 6 o'clock the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. Percy Edwards, assistant rector.

The beautiful simplicity and quiet elegance of the church decorations and of the gowns of the bride and her attendants will make the marriage one of the most beautiful and notable of the season. Patrons graciously grouped about the altar and lighted candles are the only decorations in the church.

The wedding music will be rendered by Miss Sallie Duncan.

The groomsmen are Mr. J. B. Robinson, of Norfolk; Mr. Paul Polsson, of Wilmington; Mr. Henry Hartsell, of Asheville; and Mr. Levy Haddock, of Raleigh.

The bridesmaids are Miss Lottie Sherrill, of Asheville, and Miss Minnie Moring, of Raleigh. They gown are of white marquisette over muslin, the bouquets being of white swainsonia.

The maid of honor, Miss Ethel Rogers, sister of the bride will wear white chiffon cloth over satin, carrying yellow festoons.

The bride will be given away by her father, Mr. J. Rowan Rogers. Her gown is a handsome creation of crepe moire with old lace and pearls, with the wedding veil. She will carry a shower of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the wedding there will be a reception at the home of the bride's father. The house is tastefully decorated for the occasion in snuff and pinks and red hearts.

Brides roses are used in the reception room while the punch room is in pink, quantities of pink primroses being used. In the dining room American Beauty roses make a gorgeous decoration banded on the mantel and used effectively in the table centerpieces.

Mrs. L. B. Nowell, of Charlotte, and Mrs. J. R. Sherrill, of Asheville, will receive in the hall.

In the receiving line will be the bride's father, Mr. J. E. Rogers, and his daughter, Miss Nannie Rogers, his son, Mr. Sion C. Rogers and Mrs. Rogers and the bride and groom.

In the punch room will be Miss Edith Poy, Miss Minnie Moring, Miss Lottie Sherrill and Miss Nannie Hay.

Miss Ruby Norris and Miss Fannie Young will be in the punch room.

The bride and groom will leave on the 9:15 Norfolk Southern train for New York. They will be at home in Charleston, S. C., after March 1.

VALENTINE DANCE.

Junior German Club Gave Delightful Dance in Roney Hall Last Night.

The Junior German Club gave a delightful valentine dance in the Roney Library hall last night. There were quite a number of couples dancing. Many attractive and unique features were introduced by Mr. James McKimmon, Mr. W. C. Harris and Mr. Clarence Steadman, of A. & M.

Among those dancing were: Mr. and Mrs. James McKimmon, Mr. G. L. Jones and Mrs. Thomas Mackay, of Charlotte; Mr. J. C. Dorell, Miss Edith Poy; Mr. F. S. Mott, Miss Bessie Traylor; Mr. James M. Purnell, Miss Grizelle Hinton; Mr. Thomas Boushall, Miss Susannah Bushor; Mr. Thomas B. Slade, Miss Mary Pender Gladstone; Mr. J. S. Brown, Miss Lena Swindell; Mr. Willis Holding, Miss Juliet Greer; Mr. George McKimmon, Miss Ethel Rogers; Mr. Jackson, Miss Betsy John Haywood; Dr. Lewis Pegram, Miss Nannie Hay; Mr. Morrison, Miss Mattie Moyer King, of Greenville, N. C.; Mr. Marshall, Miss Mary Habel; Mr. F. D. Polsson, Miss Bettie Russ; Mr. E. Vernon Freeman, Miss Patsy Hinton; Mr. Lewis L. Merritt, Miss Skinner; Mr. J. O. Jackson, Miss Mildred Holding; Mr. Joel E. Brown, Miss Daisy Hayward; Mr. Sam Smith, Miss Alice Woodcott; Mr. H. L. Williamson, Miss Rosalind Williamson; Mr. William Bowen, Miss Katherine Rogers; Mr. Earl Knight, Miss Minnie Moring; Mr. McIver Allen, Miss Emma Swindell; Prof. R. L. Smith, Miss Mary Grimes Cooper; Mr. Pete Harris, Miss Katherine Sherwood; Mr. R. L. Leinster, Miss Mildred Hall; Mr. Jack Bowen, Miss Johnson; Mr. Stage, Messrs Gantt, of Charleston, S. C.; W. B. Aycock, C. A. Steadman, T. H. Woodhouse, B. H. Dewey, of Goldsboro; Chambers Ennis, J. S. McDonald, Dew, of Goldsboro; Charles E. Johnson, Jr., Coburn, W. C. Etheridge, T. H. Mackie, Buck Harris, H. C. Jackson, R. P. Lotone, Dr. L. B. Lockhart, Harvey Hill, W. A. Smith, Robert W. Strange, Wilmington, N. C.; Marshall, R. D. Johnson, Ransom

Sanders, R. W. Parham and Mr. Ganton.

Chaperones: Mrs. James O. Litchford, Mrs. James I. Johnson, Mrs. Nowall, of Charlotte; Mrs. W. N. Holt.

Johnson Pettigrew Chapter.

The Johnson Pettigrew Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy is meeting this afternoon with Mrs. M. T. Norris, on North Blount street. Besides a large number of daughters, Mrs. Norris has as her specially invited guests, Mrs. Jarvis, Mrs. Kitchin, Mrs. Cotton, Mrs. Tyson and Mrs. Blisoly.

