Sensational A. and M. Pitcher Not With Detroit

Flattering Offer Made by Tigers Not Accepted—Fine Work With Elizabeth City—Some Well-known Boys in Faster Company—Story About Cobb

Mr. Dave Robertson, who pitched such sensational ball for the A. & M. College team last spring, and who has been more than equaling his college record with the Elizabeth City team in the Tidewater League, has not signed with the Detroit Tigers, reports to the contrary notwithstanding. Mr. Robertson called Mr. R. H. Merritt, graduate manager of athletics, over the long distance last evening and informed him that he had not accepted the offer made by the Tigers. Mr. Robertson said that the offer was a flattering one and that it was hard to resist, but indicated that he would not take any action this week. He will decide the matter early next week.

Mr. Tal Stafford, another A. & M. pitcher, and a Raleigh boy, is also playing the game for Elizabeth City. These boys have pulled the Carolina team from next to last place to first position and have won every game except one. They have proved sensations at Elizabeth City.

Mr. Bill Lindsay, a Madison boy, who played short for Guilford College several years ago, and later played with Winston-Salem, going from there to Memphis, and then to New Orleans, has made his debut in major league society. Those who know Bill are confident that he will make good. There is not a better in-fielder in the country, and if he can bat well he will win a place with the Naps.

Clarence Walker, whose two seasons with Spartanburg proved his right to essay to higher company, continues to play field with the Washington Americans. "Pink," as he is called, has been swatting the ball to all corners of the lot, and seems destined to hold his own in real society.

Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the greatest baseball player who ever donned uniform, has decided to be an actor-man and this winter will take the leading part in "College Widow," revised enough to give Ty prominence without making too great demand on his histrionic talents. A lot of folks think baseball players should stick to the game, but if any of them are entitled to a little showing-off for the money there is in it, the Detroit marvel is the man. The mighty Hans Wagner, Tris Speaker, Joe Jackson, Napoleon Lajoie, Hal Chase, and any others you might name, are as minors compared to the all-round playing of the Georgia boy. He is in a class to himself.

Speaking of Cobb, it is interesting to recall that several years ago after an afternoon paper in Atlanta received a special from a little Georgia town informing the waiting world that Ty Cobb was practicing up to join the big leagues. That message came about 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon and the correspondent who sent it got called down. In three years, however, Tyrus was leading the American league in batting and had become the sensation of the year. His work with Augusta was of the sort that assured him quick promotion.

Ty Cobb to Be Actor.

Detroit, June 22—Vaughn Glaser, a well-known stock actor and manager, is planning to star Ty Cobb next winter, and probably will put him out in George Ade's "College Widow," revamped to give Cobb a part that will give him prominence without making too great demand on him as a baseball player. Glaser has been a personal friend of the player for years, and has had several talks with him about the project.

NO TROUBLE BREWING IN SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE.

Anniston, Ala., June 22—A special from Gadsden says President Bailey, of the Gadsden club, has made emphatic denial of the report sent out to the effect that he will prefer charges against the Anniston club of the Southeastern League at a meeting to be held in that city subject to the call of President O'Neill.

President Bailey expresses the utmost friendliness for this city, where, he says, the Gadsden players have always been treated with the utmost consideration.

BOSTON RED SOX PLAN TO TRY OUT YOUNGSTERS.

Boston, Mass., June 22—Tracy Baker, the young college player from the University of Washington, will be given a chance to show what he can do at the first base corner with the Red Sox team this week.

Another new infielder will also report tomorrow, Ed Donahue, who has starred as a member of the Manhattan College team, of New York, during the present season.

TWO CLUBS DROPPED FROM THE CONNECTICUT.

Hartford, Conn., June 22—The directors of the Connecticut Baseball League have dropped the Northampton and Holyoke teams from the league, and the season will be finished with six teams. The two teams were hopelessly in debt. Players on the teams have been declared free agents.

Lindsay Likes the Big Cities.

Washington, June 22—Bill Lindsay, of the Naps, is enjoying his trip around the eastern circuit very much. It is his first opportunity to look over the big towns in the sunrise section of the league and he is looking them over all right. He is a young man who believes that there is no such thing as too much knowledge of general information. So it is that instead of getting up at 11 o'clock and sitting idly about the hotel until game time Bill is up at early breakfast time and after his toast, eggs and coffee, starts out on a long hike to see the sights.

Chances are Lindsay, right now could tell you more about the wonders of New York, Washington and Boston than could certain ball players on certain teams who have been coming here for the past 10 years. And they do say that Lindsay can play ball too. He hasn't had a chance to show Manager Stovall yet.

Whipped Clerk; Manager Held.

Washington, June 22—Roger P. Bresnahan, manager of the St. Louis National league baseball club, and Joseph C. Wheatley, night clerk at the Buckingham hotel, St. Louis, were arrested yesterday for staging an impromptu battle, according to the police, in the lobby of the big west end hotel. Bresnahan, with his wife, resides at the Buckingham, and, according to the police, tried to mop up the floor of the lobby with Wheatley at 1 a. m. Friday when the clerk "talked back" after Bresnahan had registered a protest against practical jokers being allowed to call him on the telephone at unseasonable hours of the early morning. The police say the two men were arrested and taken to the station house, where they shook hands and Wheatley said he would not prosecute. They were then released.

