OVER THE HILLS.

Over the hills and far away
A little boy steals from his morn-ing's play,
And under the blossoming apple tree
He lies and he dreams of the things to be;
Of battles fought and victories won,
Of wrongs o'erthrown and of great deeds done—
Of the valor that he shall prove some day
Over the hills and far away
Over the hills and far away!

It's oh! for the toils of the livelong day!
But it mattered not to the soul afire
With a love for riches and power and fame!
On, oh man, while the sun is high—On to the certain joys that lie Yonder where blazeth the moon of day!
Over the hills and far away—
Over the hills and far away—

Over the hills and far away
An old man lingers at close of day; Now that his journey is almost done, His battles fought and his victories won—
The old-time honesty and truth, The truthfulness and the friends of youth,
Home and mother—where are they?
Over the hills and far away—
Over the hills and far away!

—Eugene Field.

Thought for the Day.

The best thing to give your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.—F. M. Balfour.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB.
Meeting With Mrs. Hagedorn and Miss Cotton at 4 O'Clock.
The meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Gustav Hagedorn and Miss Elizabeth Avery Cotton at Meredith College vesperian at 4 o'clock, the delightful evening program being followed by refreshments.

The subject of the afternoon was Browning's poem on "Able and Musicians."
The program was divided in two parts: the poem on music—"A Toccata of Gounod," "Master Bunches of Saxe-Gotha," "Abt Vanden," "Preluding With Charles Abscon," and "The Founder of the House," were read and interpreted by Mrs. Hagedorn.

The poems of the second part of the program were read and interpreted by Mrs. R. O. Patton. These were: "The Poet in Exile," "Memorabilia," "Popularity," "How It Strikes a Contemporary," and "At the Mermaid."

Brilliant Event.
Charlotte, Jan. 31. There took place at the hospitable home of Mrs. W. T. Jones yesterday afternoon, between the hours of three and five of the clock, an entertainment which will long be remembered by these present as one of the most beneficial and helpful meetings ever attended. Mrs. Jones, on behalf of the Woman's Home Mission Society, of which she is president, was hostess to the members of the Young Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church. The following program had been officially published in the local papers and through the pulpit of the church previous to the event:

"Mrs. W. T. Jones, at home Tuesday afternoon, January 30th, three o'clock, complimentary to the Woman's Home Mission and the Young Ladies' Aid Societies of the Methodist church. 'The Bugle Call,' all the women of the Methodist church are urged to come and join the Woman's Home Mission Society."

The members of both societies having arrived the services were opened by Rev. E. E. Rose and conducted by Mrs. Jones. After the "Bugle Call" was read by Mesdames A. D. Muse and M. B. Jenkins a delicious course of refreshments was served by the young ladies. There were eight addresses to the senior society, all the new members con-ting from the junior society. The guests left for home declaring that Mrs. Jones had most royally entertained them and that a pleasant and helpful evening had been theirs.

TURKEY TROT LEADS TO CELL.
Proprietor of Dance Hall is Sentenced to Six Months.

New York, Jan. 31.—Walter S.
Sweeney, proprietor of a resort in Thirty-first street, went to the penitentiary today by way of the turkey trot and the grizzly bear.

He was convicted of running a dance hall without a license, and sentenced to six months on Black-wells Island. Witnesses for the defense were in court ready to testify to the harmless nature of the dances, and an instructor, who said he taught the "last word" in dancing to society, volunteered with a woman partner to exhibit to the court the inoffensive nature of the steps.

The justice declined the offer; denounced the dances as indecent, and passed sentence on Sweeney.

widow it is a sign she knew it long before he made the discovery.

MR. HILLIARD SINKING

Frank Moore Kicks Burning Gasoline

Former Scotland Neck Editor Critically III—Road Improvement—Disastrous Effects of Monkeying With Gasoline.

(Special to The Times.)
Scotland Neck, Jan. 31.—Mr. E.
E. Hilliard, whose critical illness was reported in this correspondence last week is sinking and the end is not unexpected. Mr. Hilliard has been in feeble health for the past several years, and especially since he disposed of his newspaper a little more than two years ago. He suffered a complete break down about two weeks ago, and since that time his physicians have held out no hope for his recovery.

As a result of the action of the local Retail Merchants' Association several days ago, we learn a force of lands are at work on the road leading from Keeseeville township, the particular point being known as "the creek" and is just at the edge of town. It is understood that the road is being "cross loaded," and when it is completed, those who understand the conditions there say it will be in splendid condition and will not be a subject of criticism any longer. Several thousand dollars have been spent on this road—not more than six or seven hundred yards, and it is hoped by all the people that it will be permanently repaired.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Frank Moore, who is clerking for Jesse Hayes Company, had emptied a tank of gasoline in a large reservoir and spilled a good bit on the ground near by, also spilling some on his clothing without being aware of it. Mr. Moore struck a match to light the gasoline and stood near by kicking at it, when his clothing ignited, and for the prompt action of two colored men standing by he would have been seriously if not fatally burned. As it was he escaped with a pretty severe burn upon the knee.

On February 14th, there will be a pastor's conference and meeting of the executive board of the Roanoke Baptist Association held in the Scotland Neck Baptist church. Programs of the meetings have been issued, and the names of several prominent ministers of the association appear thereon to deliver speeches during the day. Besides these Dr. R. J. Whittingham, secretary of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention, will deliver an address at the evening service upon foreign missions. This will be Dr. Whittingham's first visit to Scotland Neck, and no doubt our people will hear him gladly.

The grand jury has brought in a true bill against Ed Jones, who shot and killed Turner Wiggins, both colored, here several months ago, and the case was set for today. It will be remembered that Jones made his escape after firing the fatal shot but was captured a few weeks ago in Hertie county. We learn that the solicitor will ask for a verdict of first degree murder.

Court convened at Halifax Monday with Judge Cline, of Hickory, presiding. We have heard that Judge Cline has made a splendid hit among the court house officials as a learned jurist, and reinstating judge. This is his first court in Halifax county.

Mrs. Sue Edwards died at her home here early yesterday morning after a lingering illness of several weeks. The remains will be taken to Lawrence today for interment, the services being conducted by Elder W. F. Staton. Mrs. Edwards was a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church, holding her membership at Lawrence.

What Makes a Woman?
One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling.
"Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by King-Crowell Drug Co.

BE SURE OF YOUR PIANO.

When you buy a piano you want to be sure you are getting the best toned instrument and one that will retain its perfect tone for many years.
Hard to be sure, isn't it. There is only one way to be absolutely sure—be governed by the name and experience of the maker.
Henry F. Miller Pianos are the result of long years of experience. In 1859 the Millers made pianos, about the best pianos made in this country at that time. Today the Henry F. Miller Piano is recognized as the best piano that can be made.
