The commissioners for the central highway will meet here next Thursday. We hope every member of the commission will be present, and that they will bring favorable reports from the 19 counties through which the proposed highway is to run.

The Major will deliver the Memorial Day address in Raleigh on May 19 and for once the capital and capitalists of the Tar Heel state will set their history straight.—Columbia Record.

The Major knows his North Carolina history "straight"; if you can only hold him to it. His Due West speech on the Mecklenburg Declaration shows that he knows the history of the state. In later years the Major has tried to repudiate that speech but he can't do it. It sticks. Seriously, Raleigh is to be congratulated that she is to hear Major Hemphill speak. He is one of the finest gentlemen of the south, and an able and interesting speaker.

Two weeks of the extra session have disclosed a smooth, working democratic machine in the house. Canadian reciprocity is to be realized this week, so far as that branch is concerned. A sizing up of the new alignment of senate and the sifting out of the average sentiment has disclosed within the past two weeks the fact that the Canadian agreement is as good as enacted into law, although a few weeks must elapse before that end is realized. The bill will go to Mr. Taft for his signature unchanged and free from amendment. About 30 senators compose the opposition to reciprocity at the present time. Some of these will, nevertheless, cast their votes for the measure. A certain number will hold out to the end.

In quoting from former speeches of Senator Simmons to show the soundness of his (Kitchin's) position on the reciprocity bill, Representative Claude Kitchin has given the senator something to think about. Ten years ago and even as late as a year ago Senator Simmons said the republican position that a tariff on farm products is of benefit to the farmer was a fallacy. Now the senator opposes the reciprocity bill ostensibly, because by admitting Canadian farm products free of duty it would hurt the farmer. What is the reason for the senator's change of view as regards the tariff? If they would all be as candid as Representative Webb we would know where to place them. Webb says he is opposed to it because it would hurt the pulp wood interest; in his district and he promised that that he would oppose any legislation that would hurt them. We think Mr. Webb did wrong in making any promise of the kind to any special interest, but we admire his courage and honesty in making known his real reason for opposing the reciprocity bill. Let the others be as honest.

WITH THE TIMES.

Mr. S. H. Farrabee has resumed his former position with The Raleigh Daily Times as city editor, succeeding Mr. W. N. Keener, who is now manager of the Apex Journal. Mr. Farrabee was with The Times for several years, leaving here to accept the editorship of the Winston Journal. For the past year he has been with The Record, of Columbia, S. C., resigning there to return to Raleigh.

Mr. Farrabee needs no further introduction to Raleigh, and the readers of The Times. They will all join us in giving him a welcome "back home".

NASHVILLE NEWS.

Several Schools of County Closing.—Dr. E. C. Brooks Spoke at Mount Pleasant.

(Special to The Times.) Nashville, N. C., April 17.—The closing exercises of the Mount Pleasant high school, one of the state's high schools of Nash county, took place Friday. The night before an interesting concert had been given by the school and it was very largely attended by the people of Nash county living on the south side of Tar River. Yesterday the declamation contest was held, and the annual address was delivered by Dr. E. C. Brooks, of Trinity College.

The following young men took part in the declamation contest: Jno. Underwood, "Grandeur in Graves"; Opie Glover, "The Old and New Civilization"; Kader Taylor, "Dante"; Rodney Finch, "Culture the Basis of Brotherhood"; Ralph Strickland, "Mother and Home"; Rex Strickland, "Juda Iscariot"; and Lonnie Bergeron, "Progress, Its Sources and Its Laws." The judges, Rev. B. E. Stanfield, J. W. Parker and Dr. E. C. Brooks, decided in favor of Ralph Strickland, and he was awarded a beautiful watch fob. Throughout the morning exercises there was splendid music.

After Mr. W. B. West, principal of the school, read the honor roll and the names of the prize winners, the speaker of the day, Dr. Brooks, was introduced by the county superintendent of schools, R. E. Ransom. Dr. Brooks made a most excellent address, the large audience present heard him with very much pleasure. He is a most excellent speaker and he made a splendid impression at Mt. Pleasant.

The honor roll for the schools was as follows: Misses Anna Brown, Myra Dew, Ethel Finch, Addie Pearson, Nell Webb, Blanche Westray, and Messrs. Elliott Finch, Rodney Finch, Opie Glover, Millard Morgan, Kader Taylor, Samuel Hicks was given a prize for deportment; Norman Strickland, Ada Griffin, Edna Strickland and Millard Morgan were given prizes for spelling. The music medal was won by Miss Blanche Westray. The scholarship at Trinity College was won by Rodney Finch. Millard Morgan was a close second.

The teachers of Mt. Pleasant school during the past year were Mr. W. B. Best and Misses Emma C. Kilgo, Susie Hayes and Kate Maynard, and an account of the closing exercises of the school would be impossible without some reference to them. No community has ever had four teachers better liked than were these teachers at Mt. Pleasant. They have been leaders in every good cause during the past school session, and they have done much good for the school and the neighborhood.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Nashville was held Friday night for the purpose of nominating town officers for the coming year. The following were nominated: J. H. T. Baker, mayor, and Dr. T. T. Boss and Messrs. D. L. Jones, R. U. Brooks, and G. N. Bissette, commissioners. It is not thought that there will be any opposition ticket.

