

YOU CAN'T OUT YOURSELF With The ANTICOR SAFETY CORN AND CALLOUS REMOVER. It gives instant relief; it takes your corns and callous away in a minute, and keeps them away forever. Get one now, and use it when you get home. ONLY $1.00. MONEY BACK IF YOU WANT IT. KING-CROWELL DRUG COMPANY, THE QUALITY DRUG STORE.

SOCIETY By Miss Susan Iden

A PICTURE HAT IN TRUE MIDSUMMER STYLE. This charming hat is made of rose pink straw braid covered with frills of plumed lace which fall over the brim in belle fashion, making a pretty shade over the face. Around the crown—which it will be noted is rather high—is a wreath of pink roses and green leaves. Hats of this sort are delightful with light summer frocks of a linear character, and the graceful fichu, of fine batiste and lace, or of platted net completes the picturesque effect.

THE HEART OF A FRIEND. A heart that is glad when your heart is gay. And true in the time of care; That halves the trials of a fretful day. And doubtless the joys that it shares, A heart that can cheer your heart with its song. And comfort your hour of need; A heart that is brave and faithful and strong. Wherever misfortune may lead. A heart that will hear no ill of you. But is ever quick to defend. A heart that is always true, stood true— Such is the heart of a friend. —Exchange— Mrs. C. D. Orrell has gone to Monocure. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Griffin and children have gone to High Point. Mrs. W. A. Mechem, of Portsmouth, is visiting Mrs. J. H. Meacham. Mrs. Kate Phillips and daughter, Miss Katherine, of Rocky Mount, are visiting Mrs. J. P. Arrington. Mrs. W. S. Noxlin, of Lakewood, N. J., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Sallie Underwood on Oakwood avenue. Mr. W. H. Hervey has returned from a ten day's visit to Morehead city. Mrs. Hervey and son, Charles, will remain for the season. Mr. Hervey reports fishing fine.

MILLINERY Graceful Garnitures of Flowers and Sheer Lace on Large Picturesque Hats. SPECIAL DESIGNS IN SMALL HATS. Mrs. Frank Redford, 13 West Hargett. Phone 632.

