PHILADELPHIA VOTES REFORM

Republican Majority of Nearly 100,000 Over-Turned in Philadelphia—Kentucky Elects Democratic Governor With 30,000 Majority—New Mexico Democratic—Maryland New York and New Jersey Republican—Governor Wilson's Failure To Carry His State Causing Wide-Spread Comment.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—In one of the most bitterly fought elections in Philadelphia's history, Rudolph Blankenburg, independent republican, reform advocate, yesterday defeated George H. Earle, republican organization candidate for mayor by a small plurality of 4,364. Blankenburg's fight was remarkable. He broke down a normal republican majority of between 75,000 and 100,000 and defeated the candidate backed by United States Senator Penrose and State Senator McNichol, the city's organization leader.

Columbus Has Democratic Mayor. Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 8.—The democratic landslide which elected George J. Karb, mayor over George S. Marshall, the present mayor, republican, failed to elect a democratic council. The democrats have seven, the republicans eight, and socialists four councilmen.

Kentucky Democratic. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—After four years of republican rule, Kentucky awoke to a complete counting of the majority's her voters gave yesterday to practically all of the democratic candidates. The next democratic administration goes into office with a heavier endorsement than has been accorded any set of candidates in years. James Bennett McCrory, governor of Kentucky thirty-two years ago, was re-elected at the age of 73, by over 30,000 majority.

New Mexico Democratic. Santa Fe, New Mexico, Nov. 8.—With only incomplete returns from half of the state's counties available the indications point strongly to the election of the entire democratic state ticket, headed by W. C. McDonald, for governor. The progressive republicans supported the democrats to a large extent.

DERAILMENT NEAR SANFORD

Seaboard Freight Train Had Mishap Today, But Extent Was Not Learned

A Seaboard freight train was derailed a few miles south of Sanford this morning, but nobody was injured. The trucks under one of the cars went wrong, causing the derailment. It was not known here what freight train it was nor who the conductor and engineer are. The engine did not leave the track.

A wrecking train was sent out from Raleigh in charge of Conductor Howell and Engineer Walter Thompson. The derailment occurred at the 44-mile-post.

It was expected at noon that the tracks would be clear in at least four hours, so that Nos. 38 and 66, which were held up on account of the mishap, might not be delayed long.

Was Small Affair. A report from the block office of the Seaboard here this afternoon was to the effect that only five box cars had left the track, thereby blocking the main line. No great damage was done and trains will be operating over the line by 5 o'clock, it is said.

Cars Are Spilled. At Cary this morning several Seaboard freight cars turned over and tumbled on to the Southern Railway's tracks, which parallel the Seaboard's tracks at this point. The cars were soon righted and practically no delay was caused in the movement of trains.

CAROLINA AT WORK

Eleven Working Hard in Preparation For Thanksgiving Game—Two More Games Before That—German Club Meets.

(Special to The Times.) Chapel Hill, Nov. 8.—The football team returned Sunday morning from Richmond, where they played the V. P. I. eleven to a tie, and now, with only two more games before the final game with Virginia, are hard at work.

On account of the rain no practice was held on the athletic field Monday afternoon, but signal practice was held Monday night in the gymnasium. The next game will be played on "The Hill" and will be with the University of South Carolina, and then on November 18th, with Washington and Lee at Norfolk. The game with Washington and Lee will be the last game before the game with Virginia, and if the team plays against these colleges as well as it has played in the past, the hopes for the Virginia game will be much more encouraging.

Coach Brock and Captain Winston are working hard on the squad and all the weak points are being rounded off. Though the team did not beat the V. P. I. eleven, the outcome of the game was very encouraging, indeed, as this is the first time since 1905 that V. P. I. has not won from Carolina. The team played with the old Carolina spirit that won so many games in 1902 to 1906, and if this spirit and the playing which it causes continues, there is no reason why everyone should not be proud to wave the white and blue at Richmond on Thanksgiving day.

