SNOBBERY AT NAVAL ACADEMY

Representative Korbly Wants Congressional Investigation Made

(By Winfield Jones.)
Washington, March 16.—The snobbery said to exist at the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, may feel the heavy hand of a congressional investigation. There are some members of congress who feel that snobbery should go, just as hazing has gone, "for the good of the service."

Representative Korbly, a democratic member of the house, from Indiana, is the instigator of the plan to turn the searchlight of publicity and official inquiry upon the peculiar social conditions existing at the Naval Academy.

The question that congress may eventually decide is this: "Is a working girl out of place at a naval hop, and what is there about her that makes her 'unfit' to grace a social function participated in by the future captains and admirals of the navy?"

It required several years before congress, with the aid of firm executives, stopped hazing at Annapolis and West Point. The impression in some quarters today is that snobbery is now just as strongly entrenched at Annapolis as the habit of hazing ever was, and that its effect upon the service is worse.

Hazing, it will be pointed out when the matter is brought to the official attention of the house, was something that grew out of the inherent disposition of young men to be mischievous. Snobbery, suffering by comparison, will be paraded

Dr. Humphrey's Famous Specific for La Grippe, and the Prevention of Pneumonia.

"Seventy-seven" meets the exigency of epidemic Grippe, with all its symptoms of Influenza, Catarrh, Pains and Soreness in the Head and Chest, Cough, Sore Throat, General Prostration and Fever. Taken early it cuts it short promptly. Taken during its prevalence, it preoccupies the system and prevents its invasion; taken while suffering from it, relief is speedily realized.

KEEP ON FEEDING

A Plain Rule for the Salvation of Children and Workers.

"To prevent Consumption, feed the children."
"To throw off the infection, feed the workers."
"To cure Consumption, feed the patient."

Sound rules from high medical authority, to which we add one rule more.
Feed the children, the workers, and the infected patients with Ozomulsion.
Keep on feeding them with Ozomulsion.

Thus will they gain flesh and strength until their cough is silenced, hollow chests and cheeks fill out and the rich color in their faces tells the glad story of vigorous health restored.

as something that is not tolerated at an institution maintained on public funds.

Representative Korbly has received a letter from former Attorney General Miller, under the Harrison administration, in which Mr. Miller declares that not another dollar should be spent for the maintenance of the Naval Academy, until snobbery has been rooted out of the Academy.

There are many members of the house who are in line with Mr. Korbly. Young men from all sections of the country are sent to Annapolis by members of congress, and it is upon the recommendation of the lawmakers that ambitious lads are given an opportunity to enter service and to lay the foundation for a possibly distinguished career in the navy. Once let the impression get abroad that Annapolis is the hotbed of snobbery, reasons the average member of congress and much of its value as an institution of higher learning is gone.

Many of the young men sent to Annapolis come from poor families. It is this fact that has caused Mr. Korbly to ask pertinently: "What are the peculiar social customs at Annapolis that indicates that an estimable young woman, a governess in an officer's home, is unfit to associate with these pseudo officers?"

Korbly took up the beers incident at the last session of congress, but nothing came of it. He intends to take it up again at this session.

The impression prevails about the capitol that if an inquiry is ordered into the beers incident, it will open up a remarkable field of investigation. Scandals of various degrees of seriousness have heretofore embarrassed the navy. Some have been hushed up and others have resulted in dismissals. The beers affair is not regarded as a reflection upon any one, except the cadets who have indicated that the social standards at Annapolis are so high that none save the leisure classes and gold-braided officers are wanted at naval hops. An inquiry into this attitude doubtless will prove as embarrassing to the navy as preceding, but entirely different, affairs have been.

"I asked for an explanation of this remarkable circumstance," said Representative Korbly. "The one I have received is not satisfactory. It rather accentuates the need of an investigation of the entire social fabric at the Academy. It seems as though it will be necessary for congress itself to take a hand in order to cleanse this government-supported institution of its detested snobbery."

C. A. Glossner, 24 Ontario St., Rochester, N. Y., has recovered from a long and severe attack of kidney trouble, his cure being due to Foley Kidney Pills. After detailing his case, he says: "I am only sorry I did not learn sooner of Foley Kidney Pills. In a few days' time my backache completely left me and I felt greatly improved. My kidneys became stronger, dizzy spells left me and I was no longer annoyed at night. I feel 100 per cent. better since using Foley Kidney Pills. King-Crowell Drug Co."

RYAN READY TO AID MEXICO

Cables Government He Will Lend It All the Money Needed.
New York, March 16.—A Mexico City dispatch to the New York Herald says:

The government today received a cable message from Thomas F. Ryan stating that he will lend Mexico all the money it wants. James Speyer, of Speyer & Co., cabled the government.

"I much regret to hear that there are rumors current to the effect that we refused to make a loan to your government. As you are aware, these rumors are absolutely unfounded. On the contrary, we wish to repeat to you that we are prepared to make any loan you desire, and to render your government any other service within our power."

The Men Who Succeed
as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys, I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at King-Crowell Drug Co.

Coughed Himself to Death.
Atlanta, March 16.—Joseph L. Lihorens, a well known Cuban who operated a pool parlor here, coughed himself to death last night, as the result of ordinary coughing. Lihorens was a man of robust health, and had not the slightest traces of tuberculosis or similar disease. There was no hemorrhage. He simply coughed and coughed until he choked to death.

The "Child's Welfare" movement has challenged the attention of thoughtful people everywhere. Mothers are natural supporters, and will find in Foley's Honey and Tar Compound a most valuable aid. Coughs and colds that unchecked lead to croup, bronchitis and pneumonia yield quickly to the healing and soothing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. King-Crowell Drug Co.

CHANGED HER APPEARANCE

Friends Living Only Two Blocks Away Did Not Recognize This Lady and Refused to Speak to Her.

Atlanta, Ga.—"Some of my friends, who live only two blocks from me, did not know me, when they met me on the street the other day," writes Mrs. Mattie Christopher, of this city. "I look so much better now, than they ever saw me. They were surprised, and asked me to excuse them for not speaking to me. I told them I felt better too, and that it was all due to Cardui, the woman's tonic. I had suffered for 20 years with female trouble, which, at times, was so bad that for six weeks I would go on without seeing anything. Home remedies and doctors' medicines did me no good, but Cardui worked like a charm. I will always praise Cardui for what it has done for me." If you are pale, don't use the rouge pot and change your appearance by artificial means. Follow a more natural course and take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It will enrich your blood, build up your constitution, and make you look better and feel better as it has been doing for other ladies during the past half a century. Get a bottle from your druggist. He sells and recommends it. N.
