University of North-Carolina.

The Committee of visitation apported to attend the annual examinot not the Students belonging to nstitution, delivered the following report: Examination commenced with the en class, consisting of John Young, H. Campbell, William C. Love, John Magomery, James Young, W.B. Mears, What Gampbell, Daniel Forney, Frede. Lickton, John Taylor, James Harringomas Goode, Nathaniel Wilkerson, onnel, and Morgan Yeorgen. This s examined on the Eneids of Virgil, 2d to the 7th book, and very highwed. William C Love, William s, John Donnel, John Taylor, Fre-Beckton and Daniel Forney, were ame class, with the addition of arper and Gavin Hogg, were exanited the Epods and Odes of Horace, ming; approved and distinguished am B. Mears, John Donnel, John Daniel Forney, Thomas Goode. Young, William Campbell, John ...; Morgan Yeorgen, and James Harr..., on, were examined on Ancient History epitomised, Of these the four first named appeared to excel. Frederick Eeckton, Gavin Hogg, John Montgomery, Jesse Harper, and Green H. Campbell, were examined on Mairs's Introduction to Latin Syntax. The two first named, vere decidedly superior to the others. The Freshman class, with the addition of William Stephenson and the exception of William C. Love (who was examined on Lowth's Grammar with the Sophomore class) was examined on Webster's English Grammar. William B. Mears, John Donnel, Daniel Forney, Frederick Beckton, John Taylor, Gavin Hogg and Thomas Goode, appeared to excel.

In the Sopnomore class, the following persons w to are in regular standing, to wit, John A. Cameron, Durant Hatch, Drury Gee. James Henderson, Josiah Williams, Ransom Hinton, Cadwallader Jones, Halcott Jones, James Martin, James Whitted, together with David Hay, Edmund B. Harvey and James Cain, were examined on the Epistles and Art of Poetry of Horace, and Cicero's Orations. Of these John A. Ca meron was particularly distinguished; Da vid Hay, Durant Hatch and Haicott Jones were esteemed the next best and equal to each other. James Martin, James Henderson, Drury Gee, Ransom Hinton and Cadwallader Jones did well. The foregoing class, in regular standing, with Benjamin M'Culloch, John Ellis, Thomes Davis, Cullen Battie, Burwell Battle, James Battle, Henry Chambers, John James, Richmond Pearson, Henry Webb, Alexander M. Rogers, John Owen and Henry G. Ruffin, were examined on Asiaric, African and American Geography. Of these Henry Chambers, John A. Cameron, James Henderson, James Martin, Cadwallader Jones, John Eilis, Henry Webb, Henry G. Ruffin and Alexander M. Rogers were highly approved, more especially the person first named. The others in general did well. Durant Hatch was examined with the class on American Geography only, having been prevented by sickness from studying the rest, and was approved.

All the persons before mentioned in the Sophomore class, and the additions thereto, together with Sanders Donoho, Alfred Battle, Lewis Toomer, Noah Hinton, and William Stephenson, were examined on Arithmetic to the Double Rule of Three, and ingeneral did well. Henry Chambers, John A. Cameron, John Ellis and Henry Webb were thought the best.

I'me sopnomore class in regular standing, wirn Henry G. Ruttin, Burweil Battle, Dav : rlay, John Owen, Henry Chambers, Lawis Toomer, John Ellis, James Battle, Benjamin M'Culloch, Sanders Donoho, Cuilen Battle, Aifred Battle, Thomas Davis, John Firz eraid, Alexander M. Rogers, Henry Webb, and William C. Love examined on Lowth's English Grammar. Henry Chambers, John A. Cameron, Durant Haich, William C. Love, David Hay, Henry G. Rufin, John Owen, John Ellis, Alexander M Rogers, James Martin, and Henry Webb were highly approved; the four arst named were particularly distin-

The Junior Class. consisting of John Eaton, Joseph Hawkins, Benjamin Hawkins, William King, Spruce M. Osborn, Hyder A. Davie and William Hamilton, was examined on Algebra, and together with Thomas Taylor, was examined on Geometry, Plain Trigonomerry and English Grammar; and, with the exception of William Hamilten, was examined on Ewing's Synopsis. The four first named appeared to have made the most progress in their studies. Next to 1 ... Spruce M. Osborn and Hyder A. Davie did best. All. Jenur class, consisting of Willie W. Jones, Atlas Jones, Thomas Brown, Ri-Card Armiston, and James Sneed, was examined on Millor's Elements of History, Astronomy, Hersnam's Lectures, Blair's Lettures, Paley's Philosophy, Lowin's Grammar and the French Lan-Euge The order in which they are main , i.e gnates their respective ment.

