RALEIGH REGISTER.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1824.

CAPE FEAR RIVER.—We are pleased to learn that Mr. Fulton has cleared the River between Wilmington and Fayetteville of several thousands of large logs, which had been imbedded for years and which produced obstructions to the navigation.

The works below Wilmington are nearly completed, and we trust they will accomplish the object desired, of deepening the Ship Channel, so that, in future, there will be no need of lighters to enable vessels to bring their cargoes to, or carry them from the wharves at Wilmington.

We learn that the merchants of Fayetteville, from a late swell in the River have been enabled to replenish their Stores with goods of all kinds.

A new Map of the State.—We learn that Mr. Brazier, late Assistant-Engineer of the State, and Mr. John M' Rae of Fayetteville, are about to publish a new Map of the State. For this purpose, they are placing a Map of each County in the hands of an experienced Surveyor, for correction.

INDIAN RESERVATIONS.—We have pleasure in stating, that the Commissioners appointed by his Excellency Governor Holmes, under the act of last session for treating with the Cherokee Indians, in relation to certain Reservations of land which they claimed, have agreed upon an adjustment of their claims to thirty-eight tracts of land, which awaits the sanction of the General Assembly.

By this arrangement, we understand the State will also obtain 15,000 additional acres of land of first quality.

When the death of WASHINGTON was announced in Paris, Bonaparte, then First Consul, and who promised at that time to be a second Washington, ordered a general mourning for France, and the Public Halls resounded with eulogies on the Father of his Country.

The Charleston Patriot of the 15th inst. says—"the weather, which for several days past has worn those indications that here usually presage a hurricane, began yesterday morning to be very tempestuous; with the wind varying from North East to East and South East. It rained and blew violently throughout the night, with continual flashes of lightning, and some of the blasts of wind were alarmingly powerful, yet not as violent as those which characterized the last hurricane of 1822.

pand as he views the fruits of his valor, in the unexampled prosperity of the Country, which he assisted to wrest from the grasp of Despotism.

Mr. Secretary CRAWFORD and his family have returned to Washington city from Berkeley Springs. The Secretary's health is so far restored, that he will forthwith resume the discharge of the duties of his office. It is now a year and a day since his late illness commenced. This severe and painful dispensation he has borne with a fortitude and philosophy which prove him to be equal to any trial that human nature can bear.

The PEOPLE'S TICKET.—We learn that Wm. S. Blackledge, Esq. has declined serving on this Ticket; but we have not yet heard that another person has been named in his stead.

The following extract is the concluding paragraph of a letter received from one of our subscribers in Florence, Lauderdale County, Alabama:

"Gen. Jackson is here, and as it is believed on an electioneering tour. Since his vote on the Tariff, he has lost ground here. The moral and private character of the other candidates has come under the scrutiny of the Press, and why should his be exempt?—I wish for the good of my country, every American citizen knew it."

The Cahawba Press, published at Cahawba, Alabama, has changed its title and proprietor. Mr. Thomas P. Lumpkin, is the purchaser, who has altered the name to the Alabama State Gazette. His address concludes as follows:

For myself, having been educated a republican according to the principles of '98, and firmly believing William H. Crawford, in his political faith approaches nearer that line of policy marked out by Mr. Jefferson, and steadily pursued by Mr. Madison, than any of his competitors, I shall use every honest exertion to promote his cause.

We learn from the Connecticut papers, that an Electoral Ticket is about to be formed, in that State, to bear upon it highly respectable names, in opposition to the Ticket already in nomination which is pledged to the support of Mr. ADAMS.

General CARLOS ALVAREZ, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Government of Buenos Ayres, and Colonel TOMAS YRIARTE, Secretary of Legation, arrived at New-York on Friday last, by way of England, in the Packet ship Pacific, from Liverpool.

NEW COTTON.—Three loads of new Cotton were sold in the Savannah market last week, for fourteen cents per pound.

The last Plattsburg paper, (N. Y.) announces the arrival in that village of a Canal Boat, from Onondago county, with one thousand bushels of salt, fit for the table, which sold at 44 cents per bushel. The farmers about Plattsburgh are also supplied with Plaster for manure, by means of the Canal. A year ago it was predicted at Plattsburg that by means of the Canal, the price of Salt would be reduced to fifty cents per bushel, but it was at that time thought, to be a visionary idea.