Mrs. John M. Womble and little daughter, Miss Elizabeth, have gone to Goldston to visit Mrs. Womble's sister. Misses Ethel and Marcellite Lyon have returned from Littleton where they attended the McCord-Williams wedding. Mrs. J. S. Handaway and little daughter, Anna, of Newnan, Ga., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hunter. Capt. C. G. Hall, of the 5th U. S. Cavalry, is visiting his uncle, C. G. Whiting. Mr. Hall is accompanied by his wife, son and little daughter. St. Luke's Circle. The St. Luke's Circle of Kings Daughters will meet with Mrs. John E. Ray tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. Miss Evelyn Jackson Honored. About sixty guests enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Edith Pau last evening when she entertained at progressive hearts in honor of her guest, Miss Evelyn Jackson, of Richmond. The prizes were won by Miss Julia West and Mr. Ivey Haddock. The guests were from the younger social set of the city and the affair was among the most delightful of the summer months. Beautiful music was furnished during the evening by an orchestra. The lawn, decorated with Japanese lanterns was most inviting, refreshments being served here. Musicals Tomorrow Night. The musical and lawn party to be given Friday evening by the Junior League and other young people of Edenton street Methodist church, is to put screens in the dining room and kitchen of the Methodist Orphanage. The basement of the auditorium of the new Sunday school building is delightfully cool and the best talent will render the musical, which will be followed by an indoor lawn party. The hour for the children is from six till seven. A silver offering at the door. Program. Flowers Awake, Warner, Miss Ruth Hughes. When Love is Gone, Hawley. The Mission of a Rose, Cowen. Sunshine, Cary Jacobs Bond, Miss Ellen Durham. Violin duet, Miss Frances Johnson and Mr. Kimbrough Jones. Reading, Miss Redford. Scapistic Ode (Sappho Ode)—Irahms. Stars To (without them) Harlebot, Miss Julia R. Culbreth. Coolan here—Franco Leonie. All Through the Night—Miss Lucille Anderson. Solo—Holy City, Mr. Cooley. Violin Solo—Miss Helen Whitaker. Solo—Selected, Miss Annie Lee Wynne. Solo—Selected, Miss Proctor. Shaw-Roberts. (Special to The Times). Washington, N. C. June 22—Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Roberts of this city announce the marriage of their daughter Janie Deborah to Mr. Lyndon Young Shaw, on the morning of June 22, at seven-thirty o'clock, First Methodist church Washington, N. C. Credle-Swindell. (Special to The Times). Washington, N. C. June 22—At the home of Mrs. Sallie Swindell, about ten miles from this city a very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning when Mr. Clement Credle of Swan Quarter has happily married to Miss Mary Swindell, of Mauls Point. The ceremony was pronounced by Rec. C. R. Canip, of the Methodist church at Aurora in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Miss Edith Simmons was maid of honor and Mr. H. M. Jacobs, of Oriental was best man. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. H. A. Swindell. Little Misses Ruby Swindell and Edna Swindell were flower girls. The bride wore a handsome going away gown of tan with hat and gloves to match and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. Immediately after the wedding the bride and groom came to this city by boat and left on the Norfolk-Southern train for Charlottesville, Va., where they will spend the summer. Linen Shower for Bride-elect. (Special to The Times). Siler City, June 22—On Tuesday afternoon from five till seven o'clock Mrs. De L. Boster entertained a number of friends at her hospitable home, complimentary to Miss Clara Irene Lambie, who on June 27th becomes the bride of Rev. Eli Baxter Craven, the occasion being a "linen shower." The guests were received by Mesdames Fred W. Hadley and W. A. Headen and ushered into the north parlor at which place they were received by the hostess and presented to the bride-to-be, Miss Clara Irene Lambie. The contest which followed was indeed unique, and was most charmingly conducted by Mrs. J. Allen Morgan. Each guest was given a heart-shaped card upon which appeared the names of the eligible "marriageable" men of the town, each guest being required to draw a profile of the man named on her card, on the backboard. The prize was awarded to Miss Katherine Vestal, who in well chosen and appropriate words presented the same to the guest of honor. After this contest the bride-to-be, Miss Lambie, was blind-folded and placed in the center of the room, where upon numerous packages of handsome linen, tied with pink satin, was showered upon her. The guests then repaired to the dining room, which was tastefully decorated, the color scheme being pink and white, and amid much merriment and the race to ascertain who would be the next bride. The ring was cast by Miss Elma Jordan, whereupon she was declared to be the next bride; the second being Miss Mary Moore Dorsette. Delightful refreshments were served. As the guests passed through the hall they were served with punch. The punch having been graciously provided over by the Mrs. Paul H. Eskime. With appropriate toast drunk to the happiness of the bride the guests made their departure. Newton-Garrard Wedding. (Special to The Times). Durham, June 22—The marriage last night of Miss Myrtle Newton and Mr. Vernie Clifton Garrard, both of this city, was attended by an overwhelmingly large crowd of deeply interested people. The ceremony was performed at nine o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Newton, and Rev. R. C. Craven officiated. Before the wedding hour the neighbors had filled the house and when it began there was no possible way for another to see the couple as they stood for the admittance of the minister. Preceding the ceremony Miss Ruby Elliott rendered "Melody in F Minor" by Anton Rubenstein, and as the pianist began playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the couple entered the parlor unattended. The room was gorgeously decorated in evergreens and the chandelier giving the light by which the room was so handsomely set off, was entwined with ivy, great palms and ferns were set at all portions of the room, the yellow and green daisies and ferns being in evidence in all of the rooms. The bride was dressed in simple and beautiful white and carried bride's roses. The ring ceremony was used and immediately after the vows were said, during which time Miss Elliott was playing "Flower Song," the couple stood and received congratulations. Following this they drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Perry, where they will temporarily reside. They received many lovely presents, especially in glass, china and silver. The gift room was well-filled with them. The bride among her best friends has reached a state of admiration that amount almost to idolization. "Never a finer girl lived," was a popular way of saying it last night and the sentiment was taken up and many times echoed. She is not limited to being known the city over. She is the daughter of a well-known tobacconist of the city. No fortune can be too good for her. Mr. Garrard has lived nearly all of his life in Durham county and has spent several years in the city. He is in the government service and before the moving of the export business of the American Tobacco Company to Petersburg, Va., was with the company in the revenue service. He went to Raleigh a short time and returned to Durham. He is the son of the late Samuel Garrard and a young man of tried character. He has had no day so lucky as his wedding day. WITH THE NATURE FAKERS. Drunkard Cat Starts Life Anew and Snake Eats China Egg. Prince Bismarck is on the "water wagon." He has left New York in an express car for Helena, Mont., where he is to make his future home. He occupies a basket consigned to Gov. Edwin Norris. Homeless, half starved, and a slave to drink, Prince Bismarck was rescued on the east side three years ago by a wealthy woman, who carried him to the Waldorf-Astoria. For more than two years the big black cat of unknown lineage lived on the fat of the land. Longing for the old life in the Bowery, Prince Bismarck yielded to the temptation last February, when he found a broken bottle of French wine of the vintage of 1853 in the wine cellar of the Waldorf-Astoria. He imbibed too freely, and his spree continued for ten days. In this condition he was expelled to the roof garden, and on Sunday, March 5 last, he leaped from the roof. His attempt at suicide, however, was a failure, Prince Bismarck, repentant, was taken back to the basement of the hotel. Touched by the story of Prince Bismarck's attempt to end his nine lives, a wealthy Montana man became interested in the cat's desire to reform. He visited the outcast, and found a new home for him. "Yes, I am through," said Prince Bismarck, as a bellboy departed with him to the Grand Central. "Never another drop for me. My conduct is going to be such that the state of Montana will be proud that I was chosen its official 'mouser' chaser." From the New York Herald. NATION'S WEALTH NOW JUNK. Tons of Korean Money on a New York Dock. With 1,400 tons of Korean money on board as part of the cargo, the steamship Seneca, of the Standard Oil Company's fleet, arrived at the Bush docks, Brooklyn. The tons and tons of money are only part of what is to come. From time to time other vessels will arrive bringing tons of money, until a total of 20,000 tons has been brought to this country. That amount includes all of the money Korea owned when Japan annexed that country and decided that Korean money would be replaced by Japanese currency. The money, in sacks, was piled on

