

Latest Foreign Intelligence.

The ship John & Alice, arrived at Philadelphia, in 43 days from Liverpool.

MADRID, DECEMBER 30.

A part of the Garrison here has received orders to hold itself in readiness to march. A quantity of artillery from the great Arsenal of Govin will be sent against the war against England...

PARIS, DECEMBER 13.

Admiral Gravina is shortly expected here from Paris. All ships of war here, and at Carthage, are fitted out, and many seamen are levied.

MILAN, DECEMBER 17.

Mr. Livingston, the late envoy of the States of North America to Paris, has arrived here; he is making a journey in the West.

PARIS, JAN. 7.

We have received an account from Antwerp of a desperate scuffle having taken place between some American sailors, who were attacked by a party of Spanish sailors, who supposed them to be English.

LONDON, JAN. 22.

The French minister Salicetti, has concluded a new convention with the Ligurian Republic in the name of the Emperor Napoleon, which was signed on the 20th of October last.

The Emperor Napoleon engages to procure a peace for the Ligurian Republic with the Barbary powers, and to cause the Ligurian flag to be respected by those powers.

Should he, however, not be so successful in this endeavour as he expects, he engages to furnish the ships of the said Republic with French colors, that they may thus be protected.

The Emperor of the French will further grant permission for the importation of all Ligurian commodities into Piedmont, Parma and Piacenza, only paying the small importation duty, which was before customary.

A gentleman arrived in town yesterday from France, who is reported to be M. Portalis, jun. brother to the person who acted as Secretary to General Andreossi in this country.

On the other part, the government of the Ligurian Republic engages to furnish 3,000 seamen, during the present war, and to have 4,000 of them in readiness in a short time.

The Ligurian Republic cedes the harbours, with the arsenal, as also the galley harbors and the dock-yard, with the basin; and places them at the disposal of the French.

The Emperor of the French engages to enlarge the basin sufficiently for the entrance and stationing of these ships at its own expence; and as at the time of the conclusion of this convention, a new built ship of the line, a frigate, and two corvettes, are lying finished in the dock of Genoa, these ships shall likewise be placed at the disposal of France.

January 25.

In consequence of an application from a number of respectable Spanish merchants, an order of Council has been obtained, to permit vessels to carry corn into the ports of Spain; those only excepted in which there are naval stores.

January 26.

HOUSE OF COMMONS, Jan. 24. Sir Edwin Nepean gave notice, that he should on Monday next move for leave to bring in a Bill to continue for a limited time, the bills for a suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act, and for establishing martial law in Ireland.

Last night dispatches were sent off from the Admiralty to Admiral Cornwallis, off Plymouth, with orders to resume his former station with all possible dispatch.

There is a report in the city, that Bonaparte had resolved to send M. Shimmelpennick to London with pacific overtures. It produced a slight rise in the funds. We attach no credit to the report.

January 25.

The Emperor of Russia has definitively fixed the city of Keif, in his dominions, for the residence of his Majesty Louis XVIII. He is, however, to reside at Mittau, until the returning mildness of the season shall enable him to remove, with all his household, to the abode which the kindness of his Russian Majesty has provided for him.

M. d'Vergennes, a French emigrant, who, though in the service of the Emperor of Russia, was, on the demand of the minister of Bonaparte arrested at Rome last summer, & delivered into the hands of the French, has been released.

The English families of distinction, who were made prisoners in France at the commencement of the war have been directed by the French Commissary to hold themselves in readiness, as they may expect daily to be embarked for England.

Dispatches were received from the Duke of Angoulême, and from the Duke of Berry. They state there was reason to suppose the French fleet in that port would endeavour to put to sea, but the war commenced been completely fitted out by the Spanish officers.

No less than sixteen Spanish prizes, exclusive of the Amphitrite frigate, have been carried into Gibraltar. The loan intended to be negotiated for in March is not, we are well assured, to exceed the sum of Twelve Millions; the rest of the supplies being to be raised within the year.

