MILLIONAIRE IS SUED

Case of Usury Is Started Against R. H. Wright

J. E. Owens Begins Warm Case That Will be Hotly Contested—Edgar S. Thompson III at Home—Work of Prof. R. G. Anderson—Colored Methodist Conference in Session.

Times Bureau, Herald Building, W. T. BOST.

Durham, N. C., June 22—The attorneys for R. H. Wright, who has been sued for usury by J. E. Owens, are preparing his answer to the complaint and it promises much when the matter is tried.

The case was instituted a few days ago and J. E. Owens asked that a restraining order be issued enjoining Mr. Wright from selling his house which is mortgaged to Mr. Wright on alleged debt. The facts are many but it is said that Mr. Owens two years ago borrowed $4,000 from Mr. Wright and owed $1,500 yet. He claims that Mr. Wright charged the usual 6 per cent which was $240 and a bonus of $300 more, making it $540. He therefore sues for $1,050.

There are so many phases of the matter to go into that one must wait for courts. It is said that the fight will be as hot as anything ever heard here. Mr. Wright is one of the richest men of Durham, being several times a millionaire.

Mr. Edgar E. Thompson, one of the well known commission merchants of the city, is seriously ill at his home in North Durham with a partial paralysis of the left side.

Though Mr. Thompson has not been well in weeks, he did not take his bed until Tuesday of June 13. So gradual was the encroachment of the illness that the date of the paralysis is not known. He has moments of consciousness but is not rational often and his condition, while not considered immediately dangerous, is quite critical.

Mr. Thompson's children, who had been out to Bahama visiting, have been called home. His family and their neighbors are hopeful though the natural uneasiness of such an illness. Though a partial stroke, he is rendered practically helpless by it.

Prof. R. G. Anderson, of Trinity College, is at work now on a pamphlet of about sixty pages, whose proof he is reading during the present week or two, after which time he will leave for the summer.

Prof. Anderson, who is professor of law at Trinity, has gotten out this latest work on pleading for the school course and has spent a great amount of time on it. When he has finished the little volume he will take a trip for the summer that will end about the time of the re-opening of school.

This is the latest of several volumes that he has prepared. The work with Dean S. F. Mordecai of preparing these treatises has caused the most flattering comment from the lawyers all over the country. The volume will be out before he returns to the city.

The Washington district of the North Carolina Annual Conference yesterday began in King's Chapel on Cobb and Matthews streets, a convention with Rev. Dr. J. C. Stanton presiding.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Raleigh readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

N. A. Spence, Sr., 423 S. Wilmington St., Raleigh, N. C., says:

"For years kidney trouble caused me to suffer intensely. I had had attacks of backache and pains through my loins and I noticed that the kidney secretions deposited sediment. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Bobbitt-Wynne Drug Company and began their use. In a short time I passed several gravel stones, some as large as a good-sized pea, and I then improved. The kidney secretions became natural and the backache and pain disappeared. I strongly urge other kidney sufferers to try Doan's Kidney Pills." (Statement given January 30, 1908.)

A Second Endorsement.

Mr. Spence was interviewed on December 3, 1910, and he said:

"I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know that they act just as represented. I still use them occasionally when in need of a kidney medicine, and they always act promptly and effectively."

with hymn No. 24, "God Moves In a Mysterious Way," and after prayer Dr. Stanton made a brief address based on the nineteenth Psalm.

Committees on prohibition, education, missions and quarterly conference journals were appointed and the work was in full swing. It will run through today and tomorrow.

Some of the best ministers in the denomination are here and will take part in the deliberations. Rev. R. J. Johnson, rector of the colored Episcopal church will deliver the address of welcome today.

The Church street hotel property, which was taken over sometimes ago by Col. S. W. Minor, was yesterday transferred by Mr. Minor to Messrs. M. Shevel, B. Enoch and Mrs. Besie Gladstein.

The purchase price was $17,000. This property was formerly owned by W. M. Yearby. It contains not only the hotel but several places with a rental value that runs high. The new owners have not indicated what they will do with it.

