Henry Beattie Says He Feels His Story Impressed the Jury and That He Will Be Freed

NO COURT HELD TODAY

The Accused Man Says He Believes the Jury Will Give Him a Square Deal and That He Will Be Home Sunday—All the Evidence in Yesterday the Judge Adjourned Court Until Tomorrow to Give the Lawyers an Opportunity to Get Their Argument Together—Defense Expects to Make its Strongest Plea on the Dangers of Accepting Circumstantial Evidence.

Chesterfield, Va., Sept. 6.—"I expect to be home Sunday. I feel my story impressed the jury and believe they will give me a square deal," Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., indicted for murdering his wife, made this confident remark, seated in his cell gazing in retrospect at eleven days of evidence, taking which was brought to a close last night. Uneasiness or nervousness were not visible in his countenance or manner. He possessed the same outward calm exhibited since the trial began.

The court house was clothed in quiet today, Judge Watson having adjourned court until tomorrow. The jury has heard all the evidence. It now remains for counsel on both sides to knit together the relevancy of various bits of testimony to consistent argument. The defense expects to make its strongest plea on the danger of accepting circumstantial evidence. The prosecution's main broadside will be delivered along the same lines as characterized its rigid cross-examination of the prisoner and will predicate the one question of how did the same gun Paul Beattie bought for his cousin, Henry, Saturday, July 15th, come into the hands of the alleged highwayman on Midlothian Turnpike Tuesday night, July 18th.

The defense has attempted to puncture the story of Paul, who not only described the purchase of the gun, but testified about Henry's alleged confession of killing his young wife.

Will Release Binford Girl.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 6.—Judge Watson declared "unless something unforeseen developed he would issue an order for Beulah Binford's release tomorrow. The girl received the news joyously. When asked if she knew any reason why she had not been allowed to testify she guessed they found out enough through other witnesses. "If Henry Beattie is guilty," she said as she leaned over a banister in the jail and talked with several newspaper men, "I should like to see him punished. I'd say that about any man whether I loved

Court to Settle Contest for Office.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 6.—The contest between Frank S. Hoag and F. S. Kendall for the office of State railway commissioner of Colorado, came up for trial today before Judge Shattuck. Kendall contends that he should have the office because of his election last November, selected for the place by the people of Colorado. Hoag claims he is entitled to it by reason of an appointment by Governor Shafroth under a law passed by the last legislature making all members of the commission appointive.

TO ACT WISELY

Officers of Wake County Branch of Farmers Union Strong Circular Letter to Members

HOLD COTTON FOR REPORT

Producers Urged to Await the December Report of Ginner Before Rushing Staple to Market to Feed Hungry Maw of Gamblers—Bears Have Contracted for Cotton at 11 Cents and Farmers Are Warned of This.

Under date of September 4 Dr. J. M. Templeton, president, and Mr. T. N. Ivey, secretary of the Wake county branch of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union of America are sending out circular letters urging in strong terms the farmers not to sell their cotton for the low price offered and scoring the July crop report issued by the government. The tenor of the letter is to save the profits the gamblers expect to make. The circular is as follows:

We want to call your attention to what you already know as well as we, not for purposes of information, but to suggest thought and action. The cotton harvest is upon us. In a few weeks the fabled market will be seeking to fill its great maw. The bears have gained much vantage and are hilarious with the anticipated carnival of low prices. The July crop report, fictitious and unfair to the farmer, served the bear speculators and spinners a good turn. They at once inaugurated the strongest campaign of their lives and are determined to buy this crop for much less than its value. In twenty days they beat down the price of cotton nearly $20 per bale. It is well known they have sold cotton on the New York Exchange for future delivery for 11c, this they expect to buy for

IN INTEREST OF COOKE

Greensboro Gentlemen See Governor Kitchin

Delegation Presses Claims of Guilford's Candidate—All Four Men Well Qualified and Appointment of Any Could not be Bad—The Applicants.

Another delegation from Greensboro came to Raleigh today to press the claims of Mr. A. Wayland Cooke to succeed Hon. J. Chawford Biggs, who reigned as judge of the ninth judicial district. Mr. David Stern saw Governor Kitchin yesterday. The delegation today was composed of Messrs. C. A. Hines, S. Glenn Brown, W. B. Merrimon and W. H. Swift.

Governor Kitchin was told that Mr. Cooke was well qualified for the honor, that Guilford was the most prominent county in the ninth judicial district and that it did right nobly by him in his contest for governor. Of the six counties in the district, Guilford produced nearly 4,000 votes, which was nearly one-third of Mr. Kitchin's strength in the district. In addition to this the governor was assured that the Greensboro lawyer's support was still strong.

Governor Kitchin is up against strong arguments from the friends of each of the four candidates and he is necessarily having a hard time in selecting a judge out of such splendid material. The other applicants are Messrs. Jacob A. Long, of Graham; Howard A. Foushee, of Durham, and A. A. Hicks, of Oxford.

Sage Foundation Has Broken Silence About Its Plans For Model Village

IS NOT A CHARITY

Homes Will be for People of Moderate Means and is Not a Charity Scheme—Rents Will be Moderate But Sufficient to Make the Village Self-sustaining—Homes Will be for People Who Have Now to Choose Between a City Apartment and a Frame House in the Suburbs.

New York, Sept. 6.—The Sage Foundation has at last broken its silence regarding its plans and purposes for the Forest Hills Gardens land development in Queens, a few miles from Long Island City. John M. Glenn, secretary of the foundation, gave out today the first statement on the subject coming from any one connected officially with the Sage Foundation and having inside information of its plans.