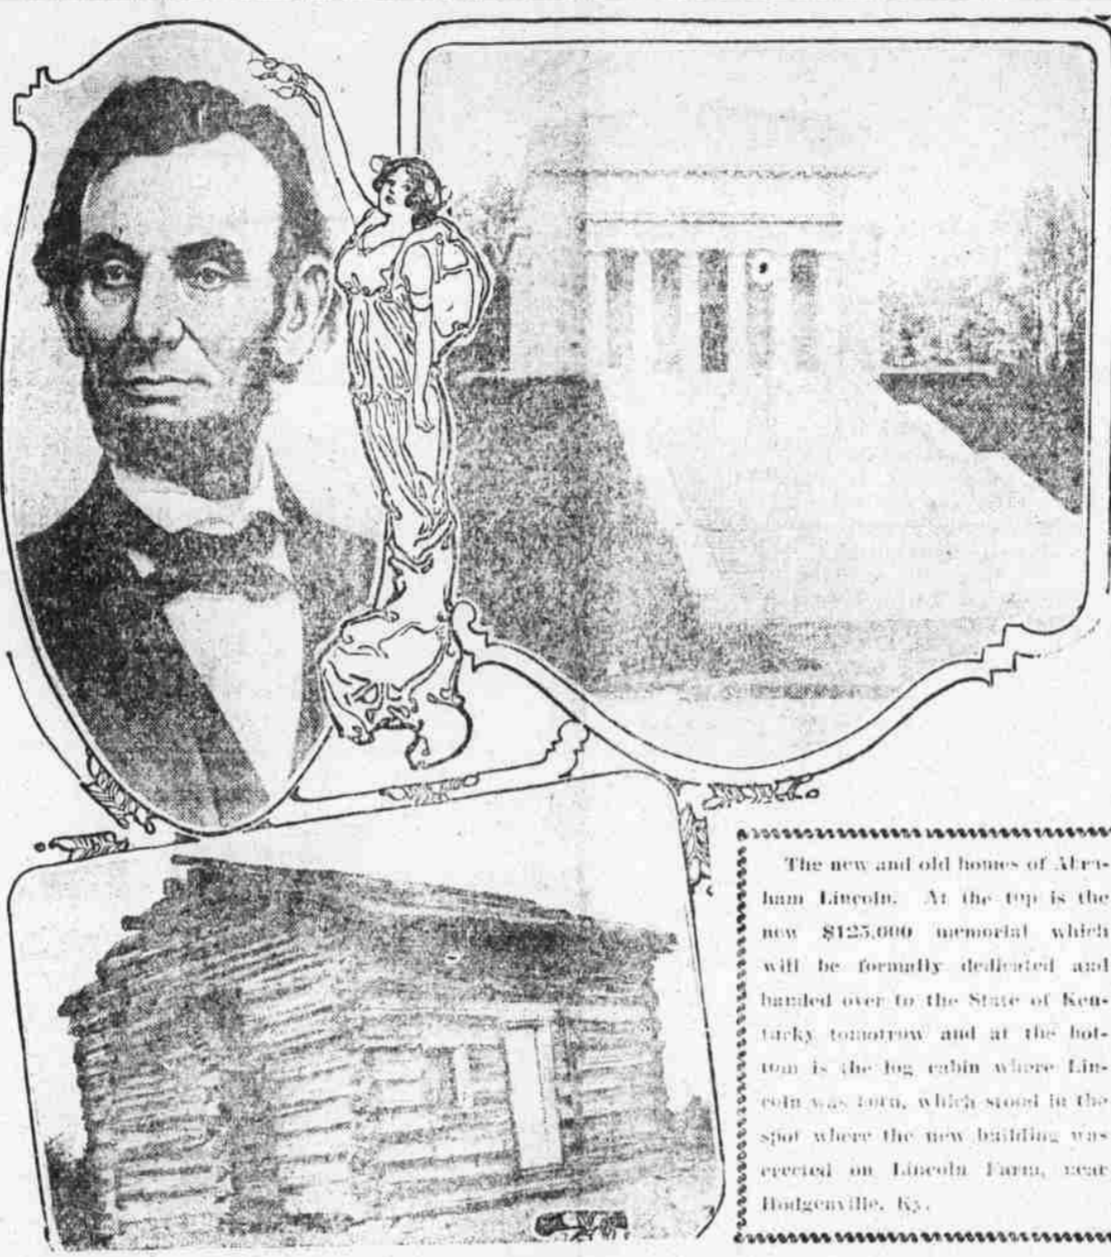

On Tuesday the German Club met to elect the leaders for the fall dance, which is to be held on December 8th, and the following men were elected: Leader—L. P. McEndon. Assistant Leaders—Jos. D. Bonshall, Jr., and W. S. Tillett.

WEAKNESS OF MANCHUS

Edicts Making Repeated Concessions Shows Weakness of Throne.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—Edicts issued daily by the throne, making repeated concessions to the rebels, give strong evidence of the weakness of the Manchu government, according to the state department advices from American Charge Williams at Peking. He reports that Shantung province has declared independence, but Chihle as yet nominally supports the Manchus.

The rebels now hold nine provincial capitals according to Williams' message. Many other important cities are in the revolutionists' hands. A number of towns, including Canton, Soochow, Nanking and Tien Tsin are approaching a crisis where revolt is imminent. The man who starts out to meet trouble never gets halfway.

The new and old homes of Abraham Lincoln. At the top is the new $125,000 memorial which will be formally dedicated and handed over to the State of Kentucky tomorrow and at the bottom is the log cabin where Lincoln was born, which stood in the spot where the new building was erected on Lincoln Farm, near Hodgenville, Ky.

MEMORIAL TO LINCOLN Will Be Dedicated Tomorrow At Hodgenville, Ky.

Memorial Hall to Abraham Lincoln, at the Old Lincoln Farm, Will Be Dedicated Tomorrow in the Presence of President Taft and Other Dignitaries.

Hodgenville, Ky., Nov. 8.—The memorial hall to Abraham Lincoln, erected on the old Lincoln Farm, will be dedicated tomorrow in the presence of President Taft, Chief Justice Edward White of the supreme court of the United States, the governors of several states, senators, congressmen and men prominent in literature and in public life. The Lincoln farm is located near Hodgenville, and a large number of people are assembling tonight to witness the ceremonies.