John A. Cameron, William B. Mears. a james Harrington were examined on Other and highly approved. The two hrst excelled.

Thamas Goode, Spruce M. Osborn, Tho mas Neves, Henry Chambers, John Owen and morgan Leorgen, were examined on French Papies. Thomas Goode and Henry Chambers excelled the others.

Alexander M. Rogers was examined on . 11 Zenophon's Cyropædia, and highly approved

On Saturday evening the 7th of July, the following persons selected by the Faculty out of the Preparatory School on account of their good scholarship, delivered speeches, to wit, Benjamin Hunter, Thomas Polk, William Hooper, William Davis, John Williams, William Williams, Julius Walker, Henry Watters and William Hinton. Of these the two first named were declared best and equal to each other. The three next named-were esteemed good and equal; the rest were much approved.

The Examination of the students in the Preparatory School, commenced with a class consisting of Thomas Hawkins, Lewis Duke, William Maclin, John Jones, on four Books of Ovid. The order in which the are placed, designates their respective

A class consisting of the foregoing per sons, with the exception of William Mac lin, together with John Hill, Robert Campbell, Alexius Foster, Henry G. Williams, John B. Brown, and William Henderson, was examined on Mairs' Introduction On these John Brown, Alexius Foster and Thomas Hawkins, were distinguished; the rest were approved.

A class consisting of John Jasper, John Hill, Henry Williams, Robert Campbell, John Hilliard, William Henderson, Alexius Foster and John Brown was examined on three booksof Ovid, John Brown, Alexius Foster, and John Jasper excelled; the others were approved.

A class consisting of Robert Campbell Henry Williams, Alexius Foster, John Brown, John Hill and William Henderson, was examined on Sattust, and highly ap-

A class consisting of John Jasper, Thomas Norfleet, William Hinton, Henry Watters, Thomas Polk, William Hooper-John Pugh, John Hilliard and Robert Cal ler, was examined on 50 chapters of Sal lust. William Hooper was particularly distinguished; Henry War ers was considered as second; William Hinton and Thomas Polk held the next rank, and were considered equal.

The same class, with the exception of John Hilliard, was examined on the first four books of Casar's Commentaries and Mairs' Introduction. William Hooper was distinguished; William Hinton was esteemed second: Thomas Polk, Henry Watters and John Jasper held the next rank, and were equal. All the rest were well

A class consisting of Frederic Jones, James Hogg, John Neale, John Williams, William Polk, Henry Long. Benjamin Hunter, William Davis, John Debernier, Julius Walker, William Williams, John Ramsey and William White, was examined on 40 chapters in Cæsar's first book of Commentaries. Of these Benjamin Hunter and William Davis were d stinguished; John Williams, William Polk, John Debernier, Julius Walker, and William Williams held the second rank. The rest were much approved-

The same class, with the exception of Frederick Jones, was examined on 24 pages of Selectae Profanis, and 15 rules in Mairs' Introduction, and distinguished as before-

A class consisting of Samuel Ashe, John Lyttle, Greene Battle, James Grant, Tippoo Saib Henderson, William Alves, and Willie White, was examined on 27 Latin Fables, and together with James Alves, on 20 pages of Selectae Veteri, and much ap-

A class consisting of Alexander Hogan, John Wilkerson, Henry Node, William Foxhall, Maurice Henderson and Thomas Hooper, was examined on 20 collequies of Cordery, and did well.

A class consisting of William Moore, Paoli Ashe, Joseph Branch, Samuel Love, Richard Brownrigg and William Bellamy, was examined in Ruddiman's Rudiments, and approved. William Moore was esteem-

A class consisting of Thomas Norfleet, Thomas Hawkins, John B. Brown, Henry Watters, William Henderson, Lewis Duke. Alexius Foster, John Jasper, William Hinton and Henry Williams, was examined on Webster's Grammar as far as the 15th rule and highly approved.

