

Associated Press Service

The Raleigh Daily Times

Associated Press Service

Vol. LXX. No. 78.

The Weather—RAIN.

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1911.

LAST EDITION

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

THE BOOSTERS COME TO TOWN

A Hundred and Eight Live Wires From the Old Dominion

GOT A ROYAL WELCOME

Met at Union Station by Large Delegation of Citizens and Given an Automobile Ride—Assembled in New Auditorium Where Short Addresses Were Made by the Two Mayors—A Solid Hour of Hospitality.

Arriving this morning at 10:40 on a specially chartered solid Pullman train, a hundred and eight live boosters from the capitol of the Old Dominion took possession of Raleigh for an hour. They were met with open arms at union depot by a large delegation of Raleigh citizens and a sure-enough whole-souled welcome was given to them.

The party, led by the Third Regiment Band and the Richmond Blues Band, marched to the new auditorium, amidst vigorous cheers en route, and were addressed by Mayor Johnson. This was the first time that a crowd had ever assembled in the auditorium and it was a happy, good-natured bunch of folks—both hosts and guests.

Mayor James I. Johnson stated in his short address of welcome that although the maps show a geographical boundary line between the states of Virginia and North Carolina, there is no real boundary between the two states. Lies of blood exist, created while the two stood as brothers together, shoulder to shoulder on the battlefields, and strengthened since by commercial and friendly intercourse.

"Gentlemen," continued Mayor Johnson, "you have come to see us and we feel honored in having you. We want you to feel that you have not gone beyond the circle of your friends. It is our aim to make your brief stay here just as pleasant and just as profitable as we possibly can."

The applause which followed these remarks was almost deafening. The boosters, led by their band, then sang a catchy air that the Raleigh people took up with enthusiasm: "They say old Raleigh ain't got any style."

Mayor David C. Richardson, of Richmond, responded to Mayor Johnson.

HEBREWS OBSERVE YOM KIPPUR TODAY

New York, Oct. 2.—The Jewish people throughout the world today celebrated Yom Kippur, in the Hebrew calendar. This fast day is considered the most important of all the Mosaic holy days. With its observance the penitential season which began with the new year comes to an end, and the Jews then look forward with joyful anticipation to the celebration of Succoth, the Feast of Tabernacles, the harvest festival of the ancient Israelites.

Among the orthodox Jews Yom Kippur is kept as a solemn fast, and for twenty-four hours no food or drink or nourishment of any kind is allowed to pass the lips of the under age, very old people whose health would be affected by abstinence from nourishment and nursing mother. The reformed Jews join with the orthodox in the celebration of Yom Kippur, but as a rule they do not fast, nor are the services in the reform temples continuous on the day of celebration.

Dozen Vessels Ashore. Sydney, C. B., Oct. 2.—Nearly one dozen vessels are ashore, at different points on the Cape Briton coast, result of hurricane that swept over this section yesterday. One girl was killed and another fatally injured by live wires.

Beginning today, October 2nd, the banks of the city will observe the usual winter hours, which are from 9 until 3 o'clock.

son's address of welcome. "We realize," said Mayor Richardson, "that there is no real boundary line between Virginia and North Carolina—you are our people and we are yours. We feel that we are at home among you. We rejoice with you in your prosperity, and come to offer you our help in any way that you can use us. We want you to reintroduce with us—we want to make our two states the best and the most glorious in the union. May the ties that hold us together never be broken and may we always march forward and prosper."

The visitors were then taken for an automobile ride about the city, passing various points of interest quickly, as the time was short and a very rapid tour was in order. It goes without saying that the boosters enjoyed themselves—they showed it without doubt. The time was all too short and as the special train pulled out at 11:40 the hundred and eight visitors realized that old Raleigh is "style all the while" to her friends.

Following is a list of the firms represented on the booster special, giving names of the gentlemen in the party:

- American Bread and Baking Co., Everett Perkinson. American Locomotive Co., T. W. Gentry.

(Continued on Page Two.)

HAMLET WRECK CASES A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

Begins in Durham Superior Court This Week

Superior Court With Judge Allen Presiding, Begins Today With a Crowded Docket—Hamlet Cases Up—Trinity to Observe Benefactors' Day—Memoirs of W. W. Holden.

(Special to The Times.)

Durham, Oct. 2.—Superior Court opened here this morning for a term of two weeks, Judge Oliver H. Allen, presiding.

This is the first civil term that has been held here since May, when Judge Frank Daniels presided. Since that time the docket has been growing until it is a tremendously crowded one. The July wreck at Hamlet added about seventy-five cases to the docket, and though a great many of these have been compromised, there are many more to be tried. The Seaboard has had its agents here and they have been settling many of those put on the calendar, but half a dozen death claims will be prosecuted unless there is something done and there are many smaller accidents.