The Courts of Vienna and Copenhagen, have declared, in answer to the circular note of M. Talleyrand, respecting the Ministers of Great-Britain, when Bonaparte professed to put them out of the protection of the public law, that they cannot recognize so extraordinary a principle.

Private letters received by the Hamburg Mails, state, that the exportation of corn from the Swedish and Prussian ports has been prohibited, in consequence, it is supposed, of the magazines of provisions which are about to be formed for the use of the armies in those countries.

The Marshall of the Court of Admiralty has in the name of his Majesty taken possession of all Spanish vessels sent into the several ports by our cruisers, as well as all such as were detained by the embargo, thus taking them out of the charge of the captors or their agents.

Letters from Berlin of the 4th instant, (in all likelihood fabricated at Paris) state that the King of Prussia had remonstrated with the King of Sweden against his entering into a subsidiary treaty with this country, which might tend to disturb the peace of the North of Europe.

A Spanish ship from Carthage, having on board a considerable quantity of dollars, and gold in bars, besides valuable merchandise, has been taken by the Malta of 84 guns, and sent into Falmouth.

A gentleman arrived in town yesterday from France, who is reported to be M. Portalis, jun. brother to the person who acted as Secretary to General Andreossi in this country.

On the other part, the government of the Ligurian Republic engages to furnish 3,000 seamen, during the present war, and to have 4,000 of them in readiness in a short time.

The Ligurian Republic cedes the harbours, with the arsenal, as also the galley harbors and the dock-yard, with the basin; and places them at the disposal of the French.

The Emperor of the French engages to enlarge the basin sufficiently for the entrance and stationing of these ships at its own expence; and as at the time of the conclusion of this convention, a new built ship of the line, a frigate, and two corvettes, are lying finished in the dock of Genoa, these ships shall likewise be placed at the disposal of France.

Last night dispatches were sent off from the Admiralty to Admiral Cornwallis, off Plymouth, with orders to resume his former station with all possible dispatch.

There is a report in the city, that Bonaparte had resolved to send M. Shimmelpennick to London with pacific overtures. It produced a slight rise in the funds. We attach no credit to the report.

The Emperor of Russia has definitively fixed the city of Keif, in his dominions, for the residence of his Majesty Louis XVIII. He is, however, to reside at Mittau, until the returning mildness of the season shall enable him to remove, with all his household, to the abode which the kindness of his Russian Majesty has provided for him.

M. d'Vergennes, a French emigrant, who, though in the service of the Emperor of Russia, was, on the demand of the minister of Bonaparte arrested at Rome last summer, & delivered into the hands of the French, has been released.

The English families of distinction, who were made prisoners in France at the commencement of the war have been directed by the French Commissary to hold themselves in readiness, as they may expect daily to be embarked for England.

Dispatches were received from the Duke of Angoulême, and from the Duke of Berry. They state there was reason to suppose the French fleet in that port would endeavour to put to sea, but the war commenced been completely fitted out by the Spanish officers.

No less than sixteen Spanish prizes, exclusive of the Amphitrite frigate, have been carried into Gibraltar. The loan intended to be negotiated for in March is not, we are well assured, to exceed the sum of Twelve Millions; the rest of the supplies being to be raised within the year.

The Courts of Vienna and Copenhagen, have declared, in answer to the circular note of M. Talleyrand, respecting the Ministers of Great-Britain, when Bonaparte professed to put them out of the protection of the public law, that they cannot recognize so extraordinary a principle.

Private letters received by the Hamburg Mails, state, that the exportation of corn from the Swedish and Prussian ports has been prohibited, in consequence, it is supposed, of the magazines of provisions which are about to be formed for the use of the armies in those countries.

The Marshall of the Court of Admiralty has in the name of his Majesty taken possession of all Spanish vessels sent into the several ports by our cruisers, as well as all such as were detained by the embargo, thus taking them out of the charge of the captors or their agents.