A class consisting of Robert Campbell. John Neal, William Maclin, John Hill. Robert Caller, was examined on Webster's Grammar as far as the second rule and did well. These two last mentioned classes were examined on reading in Scott's Lessons, and acquitted themselves well. William Hooper holds the first, Alexius Foster the second, and Thomas Hawkins the third rank in these united Classes

A class consisting of John Lyttle, Tippoo S. Henderson, Henry long, Greene Battle, James Grant, Frederick Jones, James Alves, William Alves and Samuel Love was examined on Webster's Grammar to the 2d rule and did well.

A class consisting of Benjamin Hunter, William White, William Williams, William Davis, Julius Walker, Bartlett Yeargen, William Polk, John Williams, Willie White, John Ramsey and John Debernier was examined on Webster's Grammar to the 10th rule and did well. These two classes were examined on reading in Scott's Lessons. Benjamin Hunter, Henry Long, William Davis, John Williams, John Ramsey, Julius Walker, John Debernier and William Williams were superior, the rest approved.

John Jasper, William Maclin, John Jones, William Hooper, and Heary Watters were examined on Arithmetic as far as Reduction and were approved. John Jasper excelled. Henery Hunter was examined on Webt r's Grammar and Arithmet c as far as Eduation of Payments, and was approved. John Pugh was examined on Webster's Grammar as far as the adjectives, and approved. Bartler: Yeargen was examined on Arithmetic to Division, and did well.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred on all the Members of the Senior Class, and on Mr. Richard Henderson, late tutor on the establishment. The degree of Master of Arts was conferred on Edwin Jay Osborn, Esq. who some years past obtained the first degree. It is worthy to be mentioned, that all the Members of the Senior Class at the time of receiving the degrees, were dressed in uniform sails of neat plain homespun cloth; and it is to be hoped, that the example of Patriotism and Econo will be imitated on every similar to casion that may occur here-

The Rev. Joseph Caldwell, who has for several years past acted as principal Professor at the University, was unanimously elected President of it by a large board of Trustees. The great Talents and steady attachinent, which that Gentleman has long manifested for the interests and welfare of the Institution, gave him, in the opinion of the Trustees, a pre-eminent claim to that appointment.

-----FRESH MEDICINE.

T GALES has just received from Philadelphia, a fresh supply of the he most useful Medicines, which he sells on his usual low terms. Amongst other articles are the following, viz. Castor Oil, Calomel, Rhubarb, Julap, Sales. Aloes, Man-1a. Sonna, Tartar, Ipecacuanha, Emetics, nest Pake and Red Peruvian Bark, Cremor Tartai, Magnesia, Flour of Sulphur, Camphor, Camomile Flowers, Quicksilver, Salt of Tartar, Cantharides, Sugar of Lead, Opium, Gum Arabic, Cerate and Basilicon, Spirits of Wine, Ether, Sweet Spirits of Nitre, Landanum, Paragone Elixir, Elixii Vitriel, Balsam Capoiva, Lavender Compound, Lavender Water and Oil of Lavender, Sprits of Hartshorn, Essence of Lemon, Essence of Bergamot, Sal Vplatite,

He has also, the following publicly advertised patent and other Med cines: Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mus-

Antibilious Pills. 1tch Ointment An infallible Cure for the Ague. Hamilton's Elixer for Coughs and Colds. Restorative Drops and Piles, Indian Specific Pills and Drops for Venereal Complaints.

Eye Water. Corn Pleister and Lip Salve. Hamilton's Worm Lozenges an excellent Remedy for Children. Persian Lotion for Cure of pumpled Faces,

Dr. James's Fever Powders. Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills. Hooper's Female do. British Oil. Turington's Balsam of Life. Essence of Peppermint. Bateman's Drops. Stoughton's Bitters' Dany's Enxer, Dalby's Carminative for cholicky complaints in Children. A German Plaster for Green Wounds.

BRIGADE ORDERS.

THE Regiments which compose the 4th Brigade are to be reviewed by the Major-General at the respective Court-Houses in the District of Fayetteville, in the following order-

At Sampson, on Saturday, October 13th Cumberland, on Monday the 15th. Moore, on Wednesday the 17th. Anson, on Friday the 19th, Richmond, on Saturday the 20th. &

Robeson, on Monday the 22d. The Officers commanding said Regiments will have their Troops paraded precisely at one o'clock, I'. M. on each day. Punctuality in making Returns will be ex-of North-Carolina Militia. Fayetteville, June 15 h, 1804.