These actions in the aggregate amounted to something like $100,000, and if tried would take all the time that the courts will have until the middle of the century. There is not a chance in a million to cater up with the docket in its present state without extra terms of court.

There will be no criminal court until December, and like the civil term, it will be crowded. The May court ended in mid-week, the first time in many years that such a thing was ever accomplished. But there came the great blind tiger raid and the docket was crowded. It is that state now, and every convicted whiskey retailer appeals, not so much in hope of acquittal as in delay and final wearing out. It is expected that there will be an extra criminal term in a few days.

The Southern Power Company Saturday gave its current a test by turning it on in the transforming station, though it has not been sent to the factories yet.

This will be done sometime this week, and about 7,500 horsepower will be used by the four sub-stations at Pearl mill, Golden Belt mill, Durham Cotton Manufacturing Company and Erwin Cotton Mills. The location of other stations will soon be done and 10,000 supplied.

The Trinity College people will observe benefactors' day tomorrow, when the gifts for the past year will be announced.

The larger number of these, those that attract the attention of the country, are given to the public at (Continued on Page Five.)

LIONEL HARVARD.

Cambridge, Oct. 2.—Lionel De Jersey Harvard, of Great Britain, a descendant of John Harvard, to whom the foundation of Harvard College has been attributed, entered the college the other day and has already entered upon his studies. He says he will probably become an American citizen on reaching his majority, three years hence. He will specialize in English literature.

LANDING IS DELAYED AT TRIPOLI

Nothing Has Been Done Yet

Italian Landing Delayed By Bad Weather—Sultan Pleas With Germany's Answer to Appeal for Intervention—Two Boats Reported Sunk.

Landing, Oct. 2.—Strict Italian censorship is keeping the world in darkness regarding the events in the Mediterranean. From Italy itself, Tripoli, Turkey and the seas where the Italian navy is operating conflicting reports continue. One cablegram announced definitely Tripoli was bombarded and occupied. Another said no attack on the city was made. Only one thing is certain, and that is, the Italians had not attacked the town up to midnight Saturday, for had they done so their guns would have been heard on the steamer Colonnato, which left Tripoli shortly before the hour and arrived at Malta this morning. Reports about the situation at Presova, Italy, are conflicting. Turkish officials confirm a dispatch saying the forts have been destroyed and 15,000 troops landed, while Italy gives emphatic denial of the report, saying the Italian government has no intention of resorting to acts against the territorial status of Turkey in Europe.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY DIED TODAY SUDDENLY

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley dropped dead near the corner of 44th street and Fifth Avenue while on the way down town. The admiral died before medical aid reached him.

Schley had been out of town over Sunday. On his return here he had gone to the New York Yacht Club. After a short stay at the club the admiral left the club house and started to walk along 14th street towards Fifth Avenue when taken suddenly ill. A hurry call was sent for a physician and an ambulance but before aid reached him the admiral died.

JUDSON HARMON Ohio's Great Governor is coming all the way from the Buckeye State to meet you at

The GREAT STATE FAIR at Raleigh on Wednesday, October 18. Be sure to be there and grasp his hand. He comes a long way to see you and to talk to you.

Investigating Senator Stephenson Milwaukee, Oct. 2.—The United States senate sub-committee on privileges and elections, formally began its session today investigating the charges that Senator Isaac Stephenson, secured his election to the senate on March 4, 1909 by bribery and other corrupt use of money. Stephenson was summoned as the first witness. Only the heroine in a novel can read a love letter and curl her hair at the same time.

ARGUMENT IN NORRIS CASE

Lawyers Began Summary of Evidence in Famous Murder Case Shortly After 10 O'clock

LITTLE TESTIMONY TODAY

Debate Closed at 9:15, When State Introduced Several Witnesses to Contradict Other Testimony—The Case Should Go to Jury by Five This Afternoon—Much Speculation As to Whether Defendant Will Be Convicted of Crime—Col. Harris Opens for State and Solicitor Norris Will Close—The Evidence Today.

L. J. Norris will be found not guilty late afternoon of the murder of J. B. Bissett, unless the jury fails to agree. There is no middle ground in this case—the jury must find him guilty of murder in the first degree, which means death in the electric chair, or find him loose. This latter will be done, it is generally agreed on the outside. Four arguments were made before adjournment for the non-recess case of Col. J. C. L. Harris and Mr. Chas. U. Harris, Mr. W. C. Hard, and Barr. M. Gattling, Solicitor Herbert E. Norris will close the arguments this afternoon and Judge Peebles will deliver his charge. The jury should then get the case by 4:30.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY DIED TODAY SUDDENLY

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley dropped dead near the corner of 44th street and Fifth Avenue while on the way down town. The admiral died before medical aid reached him.

