

LOST this Morning, in Town, a single-eyed Gold Watch, blue enamelled round the Case. Her Number is not precisely remembered, but I believe it to be 669, or some Number composed of sixes and nines, in a different Order. In her Face is two Words, one of which, to the best of my Recollection, is "fries." It is hoped, that any Gentleman seeing a Negro, or suspicious Person, with a Watch of the above Description in their Possession, will secure it; or if the Person who has it will restore it to the Subscriber, he or she will be handsomely rewarded. MARK COOKE.

Raleigh, June 22.

A Note lost.

THE Subscriber lost a Note in Wake County Court Week, he supposes between Raleigh and his House near Swift Creek, drawn by David Turner in favour of himself, for one hundred and Twenty Dollars, payable at Christmas next. He therefore cautions all Persons from receiving or trading for the said Note. If any Person having found the same will restore it to the Subscriber, he will receive his Thanks, and by other reasonable Satisfaction that may be required. EDW. STEVENS.

Wake County, June 23.

TAKEN UP,

AND Committed to the Goal of Perquimans County, as a Runaway, a Negro Fellow by the Name of Sam. A Description of the Fellow is thought unnecessary, as he was originally taken up and committed to Goal as having been set free contrary to Law; and was on this day proved in the Court of the County, to be the Property of a Joseph Windlow, living on Contentnea Creek in the County of Edgecomb, who is hereby desired to come forward, pay Charges, and take him away. Perquimans County, May 12, 1803.

The Trustees are sensible, in offering this Plan of a Lottery to the Public, they must depend more for Success on the Consideration of the Objects to which the Proceeds of it are to be applied, than to any Merit the Scheme itself, or the Mode of raising Money by Lottery, is entitled to. They feel a Desire, in common with many of their Fellow-Citizens, to promote Seminaries of Learning throughout the Country; they are impressed with a Belief of the Importance of these Institutions, as they regard our political, moral and religious Concerns, and they lament that greater Patronage is not extended to them from the Source to which they have a Right to look up for Support; but we are indebted alone to individual Exertion and Protection, that these valuable and necessary Institutions have an Existence amongst us.

It is under these Impressions, and with these Motives, that the Trustees of the Wadesborough Academy (a young, but promising Institution) take the Liberty of offering the above Scheme to the Public, and soliciting the Assistance of the Friends of Learning to forward their Views.

James Marshall, John Jennings, Joseph Pickett, Tod Robinson, Robert Troy, Commissioners appointed by the Board of Trustees to manage the Lottery.

The Season will commence on the 10th of March, and end the 10th of August next. Good and extensive Pasturage, well inclosed, at my Plantation within a Mile of Warrens; and Servants sent with Mares boarded gratis. No Liability for Accidents or Escapes; but the greatest Care shall be taken to prevent either. Mares fed well, if required, at 20 Cents per Day. Mar 1, 1803. M. DUKE JOHNSON. Magic is nine years old, a horse of elegant form and great powers, full fifteen and a half hands high, and as well bred a horse as any in England. He was got by Volunteer, one of the best sons of Old Eclipse, and sire of Spread Eagle, Eagle, Stirling, Triumph, Recruit, Commodore, &c. &c. out of Marcella. Marcella was got by Mambino, her dam Medea by Sweetbriar, out of Angelica Angelica by Snap—Regulus—Bartley's Childers—Honeywood's Arabian—Dam of the Two True Blues. Magic has covered in England the three last years. His Produce are considered large and promising.

PERFORMANCES. See the Racing Calendar for 1797. He received from Mr. Bowes' colt Sadler, fifty guineas at Newmarket. He won a sweepstakes against Whip, Mother Shipton & others at Lewes; and a match at Newmarket with Louisa; and also a match against Mr. Concanon's Knighted. In 1798, he won the Penworth Stakes at Brighton, beating Wrangler, Johnny Bennington, Play or Pay, and two others. At Lewes, he won a sweepstakes against Whip and two more. He walked over for the King's plate at Canterbury, and won the city plate. In 1799, he won one hundred and twenty guineas at Lichfield, beating Robt Keddbreak, Canon and four others; and a plate at Leicester.

