MEETING AT TABERNACLE

Interest Is Increasing Steadily--Service Last Night

More than a score of young people went forward for prayer last night, in the revival service at the Baptist Tabernacle, and five were received as candidates for baptism. Interest in the meeting is increasing steadily, and this promises to be one of the best that has been held in the Tabernacle for several years.

Pastor Maddy took as his text last night the 35th verse of the eighth chapter of the Acts: "Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus." He related the story of how the Holy Spirit called Philip, the Deacon, out of a great meeting in Samaria, saying "Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert," and he arose and went, and there he came in touch with the Ethiopian eunuch, who was reading the 53rd chapter of Isaiah, which he read was this, He was lead as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth: In his humiliation his judgment was taken away; and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

The pastor said in part: God uses individuals to preach Jesus to other individuals. God is passionately interested in one individual. God so loved the world, that He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. God so loved, if He had been the only one lost, God would have given His Son for you.

God prepares the individual way over yonder and brings him to the individual sinner. We notice a few things in this eunuch. 1. This eunuch yearned for the light of Jesus Christ. It is shown by his trip to Jerusalem. Doubtless he was raised in idolatry, but he had heard of Jesus through the Jews in North Africa, his home land. He was treasurer to his queen, and was a very busy man, but he had come to Jerusalem to worship.

It is also shown by his occupation when Philip found him. He was reading the scripture. He invited Philip to come into the chariot and instruct him. God places within us that yearning desire for light. 2. The eunuch followed the light he had. God vouchsafed to him a fuller, clearer light. The Holy Spirit was cooperating with the scripture. The work of the Holy Spirit is to give that soul hunger, and to cooperate with the scripture.

Suppose we were to follow the light we have. God's word has been given you in your home, in the Sunday school, and the pastors of this church and others have preached the word unto you. You have had a wonderful opportunity. If you had followed the light you have it would have led you to the foot of the cross. We appreciate the love you show us, but we would rather for you to love our Saviour.

3. The eunuch was willing to acknowledge that he needed help. He was conscious of his lack, and willing to be led to Christ. When a man is willing to acknowledge he needs help, he is not far from the kingdom.

4. The eunuch was willing to follow the requirements of the Lord. Philip preached the simple fundamentals of the gospel. We have nothing to preach but Jesus, whereby men may be saved. He believed in Jesus the Son of God. He followed Him in baptism. Some say they believe in Jesus, but they can be a follower of Jesus without confessing Him and joining the church. Suppose all would take that position, what would become of our churches?

The fruits of confession, with the eunuch, "He went on his way rejoicing. Soon after there was a strong church in North Africa. The eunuch went home and preached Jesus. The feeling will take care of itself. It will come in time.

DRUG STORES TO CLOSE

Every Sunday From 11 to 12 During Morning Service.

The action taken by the druggists of the city, to close their stores from 11 to 12 o'clock every Sunday, beginning March 24, is right in line with the Men and Religion Forward Movement that is sweeping the city, and is heartily to be commended. This will not only give the druggists and soda fountain clerks the opportunity to attend church every Sunday, but by closing up their favorite place of resort during this hour of Sunday morning service will send many men and boys to church, who might not otherwise attend.

The following is the agreement entered into by the undersigned:

We, the undersigned druggists of Raleigh, do hereby agree to close our drug stores from 11 to 12 o'clock every Sunday, beginning on Sunday, March 24, 1912.

Signed—Henry T. Hicks, president; Henry T. Hicks Co.; F. W. Parker Drug Co.; The Galloway Drug Co.; R. Galloway; King-Crowell Drug Co.; Ed. Birdsong, president; J. C. IN POLICE COURT Justice Watson Fines Blind Tiger $100 and Costs—Other Cases.

The first of the week Police Justice Watson sentenced C. B. King to six months on the roads for running a blind tiger in connection with his fish market. He did not sentence him for running both, but for running the tiger. Yesterday the justice changed the sentence to a fine of $100. King is to remain on his good behavior.

The case of John and Alexander McCullum, charged with larceny was tried and John was held under a $200 bond. Alexander was released. Mr. W. T. Wombie, the aged man, who runs the store that was robbed, was on the stand and created many laughs by his quaint and honest way of telling the truth. Mr. Wombie told a vivid story of the robbery and wound up by saying, "Judge, my gun was in my room, or I would have shot the black rascal. But now I have the gun in my store, and the next time anyone tries to rob me, there won't be any trial. No sir."

Horace Stegal, a young middle society buck, so far forgot "himself" as to slap his partner in life. Of course this offended the tender feelings of the madame, and she proceeded to have Horace "up." Justice Watson soon looked upon the case as if Mrs. Horace was not a suffragette, and therefore could not wreck physical vengeance upon the thoughtless man of the house. Horace was politely asked to contribute $10 and costs to the county. The good wife forgave and assisted him in raising the amount.

FRECKLES

March Worst Month For This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a cure for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get one ounce of othine, double strength, from Henry T. Hicks Co., and apply a little of it at night, and in the morning you will see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles for if not removed now they will stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if othine fails.