JUDSON HARMON Ohio's Great Governor is coming all the way from the Buckeye State to meet you at

The GREAT STATE FAIR at Raleigh on Wednesday, October 18. Be sure to be there and grasp his hand. He comes a long way to see you and to talk to you.

Investigating Senator Stephenson Milwaukee, Oct. 2.—The United States senate sub-committee on privileges and elections, formally began its session today investigating the charges that Senator Isaac Stephenson, secured his election to the senate on March 4, 1909 by bribery and other corrupt use of money. Stephenson was summoned as the first witness. Only the heroine in a novel can read a love letter and curl her hair at the same time.

Mrs. Gas Biddle, the wife of the one-time heavy-weight pugilist, who is an ardent suffragist, she has hit upon the very novel plan of holding sporting and wax-fing exhibitions in New York City to raise funds for the women's suffrage political league of which she is the president. The first exhibition will commence on October 2nd. Mrs. Biddle has signified her intention of giving one of the sporting exhibitions.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY DIED TODAY SUDDENLY

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley dropped dead near the corner of 44th street and Fifth Avenue while on the way down town. The admiral died before medical aid reached him.

JUDSON HARMON Ohio's Great Governor is coming all the way from the Buckeye State to meet you at

The GREAT STATE FAIR at Raleigh on Wednesday, October 18. Be sure to be there and grasp his hand. He comes a long way to see you and to talk to you.

Investigating Senator Stephenson Milwaukee, Oct. 2.—The United States senate sub-committee on privileges and elections, formally began its session today investigating the charges that Senator Isaac Stephenson, secured his election to the senate on March 4, 1909 by bribery and other corrupt use of money. Stephenson was summoned as the first witness. Only the heroine in a novel can read a love letter and curl her hair at the same time.

AUSTIN SHOWS DREARY ASPECT

Austin, Castello and the Valley Beyond Pictures of Utter Desolation Today

EIGHT MILLION LOSS A MAN OF EXPERIENCE

Grimes of Tragedy Which Overtaken Austin Impressed Upon Survivors—Twenty Victims Placed in Temporary Morgue—Loss of Life Will Not Exceed Two Hundred, But Property Loss is Extremely Heavy—Valley Swept Clean to Refetch for More than a Mile—Town's Ave Pictures of Desolation.

Austin, Pa., Oct. 2.—With an arrival of a carload of bodies this morning, evidence of the tragedy which partially obliterated Austin, was impressed upon the survivors. They began their efforts to find the bodies in the debris for any additional bodies. Twenty victims have been placed in temporary morgues. The estimated dead number twelve. The more careful investigators do not believe that more than two hundred perished. There is a possibility, it is said, one hundred and fifty will be the total. Following conditions are ideal. The state sanitary, Sanitary engineers, health officers (Continued on Page Two.)

ADMIRAL SCHLEY DIED TODAY SUDDENLY

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley dropped dead near the corner of 44th street and Fifth Avenue while on the way down town. The admiral died before medical aid reached him.

JUDSON HARMON Ohio's Great Governor is coming all the way from the Buckeye State to meet you at

The GREAT STATE FAIR at Raleigh on Wednesday, October 18. Be sure to be there and grasp his hand. He comes a long way to see you and to talk to you.

Investigating Senator Stephenson Milwaukee, Oct. 2.—The United States senate sub-committee on privileges and elections, formally began its session today investigating the charges that Senator Isaac Stephenson, secured his election to the senate on March 4, 1909 by bribery and other corrupt use of money. Stephenson was summoned as the first witness. Only the heroine in a novel can read a love letter and curl her hair at the same time.

WILL SUCCEED MR. BARWICK

Mr. E. E. Sams, Native Carolinian, Returns Home to Become Chief Clerk For Mr. Joyner

ADMIRAL SCHLEY DIED TODAY SUDDENLY

New York, Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley dropped dead near the corner of 44th street and Fifth Avenue while on the way down town. The admiral died before medical aid reached him.

JUDSON HARMON Ohio's Great Governor is coming all the way from the Buckeye State to meet you at

The GREAT STATE FAIR at Raleigh on Wednesday, October 18. Be sure to be there and grasp his hand. He comes a long way to see you and to talk to you.

Investigating Senator Stephenson Milwaukee, Oct. 2.—The United States senate sub-committee on privileges and elections, formally began its session today investigating the charges that Senator Isaac Stephenson, secured his election to the senate on March 4, 1909 by bribery and other corrupt use of money. Stephenson was summoned as the first witness. Only the heroine in a novel can read a love letter and curl her hair at the same time.