AMERICANS IN FRANCE.

There appeared last year in the New-York Evening Post, and in the papers which generally polliate British outrages...

Some thing of the same kind has lately appeared in a paper called the Norfolk Ledger...

We have it in our power, and we have been possessed of it for the last several months, to enable the American reader to see...

Mr. DEANE—Since my letter by the way of New-York, of Mr. Coleman's report of the 17th of August last...

Capt. Merrilieu's Declaration.

note, covering an extract of an American newspaper

General Armstrong will be much obliged by Captain Merrilieu's calling on Isaac Doolittle...

I, the undersigned, Consul of the United States, and agent of prize causes, at Paris...

When I set out to discharge to his Majesty's orders, I should be very desirous to know exactly where Doolittle's demerit placed it...

SIR—I regret that it is not in my power to procure your release, as your detention is directly contrary to the principles of a decision lately made by the French government...

By his letter is shown the rule which has been laid down by the French government, with regard to persons, not English subjects, found on board of English ships...

(No. 1.)

M. DEJEAN TO GEN. ARMSTRONG, Paris, 19th Sept. 1805.

I hasten, Sir, to answer the letter that you have addressed to me on the 16th of August...

I thought not to assume that the evidence acquired respecting the 10 who were found on the registers, is not of such a nature as to be favorable towards their obtaining their liberty...

caused an error as to persons, I return to you the statements you had addressed to me...

This letter and list, &c. from the Administrator-General of the War Department proves, that Gen. Armstrong did interfere for persons under the denomination of British prisoners...

TRANSLATION.

(No. 3.)

SIR—Your excellency did me the honor to write to me on the 31st of the last month, inviting me to state to his majesty the emperor...

I will inform the minister of war of this disposition, as it is he who will give orders to the Commandants of the depots for the execution...

(Signed) DEJEAN

This letter proves, we hope, to the satisfaction of even Mr. Coleman, that Gen. Armstrong has refused to interfere for American citizens confined in French prisons...

TRANSLATION.

(No. 4.)

SIR—I had the honor of informing your excellency, that in consequence of a new regulation...

I beg your excellency to impart to the Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States the contents of this letter...

COUNT DE HUNEBOURG.

His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Relations.

This letter proves that Gen. Armstrong continued his interposition for three prisoners whom his former effort had not been able to reach...

TRANSLATION.

(No. 2.)

M. DEJEAN TO GEN. ARMSTRONG, Paris, 19th Sept. 1805.

I hasten, Sir, to answer the letter that you have addressed to me on the 16th of August...

The enquiries made on this head at the Ministry of the Navy, were not attended with success...

I thought not to assume that the evidence acquired respecting the 10 who were found on the registers, is not of such a nature as to be favorable towards their obtaining their liberty...

1st. The descent of the British army at the mouth of the Escourt, which for the moment, suspended all indulgence towards British prisoners...

2d. The readiness with which these good Americans, for whom Mr. Coleman discovers so much fellow feeling, are found to enter on board French privateers...

If this ex-censul should turn out to be a criminal, and not the French privateer, you must not be surprised at it.

We, the undersigned, unfortunate citizens of the United States, who are confined in the depot of Valenciennes, consider it a duty incumbent upon us...

(Signed) DEJEAN

Yr excellency's applicants have also to inform you there were 15 citizens of the United States made application to Mr. Barnerin...

By Authority.