Letters from Berlin of the 4th instant, (in all likelihood fabricated at Paris) state that the King of Prussia had remonstrated with the King of Sweden against his entering into a subsidiary treaty with this country, which might tend to disturb the peace of the North of Europe.

A Spanish ship from Carthage, having on board a considerable quantity of dollars, and gold in bars, besides valuable merchandise, has been taken by the Malta of 84 guns, and sent into Falmouth.

A gentleman arrived in town yesterday from France, who is reported to be M. Portalis, jun. brother to the person who acted as Secretary to General Andreossi in this country.

On the other part, the government of the Ligurian Republic engages to furnish 3,000 seamen, during the present war, and to have 4,000 of them in readiness in a short time.

The Ligurian Republic cedes the harbours, with the arsenal, as also the galley harbors and the dock-yard, with the basin; and places them at the disposal of the French.

The Emperor of the French engages to enlarge the basin sufficiently for the entrance and stationing of these ships at its own expence; and as at the time of the conclusion of this convention, a new built ship of the line, a frigate, and two corvettes, are lying finished in the dock of Genoa, these ships shall likewise be placed at the disposal of France.

Last night dispatches were sent off from the Admiralty to Admiral Cornwallis, off Plymouth, with orders to resume his former station with all possible dispatch.

There is a report in the city, that Bonaparte had resolved to send M. Shimmelpennick to London with pacific overtures. It produced a slight rise in the funds. We attach no credit to the report.

The Emperor of Russia has definitively fixed the city of Keif, in his dominions, for the residence of his Majesty Louis XVIII. He is, however, to reside at Mittau, until the returning mildness of the season shall enable him to remove, with all his household, to the abode which the kindness of his Russian Majesty has provided for him.

M. d'Vergennes, a French emigrant, who, though in the service of the Emperor of Russia, was, on the demand of the minister of Bonaparte arrested at Rome last summer, & delivered into the hands of the French, has been released.

The English families of distinction, who were made prisoners in France at the commencement of the war have been directed by the French Commissary to hold themselves in readiness, as they may expect daily to be embarked for England.

Dispatches were received from the Duke of Angoulême, and from the Duke of Berry. They state there was reason to suppose the French fleet in that port would endeavour to put to sea, but the war commenced been completely fitted out by the Spanish officers.

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE

CHARIOT.

A fine bay, stands nearly sixteen hands high, and for bone, size, symmetry and action, is scarcely to be equalled. His running entitles him to be ranked amongst the first horses in this country.

James Lyne's Horse, Within one mile of the Salisbury, former store, now occupied by Norwood & Blackwell, on Nutbush, Granville County, State of North-Carolina, nine miles from Haskins's Ferry, six miles from Williamsborough, and six from Warrenton.

At Ten Dollars the leap, paid at the stable door; twenty dollars the season, payable the first day of October next, and in every instance half a dollar to the Groom at the stable door.

The season may be discharged by the payment of Sixteen Dollars, if paid within the season, which will commence the 10th of March, and end the 10th day of Aug. next, Mares put by the season, which fail proving in foal, may have the benefit of another season gratis, as he will stand at the same place from season to season, without being removed.

CHARIOT is a sure foal-getter. His colts are equal, if not superior to those of any horse on the continent. His colts in England are on the British Turf. They are considered the favorites of the present day, having in every instance proved successful.

His running performances have been equal to those of most horses on the continent, reference being had to the Racing Calendars for the years 1792, 1793, 1794, 1795, 1796 and 1797.

Good, extensive and well-inclosed pasturage, with wheat lots, and red and white clover lots, gratis. Every care and attention paid to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be liable for any that may happen.

Those sent with mares boarded gratis. We have received late information from London of the running of two Chariots, raised by the same gentleman (see Racing Calendar for 1804) viz.

Richmond, Wednesday, 5th September, 1804. A sweepstakes of thirty guineas each, for three year old colts, carrying 12 stone, and fillies 7 stone 12 lb. one round. 7 subscribers.

