RALEIGH REGISTER.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1824.

It is due to official promptitude, to state, that Turner Pullen, Esq. Sheriff of Wake County, has been the first to settle his accounts with the Treasurer of the State.

That Mr. CRAWFORD will obtain the vote of North-Carolina, is now so apparent, that even the opposition presses negatively admit the fact. The last Star calls upon the friends of the "Peoples Ticket" to be on the alert, and thereby endeavor to frustrate the designs of the Caucus party, as it is pleased to term the friends of the National Candidates. Now this is tantamount to a declaration, that the self created ticket in this state, stands but little chance of success. Well! this is at least honest in the Star, and affords proof positive, that they are getting the better of their enthusiastic notions.—Hitherto, they have mistaken the confidence of expectation, for the certainty of experience, and positiveness of opinion for the conviction of reason.

Mr. CRAWFORD.—We were informed by a gentleman of information and respectability, who passed through this city on Sunday last, that he left the Secretary of the Treasury at Berkeley Springs in Virginia, on the 27th ult. and that he was almost entirely restored to his wonted health. All symptoms of disease were absent, and he was acquiring strength with astonishing rapidity; and as an evidence of it the gentleman stated he had gained fifteen pounds in weight, since his arrival at the Springs. We notice this to refute the erroneous assertions, which the enemies of Mr. Crawford find it to their interest, to circulate, relative to his health. These report-mongers not content with calumniating his political character, depreciating his talents and traducing his moral worth, have not scrupled to represent him as blind, lame, deaf and dumb; and in short in a more deplorable situation than Job himself, who hardly escaped with the skin of his teeth.

The Correspondent who charged us a few weeks since, with having published a communication of his, in favor of Gen. Jackson, in a few papers only, that went to Warrenton, has made another appeal to the public through the medium of the last Star. He does not make his appearance, however, to claim the $100 reward we offered him for proof of his accusations, but to show that "e'en though vanquished, he can argue still." As it is one of the evils of ignorance not to be sensible of its own defects, so the crude effusions of WARREN do not excite our wonder. We gave a statement which satisfied every one but himself, and we cannot perceive any obligation we are under to furnish him with understanding as well as explanation. We have abandoned the idea of convincing him, that though PERKINS has proved the compressibility of water, no discovery has as yet been made of condensing Type-metal, so that TEN columns shall contain as much matter as TWENTY.

The friends of Mr. Adams at the late session of the Legislature of New York, strained every nerve to alter the Electoral Law, and inveighed against the Legislature, because it was not done. But in the state of Vermont, the same party refused to alter the Electoral law. This is consistency for you.

The annual commencement at the University in Cambridge was celebrated on the 25th ult. We perceive that among the strangers attending the exercises and the commencement dinner, on the invitation of the Government, were Gen. Lafayette, his son, and Mr. Le Vasseur, the gentlemen of the New-York corporation, and other strangers of distinction.

The degree of A. B. was conferred on sixty-five young gentlemen.

Deduction of Interest.—The Massachusetts Bank in Boston, represented to be one of the most respectable banking institutions in the state, has determined to reduce the rate of interest on discounts granted by it, to five per cent. per annum.

The United States' line of battle ship Franklin, Commodore Stewart, has arrived at New-York, from a three years' cruise in the Pacific Ocean. The officers and crew are all in good health.

DEATH OF ITURBIDE.—By the arrival of the brig Catharine at New-York, from Alvarado, intelligence was received, of the death of the ex-Emperor Iturbide. He arrived at Port Mareno, on the 16th July, in an English brig from London, where he was taken by the Captain General of St. Audera, and brought before the Congress of that place. After undergoing a trial, he was found guilty and sentenced to be shot, which sentence was carried into execution at Padilla, on the afternoon of the 18th July. His death is an awful lesson to usurpers. He doubtless earned his fate by his wilful violation of the terms upon which his life was spared.

The King and Queen of the Sandwich Islands lately died in London. The National Advocate, attributes their death to change of diet; living in their native land on seal skins, blubber oil, and whale fins, and surrendering such luxuries for capons, roast beef, and port wine. It was sufficient to kill persons of more robust habits.

The brig America, Neal, from Buenos Ayres, with the Family of the late Hon. Cæsar A. Rodney on board, has arrived. They were landed at New-Castle.

It is a singular fact that the quantity (number) of Eggs imported into England from France, in the year 1822, was fifty millions, and that the duty collected by the British government upon the importation (10d. per each 120) amounted to upwards of 17,000l. sterling.

