

SINGERS AT AUDITORIUM

North Carolina Singers and Raleigh Choral Society Captivate Large Audience

CONCERT THIS EVENING

Concert Last Night Was By All North Carolina Talent—Greeted by a Large Audience—The Large Building Admirably Filled for the Purpose, the Acoustics Being Perfect—An Attractive Program Beautifully Rendered.

The North Carolina singers, appearing in the concert last night at the auditorium completely captivated Raleigh, as did her own choral society and St. Mary's Orchestra, as well as the artists from the colleges here, here for the time being, Miss Crafts and Mr. Owen, from St. Mary's; Miss DuMals and Mr. Brawley from Peace and Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Hagedorn, from Meredith college.

After the splendid dedicatory ceremonies Tuesday night, the concert last night was necessarily of a high order and it was certainly a worthy successor to the opening night.

The concert this evening, the Grand Concert, will be equally fine and of a different order giving the Raleigh people and visitors to the city a variety of entertainment. Victor's Venetian Band and Miss Edna Sands Dunham, soloist, can be depended on to give the city such an entertainment as they will be proud of.

The concert last night was one that the audience felt was peculiarly their own for while several of the singers and musicians were strangers they were all North Carolinians and Raleigh was glad to have them in her midst and proud of the talent that had been summoned from the farthest borders of the state to make this concert one of the great events of the week. They were greeted with an audience that would have filled any other auditorium in the city to overflowing many being unable to get in and it was only another evidence of what vast crowds the auditorium will be able to seat that there was still room left for more than twice as many more.

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Barling, Maine.

Singing seemed to be without the least effort, the acoustics of the building being so perfect.

The first number on the program was an Overture "The Call of Baidad" (Baldie by St. Mary's Orchestra, with R. Blinn Owen, conductor. This Raleigh organization was heartily applauded.

The next number "Will o' the Wisp" by Mrs. Janie Foushee, of Greensboro, had to be omitted as Mrs. Foushee was unable to be present owing to illness. Raleigh regretted missing the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Foushee sing.

The next was a piano solo by James P. Brawley, of Peace Institute, "Etude in C" (Rubenstein) Mr. Brawley received the hearty applause of the audience as he is recognized as a pianist of splendid ability.

The next was the solo by Mrs. H. J. Arnette, of Rocky Mount, "Song of the Soul" (Brell) with Mrs. Hagedorn at the piano. As Mrs. Arnette's beautiful contralto voice rose and filled the vast auditorium there was a feeling of satisfaction that the acoustics of the building were such that the singers would feel no difficulty in singing in it. Mrs. Arnette had to respond to an encore as did all of the performers. Her Song of the Soul was one of the most satisfying numbers on the program.

Following this came a violin solo by Gustav Hagedorn, of Meredith College, whom Raleigh always delights to hear. He was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Hagedorn playing (a) "Adagio" (Reis); (b) Elentanz (Popper.) The audience would be satisfied with nothing short of an encore.

The first half of the program was concluded with "Soldier's Chorus" from Faust (Gounod) by the Raleigh Choral Society, Mr. Owen at the piano and Wade Brown, conductor. Raleigh felt justly proud of this organization of local singers and the hearty applause was justly due them and Mr. Brown for his efforts in training them. The audience just had to have a repetition of the chorus.

The first number on the second half of the program, after a short intermission was a solo by Mrs. Gilmore-Ward Bryant, of Durham. The selection was "Sunlight," waltz song (Ward), and it showed well the beautiful qualities of Mrs. Bryant's clear soprano voice. Her encore was equally as much enjoyed. She was accompanied by Miss Alice Hundley.

The St. Mary's Orchestra followed with popular selection from "It Happened in Nordland" (Victor Herbert). There was no question as to whether the audience liked the selection.

The next singer was not unknown to Raleigh people, Miss Josephine Gilmer, of Waynesville. While her father was Attorney General she made Raleigh her home and it was a pleasure to have her in the city again. She comes back after a year's study in New York. Her solo "Nymphs and Fawns" waltz song (Munberg) called for a hearty applause. Mr. Brown was at the piano.

Miss Blanche L. Crafts, of St. Mary's, violinist, was heard for the first time by most of the audience last night as she has only made one public appearance before since coming to join the music faculty of St. Mary's. Accompanied by Miss Loney, she played "Rhapsodie Hongroise" (Liszt). Miss Crafts showed herself to be a finished violinist and will be a valuable addition to the musical circles of the city.

