THE GREAT SHIP.—We are happy to learn that at an interview which the Central Committee on the London Exhibition had yesterday with the Secretary of the Navy, that officer informed the committee that if Congress should see fit to make an adequate appropriation for fitting out the Pennsylvania for the purpose, he would cheerfully detail that magnificent ship for the transportation of contributions, &c., to the World's Exhibition, instead of the store-ship Fredonia, which was some time since designated for the service, but has not yet returned from the Pacific.—*Nat.
