

S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD CURES RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is one of the oldest of human ailments, and yet the causes which produce it was a question long in doubt. It was thought at one time to be a disease of the bones entirely; its origin was also attributed to some specific affection of the nerves, and various other theories which proved to be wrong, were put forward in an effort to find a cure for the trouble. Under these conditions the treatment of Rheumatism was very unsatisfactory and only of a temporary nature. When it was determined beyond doubt that Rheumatism is a blood disease, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation, then its cure became a matter of purifying the blood and thus destroying its source. Because it is the best of all blood purifiers S. S. S. has been the most successful of all treatments for Rheumatism.

When this uric acid gets into the circulation it causes a partial fermentation of the blood, which changes it from a thick, rich stream, to a thin, acid fluid, whose nourishing properties are greatly impaired. Through the circulation the uric acid is carried to every muscle, joint and nerve of the body, and then the pains and aches of Rheumatism commence. The longer the blood is allowed to remain in this acid, weakened condition the more severe will the disease become. Gradually the muscles harden and lose their elasticity, the joints begin to stiffen, and frequently calculus deposits collect and form knots at the finger joints.

The pains of Rheumatism may often be temporarily relieved by the application of hot cloths, liniments, plasters, etc., but as such treatment does not reach the blood, no one should expect permanent benefit from it.

There is just one way to cure Rheumatism and that is to purify the blood of the uric acid. S. S. S. does this more quickly and certainly than any other medicine. S. S. S. eliminates this uric acid because it is the most penetrating of all blood remedies. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks compounded and scientifically blended in such manner as to make it a medicine that acts through the circulation with good effect on every portion of the system. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism permanently because it removes the cause on which the disease thrives. S. S. S. contains no harmful minerals, it is perfectly safe for every one. Write for our special book on Rheumatism and learn of the great success S. S. S. has had in curing it. Any medical advice desired will be furnished you. No charge for the book or advice. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

TROUBLE IN MEXICO, A HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD IN FEW HOURS

Personality of the Leader of the New Revolution

Orozo a Self-Made Man—Education Is Limited, But He Has Become Wealthy—Was a Leader in the Madero Revolution and is Regarded as a Strong Man.

Mexico City, April 17.—While most of the other military personages of the two revolutions have permitted their personalities, views and daily movements to become subject matters for the pencils and typewriters of the correspondents with considerable freedom, the most interesting figure of them all at the present moment is at the same time one of the least-known either in Mexico or out. That is Pascual Orozco, the fighting head of the present revolution as well as of that of a year ago.

Orozo is a lean, angular man whose personality is redolent of the camp and the hills and not at all of the council chamber of state nor of the drawing-room. Outside his own particular circle there are not many who know even how old he is. It is a moral certainty that he can "hog-tie" a steer quickly and artfully, that he can throw a diamond hitch on a pack animal and that when he speaks he is in the habit of receiving respectful attention.

For a Mexican he is a large man. A life in the deserts and mountains of the north has tanned him with a parchment finish and has bequeathed him the loose figure that looks a good deal better on horseback than on the ground. His hair and mustache are black and the latter droops from unrestraining habit. His photographs show him slightly stooped and looking straight at the camera as if more interested in it than in the results of the snapshots.

What he thinks, what he intends to do become apparent chiefly in his actions. Not that he has the reputation of being morose or silent, for his men seem to think him an ideal leader; but he has never courted publicity in any of his campaigns. He had been fighting in the Madero revolution last year several months before the reporters found out what his name was and began putting him in the news. The capture of Juarez early in May, 1911, less than a year ago, brought him into public view. President Madero had been busy and conspicuous with his organization of a provisional government whose ramifications extended all the way from Washington to the interior of his own country; but Orozco had been doing most of the fighting.

Twice since then Orozco has been in Mexico City. He came first to personally escort President Madero to the palace on the day of his inauguration in September. He came again quietly last February on personal business with the government.

In a period of a little over a year Pascual Orozco has removed himself from his rather humble station of

If Cross, Irritable, Feverish, Tongue Coated and Sick, Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

Your child isn't naturally cross, irritable and peevish, Mother! Examine the tongue; if coated, it means the little one's stomach is disordered, liver inactive and its thirty feet of bowels clogged with foul, decaying waste.

Every mother realizes after giving delicious "Syrup of Figs" that this is the ideal laxative and physic for children. Nothing else regulates the little one's tender stomach, liver and bowels so effectually, besides they dearly love its delightful taste.