Miss Leonie DuMals, of Peace Institute, followed with a Recit and Aria—"Aurora incant," from Aida (Verdi). Mr. Owen was at the piano. Miss DuMals has long been recognized to have one of the most beautiful voices ever heard here but even those who have heard her most often were surprised last night at the splendor and beauty of her voice as it rose and filled the auditorium. She was compelled to answer to two encores, the last being "The Nightingale" in which the sweet peculiarly satisfying qualities of her voice were beautifully shown.

The concert came to a splendid close with a selection by the Choral Society "Hail! Bright Abode" from Tannhauser (Wagner).

The concert was so thoroughly enjoyed that there will probably be another large audience this evening at the Grand Concert at 8:30.

Kenton, Ill. Saturday, after having been imprisoned in a folding bed four days and nights, died today. Her death was due to paralysis and pneumonia, as a direct outcome of the accident.

The victim Eved Glass in a house she owned. When she sat on the bed the slats gave way, dropping her to the floor, and causing the bed to fall over her. She called for help but was not heard. The day following the mishap her nose bled at the house and falling to her response at the door concluded her untimely way. The imprisoned woman heard the door bell call was unable to make known her predicament. Subsequently the door and several neighbors forced an entrance into the dwelling. Parsons had set in from the prolonged cramped position of her body, and pneumonia had developed from the exposure and her weakened condition.

CATARRH OF THE KIDNEYS NOT ALWAYS RECOGNIZED

A Cold Settled in Kidneys, Causing Serious Trouble. Peruna Restores Health.

CATARRH of the kidneys is a very much neglected disease.

It is not until the disease has a firm hold upon the kidneys that the patient begins to realize that there is some derangement of these organs.

The slight backaches, the feelings of lassitude, and other warning symptoms of kidney disease are overlooked.

They are not serious enough to detain the patient from his regular work.

Even when he discovers that the kidneys are affected, he does not recognize the difficulty as being caused by catarrh.

Catarrh is sometimes so very gradual in its approach and its earlier symptoms cause such slight discomfort that it is not noticed.

However, when it is once firmly seated in the kidneys it becomes a difficult disease to exterminate.

Indeed, catarrh of the kidneys is more serious than catarrh affecting some of the other organs of the body. In the kidneys it is able to terminate in Bright's Disease or diabetes, both of which are recognized as very serious ailments, if not fatal.

The thing to be done, when a cold or catarrh of the kidneys is discovered, is to take some internal, systematic catarrh remedy, one that relieves the catarrhal disturbances and thus removes the cause of the difficulty.

Such a remedy has been found in Peruna. It relieves catarrh, no matter where it may be located in the body.

Whether in the more exposed membranes of the nose and throat, or whether in the remotest part of the kidneys.

That Peruna is at once the safest and most reliable remedy for catarrh of the kidney is proven by the many testimonials written by those who have experienced its benefits.

The testimonials given here are only specimens of the many testimonials on our records, pertaining to the relief afforded by Peruna in severe cases of kidney trouble.

Catarrh of Kidneys.
Judge C. J. Park, R. F. D. 4, Greensboro, Greene Co., Ga., writes:

"For a long time I was troubled with catarrh of the kidneys, and after taking Peruna I feel like a new man. I think it the greatest catarrh medicine of the age, and believe it will cure any case of catarrh on record."

MR. JOHN N. WATKINS.
Mr. John N. Watkins, 3431 A Crittenden St., St. Louis, Mo., writes:

"Among all the greatly advertised medicines for kidney and bladder trouble there is nothing which equals Peruna. I suffered for several years with this trouble spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and medicine and all to no purpose, until I took Peruna."

"One bottle did me more good than all the others put together, as they only poisoned my system. Peruna cured me. I used it for four months before a complete cure was accomplished, but am truly grateful to you. The least I can do in return is to acknowledge the merits of Peruna."

Kidney Trouble, Weak Back.
Mr. M. Broderick, 706 East 46th St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have been suffering from a weak back and kidney trouble for some time and have been able to find relief only through the use of Peruna. During the winter season I usually keep a bottle of your medicine in the house, and by taking a dose at night I am feeling fine the next morning."

"Some of my friends assure me that Peruna is equally as good for their various ailments, but I do know that for kidney trouble and suffering from a weak back it has no equal."