Quite a deal of excitement was caused in town Thursday night when a little store house on Railroad street caught fire and was burned to the ground.

The Deans school in Cooper township closed last week with a concert. Miss Lucy Plonk, of Kings Mountain, has been the most successful teacher of this school.

The Castalia High School will close April 25th. The speaker will be Governor W. W. Kitchin. The Stanhope High School will close April 28th, and the speaker will be ex-Governor C. B. Aycock. A number of other schools will close the coming week. Among the number is the Dorcheston school. F. S. Sprull, of Rocky Mount, will be the speaker.

In cases of rheumatism relief from pain makes sleep and rest possible. This may be obtained by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

PEOPLE'S INSURANCE ALPHABET.

[During the sessions of the past legislature much interest was aroused among the people of the state on the subject of fire insurance and the control and regulation of the insurance business in the state. The Times has prepared for daily publication "The Peoples' Insurance Alphabet," which we believe and trust will give the people some important facts and information in regard to the insurance business as conducted at the present time in the state of North Carolina. This alphabet has been prepared with great care so as not only to interest, but to inform the people, and if there should at any time appear any statement that is incorrect we shall be very glad to have our readers correct it for us. We intend these articles for the information of the public, and to arouse a still greater interest throughout the state on the subject of insurance, and we trust they will have this effect.]

STANDS FOR NEWSPAPERS.

The greatest power yet discovered for spreading abroad among the people the light of knowledge. They have not been forgotten by the insurance interests. The law requires each company doing business in the state to publish annually a financial statement in some newspaper in the state. It does not say it shall be in the paper which will give the statement the greatest publicity, or in that paper most widely circulated in the territory where the company has the largest number of patrons; nor does it say the insurance Commissioner shall publish it in that paper most likely to inform the public. But it is careful to provide that it shall be published in such paper as the agent of the company may designate. This is a very wise provision—from the insurance Company's standpoint. It gives a splendid opportunity for business sagacity. If the statement is unfavorable to the company it can be published in a remote part of the state in a paper with only a few hundred circulation; if it is favorable to the company it can be published in a paper with thousands of subscribers. So, too, it enables the companies to show their approval or disapproval of the editorial policy of papers. They can favor those who favor the ways of the insurance Trust and they can show disfavor to those who raise a protest. Why did the law leave in the hands of the companies the potent power of patronage if they are not to use it in a business way?

But soon the newspapers, the great guardians of the people's liberties will awake to the fact that there are two sides to this matter, and the great majority of them will be found on the side of the people and against oppression. The above is but one of the many illustrations of the fact that the hand which wrote much of our insurance law was guided by some other motive than the public good.

OXFORD NEWS.

Womans Civic Club Organized—Officers of Building and Loan Association Elected.

(Special to The Times.) Oxford, N. C., April 17.—The Woman's Civic Club of Oxford is the new title of the society formerly known as the Oxford Improvement Society. The change of name was made at the annual meeting held recently in the Commercial Club rooms. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. A. H. Powell; First Vice President, Mrs. C. D. Ray; Second Vice President, Mrs. E. T. Witte; Secretary, Mrs. B. K. Hays; Treasurer, Mrs. M. O. Furman; Auditor, Mrs. Alfred Salls. Chairmen of the following departments were appointed: Library, Mrs. C. D. Ray; Forestry, Mrs. S. H. Cannady; Health, Mrs. T. L. Booth; Household Economics, Mrs. W. B. Ballau; Music, Mrs. Jno. Booth.

Splendid reports were made by the chairmen of each of these departments of the work accomplished during the past year. The president's address was full of encouragement, and pointed out to the club many ways of usefulness for the uplift and betterment of the community another year. The membership was increased from seventeen to eighty-eight since its organization three years ago.

Oxford has at last organized a Building and Loan Association. The following are the officers: President, S. W. Parker; Vice President, W. Z. Mitchell; Secretary and Treasurer, J. B. Powell; Directors, S. W. Parker, W. Z. Mitchell, N. G. Cooper, W. H. Lynt, R. H. Lewis, Jr., B. S. Royster and T. Lanier. The organization started out with about four hundred shares, the authorized stock being $2,000,000.

The business men of Oxford are much interested in the new railroad to be run from Greensboro to Roxboro and thence to some point on the Seaboard. The question is being discussed as to what step ought to be taken to bring the road to Oxford. It is generally agreed that it will never do to let it run across the county and not touch this town.

BERNSTORFF GOING HOME.

German Ambassador Sails for Berlin Tomorrow.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, April 17.—The German ambassador, Count Von Bernstorff, sails for Germany tomorrow. There was considerable gossip in official circles today when the fact was learned. His departure, coincidental with the return of Ambassador Hill, from Berlin, and the resignation of the American ambassador, together with the failure on the part of the two governments to reach a settlement of the potash dispute, revived the rumor last night that a change of post for Count Von Bernstorff might be contemplated.

