

REMODEL VOTE NOT DECISIVE

Doubted If Bonds Will Ever Be Issued to Improve the Old Building

LESS THAN A MAJORITY

According to Good Lawyer, Board of Aldermen May Not Spend Money in Case Where Less Than Majority of Registered Voters Declare for Expenditure—Second Election Will Not Be Necessary—Outcome Was Known Yesterday—The Vote by Precincts.

By a majority of 170 the proposal to remodel the present market building at an expense of $35,000 carried the day yesterday over the proposals to sell the site and to move the market. The total registration was 1,128; the total vote 720; the vote for remodeling was 445, for the sale 194 and for the removal 81. A second election will not be held.

In all probability, however, the market house will not be remodeled on the vote of yesterday. In the opinion of one of the best constitutional lawyers in the state, the market house matter is standing pat. Had a majority of the registered voters decided to remodel the building, it would have been obligatory on the board of aldermen to set about doing this work, but since only 445 votes out of 1,128 were cast in favor of remodeling—284 less than a majority—the board of aldermen will not be justified in law to spend the money. The principle, according to this lawyer, is the same as if the people had been voting on a straight proposition to issue bonds for municipal improvements.

No Interest in Election. There was little interest in the election. So far as known there was only an organized force at work, and that was the organization of butchers in the market house, and it swung the result its way. About one-third of the voters of Raleigh had registered and a little over half of these took the trouble of going to the polls. The result, as indicated in the Times yesterday, was all one way, and Raleigh people knew the outcome before the votes were counted.

The vote by precincts follows:

Table with 3 columns: Ward/Division, Sale, Remodeling. Lists vote counts for various precincts across four wards.

New Telephone Company. A charter was issued today to the Pink Hill Telephone Company of Kinston. The authorized capital is $20,000, divided into shares of the par value of $25 each, but the corporation may begin with $675. EXCESS SOLD FOR $10,000

Mr. C. C. McDonald Buys Lot and Two Houses When They Are Sold at Public Auction

SALE PROBABLY STAND

Believed That Executive Committee Will Confirm Disposal of Property—Y. M. C. A. Site Cost Reduced to $18,500—Collections Coming in Rapidly—Site for Association Building Commended by Leading Y. M. C. A. Men in Country.

For the sum of $10,000 the Y. M. C. A. property on Edenton street was sold at auction at noon today to Mr. C. C. McDonald. The lot is 55 feet wide and extends back a distance of 140 feet and contains a fairly good residence house. Including in the sale, however, was the former residence of Mr. W. H. Williamson on the corner of Edenton and Wilmington streets, a handsome house.

The sale today was subject to the approval of the executive committee of the Raleigh Y. M. C. A. and until this committee confirms or rejects the bid of Mr. McDonald the deed will not be given to the property. From expressions made by members of the committee, it is inferred that the price paid was a reasonable one and it is more than likely that the sale will stand.

The lot sold today was purchased originally from Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith for $12,500. Since then fifteen feet have been cut off to make the W. H. Williamson lot on the corner wide enough to accommodate the association building. The Williamson lot cost $16,000, making both lots cost the association $28,500. From this will be deducted $10,000, the selling price of the Smith lot and two houses, which will make the cost of the association home $18,500.

Committee to Meet. Mr. Carey J. Hunter, chairman of the executive committee, said that a meeting would be called soon to pass upon the sale of this property. He said that the committee is receiving letters every day from leading Y. M. C. A. men complimenting the city on the selection of a site for its building. This site faces Capitol square and is convenient to the business section of the city. The collections are coming in nicely.

Scattering Bids. Before the property was sold as a whole, it was auctioned off in parcels. The Williamson house on the corner brought only $1,000, Mr. L. R. Wyatt being the bidder; the Smith house brought $400 Mr. McDonald bidding it in, and the Smith lot and house brought $6,000, Mr. McDonald bidding most for this. When the lot and two houses were sold as a whole they brought $10,000. Mr. R. E. Prince acted as auctioneer.

WILL RECEIVE BIDS FOR NEW BUILDING

The state building commission met this afternoon to receive bids for the erection of the new administration authorized by the last legislature. It is doubtful if the contract will be awarded before late today or tomorrow or several days. Many bids were waiting for the commission in the auditor's office today and it will necessarily consume much time in considering them. Mr. Ashley Horne of Clayton is chairman of the commission.

BUSINESS MEN INVITED TO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO HEAR MR. DABNEY SPEAK

WILLIAM T. DABNEY, Secretary Richmond Chamber of Commerce.

The address of Wm. T. Dabney, of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, tomorrow night on "Organization in the Advancement of a City" is being looked forward to with interest by Raleigh's business men. The Wide-Awake Raleigh Ad Club invites all business men of the city to be present and hear Mr. Dabney. As an organizer and booster, Mr. Dabney has attained a position of distinction through the valuable work that he has done for Richmond.