The Thorough bred Imported Horse CHARIOT. Bred by John Clifton, Esq. who kept and run him until October, 1796, when he was purchased by Sir Wm. Gerard, Baronet. He was got by the celebrated Horse Highflyer, his Dam Potofi by Old Eclipse, a Mare of as great Fame as any in England. Chariot is a fine bay, stands nearly fifteen Hands high, and for Bone, Sinew, Symmetry and Action, is scarcely to be equalled. His Running entitles him to be ranked amongst the first Horses in this Country. His Excellence has been distinguished in four-mile Heats, and in no Instance where the contest was great, but he proved successful, having frequently run four Heats to decide the Race. Chariot now exhibits the greatest Health and Vigour, and will stand the ensuing Season at JAMES LYNE'S HOUSE, Within one Mile of the Subscribers' Store, on Nutchub, Granville County, North-Carolina, Nine Miles from Hawkins's Ferry, six Miles from Williamsborough, and sixteen from Warrens; And will be let to Mares at Ten-Dollars the Leap, paid at the Stable Door; Twenty Dollars the Season, payable the first Day of October next; and Forty Dollars to insure a Foal; and in every Instance, Half a Dollar the Groom at the Stable Door.

The Season may be discharged by the Payment of sixteen Dollars, if paid within the Season, which commenced the first Day of March, and will end the tenth Day of August. In cases of Insurance, the Money will be returned if the Mares do not prove with Foal, provided the Property is in no Instance changed.

Chariot is a pure Foal-getter, as appears from certificates sent with him. The Gentleman who imported him, purchased him in England himself, and had an opportunity of seeing his Colts; they being large, gay, elegant and sprightly, was his Inducement to purchase him. His Colts in this country are equal, if not superior, to those of any Horse on the continent.

Good, extensive, and well inclosed Pasturage, with one hundred Acres laid down in Wheat, Rye, red and white Clover, grass; and every care and attention paid to prevent Accidents or Escapes, but will not be liable for any that may happen. Notes of Hand will be expected with the Mares put to him, either by the Season or Insurance.

Chariot being the sole Property of the Subscribers, they have it in their Power to pledge themselves for pointed attention being paid to such Mares as may be sent to him.

JAMES & HENRY LYNE. Those Gentlemen who wish their Mares fed with Grain, may be furnished with Corn at two Dollars and a half a Barrel. Those ringing Mares boarded gratis.

COEUR DE LION.

PEDIGREE.

HE was got by Highflyer, his dam, Dido by Eclipse, Grandam by Spectator; Great Grandam by Blank, great, great grandam Lord Egge's Diana, by Second, great, Great Great Grandam by Stanyan's Arabian; Great Great Great Grandam by King William's Black Barb; Great Great Great Great Grandam by Makefels, out of at Royal Mare. JOHN HUOMES.

Eclipse is reputed to have been the best Horse ever raised in England. Highflyer was the favourite Cross for Eclipse Mares; and when Dido, who was considered to be the best Mare of her Day, was put to him, nothing inferior to an excellent Colt could have been expected. Coeur de Lion equals Expectation; and had it not been for the Accident which ruined his Leg, he would not probably have ever seen America. He, however, left Colts behind him to support his Credit. See the Racing Calendar of 1800, July, the handsome Performance of Mr. Vernon's Filly, at three Mile Heats, and September, the powerful Running of Mr. Saunders' Filly, at four Mile Heats. It, in addition to the distance, to be considered that these Fillies were, three Years old, that the Colts of the same Age were beaten and disgraced, and that an aged Horse prevailed only by Repetition, these performances will reflect Honor on Coeur de Lion. His oldest Colts in Virginia are also on the Turf. I have a letter from a respectable Gentleman of Culpepper county, which mentions, that on the 11th November last, a Purse, free for all Ages, four Mile Heats, was run for, and that Col. Jones's Colt Marcellus, though three Years old only, decided the Race by distancing six others the first Heat. The next Day Mr. George Allen's Filly won a Sweepstakes for three Years old, beating four others with great Ease. If his Colts be considered not as Objects of Amusement only but as Animals for Service, as Carriage or Saddle Horses, or as Horses for the Troop, they will be found excellently fitted by their Size, Figure, Colour, and Spirit.