The Best Sale Yet of Muslin Underwear. An excellent lot of Muslin Underwear at greatly reduced prices. This is one of the best lots of Underwear we have had and every garment, including Skirts, Gowns, Princess Slips, Combinations, Corset Covers and Drawers, are made from the best materials. We are not going into full details, for it is generally known that when we offer special prices the articles are unusual bargains. Don't miss this sale, for it will be a great loss to you. The Fashion 203-205 Fayetteville St. C. C. Phone 799

and the bride approached the altar with her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Glass. Miss Troy was attired in white silk trimmed in duchess lace and carried bride's roses. Miss Glass wore a lace dress and bore American Beauties. The groom met them before the minister, Rev. R. C. Craven, and was accompanied by Mr. George Garrett, best man. The Methodist ceremony with the ring was used. Shortly after the ceremony the couple took an automobile and drove to Raleigh, where they boarded the Seaboard train for a trip of ten days. They will visit Washington, Baltimore, New York and other places and upon their return will live on Duke street, beginning housekeeping at once. They received some beautiful gifts particularly adapted to the home, some of the handsomest things received by any bride of Durham being given them. For the past week Durham has been greatly interested in this wedding and few brides have been so much entertained by her friends and fellow members of her club. Until yesterday morning there had been no let up in these. The members of the club visit with each other in that desire to do her honor and a lovelier string of parties has never been the lot of any bride here. Miss Troy is among the best known of the young women of the city and none is liked better. She is of the pretty brunette type, petite and bright. She is the daughter of Rev. J. C. Troy who is known well over the state, especially as a newspaper contributor and a minister of the Methodist church. Since reaching young womanhood she has been a favorite and will always be. She weds a young man but two years a resident of the city. He is with the American Tobacco Company and the popularity that he has gained there by meritorious work is shared generally by the city. One of the pleasing phases of the wedding is that they retain their citizenship in Durham and remain as much to the town as they have always been. —Mr. J. M. Broughton left today for Philadelphia to attend the Baptist World Alliance. He was joined here by Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta.

