European Intelligence. ERANCE. Jese $30^{\circ}$ A letter from Berlin of the 15 th hates, as follows, whow to certainty What flates fill-to the fot of the ruffian monarch, as an indemnine iz. if the bilhoprick of Helde-fheim, the population of which mounts to iz,oo foils, Peina and A'feld) four borough towns, and ${ }^{38}+$ viltages. This equntry, thourian dates, is contiguous to the weftern doundaries of the Duchy of Hal. bernatit, belonging to the Kingo puata; the income of it is about 50,000 crowns currency. ${ }^{2}$ zdly. "The binhopric of Paderleagres, with ${ }^{23}$ frall ctities, one borough, town and 136 villages, 60,000 rix dollars.
rix doly. "A part of the bilhopric ${ }_{3}$ dily.
of Munter, including about of Munfer, including about one third of that binioprit, on the righ bakk of the Rhine, with 40,000 int habitants. fthly. "Eichficd, in Thuringio, of Mentz, containing forty $\left.\begin{array}{l}\text { Iquare } \\ \text { leagues, four cities, } \\ 636\end{array}\right)$ borough at 300.000 imperial Aorins. Sthiv, The city of Erfort, with its teritory of 16 leagues. Erfort contains 14,000 inhabitants ; there and and about 42,677 6 thly touts. Gofslar, with 6000 inhabitarts. qithly. "The Imperial cities Mulhaufen and Nordhaufen; former of thele cities, including in iis terrioryin
"The whole of the indemnities comprehends 220 quare leagues, 600,000 inhabitants; ; poffe flion will be taken at the begioning of July; and the inhahirants will then take the oath of altegiance to their new fovereien."" frombane, inder datè We bear frem of June 24, that the territory of Vaud is once mare the fcene of in= furrection, and that nothing but the prefence of the Frenth troops kan preferve the ediuthry from being enpreferve the country tirely bid wafte; the tythes and feudd text of thele, ilegal mieet ings: French that country; for the purpofe of fopporting the comimiflary of goIn an addrefs to the Firft Conful; the reft of the eommercial interef throug hout the country; derinanding that the rade to India Ghould be liad open, and that no privileged laid open, and that no priviteged companies may be re.eftablifined et letter from Ratition of the 2oth fune, fays: Sinters to the Diet accredited Minifter have received form their courts an intimation, that the arrangements relative to the indemnities, are at ready agreed upon; aud here re maims nothang more to be resure upon this fubjea, but a fittle conledinate points of very quence. The moft powerful printake poffergion of the feveral fates affigned to them, in which the ne. oaths of fidelity are forth - be taken. An imperiai dee expefted to be immediately ated to the Diet, recommendrevocation of the conelufum ominatihg an extraordinary detion of the Empire, which, recent eirrum tandes& events, uld be prolers and unneceffiry, at the fame time announcing to affembiy of the Germm fates. the arrangements agreed upon ciween the governments of France ufliz, Prullia and Auftriz, and by heen fettied, will fortity her fubmit od for the , pproval of the Diet." The Eng iffte agreeabyy 0 the erms of thictraty of Amiens, evaz cuated Porto Eerrijo (ife of Niba) hich occafion, fome compliment ## pafled between the Britifh and rench cotnimanders.

