By Miss Susan Iden.

MY DESIRE.

'Tis not my wish to set the world a flame, Nor would I strive the multitudes to sway.
 But rather would I seek an honored name
 By doing just a little good each day.
 I have no magic force that I can wield,
 To teach some heathen horde I do not yearn.
 Yet I will yield what goodness I can yield
 And garner what I may—for I would learn.
 If I can speak one kindly word of cheer,
 To life some fellow-man above the gloom,
 Or do some little act that will endear,
 Or with a smile some darkened place illumine.
 Then will I taste the sweets of my desire, Content with that I'd ask no other gain.
 To greater heights I seek not to aspire
 If I but know I have not lived in vain.

I care not for the plaudit man may give It adds but little glow to life's short span.
 The modest fame I crave is just to live True to my God, myself and fellow-man.

 ness.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB.
 Meeting of Music Department Next Wednesday Afternoon.
 The postponed meeting of the music department of the Woman's Club will be held next Wednesday afternoon, January 16, at 4 o'clock in the auditorium at Meredith College. Mr. Gustav Hagedorn, of the music faculty of Meredith College, will have charge of the program, the subject of which will be Richard Wagner's Tetralogy. The musical numbers will be illustrated by means of a pianola and some vocal selections. The meeting will be full of interest and all club members are invited to attend.

Recital at Meredith.
 A large and enthusiastic audience enjoyed the forty-third faculty recital at Meredith College yesterday afternoon, given by Dean Wade R.
 Brown, organist, assisted by Miss Minnie Ruth Haynes, soprano.
 The program lasted for an hour and was beautifully rendered both by Mr. Brown and Miss Haynes.
 The appreciative audience, almost filling the auditorium, on such a disagreeable afternoon, was quite a tribute to both performers.
 The numbers rendered were as follows:
 Prologue, Intermezzo—Rogers.
 Sonata No. 1—Gullmunt.
 Dances—Stranger.
 Capriccioso—Lemaigre.
 Madrigal—Rogers.
 Prelude and Fugue C minor—Bach.
 March of the Magi Kings—Dubois.
 Sunshine—H. Elliott Button.
 Pasfate d'Orgue—Shelley.

Leap Year Party.
 (Special to The Times.)
 Sanford, Jan. 13.—The young ladies of Sanford most delightfully entertained quite a number of their gentlemen friends at a leap year party, given in the Armory Hall last Thursday evening. At the hour of 9 o'clock the young ladies, who had assembled at an appointed place, went to the Sanford Hotel, where the young men were awaiting them.
 From there they went to the Armory Hall, which was very elaborately decorated for the occasion with new year bells and crepe paper, woven very artistically into many beautiful designs. Under the soft glow of many red shaded lights, and the harmonious strains of music rendered by an orchestra which had been engaged for the occasion, the young folks indulged in various games, suggestive of leap year.
 A most tempting salad course was served, and appropriate toasts given.
 At the hour of 12, which came, all to soon, the young people bade each other goodnight, and wishing each other many more as happy occasions.

PINEBURST SOCIALS Hours and Numerous Dinners, and Evenings of Bridge Entertain Guests.
 (Special to The Times.)
 Pinehurst, N. C., Jan. 13.—Marking midseason's commencement, the opening of the Hotel Carolina inaugurates the winter's more formal social affairs, many of which have evolved the week. For the regular Wednesday and Saturday hops the entire colony has gathered, with numerous dinners and evenings of bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lard, of Washington, entertained a party of eight dinner guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Justus Kendall, of Worcester, were the hosts in honor of Vice President C. R. Capps, and General Passenger Agent C. B. Ryan of the Seaboard. Bridge for Charity at "Red Cables," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Sinclair, of Boston, on Monday, was followed by smaller parties given by Mrs. Irving S. Robertson, of Rochester, Miss Gwendolyn Cummings, of Baltimore, Mrs. W. S.
 Skillen, of Chicago, Mrs. Lard, Mrs.
 Kendall and others.
 Out of doors attention has been divided between golf, quail shooting

DR. ARCHIBALD HENDERSON

To Lecture On Modern Drama Before
 the Woman's Club.

