"EVENTIDE."

(Written for The Times.)

Why is it that at eventide,
Such sad, sweet memories thrill,
The hearts of God's creation,
O'er wood and vale and hill?
Why is it that the twilight hour,
Seems fraught with gloom and tear,
We dwell not on these visions deep,
While skies are bright and clear.

But when noonday's shadows deepen
Then pervades this hush o'er all,
When twilight's unfurled curtain
Gently takes its downward fall:
Tis then we join the whippoorwill
In its plaintive, sad refrain,
When ceased the grinders of the mill,
Then rest from toil and gain.

I have wandered o'er yon mountain,
Have followed brook and stream,
Have sat and gazed and pondered,
Why this hour seems but a dream,
Till revealed! I see this mystery:
Tis His voice with "Peace be still,"
Tis His loving evening message,
Onward bear thy burdens, o'er to-morrow's hill.

HIGHS DEBATE AT MEREDITH

This evening is the time for the annual triangular debate of the Raleigh, Charlotte and Greensboro High Schools. Representatives of the Raleigh High School meet the Charlotte representatives here, the debate being held at Meredith College at 8:30 o'clock. At the same time in Greensboro, two representatives from Raleigh will meet the Greensboro boys.

Interest in the annual contest is always intense. This year the query is: "Resolved, That North Carolina Should Adopt the Initiative and Referendum." Raleigh has the affirmative here, the debaters being Mr. Clifton Beckwith and Mr. Walker Rouse. The debaters for Charlotte are Messrs. Irwin Henderson and Carl McClellan.

The Raleigh debaters who went to Greensboro are Messrs. Oliver Smith and Carey Hunter, Jr., who make up one of the best debating teams ever sent out by any high school.

Mr. Clifton Beckwith was last year one of the debaters who won from Charlotte at Charlotte. In Mr. Walker Rouse he has splendid support. Both made a fine showing in the preliminary debate.

The Raleigh High School is noted for its victories, winning last year from both Charlotte and Greensboro. The Raleigh boys may be depended on to put up a good fight tonight.

The judges will be Prof. H. J. Stockard, Col. J. B. Grimes and probably Dr. D. H. Hill. Superintendent Harper will preside over the debate.

Merritt-Bordeaux.
Announcements readings as follows: "Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Bordeaux announce the marriage of their daughter Daisy and Mr. B. A. Merritt Wednesday, the seventeenth of April nineteen hundred and twelve Rocky Point, North Carolina." Enclosed cards read:

"At Home after the first of May 1006 Market street Wilmington, North Carolina."

Mr. Merritt, who is a brother of Mr. R. H. Merritt, of this city, is a prominent business man of Wilmington. Miss Bordeaux was one of Rocky Point's most popular young women. Both have friends throughout the state who will be interested in their recent marriage.

Fortunes in Faces.
There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruption, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at King-Crowell Drug Co.

"PARSIFAL"
Last Meeting of Music Department of Woman's Club to be Wagner's Last Opera.

The last musical program, for this season, under the auspices of the music department of the Woman's Club, will be given on Friday afternoon, April 26th, instead of Thursday the 25th at Meredith College. Mr. Wade R. Brown will give a lecture-recital on "Parsifal," Wagner's last opera.

Members of the Woman's Club should not forget to bring their membership cards. The hour is four o'clock sharp.

EPIC TRAGEDY
Dido, the Phoenician Queen at Meredith College.

An epic tragedy, a dramatization of the love-story of Aeneas and Dido will be played by members of the Latin Department of Meredith College, in the college auditorium, Monday night, April 22.

It is a drama of four acts and each act has two or more scenes, but the acts and scenes are all short. The stage setting will be suggestive of the classic drama, the costumes will also follow classic lines, the musical part is arranged by Mr. Hagedorn, and is in perfect sympathy with the theme.

Dido will be one of the most interesting plays the college has ever presented.

R. G. Collins, postmaster at Barnegat, N. J., advises his friends "I find your Foley's Honey and Tar Compound the best remedy for a cough I ever tried. I had a lagrippe cough that left me completely exhausted, but after taking half a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, the coughing spells entirely ceased. I wish to say it can't be beat." COLD CAUSED A WRECK

Mrs. Mitchell Has Weary Search for Relief. Physicians State No Hope for Recovery.

Morganton, N. C.—"My health had been a wreck for years," says Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, of this city.

"When I was 16 years old, I commenced to suffer. I caught cold, and it went into a fever.

I stayed in bed health, and though I used all kinds of medicine, I got no relief, until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Cardui cured me. It is the best medicine I ever used. I cannot praise it enough.

Then, some time ago, I was taken down again very bad. The doctors all said I could not live, and they gave me up. I used Cardui and was greatly relieved. Now, I am entirely well.

