January 18th, 1851.

$50 REWARD.

WILL be paid to any person in North Carolina, who will communicate to the undersigned where the wife of Robert Hyslop may be found. This Robert Hyslop came into Georgia about eighteen months ago, in search of Tarrentine business, passed for a single man, married one Mary Hines, who has recently died, leaving one child by the said Hyslop, and several negroes, the latter of which said Hyslop has attempted to elope. He has already sold one of his wife's negroes, but being arrested for vagrancy, and the child being likely to be chargeable to the County, the sale was considered void; yet attempts are made to establish it. The said Hyslop has been in several jails, in the poor house of Charleston, where his wife suffered much, and he has a desperate character. Report has since reached this place, that he has a wife living somewhere in North Carolina, and it seems so probable that I have taken this method to ascertain the facts. Said Hyslop is a chunky, red haired, freckled-faced fellow, notorious for his drunkenness and rambling propensities. I do not know that this is his name; any person giving this description will likely be him. He pretended here to be seeking the tarrentine business. Fifty dollars will be given for information leading to the proofs of his having a wife living any where. Address the undersigned at Halesdale Post Office, Surren County, Georgia.

NOTICE.

APPLICATION will be made to the present General Assembly of North Carolina, to incorporate the "Brick Shoals Manufacturing Company" in the county of Surry.