An event of more than usual interest which the Woman's Club has to look forward to this month is the lecture of Dr. Archibald Henderson, of the University of North Carolina, on Friday evening, January 26, in St. Mary's auditorium.
 Dr. Henderson comes under the auspices of the literary department of the club, his theme being "The Modern Drama. Owing to the limited seating capacity of the club room and through the kindness of Dr. Lay, the meeting will be held in St. Mary's auditorium.

Dr. Henderson has made a special study of the modern drama so in speaking on that subject he will present a theme of which he is master.
 It is an occasion to be looked forward to with the deepest interest by all who are interested in the intellectual life of the state.
 Dr. and Mrs. Henderson will be entertained by Mrs. Margaret Busbee Shipp, Raleigh's gifted writer, while they are in the city. Their coming will also be the occasion of some special attention from the Woman's Club.

SUICIDE IN FEAR OF RABIES

Police Chief's Son Shoots Himself
 After Taking Poison.
 Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 13.—Hiram Davies, Jr., son of Chief of Police Davies, committed suicide today by shooting himself, making doubly sure of his death by first taking a large quantity of laudanum.
 Davies was 20 years of age and of exemplary habits. Several weeks ago he was bitten in the hand by a dog, and the fear of dying from hydrophobia is believed to have led to the suicide.
 Last Sunday Davies confided to his sweetheart and her mother that he believed that he would be afflicted with the rabies from his wound, and expressed his terror at dying such a death. Davies left several notes, which were not explanatory to his act.

DRINKING FOUNTAINS CUT OFF

St. Louis Health Department Insists Water Must Be Boiled.
 St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 13.—An order to shut off all school drinking fountains except for emergency use was issued today by Water Superintendent Ben Blewett. This action followed a warning from the health commissioner against the drinking of the water without boiling.
 Because the danger, not yet passed, of a water famine, the water department has ceased filtering the water. An ice gorge below the city today raised the Mississippi River to a level where five pumps could work at the water works. This will enable the city to accumulate a limited surplus.

WIFE SUES EX-CONGRESSMAN

Mrs. Lidia P. Coudrey Asks Divorce and Restoration of Name.
 St. Louis, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Lidia B.
 Coudrey, wife of former representative Harry M. Coudrey, today filed suit for divorce, with restoration of her maiden name.
 Mrs. Coudrey charges desertion and failure to provide.

 always do the work. J. T. Shelust, Foley Kidney Pills with great satisfaction and found more relief from their use than from any other kidney medicine, and I've tried almost all kinds. I can cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers for kidney and bladder trouble." King-

ABDICATION OF THE THRONE DECIDED ON

Peking, Jan. 13.—Abdication of the throne has been practically decided on, and the retirement to Je-hol will take place almost immediately.
 Owing to growing disorders in the provinces the Manchú princes of imperial clan, Manchú officials and soldiers agree on this is the only course open to the throne.

BIG ADVERTISING CONVENTION

How to Best Advertise a City One of the Subjects for Discussion.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 13.—How to best advertise a city, a state or a nation, will be the subject of one big meeting during the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, which will be held at Dallas May 19 to 23. It is planned to have this meeting in the big coliseum at the state fair grounds, probably on the evening of the first day of the convention. The question will be discussed by some of the most prominent men in the world; men who have made city building and municipal problems a life study and whose names are closely linked with the progress and development of many of the larger cities of the world.

At the 1911 convention held at Boston, the department of municipal advertising discussed the question as related to publicity, newspaper and magazine advertising. The big meeting at Dallas next May will not only handle these questions, but will also go deep into the question of having something to advertise. Municipal problems of all kinds and character as related to city life will be touched and it is expected to be one of the most important departments of the convention.

Commercial secretaries and municipal officials from many of the large cities in the United States and Canada will attend the convention for the special purpose of hearing and taking part in these discussions and problems that have been solved in one section of the country and which are vexing a city in a widely separated section, will be brought out in such a manner as to prove of untold good in all sections.

Among the more important questions that will be discussed will be city beautification and sanitary conditions. There will also be the question of uniform design in architectural construction of buildings, the grouping together artistically of public buildings, transportation and public rest and comfort stations.