Mr. Wm. Gerard's brown colt by Chariot, out of Mr. Bayle's bay colt by Overton. Mr. Brantling's bay colt by Pepsator. Mr. Walton's bay colt spot. Lord Darlington's bay colt, by St. George, 5 and 6 to 4 against the winner.

Pontefract, Wednesday, 12th September, 1804. A sweepstakes of thirty guineas each, ten guineas for three year olds, colts carrying 13 stone 12 lb. fillies 7 stone 12 lb. the last mile and three quarters. Ten subscribers.

Sir Wm. Gerard's brown colt by Chariot, out of Mr. Bayle's bay colt by Overton. Lord Fitzwilliam's bay filly, Maiden. Mr. Wm. Lee's brown filly, Brunster, by Overton, 5 to 4.

CHARIOT was got by the famous horse High-flyer, son of Herod—son of Tartar—son of Partner, out of Meliora by Fox—his dam Potosi, by Eclipse; grandam by Blank, son of the Godolphin Arabian; great grandam by the Godolphin Arabian; great great grandam by Old Snap, son of Flying Childers, sire of Old Snap, out of the Withe rington mare by Partner; sister to Squirrel's dam by Bloody Buttocks—Greyhound, Makeless, Brimmer, Place's White Turk Doodsworth, Layton barb mare; being the same stock of Old Matchem, Drone, Diamond, Charlemont, Scriveton, Sparkler, Stickle, and many other capital horses and mares that have appeared on the British Turf, for which reference may be had to the general road book. JAMES & HENRY LYNE.

Mares may be conveyed at 25 cents per day. EDUCATION. Pittsburgh Academy.

THE Trustees now have the pleasure of informing the Public that the Rev. Wm. Bingham, one of the Professors in the University, has engaged with them as President of this Academy, which will be opened for the reception of Students, under his Management, the first of April next.

Pittsburgh is thirty-five Miles west of Raleigh, in as pleasant and healthy a Situation as any other in the State of North-Carolina; and from the moderate Price of Boarding (which may be procured in reputable Families, at from Fifty to Sixty Dollars, with that of Tuition, the Prices of which are as follow, viz. Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, eight Dollars; the Latin and Greek Languages, Geography, History, Mathematics, Astronomy, Moral Philosophy, &c. thirteen dollars; one fourth paid at Entrance, another fourth at the End of six Months, and the Remainder at the End of the Year) the Trustees flatter themselves with a very considerable increase of Students. By order, B. LIGHTFOOT, Sec. Pittsburgh, Jan. 21st, 1805.

LAND IN WAKE COUNTY. FOR SALE. ONE Thousand or 1500 acres of Land lying on the North Side of Neuse River, and about 17 miles of Raleigh, adapted to the cultivation of any produce made in this State. The plantation is sufficient to work 15 or 20 hands, which is in good repair. There are on the plantation, a good Dwelling-house 50 by 28 feet, with 9 rooms and a twelve feet passage, with large folding Doors; the Kitchen 48 by 16 feet, and out-houses sufficient; a very good Great Mill and a Cotton Machine that goes by Water; also a well-fixed Distillery. There are several fine Springs on the Land. Possession will be given on the first day of May. JAMES LEWIS.

THE HILLSBOROUGH RACES, WILL commence on the 17th day of April next, and continue three days free for any Horse, Mare or Gelding, without exception. The first day's running will be one mile heats, the second day two mile heats, and the third day three mile heats. All persons intending to start Nags for either of the said day's Races, will take care to enter the same with Mr. John Taylor, before sun-set of the day previous to that on which said Nags may be intended to start, otherwise no Nag will be permitted to start but by paying double Entrance. By order, A. B. DRUCE, Sec. Mar. 3.

