Taylor Love Electrocuted

G. Nichols, of the News and Observer, J. W. Peebles, Bedford Brown, E. C. Wilkie, J. O. Plummer, C. A. Peed, Jr., W. J. Johnson, W. T. Dearen, J. W. Jenks, and C. B. Taylor, of the Daily Times.

Bible Sent Home.

Just before leaving his cell, Love gave to his spiritual advisors, Revs. J. E. King and P. R. DeBerry, a Bible with instructions to send it home. It contained a letter to his parents. On the fly sheet was written, "Taylor Love, born Nov. 26, year 1883, age 28."

As the guards took him from the cell he turned and spoke to the other condemned men, saying: "Good-bye boys, I am going home."

Last Message.

This morning in his cell he dictated the following to his spiritual advisors, which was written: "I feel that I had a fair trial and I have nothing against anyone, and I want all to forgive me for the deed that I have done, for I know that I am at peace with God. I am going to my Father. This Bible and letter please send to my father and when I get home I want to be carried to the church. I have been treated very kindly and I wish to thank all for their kindness. I am very grateful to my lawyers for what they have done for me and hope to meet them in Heaven, for there is where I am going and when my sermon is preached I want them to use as text the 14th chapter of St. John, the first, second and third verses. Please warn all young men against drinking and fast women for these things will shorten their lives. I want every one to be kind to my dear little ones that I leave behind and also to my wife and help her. My best love to Col. S. A. Jones for all he has done for me and I hope to meet him in heaven. Tell father, mother, sister and brother to pray and meet me in Heaven, for that's where I am going to meet my mother."

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

The teachers are glad to come to Raleigh, and come in contact with the Raleigh people, but many of the teachers feel that a city is not the place for the meeting of the assembly. The teachers like to mingle freely with each other, but they find they can not do this very well in the city. They find that when they are housed in one great big hotel there is very much more fellowship.

A county superintendent from one of the eastern counties, said that he had to keep his eye on his neighboring superintendents. They want to blow too much, he said. After every meeting of superintendents this eastern man said that the men began to say that they had to see some one or more of the state officials on very important business. It was wonderful, he said, how much important business many of them have.

A familiar figure at all the assembly meetings in the past has been Bruce Craven. He has been quite a live wire, and many of his friends miss him. He has quit teaching and gone into law.

Superintendent Robert E. Ranson, of the Troy schools, is here with his whole teaching force. The school board at Troy paid the expenses of the teachers to the assembly.

CAPT. ROBERT WINSTON NOT SERIOUSLY HURT.

Mr. R. W. Winston, Jr., who was injured yesterday in the football game between Carolina and Virginia is not in a serious condition. Immediately after the accident Judge Winston got in telephone communication with Richmond and ascertained that his son was not seriously hurt. Mr. Winston is captain of the University team.

Church of the Good Shepherd.

There was a large congregation present at the church of the Good Shepherd yesterday to celebrate the day, and a beautiful musical service was rendered by a large vested choir.

The Rev. Samuel H. Hanft, of Duke, was present in the church and assisted in the service.

The Rev. Dr. Pittenger preached the sermon from the words "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and cometh down from the Father of light with whom is so variableness, neither shadow of turning."—James 1:17.

There was a generous offering for the Thompson Orphanage and after the service portions were sent to those who needed additions to their Thanksgiving fare.

SPELLS THAT LASTED TEN DAYS

Ringgold Lady Makes a Statement That Deserves Prompt Investigation by Every Woman in This Country.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Clarissa Black, of this place, says: "I suffered so from womanly troubles that I could not stand on my feet long at a time. I had pains in my right side, and in my back, and I would take sick spells at times that lasted eight or ten days. The doctor treated me, but I failed to obtain relief, and I tried various other remedies without benefit. It seemed I was growing worse. At last, I commenced using Cardui, the woman's tonic, and before the first bottle was gone, I felt better. By continuing its use for awhile, I am now entirely cured. I am in better health than I have been in a long time. I am feeling just fine. I am grateful for what Cardui has done for me and wish every poor, suffering woman would take Cardui, and be well again. If you suffer from any of the troubles so common to weak women, what reason could there be for your not giving Cardui at least a fair trial? For more than fifty years, Cardui has been used with entire satisfaction, by thousands of weak and ailing women. It will surely help you, too."
