

SUBWAY SALE

NO 2

Our first sale in The Subway was a tremendous success and we have been looking for bargains ever since for this sale and have gotten together a great lot of bargains. A few items really out of the ordinary and goods that we have never offered before. We have gone out of our regular line for a few of these items and we can assure you that the prices on these bargains will greatly surprise you. We have gone to the Manufacturer, the Jobber and the Retailer and gotten their best good at practically our own price and when you read the list then come and see all the bargains we have you will agree with us that we have surpassed all former efforts.

WOOLLCOTTS

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE RALEIGH, N. C.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Samuel Hawkins, colored, paid a fine of $5.00 and cost for forcible trespass.

Margaret Woods, a white woman, was before his honor charged with firing a pistol and cursing. Mrs. Holt, who is about 87 years old, told the court of Margaret Woods going to her house and cursing her violently. Mattie Dinkens declared Margaret was drinking and cursed around so much that she went after a policeman. Dempsey Holeman told of hearing her use very "famey" language and shooting a pistol four times. The defendant declared that she followed her husband to the Dinkens place and had a conversation with him in regard to the children. Went on home and two men came there and used very profane language and she fired her pistol to run them out of her yard. J. W. Jenks, who was in Margaret's house, told of two men using all kind of profanity to her and she fired her pistol to make them leave. "She shall pay a fine of $10 and cost" was the verdict of the court.

The bond of Edna Morris was forfeited when she was called out and failed to answer.

ESPERANTO MEETING.

State Esperanto Association Elects Officers for the Year.

The North Carolina Esperanto Association met last night at 414 north East street. The following officers were elected: Dr. A. Rudy, president; Rev. A. B. Hunter, vice president; Mr. Walters Durham, secretary; Mr. Henry Litchford, treasurer. These officers were declared the executive committee with full power to act for the association.

Practice meetings and classes for beginners are to be held every Tuesday evening from 8 to 10 at 414 north East street.

Meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

OFFER $100,000 TO HAVE NORFOLK SOUTHERN ENTER.

The Greensboro chamber of commerce has telegraphed Mr. E. C. Duncan, in charge of the extension of the Norfolk Southern Railway, offering the railroad $100,000 to enter that city. Every inducement that a progressive city could offer has been made in the hope that his big railroad might be induced to enter Greensboro.

LESS COTTON GINNED THIS YEAR THAN WAS IN 1908.

According to the census figures the number of bales of cotton ginned to December 1 last was not as large as the number ginned to December 1, 1908. For this year the figures are 12,814,832 and for the year 1908 they were 13,986,905 bales. This fact was pointed out today by Major W. A. Graham, commissioner of agriculture.

Organize Associated Charities.

Superintendent R. S. Stephenson has received a letter from Dr. I. M. Mercer, pastor of the First Baptist church at Rocky Mount, asking for a copy of the constitution and by-laws of the Associated Charities. They have a movement on foot at Rocky Mount to organize and are desirous of copying after the one here, which has been so successful.

For the convenience of those who cannot do their shopping during the day, we will keep our store open every night until Christmas.

TOYLAND.

Site Selected For Monument.

is a magnificent tribute of a loyal and devoted son of the state to the memory of those women who for four years suffered hardships, privations and anxieties even greater than those endured by their husbands and brothers in the field. All the people of the state will applaud with high praise this generous action of this gallant old soldier and devoted North Carolinian.

An Appropriate Site. The place selected is especially appropriate, as it will be immediately in front of the great state building which building itself is in a way a monument to Colonel Horne's breadth of vision and love of his state.

In regard to the above program, Dr. W. R. Cullom, pastor of the Rolesville church, says:

"We think we have here a program that is worthy of the occasion, and we have tried to make it worth while for the people to make a sacrifice to come. The Rolesville people promise entertainment to all who come. We, the Sunday school workers of the association, and of the country round about, will avail themselves of this rare opportunity. Those who attend as many as twenty lectures will receive the beautiful lecture course certificate of our Sunday school board, at Nashville, Tenn.

Any one who is at all ambitious to become useful in Christian service would get great help from attending this institute, and all are cordially invited."

—Capt. A. L. Bulwinkle of Gastonia was a visitor at the office of Adjutant General R. L. Leinster today.

The oldest active physician in Maine is Dr. Amos R. Dunlap, of Ripley, who is nearly 93 years old. Dr. Ripley has been practicing medicine for 60 years.

Porter Charlton, who has been in jail at Jersey City, N. J., for more than one year and a half for the murder of his wife at Lake Como, Italy, in June, 1910. Charlton's father, Judge Paul Charlton, has been appointed by President Taft to Puerto Rico. An appeal is now pending before the United States supreme court on the ruling of Secretary of State Knox that Charlton was to be handed over to the Italian authorities to stand trial for murder, to which he had confessed when a white steppage off the steamer at Hoboken June 23rd, 1910. Charlton spends the greater part of his time in the cell reading and writing verses and smoking immature cigarettes.