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE RATLER, WILL be let to Mares the ensuing season, at my Stable, at Snow-Hill, Greene County, at the moderate Price of Ten Dollars the single Leap, Sixteen Dollars the Season, which may be discharged by the Payment of Fourteen Dollars on or before the 10th Day of January next; twenty-five Dollars to ensure; and should the Property be changed, the Person who put her will be charged with the full amount. If any Mare put by the Leap should want the Horse a second Time, by paying six Dollars more, shall be entitled to the remaining Part of the Season. Grain will be furnished at a moderate Price for those who require it. Good Pastures, and Servants Board gratis, but will not be liable for Accidents or Escapes of any Kind whatever.

RATLER is a fine Bay, upwards of fifteen Hands and a half high. He was got by old Shark, his Dam the noted running Mare Lady Legs, she was got by old Cannel; his Grand Dam by Spadille, his great Grand Dam by old Fearnought, his great Grand Dam was imported by Colonel Randolph of Virginia.

RACING PERFORMANCES. In October 1799, two Mile heats, a Sweepstakes for three Year olds, over the Halifax Turf, he distanced Mr. Schenck's Filly. In February, 1800, over the Charleston course, two Mile Heats, he beat several of the best Nags, carrying ninety Pounds. He also in a few days after, beat the best Horses, two Mile heats, over the course in Augusta. He has never been beaten, and is supposed by the best Judges in North-Carolina to be equal to any Horse on the Continent, four mile Heats. BENJAMIN EVANS. Snow-Hill, Greene County, Feb. 18th, 1805.

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE

CHARIOT.

A fine bay, stands nearly sixteen hands high, and for bone, size, symmetry and action, is scarcely to be equalled. His running entitles him to be ranked amongst the first horses in this country.

James Lyne's Horse, Within one mile of the Salisbury, former store, now occupied by Norwood & Blackwell, on Nutbush, Granville County, State of North-Carolina, nine miles from Haskins's Ferry, six miles from Williamsborough, and six from Warrenton.

At Ten Dollars the leap, paid at the stable door; twenty dollars the season, payable the first day of October next, and in every instance half a dollar to the Groom at the stable door.

The season may be discharged by the payment of Sixteen Dollars, if paid within the season, which will commence the 10th of March, and end the 10th day of Aug. next, Mares put by the season, which fail proving in foal, may have the benefit of another season gratis, as he will stand at the same place from season to season, without being removed.

CHARIOT is a sure foal-getter. His colts are equal, if not superior to those of any horse on the continent. His colts in England are on the British Turf. They are considered the favorites of the present day, having in every instance proved successful.

His running performances have been equal to those of most horses on the continent, reference being had to the Racing Calendars for the years 1792, 1793, 1794, 1795, 1796 and 1797.

Good, extensive and well-inclosed pasturage, with wheat lots, and red and white clover lots, gratis. Every care and attention paid to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be liable for any that may happen.

Those sent with mares boarded gratis. We have received late information from London of the running of two Chariots, raised by the same gentleman (see Racing Calendar for 1804) viz.

Richmond, Wednesday, 5th September, 1804. A sweepstakes of thirty guineas each, for three year old colts, carrying 12 stone, and fillies 7 stone 12 lb. one round. 7 subscribers.

Mr. Wm. Gerard's brown colt by Chariot, out of Mr. Bayle's bay colt by Overton. Mr. Brantling's bay colt by Pepsator. Mr. Walton's bay colt spot. Lord Darlington's bay colt, by St. George, 5 and 6 to 4 against the winner.

Pontefract, Wednesday, 12th September, 1804. A sweepstakes of thirty guineas each, ten guineas for three year olds, colts carrying 13 stone 12 lb. fillies 7 stone 12 lb. the last mile and three quarters. Ten subscribers.

Sir Wm. Gerard's brown colt by Chariot, out of Mr. Bayle's bay colt by Overton. Lord Fitzwilliam's bay filly, Maiden. Mr. Wm. Lee's brown filly, Brunster, by Overton, 5 to 4.