Since the first of January, Coeur de Lion has enjoyed every Advantage arising from a clean Stable, Variety of Grain, an excellent Wheat Lot, and moderate Exercise. He is now ready to cover Mares at my Stable, two and a half Miles East from Louisburg, for twenty Dollars the Season, dischargeable with sixteen and a Half the 20th February, 1804; thirty an Insurance; ten, ready Money, a Leap, and a Quarter to the Groom. Any Mare put by the Leap, may have the Remainder of the Season for twelve Dollars, which may be discharged at the time above-mentioned, by Payment of ten Dollars.

Corn at Market Price—Servants' Board gratis. Good Pasturage well secured, proper Attention to Mares, but no Liability for Accidents or Escapes.

DESCRIPTION. Coeur de Lion is a beautiful Bay, with black Mane, Tail, Legs, and Hoofs, and has a Star on his Forehead. He is fully sixteen Hands high, and proportionably long and large; has an unusual Share of Power and Majesty, a fine Temper, and a flowing Spirit. Eliza Williams. Franklin, March 1, 1803.

By Geo. Roberts, V. D. M. The third Edition, with considerable Additions and Improvements.

Raleigh, MONDAY, JULY 11, 1803.

The Anniversary of American Independence was commemorated in this city, with the respect due to the occasion. The day was ushered in by a discharge of cannon; at noon, a Federal Salute was fired, and at two o'clock, the citizens repaired to the State-House, where they partook of a plentiful dinner provided by Mrs. Caffo; at which Col. John Ingles and Judge Potter presided. After dinner, the following Toasts were drank, accompanied with a number of patriotic and convivial songs by the company:

TOASTS.

1. The 4th of July, 1776, the memorable and auspicious day we celebrate. May each return of its anniversary be hailed with gratitude and with joy! It ranked America among the Nations of the Earth, and laid the foundation of her happiness and prosperity, through the freedom, sovereignty and independence of her Sons.
  2. The memory of George Washington—Columbia's favourite Son, great in the Field, great in the Cabinet—the pride, the ornament, the friend, the Saviour of his Country.
  3. The Officers and Soldiers of our Revolutionary Army, including as well those who are now no more, as those who remain among us: May it be gratefully remembered, that men never deserved better, nor merited more of their fellow-citizens than this faithful, brave and persevering Band.
  4. A proper remembrance of all those who, during the trials of America in her Revolutionary War, laboured in the cause of Freedom and of the United States—in the Senate, at the Desk, and in the Field.
  5. The Constitution of the United States—the Rock of our Political Salvation: May it ever be held sacred.
  6. The President of the United States.
  7. The Vice-President of the United States.
  8. The Judiciary of the United States.
  9. The Militia, Army and Navy of the United States.
  10. The Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures of the United States: May the increasing prosperity of each receive the protesting and encouraging aid of Government.
  11. The State Governments.
  12. The Liberty of the Press.
  13. The Arts and Sciences—a due cultivation and general diffusion of them among the American People.
  14. The University of North-Carolina.
  15. Nathaniel Macon, our respected friend, and late Representative in Congress.
  16. James Turner, Governor of North-Carolina.
  17. Perpetual Amity among the States of the Union, and brotherly affection among their Citizens:—May every attempt to divide or alienate one State from another, receive the marked discountenance of the true Friends of their Country; and may it be the first desire of every Citizen to promote the Common Good.
- The toasts being gone through, after a few volunteers, the company retired, having spent an harmonious and agreeable afternoon. In the evening, the last subscription ball for the season was held. It was well attended, and the evening being cool, passed away ably.
