

IN SUPERIOR COURT TODAY

Mrs. Pattie Arrington Expresses Her Opinion of Judges and Lawyers

Mrs. Pattie D. B. Arrington expressed her sentiments of judges and lawyers in open court today when she appeared before Judge R. B. Peebles to enquire of him why he had denied her motion for a reopening of a civil action to recover property she claims was obtained from her estate by means of fraud. The order denying the demurrer on account of no cause for action was finally written and recorded today.

Mrs. Arrington but expressed her sentiments of judges and lawyers and she created no sensation. The quick and the dead were included in her blanket denunciation.

The court today heard the case of W. T. Adams vs. E. T. Spencer, a little matter over the sale of leaf tobacco. Judge Peebles said he would charge the jury that the plaintiff could not recover for more than $12.50; the entire amount claimed was less than $60.

The executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. met today with the architect to consider plans for the building to be erected on the corner of Wilmington and Edenton streets. The general committee met this afternoon to further consider the matter. The meetings were held in the office of the chairman, Mr. Carey J. Hunter.

MR. MADDY TO MEET STEWARDS THURSDAY

The Rev. Chas. E. Maddy of Statesville, who last week was formally extended a call to become pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, will meet with the board of deacons of this church Thursday night for the purpose of discussing the matter. Mr. Maddy was called to succeed the Rev. A. J. Moncrief, who resigned to accept the pastorate of a church at Barnesville, Ga.

Washington In Court

Detective Hagan testified he saw Ulrich running after Washington, and when he came up to them he found Washington on his hands and knees. "Washington was bleeding on the head," said Hagan. "Ulrich said, 'This man is a thief. I found him with his hand on the doorknob and his eye at the keyhole.' On the way to the station house Ulrich remarked: 'It was a good thing I came up for if I hadn't he would have knocked the nigger's brains out. There was another man with us and he said, 'I think he was there after those two young girls.'"

James Crowe, a baker's clerk, corroborated the detective's story. "In the station," said Patrolman Tirney, who arrested Washington, "Ulrich charged Washington with attempted burglary and insulting his wife."

Booker T. Washington testified. He said it was a quarter past nine when he was in Ulrich's home. "The defendant ran into the hallway and assaulted me. He grabbed me by the throat, choked me and hit me with his fists. I tried to defend myself. He was getting the better of me and I opened the door and stepped into the street. There were two men on the street. Ulrich asked one for a stick he carried. He hit me a dozen times with the stick."

"What were you doing there?" asked Justice Zeller. "I was looking at the doorplates," said the educator.

"You went to that house two or three times," asked Moore on cross-examination. "I went first about a quarter to nine," the witness said. "I was looking for friends."

"White or colored?" The assistant district attorney objected but was overruled. "They were white," replied Washington.

JUNIOR ORDER THANKSGIVING.

Proclamation For Services of Thanksgiving Sunday, November 26. Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 6.—Mr. U. M. Gillikin, State Councilor Jr. O. U. A. M., has issued a thanksgiving proclamation to the order. It is as follows:

In accordance with the proclamation issued by our National Councilor, Jno. J. Weltzel, and in respect and obedience to the customs of our order, let us assemble at church or other place of worship on Sunday, November 26, 1911, and render thanks to Almighty God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed to us during the past year.

We have had no calamities and are peacefully enjoying the golden fruit of our efforts in upbuilding and strengthening our great order in the past. We are in a prosperous condition on account of the rich harvest of our soil. Let us therefore assemble upon this day, and I earnestly enjoin all councils to meet and attend services in a body, prompted by a spirit of fervent thankfulness for the spreading and growth of the principles we promulgate.

Education is rapidly advancing, morality is increasing, and a feeling of patriotism permeates the membership of our order throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina, as well as the United States of America.

Let us invoke the aid of our Heavenly Father, that within the borders of the State of North Carolina the day is not far distant when we can have an orphanage of our own, where we can shelter, clothe, feed, educate and protect the orphan children of our deceased members in this state.

Now therefore, I, U. M. Milliken, State Councilor Junior Order United American Mechanics, do hereby appoint and set apart Sunday, November 26, 1911, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Him to whom we are indebted for all the successes, pleasures and happiness of this life. In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand and seal this third day of November, 1911.

RALEIGH HIGHS WIN Defeated Greensboro By An Overwhelming Score

Fierce Gridiron Struggle Saturday Won by Boys by Big Score, 29 to 0—Battered Visitors' Line at Will—Champion and Riddick are Stars of Game.

In a very one-sided game the Raleigh high school defeated the Greensboro high school on the A. & M. athletic field here Saturday to the tune of 29 to 0. The Raleigh boys had the advantage of the game all the time and they went through the Greensboro line like bullets cut down an enemy. The star ball for Raleigh was played by Champion and Riddick. For the visitors Stone and Taylor played excellent ball. The visitors were unable to stop the line plays of their opponents, and the execution of the forward passes by Raleigh was beautiful.

