Order of the day of 3d Floroal

The brigands have been again in the north : they directed their force againft Fort Dauphin, but two powerful attacks have only added to their defeats, and to the glory of our brave foldiers.

so Oa the 13th Germinal (April) affifted by feeret intelligence from within, they prefented themfelves to the number of 1400. Aided by fome traitors, a large party of them was introduced into the very heart of the place, while the main body, en maffe, thundered and preffed upon all fides. The critical moment ferved but to redouble the energy of the garrison. The promptnels and vigour of the able dispolitions of General Quantin, and the bras very of the grenadiers of the 11th demi-brigade, have rendered inef fectual their plots and their efforts. After an obffinate engagement of 2] hours, they were driven from the town and its environs, leaving above 50 dead, and bearing away a confiderable number of wounded. The traitors within have been dilcovered and confined.

On the 18th of the lame month, the brigands, organized in regular Military form, and with generals at their head, made on Fort Dauphin, another attempt. Their attack commented at 5 in the morn ing; at 7 they were defeated on al points in complete route; above 40 dead. a great number of whom were officers, have been found round the place, and the r-bels were bufily employed during great part of the engagement in carrying of their wounded.

Le Port- de Paix has been alfo attacked on the 22d Germinal (April in the afternoon. The enemy un maiked of a ludden a great numbe of the batteries, which played upor

Our prefent fituation is truely unfortunate in the prefent crifis of af fairs. Every kind of bulinels is nearly fulpended, owing to the ge neral distruft and apprehensior which prevail. Every one looks for the worft, and is preparing accor dingly. Would to God our fear: may not be realized. I fend you the enclosed document. It we figned by a confiderable number o the inhabitants; fome from genuine feelings, others from courtely, fomfrom fear, and a variety of other in ducements.

ADDRESS

Of the French inhabitants of New-Orleans, t Lauffat, Colontal Prefet, In anfwer to pi proclamation of the 6th Germinal 11th year.

CITIZEN PREFEGT,

France has done justice to ou opinion, by believing in the unal terable attachment which we hav preferved for her. Thirty fou years reign of a foreign power hav not weakened in our minds the clof love of our native land, and now i returning under her flag, our joy is equal to the forrow we felt when forced to leparate from her. Happy the natives of Louisiana who have lived long enough to be witheffes to, this re-union, which they have never ceafed to defire, and which i the a complifhment of their dearef wifhes. In an age to pregnant with aftonishing eyents, no doubt thei happened things of great magnitude, more impofing and mo-"emorable; but nothing perhat ffers to interefting, fo moving cene, as that of vidorious and tri umphant France bolding out her rotecting arm to children that har rentorn from her breaft by weaknel nd preverication, and offering thare with them the fruits of a glu jous peace, which terminated in fe rilliant a manner, the most blood ind terrible of revolutions. You wave fignalized, citizen Prefect, the eturn of the French government, by a genuine proof of her benevo. lent views. Your proclamation of the 6th of this month, by which you announce them, has penetrated us with gratitude for her parental care. . The first favors of the repub. lic are felt, the happy choice of the chief which the places at our head, the honorable reputation of whom has already, reached us; the cholen troops which the lends to guard our homes, are certain prelages of the happinels and prosperity .fhe is preparing for us. We offer to her in return our fubmiffion, our obedience, and our love; and we fwear to prove ourfelves deferving her name. She would probably place lefs value on the homage of our fid-lity, if she faw us leave, with. out any symptoms of forrow, the fovereign who has loaded us with favours, during the time he has reigned over us. That eulpable iudifference does not exift in our hearts ; the regret of loting him occupies a place with the joy of returning to our native country; and it is by retaining an eternal remembrance of his goodnefs, that we mean to thew ourfelves worthy of the favours and attachment of the French Republic. New-Orleans, Germinal, 11th year.

TO THE FREEMEN of the Twelfth Diftrict, composed of the Counties of Surry, Stokes, Fredel Withes and Affe. Fellow Citizens,

NOW taken he Liberty to inform you, that I am a Candidate for Reprefentative of this Diffrict, at the next enfuine Election of Members, to the Congress of the United States : It is hoped that the late Pe riod at which I contented to offer, will apo. logize for the Method adopted to give it Publicity.

As there is a Difference of Political Opia nions, it may be proper that I should declare what mine are : I am a Federalift, and have uniformly been attached to the Federal Con. ftitution, believing it to be (under a beneicent Providence) the Rack of our National Safety, the Bond of our Union, and the Pillar of our Profperity and Happineis. While I make this Declaration, I will obferve more particularly to those who may agree with me in Pontics, that if I fhall be honoured with a Majority of Suffrages, I will not itand com. mitted to vote with any Party, but will aft independent of Party, according to the beit of my judgment, in any Meafure which I may judge conducive to the Interest of the Union in general, or North-Carolina in particular. This is a Line of Conduct I have long adopted, for the Truth of which I appeal to the Candor of the Gootlemen with whom I have had the Honor to ferve in our State Le. gifature. ....

Gentlemen, it refts with you to make a candid and impartial Choice, in which I wil chearfully acquiefce. MUSSENDINE MATTHEWS.

the Forts Liveau and Pagnet. A theapp o h of night the affair be. Came ino e general and more f rious and at 110'clock an affault was mad on all the forts. The brigands wer provided with large and long ladder of 20 fteps. The extreme superiority of their numbers rendered it impol fible to prevent their applying fome of them; and by these means they fucceeded in Ic ling the grand fort and eftablished themselves for fom time at the foot of the block-houf. but they were driven from thenc after having loft a great many men The forts Laveaux and Pageot were to well protected by the fire of the artilelry from the grand and little forts and the ftationary Corvette, that the enemy could not avail themfelves on those two points of the fcaling ladders they had brought.

The brigands have left 57 dead about our posts, many others they carried off; the number of their wounded mult have been very confiderable : we had but one man killed and two wounded.

General Freffinet, informed that the brigands had re-affembled in their neighbouring politions on the plain of Cul de Sac, with a defign of making an incurfion, gave orders to prevent it by attacking them. In conlequence, Grn. Lavellette hav. ing prepared a column composed of detachments from the 5th light troops, the 89th of the line, and 30 national dragoons from Port-au-Prince, arrived at 5 in the morning in prefence of the brigands. He fucceffive attacked and earried three ftrong politions where the enemy were entrenched. The refult of this operation is a flandard taken. above 30 of the brigands lie upon the fpot, and the re nainder of their hordes entirely differted : we had 12 wounded,
