GETTING BUSY AT POSTOFFICE

"Do Not Open Until Christmas" Packages Being Received--Information

In line with the early shopping movement, congress last year passed an act permitting patrons of the postoffice to write on packages, "Not to be opened until Christmas," without having to pay first class postage. As a result, the local postoffice has already begun receiving packages so marked, and in the next ten days there should be a big rush in mail of this description.

Postmaster Briggs has not yet added an extra force, but will do so as soon as the Christmas mail becomes heavy enough to justify it. Since patrons are permitted to write on the packages, it is expected that Christmas presents will soon be keeping the forces in offices and trains busy.

Raleigh people will be permitted to get their mail Christmas day. The carrier windows will be open an hour or two on Monday, December 25, and those who expect mail can call at the windows.

The following notice with regard to Christmas Stamps has been issued:

Christmas Stamps.
 "The following countries refuse to admit to their mails articles bearing non-postage 'Christmas' stamps or other adhesive charity stamps or labels:
 (a) Austria, Norway and Portugal, as they resemble regular postage stamps.
 (b) The following countries, unless postage thereon is prepaid, and unless the non-postage stamps are affixed to the back and not to the address side of the covers.
 British East Africa, Uganda, Antigua, Barbados, Bermuda, British North Borneo, Guyana Islands, Cyprus, Gold Coast, Dominica, Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gibraltar, British Honduras, Guatemala, Union of South Africa, Jamaica, Mauritius, and dependencies, Montserrat, Nevis, Southern Niagara, Saint Christopher, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent, Seychelles, Sierra Leone, British Somaliland, Trinidad, Turks and Caicos Islands, Virgin Islands, Germany, Great Britain, Southern Rhodesia.

 "Unless the foregoing conditions are complied with, articles bearing non-postage stamps will not be dispatched from this country but will be returned to the sender, if known; otherwise they will be sent to the division of dead letters.
 "To preclude delay in handling articles bearing such stamps the covers of the articles should bear the full name and address of the senders."

Good Bill at The Grand.

The Grand theatre has on its boards another feature bill, another link in the evidence that the managers are striving to give their patrons nothing but clean-up-to-date vaudeville. The entire bill is strong, every number being high-class artists.

Amo Sisters, in novelty singing and dancing, the first number on the bill, were there with the goods. If encores are evidences that a bill is making good, then this bill swept the house. Repeated encores were given them for their good singing and dancing. To say the least they made a hit.

The Baseball Girl, of course, won when she appeared in "Athletics" uniform. She gets off the baseball song and talk, as well as the jockey, in a catchy style. Her best work, however was "In the town where I was born," which was illustrated with pictures.

Page and McGrath, comedy singing and musical number, was exceptionally good. Their line of dope is lively and catchy and they end their act with banjo music that is as good as ever heard on that stage. The entire bill is clean and worthy of the applause it received.

SAYS FARMERS' UNION IS ACCOMPLISHING MUCH.

Col. J. Bryan Grimes has just returned from a meeting of the Farmers' Union at Wilson. He says it was as representative a gathering of patriotic North Carolinians as he has ever seen. He thinks the work of the union is accomplishing much for the people of the state.

HOLD FUNERAL DR. HAYWOOD

The funeral services over the remains of Dr. Fabius Julius Haywood, whose death occurred yesterday at noon, were held from Christ Episcopal church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. Milton A. Barber, the pastor, conducting the services. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

The beautiful church building was crowded with relatives and friends of this good doctor and all paid silent tribute to the memory of a man whose deeds were charitable, whose actions were noble and whose life was a benediction. Good men have come and gone, but none were better than Dr. Haywood.

The choir rendered three hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," "Just As I Am," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The vocal offerings were unusually beautiful, and it seemed well that the remains of a noble man should be thus showered with fresh, fragrant flowers, emblems of purity.

Here for the funeral are: Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Haywood, Jr., of Concord; Mrs. Frank and Miss Fannie Dancy of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Grimes of Cary, Mrs. Settle Dockery of Rockingham, Mr. A. W. Haywood of Haw River.

The pallbearers were: Honorary—Mr. Charles McKimmon, Mr. Leo D. Heartt, Dr. V. E. Turner, Mr. James A. Briggs, Sr., Dr. W. I. Royster, Mr. B. G. Cowper, Col. J. Bryan Grimes, Col. Chas. E. Johnson, Mr. W. H. Williamson, Mr. Wm. Boylan, Gen. C. A. Woodruff, Dr. K. P. Battle, Jr. Active—Mr. Wm. P. Little, Mr. J. C. Brantley, Mr. J. Q. Jackson, Mr. W. A. Bold Burglar Keeps Up Work

ser and was removing articles from the piece of furniture, in the evident search for money. The lady stated that she looked at the negro several minutes and that she could easily identify him if he were caught. If she had a pistol she stated that she could have shot the negro while he was at work. There was an electric bulb burning in the room and the light shone in the negro's face while he was in the apartment. The lady called out to Mr. Farrow and the negro then hastily made his escape. The lady noticed that the intruder did not have on his shoes.