and the bride approached the altar with her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Glass. Miss Troy was attired in white silk trimmed in duchess lace and carried bride's roses. Miss Glass wore a lace dress and bore American Beauties. The groom met them before the minister, Rev. R. C. Craven, and was accompanied by Mr. George Garrett, best man. The Methodist ceremony with the ring was used. Shortly after the ceremony the couple took an automobile and drove to Raleigh, where they boarded the Seaboard train for a trip of ten days. They will visit Washington, Baltimore, New York and other places and upon their return will live on Duke street, beginning housekeeping at once. They received some beautiful gifts particularly adapted to the home, some of the handsomest things received by any bride of Durham being given them. For the past week Durham has been greatly interested in this wedding and few brides have been so much entertained by her friends and fellow members of her club. Until yesterday morning there had been no let up in these. The members of the club visit with each other in that desire to do her honor and a lovelier string of parties has never been the lot of any bride here. Miss Troy is among the best known of the young women of the city and none is liked better. She is of the pretty brunette type, petite and bright. She is the daughter of Rev. J. C. Troy who is known well over the state, especially as a newspaper contributor and a minister of the Methodist church. Since reaching young womanhood she has been a favorite and will always be. She weds a young man but two years a resident of the city. He is with the American Tobacco Company and the popularity that he has gained there by meritorious work is shared generally by the city. One of the pleasing phases of the wedding is that they retain their citizenship in Durham and remain as much to the town as they have always been. —Mr. J. M. Broughton left today for Philadelphia to attend the Baptist World Alliance. He was joined here by Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta.

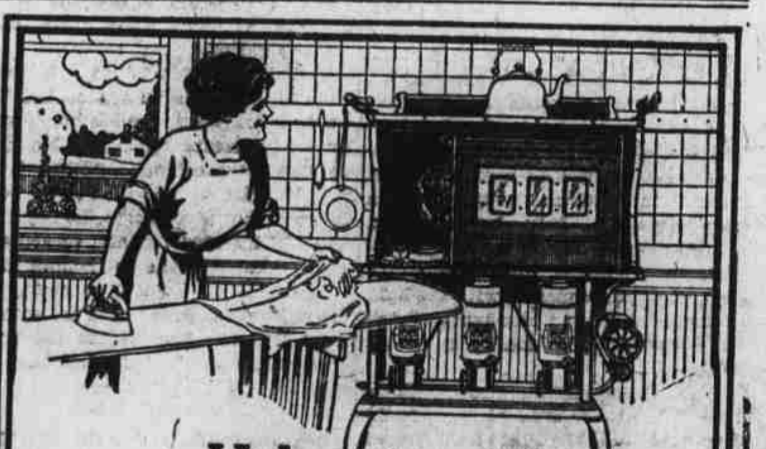

and the bride approached the altar with her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Glass. Miss Troy was attired in white silk trimmed in duchess lace and carried bride's roses. Miss Glass wore a lace dress and bore American Beauties. The groom met them before the minister, Rev. R. C. Craven, and was accompanied by Mr. George Garrett, best man. The Methodist ceremony with the ring was used. Shortly after the ceremony the couple took an automobile and drove to Raleigh, where they boarded the Seaboard train for a trip of ten days. They will visit Washington, Baltimore, New York and other places and upon their return will live on Duke street, beginning housekeeping at once. They received some beautiful gifts particularly adapted to the home, some of the handsomest things received by any bride of Durham being given them. For the past week Durham has been greatly interested in this wedding and few brides have been so much entertained by her friends and fellow members of her club. Until yesterday morning there had been no let up in these. The members of the club visit with each other in that desire to do her honor and a lovelier string of parties has never been the lot of any bride here. Miss Troy is among the best known of the young women of the city and none is liked better. She is of the pretty brunette type, petite and bright. She is the daughter of Rev. J. C. Troy who is known well over the state, especially as a newspaper contributor and a minister of the Methodist church. Since reaching young womanhood she has been a favorite and will always be. She weds a young man but two years a resident of the city. He is with the American Tobacco Company and the popularity that he has gained there by meritorious work is shared generally by the city. One of the pleasing phases of the wedding is that they retain their citizenship in Durham and remain as much to the town as they have always been. —Mr. J. M. Broughton left today for Philadelphia to attend the Baptist World Alliance. He was joined here by Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta.