Several European experts along these lines will attend the convention, brought here by the national association and the committee on municipal advertising. As the European cities in many instances are further advanced along the lines of municipal improvement, much of interest is expected from these men.

WILL VISIT AMERICA

Count Lutnow Coming—Will Deliver An Address Before Congress.

London, Jan. 13.—Count LUTNOW, the Bohemian scholar and historian, will leave London on January 20th for an extended tour of America, and will, besides giving an address before congress, deliver a series of lectures among many of the chief universities of America.

The address before congress will be largely devoted to the subject of Universal Peace and early attempts in that direction made by a king of Bohemia, King George of Podocbrad, who proposed a union of European countries to put a stop to war. The lectures at the universities will be on the history and literature of Bohemia, politics as far as possible being eliminated.

The Count is due to arrive in Washington on February 4th, and the address to congress will be delivered on the next day.
 Count Lutnow is known throughout Europe as an authority on things Bohemian, and he has lectured and written about his country in almost every university on this side of the water. This, however, will be his first trip to America, and he is looking forward to it with a great deal of interest. He was induced to make it by the Bohemian Society of Chicago, and by the fact that in Nebraka and other western states there are large prosperous Bohemian colonies. A big, jolly man who is usually surrounded in his London residence, where he and the Countess entertain, by the best of the literary circle of England and the continent, the Count is sure to appeal to the American collegian.

An exhibition of the last work of the late Edwin A. Abbey, the American artist, was opened with the new year by the Royal Academy at Burlington House. Such exhibitions are a signal honor, which the academy grants only in the case of its most distinguished deceased members.
 The pictures selected for the exhibit were picked by Mrs. Abbey, with the assistance of members of the Royal Academy who were in close touch and sympathy with the work of her husband.

Among the pictures are several sketches made preliminary to the paintings which Abbey did for the

CRITICISES INDIAN PICTURES

Pictures Show of Indian Life Not True and False Impression.

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 13.—Characterizing the brand of moving pictures showing Indian life and romance as untrue and faded, M. Friedman, superintendent of the Government Indian School here, in an interview today declared that some organized effort should be made by the Indians and by the government to have these pictures censored. He says the pictures are an injustice to the Red Man and are doing much harm.
 "We have been hearing much recently in criticism of the untrue and libelous brand of moving pictures of Indian life and romance which are shown throughout the country," he said, "and are supposed by the uninitiated public to be true to life.
 Some of the objections has come from the Indians themselves. The majority of these pictures are not only without foundation in fact, but do not even have Indians to pose for them. To anyone who knows the Indian and his environment at first hand, this is immediately manifest.

"White men or Mexicans usually pose as Indians, with blackened faces, wigs and Indian costume; their actions and gestures are absurdly grotesque and exaggerated.
 These make-believes do not run, talk or walk like Indians, and their whole make-up brands them as fakirs."
 "The stories consist of some romance impossible to Indian nature, a holdup, or a battle of some kind.
 Quite often the Indians are made to do acts of seemingly heartless cruelty. No possible good can come from this misrepresentation, and I am convinced that much harm and prejudice will result.

"Now the time is here when the Indian must live in peace and amity with the white man. Many of these pictures will tend to arrest and hamper this mutual understanding of the races which is so vital to the Indian's welfare. The old days of strife and warfare are permanently gone. The new Indian has supplanted him as a worker who is an integral part of the life of the country.

 Remedies the Mis-

Tampa, Fla.—Mrs. E. C. Coram, of 2965 Highland avenue, says: "I was very weak and worn out from womanly troubles. My husband bought me two bottles of Cardui to take as a tonic, and from the first day, it seemed to me I felt its good effects. By the time I had used the two bottles, I felt and looked like a new woman.

Some time later, I got my feet wet at the wrong time, and I turned to Cardui to remedy the mischief done.
 Before I had taken one bottle, it gave me the needed relief.

I gave the rest to a friend, for her daughter, who was suffering with similar troubles, and it cured her.
 Cardui has had a most wonderful curative effect upon me. I am now 59 years of age, and feeling well. I constantly praise Cardui to all my sick friends. It is a wonderful remedy."