The imposing building of granite, which is to figure in the exercises tomorrow, enshrines the humble log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born 102 years ago. The Lincoln Farm Association will turn over the farm, the memorial building, which has been erected at a cost of $112,000, and $50,000 for maintenance, to the federal government and it will be formally received by the president.

Chiseled into the granite on one side of the building is the following inscription: "Here, over the log cabin where Abraham Lincoln was born, destined to preserve the union and free the slave, a grateful people have dedicated this memorial to unity, peace and brotherhood among these states."

When the memorial farm and the building are accepted by President Taft the entire military establishment of Kentucky, several regiments of the grand army of the republic and of the Confederate veterans will salute. More than a score of special trains will be run from Louisville to carry the thousands who will be present.

The Lincoln Farm Association, under the auspices of which the work of erecting the memorial has been done, is composed of some of the most prominent men in the country. The president is former Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri. The other officers are Clarence H. Mackay, treasurer; Charles E. Mince, assistant treasurer; Richard M. Jones, secretary; and Robert J. ### VOTE MONEY TO FIGHT CASE

Commissioners Appropriate $200 For Expenses In McCullers Suit

The board of county commissioners yesterday afternoon appropriated $200 out of the general fund to conduct the fight against Dr. J. J. L. McCullers, who was elected county superintendent of health by the county board of health. When the mandamus proceedings came up before Judge Peckham last week the commissioners were represented by an attorney in addition to Mr. B. C. Bookwith, who draws a salary of $729 a year, and Mr. E. N. Simms appeared for the defendants. It was said at that time that Mr. Simms had been employed, though no record of this fact had been made on the minutes. The money appropriated is for the use of Chairman Johnson. So far the commissioners have appropriated $465 of the county's money in this fight, and it is likely that others of the corps of doctors have not submitted their bills.

Should the commissioners lose out in the courts, the authority for appropriating the county's money may be questioned and another interesting matter come up for settlement. Commissioner W. C. Brewer voted against the appropriations.

The second mandamus hearing is set for Thursday, November 16.

BRAVERY OF TWO BOYS

Judge Clark Draws Picture of Two Soldiers

How Major Graham and Lieut.-Col. Eumey Saved Their Men at New Bern. Fit Subject for Poet or Painter—North Carolina History. An incident that will be interesting to all North Carolinians was related by Chief Justice Walter Clark in an address published in the North Carolina Buletin. The subject of the article is, "How Can I Praise?" This incident is one of many, and Maj. W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture, is one of the heroes, the other being Lieut.-Col. H. K. Burgess, Major Graham was captain of Co. K, Second N. C. Cavalry. Judge Clark says of this incident: "At New Bern the battle (Mar. 11, 1862) had gone some against us. Four hundred soldiers are cut off, with a pursuing enemy in the rear and an unfordable stream in front, the men in despair throwing their arms into the water to prevent the enemy from getting them. A single man, there is danger of its being swamped in the mad rush, two young officers, both fresh from college, neither yet 21 years of age, instead of saving themselves and pushing off to safety, take their stand and count off from time to time eighteen men who pass beneath their crossed sabres, till boat load after boat load is ferried across. With immediate peril of Yankee bullets and Yankee prison, they resolutely keep their guard till every man is over and those two, the last to enter, float across to friends and to freedom. What a picture for a painter, for poet, for instructor! How it would have been emblazoned if told in Roman history by Livy, or by Macaulay to match his stirring lines which tell: "How well Horatius did keep the bridge. In the brave days of old."

A DIVORCE PROCTOR. Will Investigate Divorce Cases on Behalf of the Public. ### EXTENSION TO COUNTRY CLUB

Street Car Line Now Ready For Operation Over New Line of Track

The first passengers to be carried on street cars to the Country Club will be members of the Raleigh bar and their guests Saturday afternoon. The street car line extension to the club is now practically completed and by the end of the month regular schedules will be in operation.

With the completion of this extension, the people of Raleigh will have opportunities of really getting out into the country for a small sum. From the postoffice building at the corner of Martin and Fayetteville streets to the end of the Country Club line will be about four and one-half miles.

If Sunday should happen to be bright and warm it is likely that cars will be operated over this line, but regular schedules will not prevail, the management has stated, until the tracks are in first class condition.

Saturday at 2 o'clock the Raleigh bar will entertain the members of the supreme court, corporation commission, federal judges, the governor and others at the Country Club. A barbecue will be a feature of the day. It has been announced that the Carolina Power & Light Company would operate cars to the grounds for their benefit.

Tonight the electric lights will be turned on at the Country Club. The wires were connected up and installed this afternoon.

The first fair will be held on the 23rd of this month and owing to the shortness of time this will be more in the nature of an exhibit, which will be the starter of the fair which the people of the county trust to make a great success in after years.

This association means much for Stanly county, which is coming rapidly to the front. She already has two railroads, and with the Charlotte Raleigh and Southern almost a certainty she will within a few years be one of the best counties from every standpoint in the state.
