THIS YEAR'S BATHING SUIT HAS A KNOTTED TOP.
 This swimming jersey is all the fashion now and very comfortable as well as trim and attractive is the clinging yet roomy knitted garment. The jersey is worn over a skirt of satin or mohair made in the ordinary manner and beneath the skirt are knitted tights which come to the knee. This suit has a skirt of blue mohair trimmed with Persian printed silk in shades of red and blue and there is a Persian silk sailor collar with knotted tie which turns back over the top of the blue jersey.

THE VOYAGE.
 I'm sailing on, I'm sailing on,
 For better or for worse;
 The whirling world is my good ship,
 The sea's the universe.
 Tomorrow lies before,
 Pierce tempest along the way,
 But golden is the shore!
 I'm sailing on, I'm sailing on,
 From infancy to age,
 And toll's the cargo that I bring
 To win my heritage.
 The waves of trouble buffet me,
 The seas of sorrow roll,
 Yet no disheartenment shall be
 To keep me from the goal.
 I'm sailing on, I'm sailing on,
 Through mist, and storm, and rain,
 Fair skies and cloudy alternate
 In days of joy and pain.

Where lies the port toward which I sail
 I know not, near or far,
 Yet of its winning I'll not fail,
 For Love's by guiding star!

Underwood-Pemberton.
 The following invitations have been received by friends in the city:
 Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Pemberton invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Caroline Gibbons to Mr. George Badger Underwood on Wednesday, the fourteenth of June nineteen hundred and eleven at high noon Saint John's church Fayetteville, North Carolina.

An Enjoyable Feast.
 (Special to The Times)
 Wakefield, June 2—Last evening the young people of the Baraca and Pathos classes of the Zion Lutheran church drove out about four miles to K. W. Phillips' mill pond and there under the stately old oaks of Mr. Phillips' lawn they thoroughly enjoyed a supper that had been prepared for the occasion.

Among the good things to eat was the lord of all good picnic dishes—old time barbecue. After supper was over the crowd was loathe to bid farewell to this place of beauty. The inviting coolness of the lawn that sloped to the waters edge, the smooth surface of the pond where silver moonbeams vied each other in majestic playfulness; the hearty laughter of groups out rowing, these would stay the hurry of most young people. But the time came when all must take their leave and so they none the less enjoyed their moonlight hayride back home.

SMITH-SILLS.
 (Special to The Times)
 Nashville, June 2—Many friends in this section of the state will be interested to know that invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Pattie Smith and Mr. James Nicholson Sills, both of this place. The marriage will take place at the Methodist church on the morning of June 14th. Miss Smith is the daughter of Mrs. R. A. Smith, and is prominently connected throughout the county. She is an attractive young woman, and a social favorite at Nashville. Mr. Sills is the son of Clerk of Court T. A. Sills, and is himself Deputy Clerk. There is not a more popular young man in Nashville.

JENKINS-SNYDER.
 (Special to The Times)
 Nashville, June 2—A pretty home wedding took place near here Wednesday when Miss Urdine Jenkins became the bride of Mr. John Alexander Snyder. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jenkins, and was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends of the young people. Little Miss Lela Boldie, of Nashville, was the ring bearer, and carried the ring on a magnolia. The bride was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of tan, with hat and gloves to match. The ring ceremony of the Episcopal church was used, the words being spoken by the Rev. R. B. Owens, of Rocky Mount, and the pastor of the two young people. Directly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Snyder drove to Rocky Mount, where they will spend some days. On their return they will be at home at Mr. Snyder's farm some miles from Nashville.

The bride, Mrs. Snyder, is a beautiful and attractive young woman, and being possessed of a sunny, likeable disposition, her friends are numbered only by the number of her acquaintances. She attended the State Normal at Greensboro, and for a number of years has been one of the most popular of the teachers of Nash county; she will be missed in school circles. Mr. Snyder is a native of north, but has been south for a number of years. He lived in Rocky Mount for some years, and last year purchased a farm near Nashville, and is now among the prominent young farmers of the country—a young man who mixes brain with soil, and makes a success of farming. Both the young people have hundreds of friends in this section of the state, who wish them every happiness.

BARNES-SHAW.
 (Special to The Times)
 Washington, N. C., June 2—A very beautiful and impressive spring wedding was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church of this city yesterday morning when Miss Hannah Bonner Shaw became the bride of Mr. R. A. G. Barnes, of this city. The interior of the church was beautifully decorated in evergreens, lilies of the valley, and spring flowers and presented a very pretty and pleasing effect. Long before the appointed hour, seven-thirty o'clock, the church was filled with friends and acquaintances, all eager to witness the joining of two young

A very attractive musical program was rendered by Mrs. Frank C. Kugler a the organ, previous to the entrance of the bridal party. The guests of honor, Misses Cella Balfourman, May Styron, Ella Mallison, Annie Cox, Jennie Cox, Lottie Bonner, Minta Bonner, Janie Roberts and Mrs. Paul Sparrow entered and were shown seats of honor reserved for them. Then to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party entered as follows: First the ushers, Mr. H. H. MacLean and L. Y. Shaw, who passed up the aisles, assuming their respective places near the pulpit. Following then were the bridesmaids, Misses Mary E. Thomas and Helen Shaw, wearing white, batiste dresses, with white hats and gloves and carrying pink sweet peas. The dame of honor, Mrs. Charles Lawrence, entered alone. She wore a creation of white embroidered marquisette with black hat and gloves and carried pink sweet peas. The bride entered leaning on the arm of her maid of honor and sister, Miss Mary Shaw. She was handsomely gowned in a dark blue suit with hat and gloves to match, and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas. Her maid of honor wore white batiste with white hat and gloves and carried white sweet peas. Arriving at the altar the bride was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. E. W. Cox, and together they stood before Rev. H. B. Searlight and took the solemn vows making them man and wife. During the ceremony the soft strains of Schubert's serenade was played by Mrs. Kugler. Immediately after the ceremony and to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and the merry peal of wedding bells the bridal party left the church and went to the A. C. L. depot leaving on the morning train for a wedding tour north. The bride is one of Washington's most charming and attractive young ladies and has hosts of friends here. The groom is the soliciting freight agent of the A. C. L. well known and liked by all in this city. Many handsome presents were received by the happy couple attesting the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

The out of town guests at the wedding were: Messrs. W. S. Godwin, of Goldsboro, E. B. Barnes, of Rocky Mt., H. H. McClean, of Farmville, G. G. Bonner, Misses Lottie and Minta Bonner of Aurora; Mrs. Paul Sparrow, of Aurora and Mrs. Charles Lawrence of Scotland Neck, N. C.
