POLICE MATINEE: PEN SHOTS.

The matinee opened up this morning in Judge Harris' court with a trio of "little ones" playing a comic act from "Lost Babes in the Woods" or "Babes in Toyland" and using a theft case as their model. They were entirely too small for a court room, and some one remarked that when they were put into the "Black Maria" that attorney Wyatt pushed them in through the wire netting without the trouble of opening the door. A whipping post seems needed for such cases.

The other members of this morning's troupe were only ordinary.

Frank Jones, Frank Wall and Zachariah Giles, three negro "Babes in Toyland," giving their ages as about 9, 10, and 11, were charged with breaking into the house of Mr. George Fowler and taking some braces, clock, etc. They plead guilty to the charge and on account of their tender ages were turned over to their mothers for correction, with the understanding that Mr. Fowler be remunerated for his loss.

Charles Crabtree, white, plead guilty to the charge of being drunk. On account of his being an inmate of the county home, judgment was suspended.

Will Stephens, colored, was up for committing an assault upon Will Hinton. Hinton said that Stephens was cursing him in front of Bowden's store, but did not know whether he had a knife or not.

Mr. Ernest Raines said that Stephen was in the store looking at some knives and Hinton came in and had some words. Later they met on the sidewalk, but do not know whether they went together or not. A fine of $5.00 and cost was given him.

Mary Vincent, colored, was charged with stealing a shirt-waist from Cornelia Hinton, but was dismissed.

Mellie Mial and Adreza Mial, both colored, were before his honor charged with statutory sacrilege, but upon recommendation of the city attorney a not press was taken.

MRS. J. H. PARKER DEAD.

Daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Parker Passes in New Bern.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Parker left today for New Bern to attend the burial of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Parker, nee Miss Elizabeth Burrus, who died in that city this morning.

Miss Burrus and Mr. Parker were married November 30, last, and made Jacksonville, Fla., their home. Mrs. Parker returned to New Bern to visit her parents a few weeks ago and was taken sick two weeks ago. She was thought to be improving, so much so that Mr. Parker wrote to his parents Tuesday last that his wife was out of danger and that he would come to Raleigh in a few days and return to Jacksonville the last of the week. A telegram last night announced a relapse and a rapid sinking, which was followed by another telegram this morning announcing her death at 6:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Parker was well known in Raleigh, being a frequent visitor to this city. Her death is a shock to her many friends throughout the state. She leaves a husband, father, mother, and several half-brothers and sisters, and innumerable friends, to mourn her untimely demise.

VIOLATED CATTLE LAW.

Warren County Man Fined for Violation of the Law.

The state department of agriculture has taken much interest in a case tried in Warren county court last week. W. A. Connell, of that county, paid no attention to the cattle quarantine but moved cattle in and out at will. He was indicted and fined $201 and costs by Judge Carter, of the superior court. In stamping out the fever tick the department of agriculture, aided by the United States department is doing one of the most important things it can do for the people of the state. They should have the hearty co-operation of all farmers, for the farmer is directly benefited. The Warren case is an object lesson for those who will not obey the law. Wake county, thanks to the efforts of the department experts, is out of the quarantine district now.
