The body was found across the remnants of the bed, burned to a crisp, with the bones exposed. The fire was discovered by a policeman who aroused the boarders, several of whom narrowly escaped.

BIG GAME WILL BE MONDAY

Wake Forest and Wake Forest Will Play Football Game—Both Staffed in the Box for Them—A Large Crowd Coming

A LARGE CROWD COMING

Easter Monday being a holiday, an enormous crowd expected to be present to watch the annual conflict between the two rivals—Wake Forest has a good team and will put up a splendid scrap with A. & M., who will put staffed in the box for them—All colleges to attend in a body.

The biggest game of the season will be played Monday on the local diamond of the A. & M. College. Wake Forest will bring their strong aggregation of players over to face their old rivals.

Only once in the last four years have the Baptists been able to wrest a victory from the Farmers, and Monday will tell whether or not another year will be added to the string. Wake Forest claims to have the strongest team of four years and A. & M. is somewhat weaker than usual, but with Stafford in the box, they will prove a formidable foe for any team. The Farmers still have a team that would give any team in the state a hard run, despite their losses of this week.

Frank Thompson has a team that would be hard to beat anywhere. Uley at first, Parker at second and Billings at short, all of them Raleigh boys, and Stringfield at third, form a fast infield. The outer gardens are well protected. Correll in left, Captain Faucette, another Raleigh boy, in centre and Beam in right. They are all hard hitters and fast fielders. Cates or Smith will probably do the mound work for the visitors.

A. & M. will play their regular line-up. With Stafford in the box and the team in good trim, any one who goes to the game will get his money's worth. The Farmers will go into the game with a determination to win, and every man on the team will put forth his best efforts.

This being Easter holiday, St. Mary's, Peace and Meredith will be there in full force. Special trains will be run into the city for the game and fully three thousand are expected to be present.

This will be undoubtedly the best and biggest game of the season. It will be called at 3 p. m. sharp.

ACRIMONIOUS DEBATE IN THE HOUSE TODAY

Washington, April 6.—One of the most acrimonious debates heard in the house this session, was precipitated when Representative Randall, of Texas, democrat, explained he meant no reflection upon the members when he intimated in his speech Thursday that a majority of the members of the house were engaged in employment that his anti-corporation retainer fees bill would stop. Applause greeted the replies of Representatives Edwards and Bartlett, of Georgia; James, of Kentucky; Clayton, of Alabama, democrat, and Hamilton, of Michigan, republican, who sharply criticised the Texan's declarations and virtually declined to accept his explanation.