Mr. Dabney was in Raleigh with the Richmond Boosters when they came through on their "Virginia Carolina" special several weeks ago. He has a number of friends in Raleigh who will be delighted to have him here again. Mr. Dabney's line of talk is such that one cannot help listening to him with eager interest. He says what he has to say in a hurry, without any flowery flow of oratory and without taking any more of his audience's time than necessary. Dabney detests circumspection or "beat-around-the-bush" and in his talking he gets right down to business at the start and stays there until the finish.

COL. LUDLOW PLEASD WITH THE AUDITORIUM

Among the visitors to Raleigh is Col. J. L. Ludlow, the well known sanitary and hydraulic engineer of Winston-Salem, who is here to look into the water supply of this city. Having been especially employed by the municipal government for that purpose, this afternoon he made a preliminary study of Raleigh's water shed and will follow this by most critical inspections of the territory it covers, this water-shed being between this city and Cary and lying along Walnut Creek, which seems to have been most conclusively shown to be the true and only source of supply. Col. Ludlow was a welcome visitor to the chamber of commerce today and Secretary Olds took him into the auditorium. Col. Ludlow expressed his delight and gratification at what has been termed by Secretary Olds Raleigh's gift to North Carolina, the finest gift yet made to the state by any community. The people of the state are in many ways showing their appreciation of this grand gift.

AGGIES VS. NAVY. Farmer Eleven Preparing for Game With Naval Academy Saturday—Receive Reports.

Coach Green's aggregation of football stars are making earnest preparations for the game Saturday with the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis. This game will be one of the hardest, if not the hardest, ever played by a Red and White team, and the fellows as well as the coach, are going to leave Raleigh with the determination to show the Navy a few things. A. and M. is not expecting to beat the Middies but they are going to give them one of the stiffest fights they ever had, and if they get a chance, some one will cross the line with the ball for the Carolina Farmers.

Every member of the varsity squad, with the exception of Spencer, is in the best of shape. Robertson, Harris and Anthony are in excellent shape after their little ruck and they will be more than apt to play their part of the game. Who will go is a mystery, but there will be ample to look after the A. and M. end, as Coach Green will have a corps of subs who will be more than glad to get a shot at the future admirals.

The A. and M. students are to pull off quite a stunt, they are to have a complete detail of the game in Pullen hall. A large blackboard will be erected and on this a regular gridiron will be laid off and each play will be called off and placed on the board.

This scheme is among the fellows and they are charging twenty-five cents to pay for the expense of the wire and other items. The people and friends of the college in Raleigh are invited to come. Ladies free. The game starts at 2:30 p. m.

SUFFERED ALL NIGHT LONG

Painful Experience of Mrs. Stephens—Husband Tries in Vain to Obtain Relief.

Pontotoc, Miss.—"All night long," says Mrs. P. G. Stephens, of this place, "I would suffer with my back, and I had such dragging down pains I could not stand to walk or ride, for it would put me in bed.

My health had been bad for two years. My husband got the best doctors that he knew, but their medicine did me no good.

I used Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it put me on my feet again. I am feeling as well as I did when I was 16 years old.

I used about seven bottles in all, and Cardui has helped me more than anything that I used.

I took lots of other medicines, but they did me no good.

As long as I live, I won't be without Cardui in the house.

As a remedy for weak, tired, worn-out women, who suffer from any of the aches and pains caused by womanly troubles, Cardui has been proven safe and reliable.

Composed of gentle-acting, herb ingredients, its action is mild and natural, and it has no bad after-effects. It is therefore harmless for young or old.

It has helped others, and should certainly help you, too. Try it.

IN THE POLICE COURT

After some delay on account of a previous case, the regular police court matinee was taken up late yesterday afternoon and the two cases on the docket quickly disposed of.

Helen Williams, a negress, was before his honor for engaging in an affray with Allie Loyd.

Officer Barker told of hearing some cursing at the rear entrance of the Grand and when he got there, found Helen Williams and Allie Loyd in an affray. Saw the Loyd woman make a pass at the other with a knife and he took the weapon away from her, that Helen was simply pushing her away.

Allie Loyd told of some trouble existing because of familiarity between her husband and the Williams woman.

Ten dollars and cost was Allie Loyd's bill, while the other woman was discharged.

George Burch, colored, was before the court for resisting an officer. "Persisting an officer, did you say, Mister?" came from the negro.

Taciturnity of Officer Barker was that when he arrested Helen Williams, George Burch pushed him off and tried to keep him from making the arrest, and followed him up the street, cursing him. When he approached the woman, Burch stepped in between them.

Frank Houston told of seeing Burch have hold of the girl's hand. His honor did not think the evidence strong enough, and the case was dismissed, though it was a close shave.

Morris Bond Over.

As stated in yesterday's Times, the evidence in the Morris case was finished Monday afternoon, and yesterday the arguments of the attorneys were heard. The attorneys spoke as follows: A. B. Andrews, Jr., for the Southern Railway; W. B. Jones, for the defense; Armistead Jones, for the defense; and W. B. Snow, for the State.

After the conclusion of the speeches Judge Watson announced:

"I hold that there is probable cause and bind the defendant over to court under a bond of $500. I place Walter Johnson under the same bond." So these two men will now have to face a Wake county jury, and let them decide as to their guilt or innocence.