PRESIDENT TAFT PREPARES TO VOTE

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—President Taft took the first step toward regaining his right to vote tomorrow in the municipal election. The president appeared before the election board and obtained a certificate allowing him to register in ward 3, precinct 5. He will appear before the proper authorities in that precinct late this afternoon and then be ready to vote tomorrow.

President Taft came into the election board room in the city hall like any other citizen except for the presence of Major Butt in uniform and a detail of Cincinnati police. The ceremony was brief. After obtaining the certificate the president was driven to the office of his brother, C. P. Taft, where he chatted for a few minutes. Later he was driven to Taft's home, where he stops during the stay. The president leaves Wednesday and stops on the way to Frankfurt, at Paris, for half an hour.

CONSUMPTION OF COTTON ESTIMATES

Washington, Nov. 6.—Estimates by American consuls throughout the world of the number of 500 pound bales of cotton required to supply the foreign countries, except Italy and England, for manufacturing purposes before September 1, 1912, place the number at 12,518,112.

The information was called for by the Texas governor, who wanted it to lay before the governors' conference in New Orleans. In the case of Italy, the consul general at Genoa, through a misunderstanding, gave the estimates for the amount of American cotton demanded. The United States has been furnishing about 70 per cent of the cotton consumed in Italy, indicating a total demand for that country next year of 750,000 bales. Estimates for England (2,854,512 bales) represents the consumption of American cotton to September 1, last. America usually supplies about 80 per cent of England's total demand.

ADVANCE GUARD DRIVERS ARRIVING IN SAVANNAH

Trying Out for Vanderbilt and Grand Prize Races. Savannah, Ga.—The advance guard of drivers and cars for the Vanderbilt Cup and International Grand Prize races and light car races, which will take place in Savannah on November 27 and 29, have already arrived and are daily trying out the famous course over the Chatham county roads. With the large number of entries and the world's most famous drivers, these two big blue ribbon events of automobilism will unquestionably prove the greatest road races ever held in the world. Never before have two events of such magnitude been held at one time. Heretofore the Vanderbilt Cup race was held at Long Island in October and the International Grand Prize Race at Savannah in November. Owing to the inability of the promoters to get the proper protection for the course during the race and the unequalled facilities offered by Savannah, it was decided this year to hold the big event at Savannah. It can hardly be called a curtain raiser for the Grand Prize, as it is itself such a world famous race, but it will be run first and two days later the Grand Prize will be run, the two days being allowed to give competitors in the Vanderbilt race ample time to overhaul and "tune-up" their big space-hillers for the Grand Prize event. In these races and the light car events it is probable that over a century-five cars will be entered. The course is seventeen miles long, and with the cars eating up distance at the rate of 50 miles an hour, it will be readily recognized that there will always be "something doing" on every part of the course. Specially constructed cars have been entered, the most dare-devil drivers in the world have been secured and it is absolutely certain that the excitement is going to be intense and the races the grandest sport ever held in the South and, barring unforeseen accidents, the greatest the world has ever yet known.

Flew Across Country.

His machine, a Baby Wright that has only an 18-foot spread of wings, seemed to hesitate for an instant as the aviator carried it into the perilous though spectacular, spiral glide. At this time he was directly over the park, but as he came down his fier described ever-widening curves until he was within a few hundred feet of the ground. Then Rodgers performed one of the dips Arch Hoxsey was taking when he was killed at Dominguez within sight of Moon; Wilson last December. Rodgers declared that his own flight, begun September 17 and finished today, 49 days later would not be duplicated for a year or more.

Appeal for Native Talent. A New York hotel man, who has just returned home after securing Europe for cooks, complains that they are a scarce commodity abroad. The condition is one for which blame why themselves are largely to blame. Why don't they encourage native talent in the cooking line instead of filling their kitchens with foreigners?—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Origin of Common Names. Kings in the earliest days were merely "fathers of families," and the word is derived from the same source as "kith." Queen at first meant "wife" or "mother." An earl was an "elder" in the primitive society, while "caesar" or "Caesar" is derived from the lion's tooth, and vinegar was once "vin aligre," which means sour wine.

LACKED CONFIDENCE STILL IT HELPED

Happy Experience of Ridgeley Lady, Who Describes Her Own Escape From Death.

Ridgeley, Tenn.—Mrs. Jennie Estes, of this place, writes: "I want to say something good for Cardui I can't begin to say enough. I was sick a bed with womanly troubles, from February until October, and was in very bad condition. The doctor came to see me, three or four times a week, but he did me no good. One day, I thought I would give Cardui a trial. I had no confidence in it, at all, but I bought a bottle. In a few days, I was up and doing my housework. Now, I have gained 15 pounds, and am feeling as well as I ever felt in my life. If it had not been for Cardui, I honestly believe I would have been in my grave. I advise all sick and suffering women to take Cardui. It cured me when all other medicines failed."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. Estes, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui. Such testimony from those who have tried and know Cardui, surely indicates the value of this reliable woman's remedy.

For quick relief from all forms of womanly trouble, Cardui is the medicine you need. Try it.