and the bride approached the altar with her bridesmaid, Miss Louise Glass. Miss Troy was attired in white silk trimmed in duchess lace and carried bride's roses. Miss Glass wore a lace dress and bore American Beauties. The groom met them before the minister, Rev. R. C. Craven, and was accompanied by Mr. George Garrett, best man. The Methodist ceremony with the ring was used. Shortly after the ceremony the couple took an automobile and drove to Raleigh, where they boarded the Seaboard train for a trip of ten days. They will visit Washington, Baltimore, New York and other places and upon their return will live on Duke street, beginning housekeeping at once. They received some beautiful gifts particularly adapted to the home, some of the handsomest things received by any bride of Durham being given them. For the past week Durham has been greatly interested in this wedding and few brides have been so much entertained by her friends and fellow members of her club. Until yesterday morning there had been no let up in these. The members of the club visit with each other in that desire to do her honor and a lovelier string of parties has never been the lot of any bride here. Miss Troy is among the best known of the young women of the city and none is liked better. She is of the pretty brunette type, petite and bright. She is the daughter of Rev. J. C. Troy who is known well over the state, especially as a newspaper contributor and a minister of the Methodist church. Since reaching young womanhood she has been a favorite and will always be. She weds a young man but two years a resident of the city. He is with the American Tobacco Company and the popularity that he has gained there by meritorious work is shared generally by the city. One of the pleasing phases of the wedding is that they retain their citizenship in Durham and remain as much to the town as they have always been. —Mr. J. M. Broughton left today for Philadelphia to attend the Baptist World Alliance. He was joined here by Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta.

BIG BLOCKADE STILL TWO MILES PITTSBORO

Deputy Collector K. W. Merritt returned to Raleigh today from Chatham county, where he and Deputy Marshall W. Sloan destroyed a large blockade still. The plant was located near a saw mill and a church and was within two miles of Pittsboro. All appearances seemed to indicate that the plant had been in operation for several months. The still had a capacity of 125 gallons and was calculated to make twenty gallons of liquor a day. The operator was not captured, he having felt a sudden call of the wild, and the last seen of him he was tramping down the undergrowth of the woods. NO MORE COMMUNICATIONS ON BOOKS AFTER JULY 1. The following resolution was unanimously passed at a joint session of the text-book commission and the sub-commission: Resolved, That after July first no communications of any sort, oral or written, from any person relating to text-books, or the question of the adoption of text-books, in the state of North Carolina will be read, heard, or considered by any member of the text-book commission or sub text-book commission.

MILD LIQUID CURES ECZEMA. Skin Suffers! Drop Greasy Salves and Nasty Medicines. That mild, soothing liquid, D. D. D. Prescription stops the awful itch with the first drops. A prescription of acknowledged value. Get a trial bottle at 25c. It will take away the itch right away and you will sleep soundly. We assure you personally of the merits of this remedy; for we KNOW. Henry T. Hicks Co. and Tucker Building Pharmacy.

Help for All Andrew Carnegie once suggested as an epitaph for his own tombstone what he said was the secret of his success: "Here lies a man who surrounded himself with men abler than himself." Many able people are working for you, scientists, inventors, manufacturers, all trying to make something you want. Do you use their brains and their efforts? Surround yourself with them—or do you plod along by yourself, years behind the times? Take your own home. Have your own share of modern improvements there—money-saving, labor-saving, health-promoting? One of the most important of these is a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove. A New Perfection stove never overheats a kitchen. It saves fuel and time. With the New Perfection oven with the glass doors you can see on your ironing or any other work, and still be sure at a glance the joint is cooking properly. Made with 1 1/2 and 3 burners, with legs, improves the standard chimney. Handsomely finished throughout. The 1 1/2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with deep shelves, towel racks, etc. Dealers everywhere; or write for descriptive circular to the nearest agency of the Standard Oil Company (Incorporated).

NOW Is a good time to bring the small boy and girl to be fitted with Oxfords and Pumps. We take exceptional pains to see that the children get shoes that fit their tender feet and that are going to be comfortable. It is perfectly safe to let the children come alone. We will fit them as well as though their parents were along. POOL & CROCKER, "WE FIT THE FEET" 125 Fayetteville Street RALEIGH, N. C.