DYING IN A SUBSTITUTE Theme of Mr. Chafer's Bible Lecture Last Night

A Meeting of Great Power—The Difference Between the Saved and The Unsaved—The Afternoon Subject Today.

The third lecture in the series on "So Great Salvation," being given by Mr. Lewis S. Chafer, of Northfield, Mass., in the Presbyterian church of this city, was given last night on the subject "The believer's vital union with Christ in His death." In introducing this lecture Mr. Chafer stated: "All Scripture has a message for the Christian; but the Christian is not under all Scripture as a rule of life. There are portions that directly apply to other people in other ages and under other covenants with God, and it is one of the mistakes of our day to try to read ourselves into every passage of the Bible. The age of law that ended with the death of Christ had its own covenant conditions, which are wholly different from the present conditions under grace. We are not under law, but under grace. Just so there is a wide difference in the kingdom conditions which are yet future, and this age of grace. A kingdom condition states: 'Except your righteousness exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees ye shall in no wise enter the kingdom of heaven.' This is not a condition of entering heaven. We turn to grace and we read: 'Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but by His mercy He saves us.' There is a very distinct portion of the Bible that applies to the saved one under grace, and this truth divides into positional truth and life truth. Position is what God does in grace; life is what we should live when in that position. This is the twofold message of all the epistles.

"Our first great position is an actual union with Christ in His death. This is taught in 2 Cor. 5:14-15. Gal. 6:14. Col. 2:20 and 3:3. The central passage is in Rom. 6:1-5. Here the true Christian is seen to have been baptized into Christ's death. The word 'baptized' does not always mean a water baptism in the Bible. It is used in regard to union with the Holy Spirit, when we are said to be baptized of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:13). So in this passage there is a reference to a union with Christ in His death. It is not a thing that happens to us in our life time. It took place nineteen centuries ago, when Jesus died in our place. We had a vital part in that death in the great plan and love of God. We may see a symbol for water baptism in this truth; but the passage is not dealing with the symbol; it is dealing with the substance. Everything depends on the fact of our position as related to the death of Christ for us.

"After a criminal is executed the law has no more claim on the lifeless body and the love of the friends is not hindered in then taking the body where they will. So, by the death we died in Christ our substitute we are beyond our own execution, and laws are past and love is unhindered. When God is thus free to exercise His love He does all He wants to do and that is all He can do. He even places us in glory conformed to the image of His Son."

At the afternoon meeting Mr. Chafer drew some sharp contrasts between the saved and unsaved as God sees them and describes them in the Bible. He said in part: "The unsaved are said to be 'children of wrath' (Eph. 2:3), while the saved are children of favor (Eph. 2:8). The unsaved are 'children of disobedience' (Eph. 2:2), while the saved are children of obedience (Phil. 2:8). Children of Satan (Mat. 13:38) were contrasted with children of God (Gal. 3:26). The unregenerate are said to be energized by Satan (Eph. 2:2), while the regenerate are energized by God (Phil. 2:13). So the unsaved are in the arms of the wicked one (1 John 5:19), while the saved are secure in the hand of God (John 19:29). The unbeliever are said to be blinded by Satan, at the point of the gospel, which is the saving value of the blood of the cross (2 Cor. 4:3-4), while the believing are illumined as to their blessings in the cross (Gal. 6:14)."

LETTER ADDRESSED HELL, S. C. And Postal Clerk Endorsed It "Try Hampton"—People Indignant.

Hampton, March 28.—The United States postoffice at this place was heated up for a few minutes when the postal clerk here found in the mail a package addressed to "C. Apherin Mission, Hell, S. C.," with an endorsement of a postal employee thereon reading "Try Hampton." The sender of the package was a person in Chicago, Ill., by the name of Smith, in fact, John Smith, who, it is stated, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith of the Smith Manufacturing Company. The citizens of this place are justly indignant at having this insult heaped upon their dear town. The package directed to Hell, S. C., will be forwarded to some other place that can boast of a warmer climate than Hampton.

INTEREST IN THE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Increasing interest in the North Carolina music festival is shown by the season seat sale and by the many inquiries being received from out of the city with regard to the three concerts, which take place Wednesday evening, April 10, Thursday afternoon and Thursday night, April 11. The indications are that it will prove the great social and musical event of the year.

The attendance is to surpass all past records as this year the music festival is to be given in the great auditorium. And because of this the Raleigh Choral Society is enabled to offer season tickets at $4.00 and $3.00 for the festival, as the seating capacity is such as to give room to a great audience. The splendid acoustics of the auditorium make certain that all seats are good seats.

The event will be a feast of music. The splendid work of the Raleigh Choral Society in the past has established its reputation, and this year, with 150 voices, Mr. C. V. Albright, pianist, and Miss Sadie Duncan, organist, and with Mr. Wade R. Brown as director, it will sustain its past record. The Choral Society has been fortunate in securing Victor Herbert and his famous orchestra of fifty men, among the number musicians of high repute. And then there are the eight soloists who have more than a national reputation.

These soloists are: Mrs. Agnes Kimball, soprano, who has a wonderful voice in both range and quality; Mr. Evan Williams, tenor, one of the greatest America has produced; Miss Clara Drew, contralto, whose voice is of a rare, deep toned quality; Mr. John Finnegan, the noted young Irish tenor, who has won enviable position; Mr. Charles G. Washburne, a baritone singer of proven ability; Mr. Frank Croxton, the noted basso, a favorite in North Carolina; Miss Ethel Tozier, a gifted pianist; Mr. Fred L. Landau, violinist, and Mr. Horace Britt, violoncellist.

The price of season tickets, admitting to the three concerts, will be $4.00 and $3.00, according to location. The box office will be open at Brantley's drug store for subscribers to reserve their seats and after April 1st.

Tickets for single performances will be placed on sale April 6th. Prices for night concerts, $2.00 and $1.50; afternoon concert, $1.50 and $1.00. The secretary of the choral society will give his personal attention to all orders for season tickets or tickets for single performances from out of town patrons. Mail all orders for tickets, check enclosed, to Chas. E. Jonsson, Jr., Secretary, Raleigh, N. C.

FRANCE TO SHOW FRIENDSHIP. Bust by Rodin to Be Sent for the Champlain Monument.

Paris, March 28.—The long-maturing plans of France to give practical expression of her friendship for the United States are now completed. The new steamship France, of the French line, which on April 29 will start on her maiden voyage to New York, will convey a special official delegation of distinguished Frenchmen, bearing the French tribute in the form of Auguste Rodin's bronze bust of "La France."

This will be presented to the United States, to be placed at the base of the monument which will be dedicated next June to Samuel de Champlain, the French navigator and explorer, the tercentenary of whose discovery of Lake Champlain was celebrated in 1909.

The delegates will be headed by Gabriel Hanotaux, former foreign minister and member of the French Academy. They will visit New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Lake Champlain, Montreal, Quebec, and Niagara Falls. While in America several of the delegates will deliver addresses, voicing the gratitude of France for the numerous manifestations of friendship by the United States, and dwelling upon France's desire for even more friendly relations.

Small men feel big when standing on their dignity.