 TURKEY:conitantinople, may 26 . The following is a copy of the at by which the Sublime Porte has accoded to the treaty of Amitens:"In confequence of an uninterBeinties pouted upon us by that Being who is impative and immumighty ind All Good; the founder of the power of the Caliphs, everlanting and ever glarious, affited by he univer paly hatuary miracles on pha, minifer of the prophet and funs of the two worlds; (may the choicent bleffing reft upon him and am his fervant, and lord of Mecea, Medina, the holy Jerufalem and its temples, and of all the sy and and high places whither al. nations the fupreme cof their prayers; 1 narch of o many vait countries, les fifuate in Rcmélia and Natoliz, on the White and Black Seas, , on fidjaz and Ifak; and who am the Envy of all the potentates of the fon of a Suitran and Emperor, fen of Khan wherof Sultan. Gafe Selim Moftapha Khan; of Sultari Achmed Khan Sublime aet of our impetial power and caliphat, that; in virtue of ihe 19th article of the definitive treaty of peace concluded and finned on the 22 d day of the mon Yilikate, 1802, of the Chriftian xra, between the plenipotenare of the frin republic, the court of Spann, and the Batavian republic, on the one part; and, on the other, the pieni potentiary of his majelty the king of the united kingom of Great-Bre Britain and lreland; the Sublime Par which has bient ited in this te to andi fatified by the laid potwers and the faid Sulime Porie; the all of his wiajeny thic king of Eng land has been lovited to iccede as loon entire ceffatlon of the calamities of war; athd the employment of thole tautary meafures which may tend to the ree-efablifliment and tecurity of the general repole form the chief objet of our zeal and defites as a rovereign; we arcede to the articles and Ripulations of the fiaid treaty which pecmcern, or may concern ou Sublime Poits, and we declare our acceptance of thess as if they were here inferted word four word; we confirm and certify the ree-ofablinh ment of peace; and the happy ties of friendflip bet ${ }^{\text {sen }}$ our Sublime Porte and the moft ferme French republic; and between the inhabitants of both flates.
In tefimony whereof, we a afix to the prefent att of acectrion our glorious imperigl fignature. As upon our pari withive zicepted the arthcles and ftipulations sof the eandid theat be any doubt that they will be forupuloufy 'obferved. "Given the rth day of the Mion Monhawer, and in the year Hegira,

ENGLAND.

LONDON, JUNE 29.
His. Majefy's moft gracious (peech, to both Houtes of Parliarpecch, to both Houlics of Parliament, on Monday, the 28 hh June, 1802. ing Lords and Gentlemen, The public bufnefs being Conluded, think it proper During a long and laborions attendanee you have invariable manifettthe great uruft coinmitted to your charge. The objects of your deti-beraions have been nuulually nuberaions have been punuanlyy nu-metous and important, and I derive merfous and mponint, and ferve the utmof faisfaetion ftom the conthe utmot fatisfation trom the con-rition that the wiflom of our proceedings will be fully proved roceedings wil be fully proved by their effet in prometing he bet nterefts of my poople throver interefts of my people throwi every part of my dominions.

Gentemen of tbe Howf of Canimensi, nade for the provifion you have The public fervice demands my warmeft ack now ledgments; and my articular thanks are due for the hixonerating my civil government nd houfehold from the debts with hich they wrote iunavoidably burhened, Whilf I regret the amount of the endered neceflary, it is a relief to ne to contemplate the flate of manufathures. Comimerce and reve. nue, which affofd the maft decifive and gratifying proofs of the ab.un-dance of our internal refources, and of the growing profperty of the countro.

My Lorda and Gemplemen, eletion of a new parliament thould intention forth with to give directions for difulwing the preic for calling a new parliament In communicating to you this in cention, 1 cannot flup preis thole tention,, cannot luppress thole len. iments of entire approbation with which I reflet upon overy part of your conduit fince 1 firf met vou in this place. The unexampled difficulties of our fituation required hiculties of oor ritual inn required the utmoft efferts of that wildom Iv difplayed in contending with o happily furmounted. From your forded under one of the fevereft dirpenfations of providence ; and is was by the Spiritand determination which uniformly anjmated tour councilss aided by the unprecedented exertions of my feecs and armies, and zealous and cordial cooperation of my people; that 1 was enabled to prolecute wi, and terminate with honour the long nd arduous: conteft in which we The lame fenfic of public duty, he fatte folicitude for the welfare of your country; will now, induce you in your individual charakters, to encourage byall the means, in your power, he cultivation and improvement of the advantages of peace. My endeavours will never be wanting to preferve the bieflings tinguifhed, and to prove that the es of my faith ful fupticets are the ob-eeft which are alw jefts whit my heart.
Then the Lord Chinechor, by his My Lod It is Lordsand Gintlemen; pleafure; that this parl iament be prodoy of Auguty, the feventernth be then doy on holden; and this partiament is accordingly proroguied to Tuefday th eventeenth day of Alugult next.