Mrs. Lillian C. Marks, a trained nurse who formerly studied at Watts Hospital, has been called to Durham to the bedside of the young son of Mr. L. S. Christian, who is quite ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Marks will not only nurse Mr. Christian through this illness but contemplates locating in Durham for the practice of her profession. In that work she stands high and has had the best training that the institutions can give. It would give pleasure to her friends to have her locate here permanently.

Dr. Joseph Graham has purchased the C. F. Lawrence place on Dillard street and at some future date will move into it after having made some repairs and added some touches to it. The residence is one of the most desirable ones in the city, stands upon one of the handsomest lots of its size. It is in an ideal community, the best residential section, Morehead Hill excepted, of course, and for convenience, it has that great pot distanced badly. The property adjoins that of Dr. J. M. Manning and is near a number of splendid residences on Holloway street.

The purchase was made originally by the Durham Loan and Trust Company and resold to the young physician. Dr. Graham had secured option upon a place elsewhere in the city and thought of building there, but chose this one for its special adaptation to his work.

Misses Mattie T. Booth and Helen Atkinson, nurses at the Watts Hospital, left yesterday afternoon for Philadelphia, from which place they set sail Saturday morning for a trip of eight weeks in the old world. Misses Booth and Atkinson will take the steamer Merion out from Philadelphia at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and will land at Plymouth, England. They will tour that country, going from there to France, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy and ending at Gibraltar. The trip across will take about ten days and independent of the voyage, they will be gone about six weeks, returning here about September 1st.

They will join a large party in Philadelphia. The nurses go purely upon a pleasure trip and will make short excursions through the several countries. Returning they will resume work at the hospital.

SCOTLAND NECK NEWS.

Town in Good Financial Condition, Having Balance of $2,409.90 in Treasury—People Satisfied With Present Streets.

(Special to The Times.)

Scotland Neck, N. C., June 22—A financial statement of the town of Scotland Neck, just published, shows that the town has received from all sources during the year ending May 31st, a total of $7,335.39, and it cost $4,923.49 to pay the expenses of the town, exclusive of the light plant and the graded school, which accounts are kept separate. A balance is left in the treasury of $2,409.90. This, with a balance to the credit of the light plant, shows that the town's financial condition is in pretty good shape. There was a small deficit in the school report, which, with the report of the light plant, was published last week. This deficit is partly due to the fact that just before the close of the school term the school building was burned, together with practically all the furniture, and the trustees were put to some extra expense in order that the school should continue until the regular time of closing.

It was suggested some time ago to use this balance to the town's credit in improving the streets. At the town primary the question was brought up and put before the meeting, the incoming board of commissioners desiring to get an expression of the people in regard to the matter. After some discussion pro and con, the matter was put to a vote, and it was voted down. Since then there has been but little talk of street improvement and but little effort along that line, the citizens in a meeting declaring that they were satisfied with the present condition of the streets, notwithstanding the fact that when a heavy rain falls they have to pick places to cross from one side to the other, and in real dry weather the dust is almost unbearable. But the people said, "No," and the streets will remain as they are.

Mr. J. C. Hardy, editor of the Commonwealth, who was called to Littleton Monday because of the death of his father, returned yesterday, after attending the burial of his parent, who was a faithful member of the Bethesda Methodist Protestant church, and was a brave Confederate soldier, serving the Confederacy through the entire struggle of four years. Mr. Hardy says the crops in the other end of the county are in a good condition, but there has not been but little rain for some time.

Mrs. Fannie Stern and daughter, Fredia, of Greensboro, are here on a visit to the family of Mr. G. Hoffman. Mrs. Stern was formerly a resident of Scotland Neck and her friends here are glad to see her and her charming daughter.

Miss Annie Hancock is at home from Rocky Mount, where she has been engaged during the past season as milliner for one of the big millinery firms there.

Lightning Kills Two.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chances of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at King Crowell Drug Co.