Last week when the report of his resignation was cable to this country from Berlin—and subsequently denied at the German capital—the ambassador made an emphatic denial of the statement.

The ambassador declared that he was well pleased with Washington and there was no reason why he should desire to leave.

BROUGHT WHOLE MENAGERIE.

Liner President Grant From Hamburg, Brings Collection of Wild Animals.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) New York, April 17.—The classic shades of Hoboken were made joyful today, with shrieks, hoots, roars, howlings, hissing, honking, and twitterings when the liner President Grant slipped into her dock.

From Hamburg where most of the wild animal collecting is removed, the ship brought three camels, two cages of ordinary bears, one cage of lions, one cage of foxes, hundreds of partridges, and thousands of all kinds of birds of all climes, 25 boxes of serpents tangled up in knots like half-boiled spaghetti, eleven cages of swearing, tearing monkeys, all of whom had been sea sick, three cages of assorted beasts of prey; one box of snakes and one "Thomas cat" of rare variety; one cage of pop-eyed frogs and three cages of polar bears with lacero profunda voices.

The animals will be shipped to various parts of the country to animal dealers and collectors.

Bandits in Saloon.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Chicago, April 17.—Samuel Meyers, proprietor of a saloon at 818 Blue Island, was probably fatally wounded and his porter was killed in a desperate battle with three bandits who entered the place for the purpose of robbery today. The bandits were heavily armed and when they met with resistance they opened fire. The robbers made their escape.

American Officer Killed.

(By Cable to The Times.) Manila, April 17.—Lieutenant Walter H. Rodney, of the second United States cavalry, is dead from wounds inflicted by an insane Filipino who ran amuck yesterday, inflicting wounds with a bolo upon the American officer which proved fatal.

Burglars Loot Railroad Station.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 17.—Burglars looted the station of the Central of New England Railroad at Hopewell Junction, near here, early today, dynamiting the safe, rifling mail pouches and express packages and getting away with several thousand dollars.

Will Not Sail.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, April 17.—Baron Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, to the United States, today officially denied the statement given out in Washington that he would sail for Germany tomorrow. He stated that he was merely going to New York to bid farewell to his wife, who will sail.

BEST WAY TO STOP.

Could Stop Japanese War Talk by Giving Philippines Freedom.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Washington, April 17.—"The best way for the United States to stop discussion of the probability of war with Japan is to grant immediate independence to the Philippines, the weak spot in Uncle Sam's military strength," said Manuel L. Queson, resident commissioner of the Philippines to the United States when asked about the constantly recurring Japanese war rumors today.

"All naval authorities agree that the United States could not hold the Philippines against Japan. Tens of millions of dollars of expenditures would be necessary to make the Philippines safe from Japanese invasion."

"The simplest way for Uncle Sam to put a quietus to war talk is to give the Philippines a neutralized republic."

Escaped From Prison Ward.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Hoboken, N. J., April 17.—During death at every move Harry Egan, 22 years old, escaped from the prison ward of St. Mary's Hospital today by climbing through a small window on the top floor, crawling 75 feet along a coping a foot and a half wide and then letting himself down a shabby rain pipe, hand over hand. He was recently released by the prison school at Jamesburg on probation. He violated his parole and was re-arrested. Then he feigned epilepsy and was sent to the hospital.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Wiloughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery, "I have been using it for some time," she wrote "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by King-Crowell Drug Company.

Commencement At Clayton.

(Special to The Times.) Clayton, N. C., April 17.—A play entitled "Tomkins Hired Man" will be given by students of the eighth and ninth grades of the Clayton graded school on Easter Monday night at 8:20 p. m. Much interest is being taken in this play. Commencement exercises will be given by the school, beginning on Thursday night at 8:30. The address will be delivered on Friday night, April 2, at 8:30 o'clock by Hon. N. Y. Gulley, of the Wake Forest law school.

A Warning—to feel tired before exertion is not laziness—it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla today.

Charles W. Goodyear Dead.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 17.—Attorney Charles W. Goodyear, head of vast enterprises in lumber, railroading, iron, steel and coal, is dead at his home. He was conspicuous from the successive campaigns which resulted in making Grover Cleveland mayor, governor and president.

"Our baby cried for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Rasaca, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all dealers.

FELL 100 FEET.

Aeroplane Tumbles to the Ground—Two Men Hurt.

(By Leased Wire to The Times.) Mineola, L. I., April 17.—William Hilliard, a well known aviator, and Leo Stevens, an aeronaut of international prominence, were injured today when a biplane in which they were flying from Mineola, bound for Montauk Point, fell 100 feet near Motor Parkway and New Bridge road. The men were penned under the wreckage of the machine for sometime before they were rescued by H. Percy Shearman, president of the Williams College Aero Club, and several others.

Hilliard was found under the elevating runner and Stevens was under the engine. Both men said that the engine had stopped and they were unable to glide to the ground owing to their low altitude.