The Charleston Patriot of the 15th inst. says—"the weather, which for several days past has worn those indications that here usually presage a hurricane, began yesterday morning to be very tempestuous; with the wind varying from North East to East and South East. It rained and blew violently throughout the night, with continual flashes of lightning, and some of the blasts of wind were alarmingly powerful, yet not as violent as those which characterized the last hurricane of 1822.

The tide rose several feet, but not so high as on similar occasions. We have not heard of any accident or other effect in the city from the storm.—The Wharves and the Shipping in port have sustained but little injury.

effect in the city from the storm.—The Wharves and the Shipping in port have sustained but little injury.

A letter dated at Point Coupee, near New-Orleans, on the 12th ult. states, that "Mr. Lewis, the celebrated musician and his lady, were both lying dangerously ill. Two of their sons, the oldest and the youngest, were buried last week. The parents have not yet been informed of their death. The other children have been removed to the neighboring plantations, where every attention is paid to them, and they are convalescent.

Mexico—Important Decree.—The New-York Mercantile Advertiser publishes a decree of the Mexican Congress, recognising all the public debts of the Mexican Government, however contracted or under whatever system.—This act affords a pledge to the world of the permanency of the liberal and enlightened system of government which that country has adopted.

Substantial Gratitude.—It is said, that, on the return of LAFAYETTE from Portsmouth to Boston, he received notice, that there was deposited in one of the Banks, to his credit, the sum of $20,000. Whether this sum was the donation of one individual or more than one we have not learned.

Worcester Yeoman.

From Spain.—The Brig Ontario has arrived at Boston from Malaga, bringing accounts to Aug. 4. The Editors of the Palladium inform us it was reported at Malaga that the French Consul had been ordered to leave Gibraltar in eight days, and that 8,000 British troops had arrived at Lisbon.—The Spanish Liberals at Malaga were highly elated at the news. Rumours were received daily of disturbances in different parts of Spain. About 2,000 persons had arrived at Malaga to be transported to different fortresses, for being concerned in the late Revolution.

Inhumanity to Horses.—Peter Lister was lately fined in Philadelphia, by the Mayor, for inhumanly beating his horse in the public street. The evidence proved that the horse was in a starving condition; was loaded with about 1700 pounds weight, under which he fell, and then was brutally beat to make him rise. To persons of such cruel disposition we would say, Remember, HE who made thee, made the brute, Who gave thee speech and reason form'd him mute.

He can't complain: but God's omniscient eye Beholds thy cruelty. HE hears his cry. He was designed thy servant and thy judge; But know that his Creator is thy Judge.

Operation of the Mental, on the Physical Faculties.—General John Davis, of Chester County, Pennsylvania, who was a distinguished officer in the Revolutionary War, and an intimate friend of Gen. Lafayette, has for a length of time past, been labouring under a paralytick stroke—so severe in its effects as to deprive him of speech. A few days since one of his family apprised him of the arrival of General Lafayette in this country; he immediately, as nature's last effort, exclaimed, is he here? and the tears trickled down this aged Patriot's cheek—he was unable to utter more.—Phil. D. Adv.

DIED.

In Duplin county, on the 1st ult. Mr. Jacob Matthews, aged 108. Until a few moments before his death he possessed almost the vigor of youth, his sight was perfect, and he could walk ten or fifteen miles a day.—Seven years ago his wife died aged 100 years. They had been married about eighty years.

In Salisbury, on Wednesday the 1st inst. after a tedious and protracted illness, Mrs. Eunice Trylor, aged upwards of 100 years. She was the oldest inhabitant of the town; and had been a resident of that place as far back as the memories of the oldest citizens extend. She was a remarkably industrious, frugal, and worthy old lady.

Also, in that town, on Wednesday the 8th inst. Mr. Charles Biles, in the 38th year of his age.

Also, in Rowan County, on the 1st inst. after a protracted disease, Mr. Meshack Pinkston, an old and respectable citizen of that county.

Also, in that county, on the 2d inst. Mr. Wm. Swann, aged about 20 years. Also, in that county, on Saturday, the 4th inst. Mr. James Julian, aged about 22 years. At New-York, on Tuesday morning, the 7th inst. the Hon. Nicholas Ware, Senator of the U. States from the State of Georgia—a worthy citizen, accomplished gentleman and distinguished republican.

Notice.