The annual meeting of the Society for mitigating and gradually abolishing the state of Slavery, in the British Dominions, was held at the Free Masons' Tavern, in London, in July; His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester, in the chair. The Duke was accompanied into the Hall by Mr. Wilberforce and four other Members of Parliament. "Amongst the distinguished persons, says the London Times, who accompanied his Royal Highness, Mr. John Randolph, the celebrated Member of the North American Congress, was particularly conspicuous." 700 persons were estimated to have been present, "full one half of whom were ladies, elegantly dressed, including a great proportion of the fair members of the Society of Friends." Mr. R. does not appear to have addressed the Meeting.

The Republicans of Alabama (says the Alabama State Gaz.) are at length beginning to act with energy. Meetings have been held in various sections of the State to promote the election of W. H. Crawford, and the public sentiment expressed with that boldness which becomes freemen. An electoral ticket has been formed, consisting of men high in the confidence of their fellow-citizens, most of whom have discharged important and responsible offices with zeal and ability. The history of their whole lives, is the strongest comment on the purity of their intentions. They have all of them fought the good fight in the republican rank, and came off victorious.

Let us, therefore, continue the good work so successfully commenced. Let his friends in every section of the state assemble themselves together, and adopt such measures as will ensure a co-operation in the approaching election. No time ought to be lost; for in a few more revolving months we shall be called on to exercise a privilege inestimable to freemen—the privilege of saying who shall rule over our rights and liberties. The fear of being in a minority is a cowardly apprehension, unworthy of a great mind. Let us do our duty manfully. Let us acquit ourselves to our consciences, our country, and our God, and leave the result, without fear, to the virtue and intelligence of the People.

The new College at Hartford Connecticut, will be ready for the reception of Students on the 23d of September (instant.) The following officers of instruction have been appointed by the Trustees viz:

- The Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Brownell, D. D. LL. D. President.
- The Rev. George W. Doane, A. M. Professor of Belles Lettres, and Oratory.
- Frederick Hall, A. M. Professor of Chemistry and Mineralogy.
- Horatio Nickok, A. M. Professor of Agriculture, and Political Economy.
- George Sumner, M. D. Professor of Botany.
- The Rev. Hector Humphrey, A. M. Tutor.

A Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, and Professors of the Ancient and Modern Languages, will be appointed as soon as the state of the College shall require it. In the mean time, the duties of those departments will be performed by the present Instructors.

A bloody Battle.—A letter from Green Bay dated July 31st says—"I have only the following news to write: Two soldiers, Clark and Wilson deserted from this post a few days ago, armed with four muskets, &c. They were pursued by the Indians, (who are generally employed to bring back deserters) and overtaken. The soldiers were determined not to be taken, and when the Indians came within musket shot distance the action commenced and lasted for some time. The following is the result:

Soldiers killed,	2

NEW-YORK, AUG. 26.

Hussar Frigate.—We understand that the Company who have been employed for several weeks in raising the British frigate Huzzar, which ran on the rocks in Hurl Gate, and sunk, during the revolutionary war, has succeeded in raising about forty feet of the stern part of the ship. After placing the chains under her and moving her from her bed, she broke in two from the keel up through the quarter deck, and the fore part of the ship slipped from the slings, and settled down again on the rocks. The timber of such part of the ship as was embedded in the mud is perfectly sound. The remainder is completely worm-eaten and rotten. A number of cannon and shot were brought up with the hull, but nothing more valuable that we can learn.—Ev. Post.

Fire at Plymouth, England.—Letters have been received at New-York from Quebec, mentioning, that an arrival at that port from England had brought accounts of a destructive fire at Plymouth, by which 40 sail of shipping were burnt. This disaster must have happened previous to the 16th July, as the intelligence by the above arrival was only to that date. The Zephyr left Falmouth on the 19th, and we have not heard that she brings any accounts of this fire, which, besides, is not noticed in the Halifax papers of the 18th inst. nor in the extracts from the London papers of the 17th July. Evening Post.

Reminiscences.—April 24th, 1787, at the close of day, a fire was discovered in a Malt House in Beach-street near Orange-street. About one hundred buildings were consumed, sixty of which were dwelling houses, some elegant costly edifices. The Meeting House in Hollis-street was among the buildings consumed.

The Marquis De Lafayette generously contributed $1554, for the relief of the sufferers by the above calamity, and is entitled, even on this account, to the continual gratitude of the citizens of this capital.—Boston Pallad

"The way of transgressors is hard." Several years ago, a man stole a stove from the door of a merchant in Philadelphia, carrying it off in a wheelbarrow.—After he was arrested, he gave an account of the number of times he had removed his plunder to different parts of the town to escape detection, and it was found, by accurate calculation that if he had ultimately succeeded, he would have gained only half a dollar a day, whereas by his usual business he could have earned a dollar a day.

