

DURHAM MEN HOLD BANQUET

Industrial Jubilee Meeting Celebrating the City's Prosperity

(Special to The Times.)
Durham, Feb. 23.—Enthusiasm during the industrial record of Durham during the past year and filled with optimism for the future, more than three hundred prominent industrial and professional men gathered last night as the guests of the Durham Merchants' association at the annual banquet.

The banquet was in the nature of an industrial jubilee to celebrate the tidal wave of property which the city has enjoyed during the past season. Optimism and well grounded enthusiasm prevailed around the banquet tables until after two o'clock this morning. Among the prominent out of town guests present at the banquet were Josephus Daniels of Raleigh, C. C. Dula, president of the Liggett and Myers tobacco company, S. W. Toms, vice-president of the Liggett and Myers company, President Potat of Wake Forest

College and Charles B. Ryan, of the Seaboard Railway company. The following toasts were responded to:
"Durham as a Wholesale Center," Judge James S. Manning.
"Durham, Its Cotton Mill Industry," W. A. Erwin.
"Durham's Industrial Spirit as Viewed from Abroad," Jones Fuller.
"The Commercial Club," Claiborne McD. Carr.
"The Seaboard Air Line Railway, Its Main Line," Charles B. Ryan.
"Durham, Its Tobacco Industry," F. L. Fuller.
"The Press, Its Relation to the Industrial Development of the States," Josephus Daniels.
The students of Trinity College yesterday elected a committee of ten to arrange for the holding of a moot democratic convention at the college at an early date. There was a lively contest between the admirers of Wilson and Harmon for preference in the personnel of the committee, and the Wilson advocates came out slightly in the lead.
At the convention, a full democratic ticket will be nominated by the students.
The Durham friends of Governor W. W. Kitchin are organizing a club to promote his candidacy for the United States senate. More than 150 voters signed the membership list the first day it was circulated. A meeting will be held at an early date at which an organization will be perfected.
The people of Durham showed their patriotism yesterday in an extensive celebration of the Washington birthday anniversary. The banks closed and there was a general suspension of business. The show windows were beautifully decorated with cherry trees, paintings and patriotic regalia.

Public exercises were held at each of the public schools. Addresses were made by the teachers and by local citizens on the life and character of Washington.
Representatives of the literary societies of the high school debated the question of popular election of United States senators. The affirmative was represented by Frank Sasser and William Umstead, and the negative was upheld by Marion Fowler and Preston Epps. The judges rendered their decision in favor of the affirmative.

FRAU ELBERTS TO LECTURE

Will Spend a Week in Greensboro— Gift to G. F. C.
(Special to The Times.)
Greensboro, Feb. 23.—Elbert Hubbard, writer, lecturer and humorist, will spend a season in Greensboro during April, and has been invited to deliver an address here on his noted theme "The Religion of the Future." It is expected that he will accept the invitation. He has written that he is looking forward with keen pleasure to a stay of one week or more in this city during April.
One of the most interesting donations to the dormitory fund of the Greensboro Female College, came to the committee yesterday. It was for only $25 and from the purse of W. A. Watson, Sr. The spirit in which the gift was made and reference to the earlier days of the famous Methodist college were referred to by the donor. Mr. Watson was one of those who, with his own hands, helped to build the college after the fire of 1862. He helped to lay the bricks that went into the walls and refers feelingly to some of the heroes of that day who were prominently connected with the college. He spoke of Dr. T. M. Jones, for more than 35 years president of the institution; Rev. Peter Doub, who built the first Methodist church in Greensboro in 1830, and Rev. William Barringer, father of Col. John A. Barringer, of Greensboro, who lost his life by a fall from a scaffold while inspecting the college building.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at King-Crowell Drug Co.

SECOND KIMMEL MYSTERY

New Witness Testifies He is the Only "Turkey" White.
St. Louis, Feb. 23.—A second identity mystery was presented to the Kimmel jury in the United States district court today by the introduction of Al H. White, of Hannibal, Mo., as a witness. He qualified as being known as "Turkey White," and testified that he knew of no other "Turkey" White.
The plaintiff in the insurance suit has asserted that Andrew J. White, the claimant, was known as "Turkey" White, tramp railroad man, and that Melvin White, of Parsons, Kan., was also known as "Turkey" White. The White who testified today has a thumb missing, as has the claimant, but not on the same hand.
The afternoon session was taken up with the testimony of the Rev. Cordello Herriek, chaplain at the Auburn, N. Y., prison at the time

The claimant was held there. The former chaplain testified that the claimant, whom he called Kimmel, recognized each caller who visited him, called each by his or her first name, and that he attempted to kiss a former sweetheart who visited him. He was present at the time the claimant's deposition was taken in 1908, and testified that when attorneys for the plaintiff and defendant entered the room in the prison, that the claimant called each of them by name.

ONE DOG SHOTS ANOTHER.

Pulls Trigger of Gun Which Had Been Set for Wolves.
Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 22.—It is seldom that one dog shoots and kills another, but that is what happened near Dugald, a town 30 miles east of here, according to advices received last night.
A shotgun had been tied to a stump for the purpose of killing prairie wolves which came to feed off a carcass. From the trigger of the gun a string extended to the barn, a distance of 200 feet. When a wolf was seen eating at the carcass it was planned to pull the strigger and kill the animal.
While one dog was enjoying a meal of the carcass another playfully caught the string in its mouth and began prancing around. The owner called the dog, but before he could attract his attention the weapon was discharged and the feeding dog fell dead.

National Christian Party.

Davenport, Iowa, Feb. 23.—A call for a national conference of the United Christian party, at Rock Island, Ill., was issued by William R. Benkert, national leader. The call announces it is the Christian party's purpose to settle the tariff, liquor, trust and high cost of living problems, by people's direct vote and the golden rule.

GREENSBORO MEAT MARKET

City Seems to Be Getting Frightened—Druggist Quits Selling It

(Special to The Times.)
Greensboro, Feb. 23.—Rather than create the impression that he is seeking to nullify the action of the commissioners of Greensboro in stopping the sale of whiskey at drug stores A. S. Cate, manager of the Revolution Pharmacy just outside the city, has announced that he will immediately discontinue the sale of liquor on prescription and for which he holds a county, state and government license. Mr. Cate, in a public statement, says he has never sold whiskey except upon the prescription of the regular practicing physicians in the mill village, but that since the officials of Greensboro desire to stop the sale absolutely he prefers to join rather than to nullify their efforts. His action was a voluntary one and comes at a time when those whose ails can be relieved only by drink were rejoicing in the fact that whiskey was sold by the Revolution Pharmacy. As matters now stand there are but two courses open in cases of emergency—borrow from a friend or locate a "blind tiger."
The directors of the Merchants' Association and Chamber of Commerce at a joint meeting last night issued a call for a mass meeting of citizens for Saturday night, the object being a general discussion of the proposal to have the city establish and operate a central meat market. It is proposed to have both the opponents and supporters of the measure present and to give all publicity possible to both the merits and demerits of the plan.
While no positive prediction can be made there is no denying the fact that the plan to put the sale of meat in the hands of the city, a proposal originally coming from the socialist colony in the city, is gaining strength and there are many here who now believe the election on next Tuesday will be a victory for the central market plan. The main cause for this success, it is said, is the fact that the people reason and believe that conditions could at no events be any worse than at present and that anything which offers relief from the present very unsatisfactory market conditions of the city is worth a trial. Interest is picking up and it is now evident that a good vote will be polled next Tuesday.