CHARIOT was got by the famous horse High-flyer, son of Herod—son of Tartar—son of Partner, out of Meliora by Fox—his dam Potosi, by Eclipse; grandam by Blank, son of the Godolphin Arabian; great grandam by the Godolphin Arabian; great great grandam by Old Snap, son of Flying Childers, sire of Old Snap, out of the Withe rington mare by Partner; sister to Squirrel's dam by Bloody Buttocks—Greyhound, Makeless, Brimmer, Place's White Turk Doodsworth, Layton barb mare; being the same stock of Old Matchem, Drone, Diamond, Charlemont, Scriveton, Sparkler, Stickle, and many other capital horses and mares that have appeared on the British Turf, for which reference may be had to the general road book. JAMES & HENRY LYNE.

Mares may be conveyed at 25 cents per day. EDUCATION. Pittsburgh Academy.

THE Trustees now have the pleasure of informing the Public that the Rev. Wm. Bingham, one of the Professors in the University, has engaged with them as President of this Academy, which will be opened for the reception of Students, under his Management, the first of April next.

Pittsburgh is thirty-five Miles west of Raleigh, in as pleasant and healthy a Situation as any other in the State of North-Carolina; and from the moderate Price of Boarding (which may be procured in reputable Families, at from Fifty to Sixty Dollars, with that of Tuition, the Prices of which are as follow, viz. Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, eight Dollars; the Latin and Greek Languages, Geography, History, Mathematics, Astronomy, Moral Philosophy, &c. thirteen dollars; one fourth paid at Entrance, another fourth at the End of six Months, and the Remainder at the End of the Year) the Trustees flatter themselves with a very considerable increase of Students. By order, B. LIGHTFOOT, Sec. Pittsburgh, Jan. 21st, 1805.

LAND IN WAKE COUNTY. FOR SALE. ONE Thousand or 1500 acres of Land lying on the North Side of Neuse River, and about 17 miles of Raleigh, adapted to the cultivation of any produce made in this State. The plantation is sufficient to work 15 or 20 hands, which is in good repair. There are on the plantation, a good Dwelling-house 50 by 28 feet, with 9 rooms and a twelve feet passage, with large folding Doors; the Kitchen 48 by 16 feet, and out-houses sufficient; a very good Great Mill and a Cotton Machine that goes by Water; also a well-fixed Distillery. There are several fine Springs on the Land. Possession will be given on the first day of May. JAMES LEWIS.

THE HILLSBOROUGH RACES, WILL commence on the 17th day of April next, and continue three days free for any Horse, Mare or Gelding, without exception. The first day's running will be one mile heats, the second day two mile heats, and the third day three mile heats. All persons intending to start Nags for either of the said day's Races, will take care to enter the same with Mr. John Taylor, before sun-set of the day previous to that on which said Nags may be intended to start, otherwise no Nag will be permitted to start but by paying double Entrance. By order, A. B. DRUCE, Sec. Mar. 3.

DISTRICT OF NORTH-CAROLINA

AGREABLE to the Direction of an Act of Congress, passed the 11th Day of March, 1802, entitled "An Act to amend the Act entitled "An Act to collect a Direct Tax without United States," public Notification is hereby given, that Transcripts from the Tax Lists of the several Collectors for the Counties hereinafter named, containing all Lists which according to the Provisions of the aforesaid Act, are liable to be sold for the Non-Payment of the said Tax; which Lists specify the Names of the Persons in whom the assessments were originally made, and the sums respectively due thereon, are lodged in this Office, and are open to the free inspection of all who may be concerned. And it is further made known, that the Tax due on the said Lands may be paid to the Collector of the Division in which the Lands aforesaid are situated, or to the Supervisor, at his Office in this Place, at any time within Six Months from the Date hereof.