Cardui is a good medicine and worth its weight in gold! I will keep it in my house all the time, as I do not want to be without it."

Do you wonder why Cardui is so popular, when it has cured so many sick and ailing women, after other medicines had failed?

The reason is that it goes to the spot that needs attention and does the work that is required.

All women need Cardui, the woman's tonic,—at times. When you do, will you try it? Please do.

—The Raleigh and Greensboro High Schools play a game this afternoon on the A. and M. athletic field. The teams are about evenly matched and a good game is expected.

AS TO INSURANCE

Important Ruling By Attorney General

Holds That All Companies, Whether Doing a Reciprocal Business or Otherwise, Must be Licensed by State and Be Subject to Supervision of Insurance Department.

In answer to a request from Insurance Commissioner Young relative to reciprocal insurance business, Attorney General Bickett has ruled that all such companies must be licensed by the department and be subject to its supervision. The letter of Insurance Commissioner Young follows:

"Under the law unincorporated as well as incorporated concerns doing any kind of insurance business in this state are required to be licensed by this department, and subject to its supervision.

"Some of these companies calling themselves inter-insurers or reciprocal associations, are seeking to do business in the state. The question has been raised as to whether corporations chartered in this state to do any kind of a business other than insurance business have the right to take a policy with one of these associations. Under the principle proposed for the carrying of insurance any one taking a policy with them becomes the insurer of all the other members. Is this within the charter rights of corporations chartered under our general laws?"

The Attorney General's Reply.

In reply to the foregoing request the attorney general says: "Replying to yours of the 3d, I beg to advise that it appears that a number of corporations, as well as unincorporated companies, are contemplating doing an inter-insurance or reciprocal insurance business in this state.

"Clearly such companies would be engaged in the insurance business within the meaning of our statutes, and would have to be licensed by the insurance department, and will be subject to its supervision.

"I understand, from your communication, that each individual or corporation that becomes a member of the association is liable, in whole or in part, for its losses. I do not think that a corporation other than an insurance company, chartered by the laws of the state of North Carolina, has a right to engage in a business of this kind.

"The rights of a corporation are limited by its charter, and no corporation other than an insurance company is given the right to engage in the insurance business. Moreover, such a business would subject the assets of the corporation to liabilities not contemplated by its charter, and to this the creditors of the corporation would have a right to object."

"This is the first week of the year that a marriage license has not been issued.

TO HAVE ORDER AT STATION

Two Men Indulge in an Old-Fashioned Cussing Match and Pay for It—Too Much Cussing at Union Station—Other Fines.

Two colored women had an altercation in East Raleigh night before last and Mattie Parham was in the neighborhood and ran with the news to one of the women's kin, and said that Harriet Coleman was about to get beaten to death. The officers were on the scene a little later and Mattie told of how Irene Layburn had jumped on Harriet Coleman and nearly beat her to death with a stick. The case was tried yesterday and was all ballad up by Mattie telling that she knew nothing of the affair. The women were dismissed and then an officer was sent out for the policeman that made the arrest; and it was proven that Mattie had lied and the justice fined her $5 and costs for contempt of court.

J. B. Koonce, a white man, and George Fleming, a negro, were there for evening in a public place, namely the Union Station. The trouble was brought about by the tone in which George warned Koonce to look out for some mail falling on him. Several vile epithets were passed and from the evidence Justice Watson fined Koonce $5 and costs, and the negro paid $10 and costs. Colonel Harris represented the negro, and several times he and the justice agreed and disagreed on the points, but the colonel thought that $10 was a trifle too much for the negro. The judge held that any man that used such language where the ladies had to go, ought to pay that much and more for the next offense. He stated that the officers were going to keep the station decent for the ladies to go through.

No Matter What the Color of Your Hair
Newbro's Herpicide
Will Not Change It in the Least.

While they appreciate full well the value of a sanitary hair-dressing, many ladies are afraid to use one for fear it may alter the color of the hair. No such apprehension is associated with the use of Newbro's Herpicide.

It makes no difference whether your hair is blonde, brunette or otherwise, Herpicide will not streak, fade or alter it by a single shade. The clear, pure nature of the Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer appeals to everyone. It contains no grease and does not stain or soil the clothing. Herpicide is clean. Used regularly Newbro's Herpicide will eradicate that most common as well as most annoying and distressing of all hair troubles, dandruff. Dandruff is caused by a germ or microbe which gradually forces it way down into the hair bulb or follicle. This gives rise to inflammation, manifested by an itchy scalp and the hair slips out. Herpicide kills the germ, cleans the scalp and prevents the hair from coming out. The itching stops almost instantly.
