Barbecue at Fair Grounds at 1 O'clock in the Afternoon-Mayor special feature. Johnson to Welcome Boys-Officers to be Chosen.

Mr. Burrell H. Marsh, of Winston Salem, chairman of the press committee of the North Carolina division of the Travelers' Protective Association, has given out the following with regard to the meeting of eleven posts in this city on Friday: "Delegates from eleven posts in he state will attend the annual convention of North Carolina division. Travelers' Protective Association of America, at Raleigh on Friday of this week, and headquarters will be at the Raleigh, formerly the Park, Ho-

"Mayor-elect Jas. I. Johnson will welcome the delegates in behalf of the city, and the response will be made by Mr. Charles F. Tomlinson, national director, of High Point.

"Convention will be called to order at 10:30 a.m. The Raleigh Post has arranged a barbecue which will be served at 1 p. m. at the fair grounds, and the preparations have been made for 150 plates.

"Important matters pertaining to the travelling men under the head of railroad mileage, hotels, etc., will be thoroughy discussed.

"The North Carolina division of the T. P. A. has a large membership in the state, over 800, which will entitle a representation of eleven delegates to be sent to the national convention, which meets in the city of Philadelphia the week of June 12.

"Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at Raleigh, and Mr. Walter S. Dorr of this city, has been spoken of very highy as a logical man along with Mr. Eugene W. Mc-Nairy, of Greensboro.

"Greensboro is anxious for the next state convention. Mount Airy would also like to entertain the T Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev. Miller started a series of sermons on 'The Plan of the Ages." The series promises to be highly interesting and instructive. He will preach every day at 3 o'clock. All who are interested in a better life are invited to hear all the sermons in the series. The people are requested to attend the meetings and pray for the revival. Any who desire prayer or special conference with the workers are requested to report to the pastor, who will arrange for the workers to see and speak to any who are interested.

MR. WIGGS TAKES CHARGE.

A t Machinery of Wake County Turned Over to Road Supervisor.

Road Supervisor W. L. Wiggs met with Commissioner B. L. Frankin and County Attorney B. C. Beckwith in the court house today and went over the inventory of county property with Mr. W. E. Stinson, former supervisor, for the purpose of taking complete charge of all macainery of the county. Mr. Stinson was retained by the board of commissioners until Mr. Wiggs could become acquainted with the various roads and other affairs. The supervisor assumed full charge today.

Funeral of Mrs. Willoughby. From the residence, corner Jones and West streets, was held this morning the funeral of Mrs. Henrietta Matida Willoughby, wife of Mr. J. W. Willoughby. Dr. T. W. O'Kelly, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by Rev. H. M. North, pastor of Edenton Street Methodist church, conducted the services. Interment followed in Oakwood cemetery. Mrs. Willoughby, who was a member of the First Baptist church, was seventy years old and was a splendid type of Christian woman.ood. With her at the time of her death were her wood, of Raleigh.