IN consequence of some unforeseen occurrences at the time when an appointment was published for the Neuse District Conference to be held at Whitaker's Camp-Ground, including a Camp-Meeting,—there will be no Camp-Meeting, and the Conference will sit at Holland's Meeting-House, 9 miles south of Raleigh commencing the 14th of October. WM. COMPTON. Sept. 11. 87

Runaway

FROM me at Lancaster Courthouse, South-Carolina, on the 29th of this instant, my Negro Man BOB. He is about 31 or 22 years of age, has a pleasant countenance, speaks pretty quick, converses sensibly, and both reads and writes. He rather inclines to the yellowish color, of low stature and not very heavy made, will weigh about 125 or 130—Bob has been often at sea and has contracted something of a sailor's air when walking.—His teeth are very white, and has a small scar (I think) below his right eye—his hands and feet are small. Bob had on when he left me, a small chip hat, blue cloth pantaloons, but he will change, as he has other clothes, and it is likely he will wear a blue broadcloth coat with gilt buttons. He took with him a pair of short boots with revolving heels, also a bible and a small psalm and hymn book.—It is likely Bob will change his name and attempt to pass for a free man. I think he will make for the North—and may attempt to get a passage by water. Few negroes have the cunning and sense he has. About two years ago I bought him out of Jail, sold as a runaway for his fees. I will give twenty dollars to any person who will lodge him in any Jail in the United States. MINOR CLINTON. July 31. 77 10w

$35 Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber living in Clark county, Georgia, the following negroes, viz: a woman by the name of SALLY, about 35 years old, who left me sometime in May; she is a stout, likely woman, rather light complected, has lost one of her upper and one of her lower foreteeth: she was taken up and put in Abbeville jail, S. C. while there she attempted to pass for a free woman by the name of Eliza: she broke jail, and has probably gone towards Hamburg, S. C. A reward of ten dollars will be given to any person who will apprehend and safely confine in jail said woman, so that I get her again. Also three others, viz: SAM, a small black fellow, thin visage, quick spoken and very active in walking. LARKIN, 17 years old, a very likely yellow fellow, very active, has some of his upper foreteeth out, supposed to weigh 150, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high. SAM, a mulatto boy about 16 years old, thin visage, with rather a bold countenance. Two of the above Negroes, viz: Sally and yellow Sam, were brought from Virginia last fall; the other two about three weeks since. It is probable they may attempt to return to Virginia; they may have procured free passes or be run off by some white person. A reward of ten dollars a piece for Larkin and black Sam, and five for yellow Sam, will be given for their apprehension and confinement in jail so that I get them again. ROBERT HESTER. Salem, Clark county, Georgia, 85 2t August 19.

Northampton County. Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, June Term, 1824. Elias Johnson, vs. Drury Nelson. Judgment by default is granted, the Plaintiff and the property condemned, subject to the Plaintiff's recovery. Appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant is not an inhabitant of this State: It is therefore ordered and decreed by the Court that publication be made in the Raleigh Register for three months successively, that unless the defendant Drury Nelson appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the County of Northampton at the Court House in said County, on the first Monday of September next, and replevy the property so attached and plead to issue, judgment final will be entered against him and execution awarded accordingly. Witness, John W. Harrison, Clerk of our said Court at Office, the first Monday of June A. D. 1824, and in the 48th year of American Independence. 63 J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C. Issued June 11. Adv. $6.

$25 Reward

WILL be paid for apprehending and securing in gaol, (so that I may get them again) George, about twenty-four years old, near six feet high, stout, and tolerably black, and his wife Jobby, nineteen years old, common size, black colored, and very likely. They were brought from the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and ran away the 8th inst. and no doubt are attempting to get back. They will aim to pass through Salisbury, Lexington, Greensborough, Hillsborough, and so on to Petersburg. Any information, directed to Harrisburg, South-Carolina, will be thankfully received. JOHN SPRINGS. York District, S. Carolina, 3 11th August, 1824. 84 9wp. 3

Fifteen Dollars

WILL also be paid for apprehending and securing in gaol, Stephen, thirty-five years of age, tolerably black, five feet 6 or 8 inches high, one leg rather shorter than the other; he is no doubt in company with the above described negroes; he belongs to the estate of Capt. James Potts, deceased. He was brought from the neighborhood of Newbern and probably may attempt to get back by the way of Fayetteville. BENJAMIN MORROW.

Notice.