With the Ball Tossers

James Murphy, brother of President Murphy, of the Chicago club, is scouting in the southern states for "future greats." A left-handed pitcher is the object Scout Murphy has in view.

President Lynch on June 1 inflicted a $25 fine upon Manager Dahlen, of Brooklyn, for delaying the New York-Brooklyn game on the morning of Memorial day.

Pitcher Charles A. Pickett, who was returned to the St. Louis club, by Minnesota, has now been suspended by the former club for failure to keep in condition.

During the lay-off of Shortstop Herzog, of Boston, with a sprained leg, Jack Spratt, the peppery Virginia college boy, subbed most effectively in the position.

President Murphy, of the Chicago club, is taking a popular vote on the question whether to retain the opening time for games at 8:00 o'clock or to advance it to 2:30.

Ellis Ferguson, farmer, father of Cecil Ferguson, Boston club pitcher, was kicked over the heart by a horse on June 6 and will die. His home is at Terra Haute, Ind.

It required some time for the Pittsburgh management to learn that the club possessed a star catcher in Young Simon, who has embraced his first chance by making good with a vengeance.

The spirit of the St. Louis Cardinals is one of the surprises of the present baseball season. Roger Bresnahan, when he started the season, had a team which no one figured could do more than have a fight for last place.

President Murphy, of the Cubs, last week announced the purchase of Pitcher Ernie Ovitiz, last year with Peoria, O'vitiz, formerly a northwest-ern star, belongs to Topeka, of the Western League, but has been playing with the semi-pro teams all spring while winding up his studies.

The Brooklyn club has sent Third Baseman McElveen to the Montgomery club, of the Southern League, for Outfielder Daley, who is to report to Manager Dahlen in September.

With one of two exceptions all of McGraw's youngsters are doing right well wherever he placed them. A McGraw recommendation carries a young player a long way, and Terrence, Ernie Lush, Fulleton, Porsythe and the rest seem to be living up to his boasts with their present managers.

MRS. TAFT THANKS SENATORS.

Acknowledges Receipt of Silver Tea Service Given by Them.

Washington, D. C., June 22—A letter of thanks was read in the senate yesterday from Mrs. Taft in acknowledgement of the silver wedding present sent by senators. The letter addressed to Vice President Sherman, follows:

"The beautiful silver service which the members of the senate have so kindly sent us in remembrance of our twenty-fifth anniversary has just arrived, and I hasten to express to you and through you to the senators our deep appreciation of their courtesy.

"In conveying our sincere thanks will you kindly add that we shall value the exquisite gift more especially as a souvenir of the kindness and courtesy of the distinguished body of men from whom it comes.

"In sending our cordial thanks, believe me, with kind regards, from the president and myself.

"Very sincerely yours,
"HELEN H. TAFT."

Delayed telegrams and cable messages to the president and Mrs. Taft expressing congratulations on the anniversary of their silver wedding, which was celebrated Monday night, continued to reach the white house yesterday.

Fully 1,000 telegrams were received from Jewish cities, dignitaries of the Catholic church, religious conventions, military organizations, and many public men. Congratulations from Governor Dix and Mayor Gaynor, of New York; John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Governor Ashborn of Michigan; James J. Hill, and many others were in the number.

Saved His Wife's Life.

"My wife would have been in her grave today," writes O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." BRIDE SUES FOR HUSBAND.

Charges Rich Father and Pastor Are Keeping Him From Her.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 22—Alleging that her husband, David A. McKee, is being illegally detained by his father, Sam B. McKee, the biggest retail grocer in this city, and the Rev. J. H. Littell, pastor of the fashionable Second United Presbyterian church, Mrs. Eva V. McKee this morning filed a petition before Judge H. C. Hervey, of the circuit court, asking for a writ of habeas corpus directing that the younger McKee be produced.

The woman in her petition alleges that the couple were married May 30, and that when they went to visit the home of her father-in-law, her husband was admitted and that is the last she has seen of him. She says that the Rev. Mr. Littell forcibly ejected her from the premises and told her that her husband did not want anything whatever to do with her.

She formerly conducted a beauty parlor in Pittsburg, Pa., and was once divorced. She is ten years older than her latest husband.

SHOOTS SELF AS GIRL PLAYS.

Musician, Fearing Blindness, Fires Three Shots Into His Brain.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 22—Asking his blind daughter to play a selection from "The Traveller" on the violin, Bernardo Canterino, aged 50, a musician, today attempted to end his life by firing three shots into his brain. He is now dying. Canterino, who has written many compositions, has for months entertained the fear that he was going blind like his 20-year-old daughter, Mary.

Several days ago he quarreled with his wife and she left him. Today he became despondent, and remarking that he felt that he was rapidly losing his sight, he loaded a revolver. Then he asked his blind daughter to play a favorite piece, and as she
