Classical and Mathematical

SCHOOL.

Hillsborough, N. C.

THE exercises of the Caldwell Institute having been discontinued, the subscribers will open a School on the 14th day of January, 1851, in the building lately used by that institution, under their own control and direction.

The course of instruction will be such as to prepare young men thoroughly for the Sophomore class in College, or when a College course is not intended, for the business transactions of life.

The strictest attention will be given to the moral department of the students, and if long experience in the education of youth be a ground of confidence to those who may patronize the School, we promise to use that experience to promote the best interests of those who may be committed to our charge.

Terms in the Classical and Mathematical department, $20; and in English $15 a session in advance.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Monday, Jan. 20th.

EVENING SESSION.

Several engrossed bills from the Senate were read the 1st time and passed.

The following bills were read the third time and passed, viz: a bill to improve the Deep River and Yadkin River and to connect the same by a Portage Rail Road; a bill to incorporate the Neuse River Navigation Company—[amended, on motion of Mr. Rayner, by inserting a proviso that the Public Treasurer shall not pay the amount appropriated for said work until the North Carolina Rail Road is commenced;] a bill to lay off and improve a public road from the town of Salisbury to the town of Rockford in the county of Surry; a bill to improve Haw River; a bill to incorporate the Anson Plank Road Company; a bill to amend an act entitled an act to amend an act passed in the year 1833, to incorporate the Wilmington and Raleigh Rail Road Company; and a bill to amend an act passed at the session of 1848-'9, entitled an act to provide for a Turnpike from Salisbury West to the line of the State of Georgia.

The bill to incorporate the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road Company having been read the third time—

Mr. Cherry offered an amendment providing, in case the Road is sold, that the Governor shall not bid for the same, and that the sale shall be absolute—and also that the Attorney General shall proceed forthwith to the collection of the bonds.

Mr. C. stated that he was a friend to this road and had been throughout—the stockholders, many of them, were personally known to him, and he had a high esteem for them. His object therefore was not to oppress them; but he felt it to be his duty to his constituents and to the State, to offer this amendment.

A debate of some length and considerable warmth ensued between Messrs. McLean, R. M. Saunders, Erwin, and D. F. Caldwell; after which—

Mr. Cherry withdrew his former amendment, and offered another providing that, if the stock is not taken as proposed, or the road is not sold for $500,000, the Governor shall advertise the same and sell it to the highest bidder in such manner as, in his discretion, shall be for the interest of the State—the purchasers giving bond to put the same in good repair, and to be incorporated into a company to be styled the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road Company, and to have all the rights and privileges of the former company.

After some remarks from Messrs. D. F. Caldwell, S. P. Hill, and McLean, the question was taken on the amendment, and it was rejected—ayes 18, noes 81.

Mr. Gordon offered an amendment appropriating $100,000 for improving the Yadkin River.

Mr. Steele moved to amend the amendment by adding an appropriation of $10,000 for improving Lumber River; which was rejected.

The question was then taken on the amendment, and it was decided in the negative—ayes 19, noes 67.

The question then recurring on the passage of the bill, it was decided in the affirmative—ayes 51, noes 48. So the bill passed the 3rd and last reading.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.

Tuesday, Jan. 21st.

Mr. Cameron introduced the following Resolution, viz:

WHEREAS, a message has recently been transmitted to the Senate by his Excellency, David S. Reid, enclosing "Resolutions for the promotion of peace," forwarded by the Governor of Vermont, as having passed the Legislature of the State, and whereas the Legislature of the said State has recently passed an act for the nullification of an act of Congress, passed at its last Session, on which the peace and harmony of this Union mainly depends—

Therefore, be it Resolved, that the Governor of this State be requested to send back to the Governor of Vermont the aforesaid Resolutions for the promotion of peace, with the declaration that North Carolina knows too well what is due to herself to receive from said Sister State Resolutions of that character, when the State, so adopting and transmitting them, has been the first in the Confederacy to assume to herself the right of violating the Constitution of the U. S. and