Twentieth Century Club.

Mrs. James Briggs entertained the Twentieth Century Club yesterday afternoon at a most delightful meeting. There were a large number of members present.

Mrs. Henry Bagley presented a charming ode to Valentine and gave the history of the day.

Mrs. M. T. Norris read a selection from the "Kentucky Cardinal." Mrs. H. J. Stockard discussed current topics. Wide Awake China was discussed at some length while the German-American friendship was touched upon, other topics of the day being presented most interestingly.

Taylor-Winston.

(Special to The Times.) Oxford, N. C., Feb. 15.—The wedding of Miss Julia P. Winston to Mr. Marion C. Taylor was solemnized at St. Stephens church on North College street, and was witnessed by a large number of friends and acquaintances both from Oxford and elsewhere. St. Stephens church, one of the handsomest buildings in the state, was darkened and made more beautiful with gaudy electric candles and tapers, tastefully arranged amidst the adornment of stately palms, trailing smilax and profusion of carnations and sweetest flowers embraced by the rich green of long leaf pine and choicest evergreens.

The scene at the altar was strikingly beautiful as the bridesmaids and groomsmen grouped gracefully near the altar amid the sweet strains of the wedding music.

The bride, a recognized brunette beauty, never looked handsomer than when she approached the altar accompanied by her father, Mr. Thomas W. Winston, becomingly attired in a suit of garnet cloth head cloth with ornaments of carbuncle set in pearls, to whom it was a bridal present from her great grandfather, and has been worn by brides for four generations in the family.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

The groom awaited at the altar, having entered with his brother, Mr. Lee C. Taylor. Dr. P. H. T. Horsfield pronounced the marriage vows and performed the ceremony in a very impressive way. At the bridal party dress hour, Mrs. J. C. Horner presided at the organ, while Miss Maud Parham rendered a number of beautiful and appropriate selections, among them being "O Perfect Love." The bridal party entered in the following order: Miss Lillie White and Miss Katherine Horner who first approached the altar, followed by Messrs. Kerr Taylor and Leon Marrow, Miss Jennette Gregory and Miss Annie Crews, followed by Mr. Marshall Pinnix and Mr. Walter Crews, Miss Bert Tucker and Augusta (Lamb) then Messrs Eugene and Bert Taylor. The bridesmaids were stylishly dressed in white cologne poplins, and carried shower bouquets of carnations, and wore black gloves and black picture hats. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Winston, of Selma, who wore white broadcloth, white picture hat and white gloves and carried brides roses.

POSTOFFICE REPORT.

Amount of Business Transacted at Postoffice During Year 1910.

The following report of the business transacted at the Raleigh postoffice during the year ending December 31, 1910:

Sale of postage stamps, etc.	112,337.75
Expenses of the office	44,463.48
Net profit	67,874.27
Postal remittances from postoffices	797,654.38
Paid rural carriers by check on assistant treasurer E. S. Baltimore, Md.	1,297,971.22
Number of money orders issued	21,818
Amount of money orders issued	180,985.35
Fees of the above	1,300.10
Number of money orders paid	4,120.48
Amount of money orders paid	233,054.62
Money order funds from other postoffices	1,025,147.74
Total money handled in 1910	3,538,451.16
Number of special delivery packages delivered	10,862
Number of special delivery packages dispatched	8,554
Number of registered packages delivered	31,767
Number of registered packages dispatched	12,064
Number of stamps sold	4,135,456
Number of postal cards sold	349,550
Number of stamped envelopes and wrappers sold	757,750
Population, census of 1910	19,218

One Charter Today.

The Selma Progress Publishing Company, of Selma, Johnston county, is today chartered to publish a newspaper and circulate same in Johnston county or elsewhere, either daily or weekly; to do job work, carry professional cards; to print books and other periodicals and offer same for sale. The authorized capital stock is $5,000 but may begin business when $200 has been subscribed. The stockholders are R. L. Ray, R. M. Nowell, E. G. Richardson, C. W. Richardson and M. M. Smith.

There is a Great Difference in EMBROIDERY

When you examine carefully the texture of the material and the class of work that is on them, then you get at the real value. The showy kind is not always the best. We have some of the grandest made goods that were ever shown here. The prices are exceeding low, 27 inch flouncing at 49c. Bands, Insertions and Edgings from 15c. to 98c. a yard. They are worth double.

Laces

Our showing of Baby Edgings and insertions is certainly dainty. We can show you an awfully pretty line at 5c. a yard.

New Percales and Gingham

Are selling fast for we have the best selection we have ever made

White Goods

Here we are particularly strong. There is nothing that you want that we cannot show you great values in

New Lot of Embroideries and Laces

We are showing some very pretty designs in embroideries from the half inch baby patterns up to the 45 inch flouncings. Two special features are the Vals and Torchons, which have been placed on sale at special prices.

One Lot 3 cents per yard.
One Lot 5 cents per yard.

BETTER SEE THEM

Thos. A. Partin Co.,

131 Fayetteville Street : : : Raleigh, N. C.
Next to the New Masonic Temple.