State of North-Carolina, \ May Term Hertford County. Sct. Return of Consta-NEEDHAM JERNAGEN, ble under Act of Assembly, levied on Land. Jo. HILL'S HEIRS.

TT appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that George V. O'Sheal, The mas Jordan, Mary Hill and William Hill, four of the Defendants in this case, are residents without the State. It is therefore ordered, that publication be made in the Raleigh Register for one month, noticing the said George V. O'Sheal, Thomas Jordan, Mary Hill and William Hill, to be and appearat next Term, viz. on the tourth Monday f August next, and shew cause to the contrary, else Judgment will be entered Cony, against them,

Test, JO. F. DICKINSON, CC.

SPRING GOODS.

THE Subscriber informs his Friends and the Public in General, that he has received a large Assortment of

Fashionable Goods

FOR THE SEASON, Which, with his former Stock, forms a geheral Assortment, amongst which are a great Variety of Trinkets, Jewellery, Watch Chrystals, Artificial Flowers from Paris, West-India Goods, Portand Madeira Wine, Cogniac Brandy, Train Oil, Logwood, Ladies', Misses' and Children's Morocco and Kid Shoes; Martin's Justice and his Duty of Executors, the History of Louisiana; and in short, a thousand articles too tedious to enumerate, and kept perhaps by few Stores.

He will sell low, by wholesale or retail. Fayetteville, June 30. PETER PERRY.

The Grand Lodge

North-Carolina and Tennessee

WILL convene in the Lodge-Room of the City of Raleigh on the Evening of Monday the 10th of December next, at which Time and Place, Officers, Members and Representatives from the respective Lodges under our Jurisdiction, are required

By order of the Most Worshipful the Hon. John Louis Taylor, Grand Robert Williams.

Grand Secretary. Raleigh, July 7, A. L. 5804, A. D. 1804.

MEDITERRANEAN PASSPORTS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it has been deemed expedient to change on form of the Mediterranean Passport issued to vessels of the United States; that from the eighth Day of July next, those of the new form will be issued at the Custom-Houses to every Vessel, for which application may be made on a compliance with the terms prescribed by law, and surrendering the former passport of which she may be possessed, if any, in which latter case no iees will be required for the exchange: and that by an arrangement agreed upon by the Barbary Powers, with whom we are at peace, either the old or the new form of passport will be sufficient to protect the vessels of the United States from capture, unal the 1st of July 1805, after which the old form of passport will be unavailable anp he new one alone in use. D | artment of State, ?

May 23d, 1804. S The Printers of the Littles of the United States are represend to insert the above in their Gazettes twice a weit for the space of six months, and the Collectors of the Customs to keep Copies of it posted up in their offices.

May 30.

Mutual Insurance Society AGAINST FIRE In the State of North-Carolina.

THOSE Merchants, House-owners and others, who are desirous of securing their Property from Losses by Fire, and who have not yet signified their intention of becoming Members of the above institution, (waiting perhaps, to see the Society commence its operations) are respectfully requested to apply to some one of the Directors originally appointed, viz. John Haywood or Joseph Gales, Raleigh; David Tate or John H. Stevely, at Morganton; John Steele or Lewis Baird, at Salisbury; Wm. Norwood or William Whitted, Hillsborough; John Eccles or John Hogg, at Fayetteville; Goodoram Davis or Abraham Hodge, at Halifax: Josiah Collins, sen. or Samuel Tredwell, at Edenton; John Devereuxor F. X. Martin, Newbern; or J. G. Wringt or G. Hooper, at Wilmington-before the meeting appointed to be held at Raleigh in Public at large, may lose all the benefits derivable from so equitable and desirable a provision against to justly dreaded a Calamty, for it is probable, except there appear a that time a general desire to forward the Institution, it may be abandoned altogether. July 21.

FOR SALE OR RENT, In the City of Raleigh,

A LARGE two Story House, with one Acre Lot; conveniently situated near adjoining Mr. Casso's, on Morgan Street. For Terms apply to

WILLIAM PEACE. Raleigh, June 9th, 1804

NEW BOOKS.

GALES respectfully informs the Gentlemen of the Bar, and others, that he has lately received considerable Additions to his Book-Store, not only in the Law Deportment, but in every Branch of useful and palite Literature, School Books, &c. which will be dispose. of on the most moderate! terins.

J. Gales has also lately received a fresh Stock of all the most useful Drugs and Medicines, of the best Quality, including the nost approved Parent Medicines.

