HEALTH BROKEN, HE IS GIVEN PARDON

Will Windsor, convicted in Forsyth county in May of the larceny of a watch, was granted a conditional pardon today by Governor Kitchin. Windsor's health has failed almost completely and, according to information that reached the governor, further punishment would be cruel. He was sentenced to two years on the roads. The governor gives his reasons as follows: Since prisoner's conviction of stealing a watch, circumstances have arisen which render the further execution of the sentence a cruel and unusual punishment for the crime committed. It has been made to appear to me by the certificate of the county superintendent of health, the sheriff, the jailer, the mayor of Winston-Salem, and a large number of leading citizens of the community, that prisoner's health has given away to such an extent that he can neither serve on the public road nor be confined in jail without serious injury to his health and probably danger to his life. The solicitor thinks this a

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Raleigh People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first; But when you know 'tis from the kidneys; That serious kidney troubles follow; That diabetes, Bright's diseases may be the fatal end. You will gladly profit by the following experience. 'Tis the statement of a Raleigh citizen.

Mrs. L. H. King, 128 E. Cabarrus St., Raleigh, N. C., says:

"I gladly confirm the statement I gave in January, 1908, telling of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I take this remedy occasionally when my kidneys bother me and I always get relief. At one time I suffered intensely from dull pains across the small of my back and I knew that this trouble was caused by my kidneys, for their secretions were unnatural. I used one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained from the Bobbitt-Wynne Drug Company, and this was sufficient to remove my aches and pains and restore me to good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A POSSUM STORY.

Wake County Man Catches Eleven Marsupials at One Haul—The Tribe Numerous.

Opossums are as plentiful in Wake county as squirrels in the capitol square, if one is to believe the marvelous tales of sportsmen. The other night a party of Raleigh men went out and captured twenty big, fat possums, and other parties have been almost as successful. Mr. K. D. Chambliss, of Zebulon, caught twelve possums the other night in his henhouse. Responding to the call of his frightened chickens, he entered the henroost and found an unusually large marsupial making a night meal on his choice chickens. Mr. Chambliss gathered the animal up and deposited her in a coop. The next morning he found that the mother possum had had ten little possums in her pocket and the youngsters were running all around in the yard. They were as wild as young quail and on the approach of a person would scamper off to the briars. Mr. Chambliss would amuse himself by yelling "booh," and clapping his hands, but he repeated this performance one time too many. The last time he scared the youngsters away and he has the mother by herself. This was several days ago, and from the last reports the little possums had not returned to their mother. They appeared to be about three weeks old.

What She Supposed

Shortly after Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema, R. A., was knighted, he and Lady Alma-Tadema gave an "at home" at St. John's Wood. Everybody present was congratulating them, and one lady was very profuse. "Oh, dear Sir Lawrence," she said, "I am awfully glad to hear of the honor you have received. I suppose now that you are knighted you will give up painting and live like a gentleman."

FLEMING CASE WILL BE ARGUED FRIDAY

Before Judge R. B. Peebles tomorrow will be argued the demurrer of Percy B. Fleming to the complaint of Mrs. Nelle Claire Fleming, whose suit for divorce from bed and board is set for trial tomorrow. Mr. Fleming, through his lawyers, demurs to the complaint of Mrs. Fleming, alleging that the action for divorce on her part is premature and that she has not alleged facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. Mrs. Fleming and children are still in Washington and will not be here for the arguments, as the principals in the case are not required to be in court. The attorneys for Mrs. Fleming are Col. John W. Hindsdale and Solicitor H. E. Norris, and the attorneys for Mr. Fleming are Messrs. Douglass, Lyon & Douglass.

EAT WITH YOUR FINGERS.

London Comes Across With a Novel Cure For Indigestion.

Devour your food "like a lion," and you banish indigestion. This advice, which controverts the well-known maxim of "eat your food slowly," is the considered opinion of three doctors as the best cure for inability to eat a square meal. Such an unorthodox mode of dealing with dyspepsia was first suggested by a doctor in a spirit of frolic, but on talking the matter over with a Harley street specialist, and also with a family doctor with a large London practice, it was found that doctors seem to have the suggestion that there is anything funny in it at all.

"It is the most extraordinary thing," the specialist said, "but I find that the patient who is allowed to eat chicken by picking it up with his fingers is the far better able to digest his food than is the invalid who is worried by a knife and fork."

"A great deal of decorous formality in eating makes for bad digestion. Eat with the fingers like a healthy savage, and you will digest your food like the savage—at any rate, for a time, until the novelty has worn off."

"Promptly after the novelty wears off the good effect will not be so marked, but to return to dainty feeding would then have the same effect as the other method had."

"The more like an animal you eat the more like an animal will your alimentary system behave itself, and the better it will be for your general health."

"If a man takes his meat in his fingers, he can pick it with more relish," the other doctor said. "Children, whose instincts are often very sound, love to eat their food in their fingers, and they are right."—Philadelphia Times.

"I can truly say I have been much benefited by the use of Peruna. I feel better than I have for two years. It is the best medicine that I know for internal catarrh. When I began taking Peruna I could see that before I had finished taking the first bottle it was doing me good."

Sick Headache. Miss Nettie E. Bogardus, R. F. D. 21, Westfield, N. Y., writes:

"I have been a great sufferer from sick headaches, but am now entirely free from that trouble. I have not felt so well in ten years as I do now."

"I would recommend Peruna and Manalin to all sufferers."

Gained Appetite and Strength. Miss Julia Butler, Appleton, Wis., writes: "My sister advised me to try Peruna. I took your treatment and my appetite returned speedily. I gained strength and flesh and am in perfect health."

Mrs. O. D. Robinson, 36 St. Felix Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I have taken Peruna and it did me more good than all my two years' treatment by special physicians. I can really say that I feel like another person. No more swollen feet and limbs. No more bloating of the abdomen. No more shortness of breath. No more stiff and sore joints. You have no idea what your treatment has done for me. It certainly has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me."