The man next visited the drug store of Mr. William Nestle, at Seventh and Red Cross streets. This was about 5 o'clock this morning. The residence adjoins the drug store and the man was heard fumbling at the back entrance. Persons in the house were awakened and the man was frightened away. Mr. Nestle stated that he telephoned the police station immediately and that officers were at the scene within eight minutes.

Only a few minutes after the visit to the drug store, someone passing Mr. Edgar B. Snipes' grocery store at Eight and Walnut streets saw a man trying to break into the place. The passerby immediately went to Mr. Snipes' home on Red Cross between Sixth and Seventh streets and informed him of the matter. Mr. Snipes armed himself with a pistol and hurried to his store. As he got in sight the burglar rapidly made off, followed with a bullet from the pistol. However, it is not believed that the shot wounded the man as there was no let up in his rapid pace.

The police were telephoned last night that a burglar had visited the residence of Mr. Thomas Norris near Sixth and Church streets. An investigation was made by the police but no clue was discovered.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Board Establishes a School Near Craggy Station. (Special to The Times.)

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 15.—The board of education of Buncombe county met this morning and decided that another high school shall be established at Mt. Carmel school house, near Craggy station. This meeting followed one held last night by the people of Mt. Carmel district at which they decided that they would do their part in the building of an addition to the present house, which will make it adequate for high school purposes. Prof. Walker of the state university, who is the high school inspector, was also here Monday, and left instructions that the school was to be established if the county and people fulfilled certain conditions. The conditions have now been carried out or will be.

There are now three high schools in the county, this making the fourth. Each of the schools now established get $250 in state aid; the new one will get $250. The Mt. Carmel school house consists of two rooms and it is planned to add one more. Three teachers will be employed. The county will stand half of the expenses and the people of the district will bear the other half.

IMITATING GEORGIA

Uncle Sam Will Follow Georgia in Merging Army Offices. Atlanta, Dec. 15.—If it be true that imitation is the sincerest flattery, then Uncle Sam is preparing to pay a high compliment to the state of Georgia.

The army appropriations bill which will shortly be presented in congress, contains provisions for precisely the same merging of offices and simplification of army business that was recently adopted by order of Governor Hoke Smith, in the Georgia adjutant general's office. In Georgia the office of quartermaster general was abolished, its duties merged with that of adjutant general, and the money previously paid to the quartermaster general devoted to paying a more efficient clerical force.

In the proposed United States army change it is proposed to combine and consolidate in the same way, merging the offices of adjutant general and inspector general, and consolidating them with the general's staff. The quartermaster and commissary department will be combined, in the same way, if the bill goes through.

These reforms are along lines which have long been agitated for Georgia by the leaders of the state militia, and which have already been partially put into effect, as above explained, by order of Governor Hoke Smith.

HUSBAND'S JOKE IS FATAL

Ohioan Kills Himself While Trying To Frighten His Wife. Cleveland, O., Dec. 15.—Many times within the last few months E. E. Hanchett, of Bedford, has attempted to frighten his bride of less than a year into the belief that he was about to end his life. He would load a revolver with blank cartridges, then fired at himself, and the wadding in the shell would merely scorch his clothing. Last night his joke proved fatal. He mistook a loaded shell for a blank one, fired at his head and sank back on the bed beside his wife dead. Mrs. Hanchett thought it the usual joke and prepared to go to sleep. Later she noticed her husband was not breathing. She called a doctor, who pronounced her husband dead.

Hanchett was discharged from the United States Navy several years ago with a record for sharpshooting with a revolver. According to neighbors he has several times awakened the entire vicinity by firing a revolver in the middle of the night to frighten his wife.

A Married Woman's Right to Rule.

"It is cruel to say it, but only the woman who takes care to preserve her youthful charm has a right to rule her husband's heart. She should never neglect her hair or complexion.
 "The hair can be kept light and fluffy and beautifully lustrous by dry shampooing. Mix four ounces of therox with four ounces of powdered orris root of four ounces of cornmeal, whichever you prefer. Sprinkle on the head and brush through the hair.
 "To keep the skin soft and lovely, and prevent the growth of hair gently massage the face, neck and arms daily with a solution made by dissolving an original package of mayotone in eight ounces of witch hazel. This is better than powder.
 "Mother's Salve will remove chaps, cold sores, eczema and skin eruptions. It is a reliable cure for coughs, colds and catarrh, as well the best salve for sores, cuts, burns and scalds."