BLANKS

Of all kinds, For sale at J. Ga es's Store.

THERE was committed to the goal of Pitt County, on the 10th inst. a Mulatto Boy, who calls himself Isaac Worrey, about five feet two and a half inches high; once was bound to Wm Hawkins, of Petersburg, and was taken away by a Speculator named Mutrey, who carried him to the southward, and sold him to Mr. Bell. He has a notable Scar on his left forehead, and from the looks of his Back, has been se-GEORGE GREENE, verely whipt, Greeneville, Pitt County, July 13, 1804.

Useful and entertaining Books FOR YOUTH.

Just received from Philadelphia; And for Sale by the Printer hereof, Price a Dollar and a Quarter,

THE BRITISH NEPOS, or Mirror of Youth; consisting of select Lives of illustrious Britons, who have distinguished themselves by their Virtues, Talents, or remarkable Advancement in Life, with incidental practical Reflections.

By Wm. Mavor, L. L. D. This little Volume contains the Life of Alfred the Great, Cardinal Wolsey, Cromwell, Bishop Latimer, Lord Burleigh, Sir Walter Raleigh, Lord Bacon, Shakespeare, Milton, Andrew Marvell, Algernon Sydney. Archbishop Tillotson, John Locke, William Penn, Sir Isaac Newton, Sir Robert Walpole, General Wolf, Lord Anson, Earl of Chatham, David Garrick, Captain Cooke and many others.

Also, by the same Author, Price one Dollar and a Half A complete System of NATURAL HIS-TORY, founded on the Linnean Arrangement of Animals; with popular Descriptions, in the Manner of Goldsmith and Buffon, illustrated with 44 Copperplates, representing upwards of 170 of the most curious Objects.

Also, at the same price, The Elements of Polite Education, carefully selected from the Letters of the late Earl of Chesterfield to his son.

Also, price one Dollar and three Quarters, The Beauties of Dr. John Moore, selected from the Moral, Philosophical and Miscellaneous works of that esteemed author. To which are added a new Biographical and Critical Account of the Doctor and his

Also, at the same price, A Selection of the LIVES OF PLU-TARCH abridged; containing the most illustrious Characters of Antiquity, by the same Author, viz. Ronulus, Lycurgus, Numa, Themistocles, Pericles, Alcibiades, Camillus, Timoleon, Aristides, Cato Censor, Pyrrhus, Eumenes, Pompey, Alexander, Julius Cæsar, Demosthenes and Cicero.

A PROPOSAL By William Young Birch & AbrahamS !! Of the city of Philadelphia, FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION, That celebrated work, GIBBON'S HISTORY of the RIE AND FALL OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE Together with Memire of the Life and Writings of the CONDITIONS.

NO Book could be offered which stands in less need of encomium and recommendation. It has been read in almost every European language. The history of the long and interesting period from the seign of Augustus to the taking of onstantinople, e and the death of Mahomet II. is no wherd else to be found in the shape of regular ans

1. IT will be the most complete Edition December next, otherwise they, and the of GIBBON extant.... Because it will be enriched with the Memoirs of his Life and I....IT shall be printed from the last London Edition, and he published in Eight Octavo Volumes, during the year 1804.

II....IT shall be delivered to those Subscribers who take it in Volumes, at Two Doilars per Volume, in boards. THOSE who wait for the completion of the Work, may have it either at Sixteen Dollars in boards; or in good and handsome binding, at Twenty Dollars ; payable on de-

IT will be enriched with Two whole sheer Brigadier-General of the 4th Brigade | the State House; being a parc of the Square | Writings, written by himself This will bt an addition to the London copy of nearly 200 pages.

2. IT will be about one-third cheaper than the London Copy.

3 IT will be executed in the best stile ... The Publishers, with confidence, recommend to the Public an inspection of the BOOKS published by them within the last three years They are, Russell's Ancient and Modern Europe, 7 Volumes The Domestic Encyclopædia, 5 Volumes, and Tucker's Blackstone, 5 Volumes They promise no to degenerate.

Maps ... One of the Eastern, the other the Western part of the Roman Emphir A Map of the parts of Europe and Asiaa jacent to Constantinople, and an elegan engraved Head of the Author.

Subscribers received by formes, taleigh; R. Da on, Warrenton; and P. Perry, Payetteville.

HAIR TRUNKS Of different sizes and prichateric. if

At J. GALES's Stor