

SOCIAL EVENTS

By Miss Susan Iden.

SOMETIME.

Sometime we will go, we say, Where the old true friends await, Hopeful that some happy day They will meet us at the gate; Future whispers soft and low:
"Sometime—sometime—we shall go!"

Sometime we will speak, we say, Little words we left unsaid, That may brighten some one's way—Some one's way that's dark instead,
Some kind work to help the weak, Sometime—sometime—we shall speak.

Sometime we will do, we say, Something we have left undone—Small and petty in its way, Save to some poor burdened one;
For, as Time computes his sums,
Sometime—sometime—we shall do.

Sometime we will wake and know Opportunity has fled, Gone the friends of long ago—Needless are the words unsaid,
For, as Time computes his sums,
Sometime—sometime—we shall do.

WITH MISS A. A. THOMPSON

Entertained at Afternoon and Even- ing Receptions Yesterday.

Mrs. A. A. Thompson gave a most delightful afternoon reception yesterday from 4:30 to 6:30 in honor of her niece, Mrs. H. O. Beatty, of San Francisco and her daughter, Mrs. de Rouhae Hamilton, of Chapel Hill. This was followed by an evening reception from 6:30 to 8:30 when about thirty or more gentlemen were present. Supper was served and both the evening and afternoon's entertainments afforded the guests much pleasure.

The decorative effects throughout the home, were especially pretty adding much to the pleasure of the occasion.

In the reception room beautiful white chrysanthemums with ferns and palms formed the color scheme of white and green.

In the library, where punch was served, yellow chrysanthemums were used. In the dining room red and green was used with charming effect. American beauty roses and clusters of Tokay grapes being used on the table.

On arriving the guests were met in the hall by Mrs. Charles McKimmon and Mrs. Julian Timberlake.

In the receiving line were: Mrs.
A. A. Thompson, Mrs. H. O. Beatty, of San Francisco; Mrs. de Rouhae Hamilton, of Chapel Hill; Mrs. W.
S. Wilson, Mrs. Norwood, of San Francisco; Mrs. W. S. West and Mrs.
James C. Martin, of Richmond, Va.

Passing into the punch room the guests were greeted at the door by Miss Hal Morson and Mrs. J. B. Kenney. The punch bowl was almost hidden by vines and great clusters of Tokay grapes. Punch was served by Mrs. Graham H. Andrews, Miss Annie Root, Miss May Montague and Mrs. George Syme.

At the dining room door were Mrs.
W. A. Hock, and Mrs. Wm. E. Shipp, while the guests were received in the dining room by Mrs. B. F. Montague and Miss Jennie Coffin. Serving refreshments were Misses Susanna Busbee, Detsy John Haywood, Anne McKimmon, and Emily Rose Knox.

This beautiful reception made so delightful by the gracious hospitality of the hostess and the ladies assisting her will be remembered as one of the pleasant events of the fall season as will the evening reception and supper to the men which followed.

HOBGOBLINS AND WITCHES.

Also Spooks, Jack O'Lanterns and Fairies at Home of Mr. and Mrs.
John Hayes Last Night.

Amidst spooks, hobgoblins, witches, fairies, Jack-o-lanterns and other weird appurtenances of Halloween, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. P.
Hayes spent an evening of delightful pleasure and enjoyment at their home in Glenwood last night.

The house was attractively decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkins and evergreens, making a setting of beauty for the happy throng that assembled. There were apples to look, fortunes to seek, and numerous contests to hold the attention of the many guests.

In the apple-eating contest, Miss Willie Foster and Mr. T. C. Gault won the prize—a big delicious box of Rogers's candy, eating an apple suspended from a string with "hands off" in a minute and a half. The booby went to Mr. Chas. Stevenson, who failed to get a bite. Franklin Sherman, Jr. won in the children's contest, eating two apples before any of the other little boys and girls could eat one.

Mr. R. L. Hicks won first prize for pinning a leaf nearest the left eye of a Jack-o-lantern while blindfolded and Miss Florie Jones took the booby. Mr. Hicks' prize was a camera with which he took photographs of the guests.

Miss Mary Hall as the fortune telling witch, furnished a great deal of amusement by displaying her skill as a palm reader. Circle Sam was present, so was Bo Peep, as well as several pretty little fairies and some funny clowns.

Delicious hot chocolate was served with cake. There was also fruit, candy and other delicacies to tempt the appetite. The guests departed at a late hour with profuse thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hayes for the pleasures of the evening.

ROUND TABLE CLUB.

(Special to The Times.)

Scotland Neck, Nov. 1.—The Round Table Club was delightfully entertained by its president, Miss Mary Herbert Smith, 1908, a few days ago, it being the Halloween meeting of the club. Miss Smith presided gracefully over the meeting, and read a paper on the origin and customs of Halloween and Eleanor Smith read a selection from Washington Irving. Mrs.
Eugene T. Whitehead discussed very entertainingly the current events of the day.

It was announced at this meeting that the club was now a member of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which was received enthusiastically by every member.

After the business session was concluded the guests were invited to the dining room, where awaited them a regular old-time Halloween feast. A salad course was served consisting of Waldorf salad in big red apples, sandwiches and coffee and at each plate was placed a Halloween souvenir.

This session of the club was pronounced one of the very best ever held. It was interesting throughout and everyone went away praising Miss Smith for the most delightful evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Gersen Hoffman most graciously entertained the Chicane Club at her magnificent home on Main street some days ago. After the guests had engaged in several games of interesting bridge, they were served with an elegant lunch of oysters, sandwiches, pickles and coffee. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Hoffman were: Mrs. G. S.
Watts, Mrs. Earl E. Bowers, Mrs.
Charles W. Albertson, Mrs. C. H.
Herring, Mrs. A. L. Purrington, Mrs.
T. W. Fenner, Miss Maud Leggett, Miss Lizzie Smith, Miss Mary Weldon Smith, Miss Cornelia Josey, Miss Eleanor Smith.

Some evenings ago at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Harrell, Mrs. Harrell entertained a few of her young friends, complimentary to her guest, Miss Nell Nelson, who is visiting her from Halifax. It was entirely an informal affair, but was one of the most delightful social events of the season. Miss Elizabeth Pittrell, formerly of the faculty of Meredith College, Raleigh, delightfully entertained the guests with several beautiful selections on the piano. After engaging in different amusements those present were served with delicious refreshments by Misses Dorothy Dunn and Lillian Harrell.

Dr. R. T. Vann, president of Meredith College, Raleigh, is here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C.
Josey. Dr. Vann was formerly a resident of Scotland Neck, and his friends here are always glad to see him and to welcome him back to his old home.