For constipated bowels, sluggish liver, biliousness, or sour, disordered stomach, feverishness, diarrhoea, sore throat, bad breath or to break a cold, give one-half to a teaspoonful of "Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, sour bile, undigested food and constipated matter will gently move on and out of the system without griping or nausea, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatic it cannot be harmful. Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

being the trusty man who could be given the responsibility of conveying a pack-train of valuable ore through the mountains to Chihuahua city, to a position where he expects to make or unmake presidents. So far as anybody knows there are no heraldic symbols of Spanish nobility anywhere up the Orozco family tree.

Men who used to know him in Chihuahua when, with a revolver and rifle, he took charge of his own pack-train and delivered ore through a country where his main business was to watch out for and keep off bandits in Chihuahua, say that in those days he had difficulty in reading anything that was not set in clear type. But he prospered in a material way and was far from being poor when he took up the revolutionary cause. His claim against the Madero government for personal services and expense incurred by himself and father, who is now a colonel under his command, amounted to $50,000 gold. The assertion that only half that amount was allowed has been reported to have done much to wean him away from the Madero interests.

It is probable that a feeling that he himself "made" Madero, and that he has not been pleased with his own handwork, is responsible for his present revolutionary activity. He has evidently come to the conclusion that his own ideas on important subjects are about as sound as anybody else's and he has thus far kept himself in a relation to the revolution where his ideas will have to be considered in the event of a successful outcome.

He has developed rapidly as a factor in Mexican revolutionary politics and it is the very possibility that his development is yet incomplete that makes his personality particularly interesting. He has made his revolution so substantial an affair that it is hard to believe that he, himself, will be obliterated, even though the movement may be suppressed. He is a young man with an undoubted ability for leadership, and with the taste of authority he has enjoyed it is not likely that he will permit himself to be retired to private life even if he should be persuaded to compromise with the government upon political differences.

Members of the opposition party in the Mexican congress have started a movement to abolish the office of vice-president, their main object being to abolish Pino Suarez, whom they do not like. This opposition includes some of the people who made Madero president and it is likely that the effort to change the constitution will cause considerable strife.

But there is another aspect of the case. The office was created at the time the New York financial interests furnished money for the nationalization of the Mexican railway, there not having been previously a vice-presidency. The idea was to give an immediate succession at the head of the government in the event the president died or was suddenly removed. The interests which really created the office have not yet been heard from and may prove a very effective source of support to the Madero government in saving Pino Suarez to the administration.

As in some other countries the student element of Mexico, is allotted more or less importance of a political character. Their views are published in the newspapers as, sometimes, are the reports of their riots and other manifestations. They are a select body of young men from whose number will be picked the congressman and cabinet officers of a later day. They are now busy supporting the "constitutional government," welcoming home former President de la Barra and in many other ways, not all being entirely consistent; but among other things they have formed a military corps for home guard duty. A cadet from Chapultepec is in command. On one of the principal resident streets every evening they may be seen in the midst of military evolutions and setting up drills.

Running is one of the disagreeable features of this performance. "Forward!" shouts the officer and the corps breaks into a run to the end of the block with a quick "right about" and back. They arrive at the starting point breathless and, as one man, reach for their coatsleeves, extract handkerchiefs and, alternately elevating their feet, carefully brush the dust from the immaculate "shine" which, above all else, must be maintained inviolate. Then they resume mixed discussions of bull-rings and politics.

COULD HARDLY BEAR SUFFERING

Mrs. Duncan, of Pryor, Tells Story of Her Intense Suffering, and Describes Harrowing Symptoms.

Pryor, Okla.—"I suffered so much I could hardly bear it," says Mrs. Mollie Duncan, of this place.

"For 17 years, I had been afflicted with womanly troubles, and had different doctors give me treatment, but none of them helped me any.

I had such drawing-down pains, and a pain in my side. Also headache and dizzy spells. I was weak, and could not be up at times.

I decided to try Cardui, and I will say I am not sorry that I did, for it helped me wonderfully. I feel like a new person. I intend to keep Cardui in the house just as long as I live for it has done me so much good!"

Remember that Cardui is a mild, safe remedy, composed of valuable medicinal ingredients, which helps to build up vitality, tone up the nerves, and strengthen the womanly constitution.

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and building weak women up to health and strength. No other medicine has exactly the same results as Cardui. No other medicine has the long record of success in treating cases of womanly weakness and disease.
