SENATE.

MONDAY, FEB. 9.

Mr. John Taylor, re-elected a Semator from the State of Virginia, ap peared, and took his seat.

The Senate resumed the unfinished business of Friday last, being the bill reported by the Committee on Nava Affairs, authorizing the building of an additional number of sloops of war for the naval service of the United States. The question was upon the amendment submitted by Mr. Holmes. of Maine, proposing merely to authorize the maprovided.

Mr. Holmes, of Maine, supported his amendment, upon the ground that the timber for the vessels could not be

The House went into committee of Not exceeding 16 lines, neatly inserted three the whole, on the bill for obtaining the times for a dollar, and 25 cents for every requisite surveys & estimates on Roads and Canals.

Mr. Livingston rose, and delivered a speech in favor of the bill, which occupied the Committee till four o'clock -when the question being put, on the motion of Mr. Barbour, to strike cut the enacting clause, it was decided in the negative-ayes 84, noes 108.

The question on rising and reporting the bill without amendment being about to be put, Mr. Wickliffe proposed to amend the bill, by striking out the words "thirty thousand dollars" and inserting "fifteen thousand dollars," (as the sum appropriated for obtaining the plans and surveys.) This motion was supported by the mover, on the loop-holes of retreat," should be weagrounds of economy, opposed by Mr. Trimble, as unnecessary, (any unexpended balance returning of course to the surplus fund of the Treasury,) and terials for building the vessels to be discreditable to the country on account of its small amount. The vituperative disputes which so frequently occur in our Newspapers, must furnish matter of surprize to Foreigners, who cannot see the whole of the ground, and many of them, doubtless think, that we are on the verge of a civil war A celebrated Statesman of the last century, happily ridiculed the self-importance of those political Oracles (newspaper editors,) who disputed as politicians do now-not on WHAT is best to be done, for the good of the nation, but who is to do it ? We do not wonder that sober minded men, who "look at the world through the ried at the perpetual jingle of the same tune, notwithstanding all its variations, from the shrill treble of petulance, to the deep bass of vulgar abuse. First, as to the fact : we doubt it as thus insulted, because we have not heard Mr. CLAY's name spoken of in connection with the Vice-Presidency.

Secondly-If a disposition has been manifested, by the friends of Mr. Crawford, to co-operate with their republican brethren of the East, by selecting for the scarcely second office in the government one of the most distinguished of the sons of New-England, we do not · conceive that they have done any thing to call for the appalling denunciation of the Baltimore Patriot, whose shrinking modesty revolts at the bare suggestion of the fact. On the contrary, we applaud the spirit of friendliness, of conciliation, of a regard to harmony between the different sections of the Union, in which such disposition must have originated. We wish to Heaven it were more general in this our day.

Thirdly-We do not know that in-

Mr. Lowrie could not see the neces sity of building so many vessels immediately-he doubted the expediency of making so large an appropriation, confined to one or two years. It is said that the vessels are wanted for the suppression of piracy. Mr. L. said, he thought that subject was at rest. Congress had authorized the purchase of vessels for that purpose, at the last session-and we have been told, from the proper department, that the enter- Baily Johnson. prize was successful, and that piracy was suppressed. time the money should be paid. He was in favor of amending the bill so as to appropriate 250,000 dollars for the present year, and 150,000 dollars annually; for the four succeeding years. He thought a permatent appropriation better than an annual one, as such a 1824, bound in Morocco.-Price $1 25. course would place the subject before the Navy Board, to proceed according to their judgment and knowledge of the business. He was not opposed to the support of a navy, to a certain extent. He considered that our present uite large enough; and, if the act of Congress, providing for the gradual increase of the navy, had contained a provision for ten sloops of war, he should have opposed any further in-crease; but he believed some small vessels were necessary, and was willing to vote for the bill, provided the building of the vessels was not hurried.

Mr. Barbour made some remarks, in which he expressed his opinion in proposed by the gentleman from Maine. After some few further remarks by Messrs. Taking our own share of the satire, let us not, brother editors, fancy that those who make the most "noise" are the only people interested in the great national question now pending. Nomany of the wisest and most intelligent men of our country are " chewing the cud in silence," anxiously awaiting the result. For ourselves, we have no doubt in what way it will terminate, and that the voice of the people, speaking thros their Electors, however chosen, will give a majority to WM. H. CRAWFORD. The Editors who support the other four candidates, appear, strange as it seems to us, equally sanguine as to the success of the Gentlemen they support. It sometimes happens, however, that the less ground a person has to stand upon, the more tenaciously he contends for it, and thus it is with certain editors

JAMAICA. - By our last account from Jamaica, it appeared that considerable apprehensions were there entertained of a revolt of the negroes, and that several of the ringleaders had been apfrom that island of the 6th of January, that eight of the miserable wretches had been tried and executed. It was proved that they had intended to set fire to some trash houses on one of the estates, and as the whites and free persons of colour came to extinguish the flames, they were to have been murdered. The rebels were then to have proceeded to Port Maria, set the town on fire, and massacred the whole of the Bacon, white inhabitants and free persons of Butter, colour. Eighteen other negroes implicated in the conspiracy had also been Coffee, Corn, apprehended, and were to be brought Cotton, to trial before the Slave Courts. It is singular, by the way, that all news of this sort should reach us by way of N. York, or even Baltimore, as this and most of the news of what is going prehended. We now learn by accounts on here in the way of electioneering has lately done.