| For dijo coving the profint tarliament, and de-  GEORGER.  Whereas wo have thought fit, by and with the advice of our privy council, to diflolve the prefent Parliament, which now flands prorogued, to Tuefday, the feventeenth day of Auguft next: We do, for that end, publifh this our royal pto. clamation; and do hereby diffolve the faid parliament accordingly; and the lords, Spiritual and termpo- ral, and the knights, citizens and burgeffes, and the commifioners for Rires and burghs, of the houle of commons, are difcharged from their meeting and allendance on Tuelday the foid feventeenth day of Aug   our people, aud to have their advice in pathaments do hereby make known to ati our loving fubjets our royat will and pleafure, to call a new parliatenent, and do hereby vice of our privy souncil, we have given ordar that our Chanceltor of hat port of out united lang dom cotled Grear- Britein, apd out Chan celior of Ireland do, relipeaively, upon hotice thereof, forth wiet ai- Wuh our writy m dice formy and ac- |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

cording to law, for calling a new partiament $;$ and we do hereby alfo, by this our royyl proclamation un. kingdom, requite writs for united be ifued accordingl; by our faid Cha nelllors; telpetetively, for cauring the lords Sirititual and temipotal, and commons, who ate to bur faid parlament to bo dily re our faid parlament; to br duly returned to, and $g$ gue their attendance in our fard parlament; which writs thiry - frrt day of Angult next.

Given at our gourt, at Windfor, the wenty winth day of June, one thoufatid eight hundred and wo, in the forty-lecond year GOD Diave the KING.
Yefterday we recelved Paris jour:nals to the ift inft. They contain ittle intelligence of moment with relpeet to the interior of the repubClef du Cabinet, communicates he indemnitues which Pruma is so rece ive for the lofs of its territories on the Rhine. by letters from the
It appears, Hague of the gith uit. that the lie Cape were immediately 10 be tian government has appropriated large fum to the re-eftablifhment of the civil and - military adminiftraAccounts received at Amardim from Surinami, mention the dreadful effect caufed there by a very heavy fall of trine All the pro uet of that fertlement, is nearfy deftroyed by the Inundations.
Sit John Borlaie Warren, is a s. he court of st: Peteriburg; and will tet off or this embefly, the firt Letters from the north of Germany announce pofiuvely, that the Duke of Cambridge, will beim diately proclamed tovereign of the fates of Brunfwiek, Lunenburg; Enector of Hanover. The King England, hid father, will cede to ith all his poficflions in Germeny The jnhabitants of the Eienlorate of Hanover appland this ctange in ftablifh a fplendid, which will eourt in the eisy be carried into execution untill the ffa:rs of the Germanic Empire hall be entirely decided.

SHERIFFSSALES.
 ion County, to fatisty the Taxes due tote the Yeat 11,950 Acres between Litile Cohery and 44s, do. betperen Doing Let's Han's Land

 He ${ }^{4,8,80 \text { do, between Great Cothefy and Lit- }}$

 Taxable Property for fuid Year, fuppored to be the Propery of Roten E. Iolinton joo do. on Ciear Run, tuppofed to be the toop ofo on the Eatt fide of soiuth River. $T$ po 640 do Traets on Sourh R Rivet, 6 pery of John Feliowes. and no Reaupt, the droosdo. on the Hesd of Litie Cobert, the Swaimp the Properiy of Cato Lece, noi return. The Property of ( )wen $G$ Ge egory , ind in ioteturn: Sertyo So Black Mingo Swamp. the Proheo do. on the when Sifiot of six Reurrs. wam the Property of Roger Culas; to Retura. .

 200 do ourear Harvel's Pocofon, ite Pro-

