OFFICIAL ORDERS.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.
HEADQUARTERS 2d MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 154.
I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:
SUITS FOR DEBTS.
Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on cases of action arising in North Carolina between the 30th of May, 1861, and the 30th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 30th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such cases of action now pending shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such cases of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established, in accordance with the laws of the United States.
Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:
EXECUTIONS.
Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of real or personal property on execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 30th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of April, 1865, or the State of South Carolina, under the President's proclamation of the 19th day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered on record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors: Provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES.
The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.
Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 30th day of April, 1865, for the 19th day of May, 1865.
Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:
SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.
All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves made subsequent to the 1st day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgment or decrees entered for such cases of action shall not be enforced.
Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:
HOMESTEADS.
In all sales of property under execution or by order of any court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and a certain acre of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars; and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, substance and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemption hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant, who has a family dependent upon him or her support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisal, and shall make report thereof to the court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.
Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTIONS AND TRUSTEES.
Paragraph XIV is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or of South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on the war against the government of the United States, shall be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of any order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female, or insane person, (cestuique trust) whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.
II. General Orders No. 25, of May 30, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.
III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 25, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the first day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:
1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons, and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall sell the same for cash, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the satisfaction of the forfeiture: fine and cost.
2. Drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.
3. The owner or keeper of any bar room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable therefrom.
4. All bar rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at each election; and the sheriffs of the counties and districts and the chiefs of police of cities and towns, shall have power to direct the closing of bar rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet, and the proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the commissioners or overseers of the poor of the district, county, city or town in which they accrued, and the commissioners or overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the names of the parties from whom it was received.
5. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations may be enforced in any civil or military court, and upon conviction the court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeitures or fines. And it is made the duty of all sheriffs, constables and coroners of counties and districts, and the police of cities and towns to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.
The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 25 as in force, as remain unexpired after the 1st of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.
IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will on the 15th and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or district court all committing magistrates made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts for the purpose of disposing of such prisoners. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be charged upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid, as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition upon the proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.
V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the State of North and South Carolina are so far modified that on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by the United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.
VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise money," ratified on the 29th day of February, 1867, as is contained in the 10th section of said act, relating to list and pay the poll tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the first day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced on the original tax be paid on or before the 1st day of March, 1868.
By command of Brevet Major General Ed. R. S. CANBY:
LOUIS V. CAZIARIC,
Aide-Asst. Camp,
Actg. Asst. Ad. Genl.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN ST. LOUIS.
In St. Louis recently, John C. Heron was so shockingly stabbed that a fatal result, it is feared, will ensue from the injuries he has received. On Sunday afternoon, Heron and a man named John Kinneff, and two other men whose names are unknown, were playing at the "pigeon" game at the Branch saloon, when a quarrel arose between the two former, which led to a feeling of deadly hatred in the mind of Kinneff against Heron. The latter left the saloon about half past 8 o'clock, accompanied by a man named Dennis O'Brien. They were followed at a distance by Kinneff and a man named Patrick O'Brien. They went to a stable near Mrs. Kate O'Brien's boarding house, where Heron boarded, and afterwards went into a neighboring house. When they came out, Dennis O'Brien stood on the sidewalk and Heron went into Mrs. O'Brien's. After a time, O'Brien heard a noise, and on going to see what was the matter, found Kinneff and Patrick O'Brien quarrelling with Heron. The latter endeavored to get away from them, and ran into the kitchen, but they pursued him and the assault began. Heron was knocked on a bed in the room, and, although nearly all the stabbing took place there, the parties present cannot say whether any wounds were inflicted upon him while on the bed. It is probable, however, that he was stabbed while in this helpless position. He was thrown from the bed into the corner of the room, where he was stabbed many times. By some means he managed to get into the next room; or was dragged in by his assailants who did not cease to attack him. In addition to Dennis O'Brien, Mrs. O'Brien and a daughter were present, and endeavored to save Heron. An effort was made by them to push him out of the window, but they could not succeed. Kinneff and Pat O'Brien made off, leaving the victim of their assault lying in an exhausted and fainting condition on the floor from the numerous wounds he had received.