Mr. Glenn states emphatically that the Sage Company is not in the least degree a charity. He says that it will not be conducted as a charity or even for people of the laboring class. It will be the home of people of moderate means who want a real home and have now, he says, to choose between a city apartment or a frame house in a suburb.

Mr. Glenn explains that the Sage Foundation and the Sage Foundation

His term expires March 3, 1913. Few persons know of the senator's determination until today. It is said Bailey will go to New York City to practice law.

Commissioners Say They Will Listen to Compromise From County Board of Health

THE MATTER DISCUSSED

Resolutions Passed by Board of Health Not Presented Today, But Instead Mr. Judd Appeared as Citizen and Asked if Fight Could Not Be Ended—Commissioners May Receive Proposition.

If the Wake county board of health has a definite proposition to submit to the Wake county board of commissioners, let it bring the propositions forward; otherwise there is little to be expected.

This in brief was the situation this afternoon with regard to the fight being waged between the commissioners and health board over the matter of a county superintendent of health. The resolutions passed at the meeting of the board of health yesterday were not presented today, Mr. Z. V. Judd, superintendent of public instruction, coming before the commissioners and asking if there was not some ground on which a compromise satisfactory to all parties could be effected.

Commissioner Brewer suggested that two members from each board meet and work out a compromise. As for himself he thought $690 was enough to pay the county physician, but for the sake of harmony he would be able to go a little bit more.

Mr. B. C. Beckwith, county attorney, suggested that the two boards might have a sort of Portsmouth peace conference, except in this case that the members meet as patriotic citizens and not in their official capacity. Then if any forward steps were taken

DIES FROM HIS WOUND

Colored Bellboy Plays With Loaded Pistol

Walter Saunders, Colored, Presses Trigger in Expert Manner, But Weapon Discharges Ball into His Leg—Was Native of Clayton.

Walter Saunders, colored bellboy at the Raleigh Hotel, was demonstrating his prowess with a pistol Sunday morning. He would press the trigger just enough to cause the hammer to strike the end of the cartridge without firing the bullet. Walter did this several times, and all the time the weapon was pointing at his left leg. At the last demonstration the bullet fired, the ball entering his left leg just below the armpit and Walter was carried to St. Agnes Hospital to be treated.

At 9:29 o'clock last night Walter Saunders died as the result of his wound, a hemorrhage causing death. Early in the afternoon he was thought to be doing well, but his condition grew worse as night came on and at 9:20 the end came.

Walter was a native of Clayton, Johnston county and came here from New Bern, where his people live. He was about 21 years old. The body was taken to Clayton this afternoon for burial.

DEAD AFTER TEN-DAY SLEEP.

Efforts to Waken Singer Futile and Trance Proves Fatal.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—After a ten-day sleep, from which physicians were unable to arouse her, Josephine Gerbel, known on the stage as Genevieve de Forest, died yesterday.

For three years the singer had suffered from ulcer of the stomach. Ten days ago, while suffering much pain, Miss de Forest fell into a deep slumber. At first this was thought to be a good sign.

Hour after hour passed, however, and she continued to sleep. Efforts were made by nurses to awaken her. Physicians were called, but every effort proved futile.

Young man, beware of sweethearts with sour dispositions.

ANS FOR A GREAT WEEK

Entertainment Committee Met This Morning and Began Preparations—Opening Ceremonies

BUILDING ABOUT READY

Entertainment Committee Met This Morning and Began Outline of Plans for Fitting Observation of the Opening of the New Municipal Building—Plans are for Most Elaborate Functions—Chairman Brown of Committee, Desires of Receiving Suggestions From Anyone That Might Help Them in Their Work—Building Will Be Ready.

Chairman Wade R. Brown, of the entertainment committee of the chamber of commerce, speaking this morning of the dedication ceremonies and festivities attending the opening of Raleigh's magnificent auditorium, said that the committee met at 11 o'clock this morning and began active work, preparing plans for the most elaborate functions ever undertaken in Raleigh. Serving on the entertainment committee with Mr. Brown is Col. J. E. Pogue and W. H. Bagley. This committee has been vested by the municipal building commission and the board of aldermen and chamber of commerce with full authority to take charge of and prepare for both ceremonies attending the dedication of the state's greatest auditorium and entertainments of magnitude for the opening week.

Chairman Brown announces that the committee is desirous of receiving suggestions in writing from any one believing that they have an idea that will aid in making the week a greater success. At the chamber of commerce rooms the committee has opened headquarters, and will actively push the publicity work as soon as details are formulated. The contract for the seats was awarded August 15th and a guarantee was given by the state representatives of the manufacturer that the seats would be in position in the auditorium by October 1st. The auditorium contractors advise that the building is practically in readiness, the only additional work necessary, preparatory to the opening is the completion of the wiring, and additional coat of stain on a portion of the wood work.

The municipal building commission was created by the state legislature and is composed of Col. C. E. Johnson, chairman; Messrs. Josephus Daniels, Jos. G. Brown, John C. Dreary and Albert L. Cox. The committee on the part of the board of aldermen, representing the city in building matters, is composed of Mayor Jas. I. Johnson, Aldermen W. A. Cooper, C. A. Johnson and Jos. C. Ellington. The auditorium will accommodate 5,000 people.

ADVERTISE RALEIGH
AND WAKE COUNTY

Secretary Olds of the chamber of commerce has sent to Mr. M. V. Richards, the widely known land and industrial agent of the Southern Railway a very fine collection of photographs illustrating Raleigh and Wake county. These will be used in making stereopticon views to be shown at the great exposition at Madison Square Garden, New York City, and afterwards in many other cities in the country. Secretary Olds has made up two sets of photographs which will be used in the same way in the west and southwest. Raleigh is certainly being well advertised.