We recommend this little story to the special attention of all those who feel any temptation to forsake the honest path of industry.

$35 Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber living in Clark county, Georgia, the following negroes, viz: a woman by the name of SALLY, about 35 years old, who left me sometime in May; she is a stout, likely woman, rather light complected, has lost one of her upper and one of her lower foreteeth: she was taken up and put in Abbeville jail, S. C. while there she attempted to pass for a free woman by the name of Eliza: she broke jail, and has probably gone towards Hamburg, S. C. A reward of ten dollars will be given to any person who will apprehend and safely confine in jail said woman, so that I get her again. Also three others, viz: SAM, a small black fellow, thin visage, quick spoken and very active in walking. LARKIN, 17 years old, a very likely yellow fellow, very active, has some of his upper foreteeth out, supposed to weigh 150, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high. SAM, a mulatto boy about 16 years old, thin visage, with rather a bold countenance. Two of the above Negroes, viz: Sally and yellow Sam, were brought from Virginia last fall; the other two about three weeks since. It is probable they may attempt to return to Virginia; they may have procured free passes or be run off by some white person. A reward of ten dollars a-piece for Larkin and black Sam, and five for yellow Sam, will be given for their apprehension and confinement in jail so that I get them again. ROBERT HESTER. Salem, Clark county, Georgia, 25 2t August 19.

$100 REWARD.

RUN AWAY, or was stolen from the subscriber on the night of the eighth instant, a bright mulatto woman (slave) and her child, a girl of about four years old. This woman ran away from the subscriber, executor of John Hunt, dec'd, in the summer of 1808, and passed as a free woman by the name of Patsy Young, until about the first of June last, when she was apprehended as a runaway. On the 6th of the same month I obtained possession of her in the town of Halifax; since which time, by an order of Franklin county court, she and her child Eliza have been sold, when the subscriber became the purchaser. She spent the greater part of the time she was run away, (say about sixteen years,) in the neighbourhood of and in the town of Halifax; one or two summers at Stock-Landing, where I am informed she cooked for the hands employed on the Canal. She has also spent some of her time in Plymouth, her occupation while there not known. At the above places she has many acquaintances. She is a tall spare woman, thin face and lips, long sharp nose, and fore-teeth somewhat decayed. She is an excellent seamstress, can make ladies and gentlemen's dresses, is a good cook and weaver, and I am informed is a good cake-baker and beer-brewer, &c. by which occupations she principally gained her living. Some time during last summer she married a free man of colour named Achrael Johnson, who had been living in and about Plymouth, and followed boating on the Roanoke. Since his marriage, he leased a farm of Mr. James Cotton of Scotland-Neck, Halifax county, where he was living together with this woman, at the time she was taken up as a runaway slave in June last. I have but little doubt, that Johnson has contrived to seduce or steal her and child out of my possession, and will attempt to get them out of the State and pass as free persons. Should this be the case, I will give sixty-five dollars for his detection and conviction before the proper tribunal, in any part of this State. I will give for the apprehension of the woman and child, on their delivery to me, or so secured in jail or otherwise that I get them, thirty-five dollars; or, I will give twenty-five dollars for the woman alone, and ten dollars for the child alone. The proper name of the woman is PATTY, but she will no doubt change it as she did before.

I forwarn all owners of boats, captains and owners of vessels, from taking on board their vessels, or carrying away this woman and her child Eliza, under the penalty of the law. NAT. HUNT. August 16. 80 1t.

Ranaway

FROM me at Lancaster Courthouse, South-Carolina, on the 29th of this instant, my Negro Man BOB. He is about 20 or 22 years of age, has a pleasant countenance, speaks pretty quick, converses sensibly, and both reads and writes. He rather inclines to the yellowish color, of low stature and not very heavy made, will weigh about 125, or 130—Bob has been often at sea and has contracted something of a sailor's air when walking.—His teeth are very white, and has a small scar (I think) below his right eye—his hands and feet are small. Bob had on when he left me, a small chip hat, blue cloth pantaloons, but he will change, as he has other clothes, and it is likely he will wear a blue broadcloth coat with gilt buttons. He took with him a pair of short boots with revolving heels, also a bible and a small psalm and hymn book.—It is likely Bob will change his name and attempt to pass for a free man. I think he will make for the North—and may attempt to get a passage by water. Few negroes have the cunning and sense he has. About two years ago I bought him out of Jail, sold as a runaway for his fees. I will give twenty dollars to any person who will lodge him in any Jail in the United States. MINOR CLINTON. July 31. 77 10w