One of the members of the firm of the Piedmont Land agency is now preparing lectures on the Agricultural and Mineral resources of the Piedmont region of Virginia, and intends very soon to make a canvass through New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and other States of the North and West, with the view of inducing settlement in Virginia.

Daily Raleigh Register.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1868.

THE STATE COMMISSIONER.
Mr. D. W. Courts has established a Land Agency at Rockville, N. C.
A new saw dust road is being made in Wilmington, N. C. This is being done on account of the sand. Saw dust roads should be made in Raleigh on account of the mud.
The colored boy arrested in Fayetteville, upon suspicion of incendiarism, has been discharged, there being no positive evidence against him.
The Wilmingtonians are raising subscriptions to purchase a steam fire engine. The Star does not like the plan, and wants the Commissioners to purchase it.
The Wilmington Journal thus speaks of Mr. Stanton's troops now in that city: "We were present for a few moments at the entertainment given at Thalian Hall last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, assisted by Mr. Howland. The audience was discouragingly slim—in fact, the seats were very nearly all empty. What we saw of the performance left the impression upon our mind that the acting was far better than the house."
Sargent is still in New Berne. The Journal of Commerce, of that city, is quite enthusiastic about it. Listen: Sargent the great illusionist having dropped the drama will appear in his proper sphere as a magician on Thursday and Friday night, February 27th and 28th. Our citizens having seen him before are well assured that he is the very best magician that has ever visited the city, and we learn that he will perform some of the most difficult illusions in his profession on these occasions. Let all go and see him.
The Weldon News is complaining of the bad weather, and says: "We awoke on Monday morning to find the ground covered with snow, and throughout the day hail, rain and snow continued to fall in mixed doses, rendering out dooring anything but pleasant and agreeable. The wise-acre say this is the breaking up of winter—we trust it is, as we are—out of wood and nearly out of money." We have several families in Raleigh in the same fix, neighbor.
On Tuesday night last one or more darkies went to the plantation of Jno. H. Richardson, Esq., about six miles distant from this city, and killed one of his finest oxen. Mr. B. discovering the theft early in the morning followed the tracks to the city, and succeeded in getting his beef (already slaughtered) and the best of all, got the scoundrels, (three in number) and they are now in Craven jail ruminating over their folly. We only hope that all our citizens will display the energy Mr. Richardson has in this case and our word for it, there will be less stealing in the county.—Newbern J. of Commerce.

They went to a stable near Mrs. Kate O'Brien's boarding house, where Heron boarded, and afterwards went into a neighboring house. When they came out, Dennis O'Brien stood on the sidewalk and Heron went into Mrs. O'Brien's. After a time, O'Brien heard a noise, and on going to see what was the matter, found Kinneff and Patrick O'Brien quarrelling with Heron. The latter endeavored to get away from them, and ran into the kitchen, but they pursued him and the assault began. Heron was knocked on a bed in the room, and, although nearly all the stabbing took place there, the parties present cannot say whether any wounds were inflicted upon him while on the bed. It is probable, however, that he was stabbed while in this helpless position. He was thrown from the bed into the corner of the room, where he was stabbed many times. By some means he managed to get into the next room; or was dragged in by his assailants who did not cease to attack him. In addition to Dennis O'Brien, Mrs. O'Brien and a daughter were present, and endeavored to save Heron. An effort was made by them to push him out of the window, but they could not succeed. Kinneff and Pat O'Brien made off, leaving the victim of their assault lying in an exhausted and fainting condition on the floor from the numerous wounds he had received.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN ST. LOUIS.
In St. Louis recently, John C. Heron was so shockingly stabbed that a fatal result, it is feared, will ensue from the injuries he has received. On Sunday afternoon, Heron and a man named John Kinneff, and two other men whose names are unknown, were playing at the "pigeon" game at the Branch saloon, when a quarrel arose between the two former, which led to a feeling of deadly hatred in the mind of Kinneff against Heron. The latter left the saloon about half past 8 o'clock, accompanied by a man named Dennis O'Brien. They were followed at a distance by Kinneff and a man named Patrick O'Brien.