And in pursuance of the said amendatory Act, further Notice is hereby given, that the Collectors of the Direct Tax in the counties hereinafter named, will proceed to sell, at Public Sale, at the Hour of 12 o'Clock, on the respective days and at the places following, and to continue the same from Day to Day,—so much of the Lists and Lists in the Counties and Towns in their respective Divisions on which any part of the Tax shall remain unpaid at the Expiration of Six Months from the Date hereof, as shall be sufficient to satisfy the same, together with all Costs and Charges incurred in preparing Lists, advertising, and making sale; that is to say, on the 3d Monday of August next, at the Court House in Currituck County; on the 1st Monday of August next, at the Court-House in Camden County; on the 1st Monday of August next, at the Court-House in Currituck County; on the 3d Monday in August next, at the Court-House in Gates County; on the 4th Monday of August next, at the Court-House in Johnston County; on the 1st Monday in September next, at the Court-House in Beaufort County; on the Monday following the 4th Monday of October next, at the Court-House in Wilkes County; and on the Monday following the Court of Wilkes County, which shall happen on the Monday following the 4th Monday of October next, at the Court-House in Ashe County.

WILLIAM POLE, Supervisor of North-Carolina.

RUN AWAY

On the 9th inst. from the Subscriber, living in Wake County, between Raleigh and Elizabethburg,

A NEGRO BOY by the Name of TAPLEY, about 20 Years of Age of a bright Yellow Complexion; about five Feet nine Inches high; spare made; has a Scar on his Chin; very sensible and active, with a modest pleasing Countenance. He carried away a number of Coats, mostly Homespun, and two Dutch Blankets. It is supposed he will aim towards the Western Country, and pass for a Free Man, perhaps by the Name of Ellis, as that was the Name of his Father. Any Person that will bring said Boy to me, or secure him in any Goal so that I get him, shall be handsomely rewarded by me.

GEO. HERNDON. March 13th, 1805.

The Indian Queen & other Property

THE Indian Queen is the best Stand in the City for a Tavern. It contains thirteen rooms, nine of which have fire-places. The lot has on it a large and well-constructed Stable, Kitchen, &c. and has been lately enclosed with posts and plank.

The House and Lot on the east side of Fayette street, opposite the court-house. This house contains a Store-room well fitted up, a Compting-room, two large Tavern rooms, &c. It is a good Stand for a Store, and an excellent one for selling spirits.

Two lots on Hillsborough street, near the State-House; and five others not far from the Court-house.

I will sell the above property for ready Money; or for a reasonable price, at a credit of four annual payments; or will lease the houses for one or more years, at a moderate rent.

Applications made to John Hogg, of Fayetteville, or Simon Tutner, of this City, will be attended to immediately.

Wm. NORWOOD. Raleigh, Dec. 15, 1804.

NOTICE

THE Subscriber, some time in the month of February, 1803, intoned in a letter directed to John Wilson, Mecklenburg County, N. Carolina, a Note of Hand on Joseph Welch, of Cabarrus County, for Fifty Dollars, to the subscriber. And the subscriber having been qualified according to law, publishes this Advertisement to invalidate said Note, as said letter has never come to hand.

JAMES WILSON. Cabarrus, Mar. 2, 1805.

ADVERTISEMENT

ON the Afternoon of the 4th Inst. some People returning from this place, like Tobacco-rollers, were so imprudent as to sell an old Barrel Mare to a Negro Man of mine, named Sam; and I have reason to believe received Payment in Gold Coins, like Half eagles, of base Metal, such as are sold in the Stores for 6d. each. It is hoped the Proprietor of the Mare, will come as soon as possible, and pay for keeping her, and the Expence of this Advertisement, and take her away.

JAMES EGGS. Fayetteville, March 5th, 1805.

NOTICE

WAS committed to the Gaol for the county of Orange and district of Hillsborough, on the 7th instant, a Runaway Negro Man by the Name of Lyle, between 20 and 25 years of age, of a black complexion, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, says he is the property of John Sherwin, of Warren county, N. Carol. The owner is required to come forward, prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, agreeably to law.

SAMUEL TURRENTINE, Sr. Hillsborough, Mar. 2, 1805.

TRUNKS

Of different sizes and prices. For sale at the State Printing-Office.