DEPARTURE OF GENL LAFAYETT

This illustrious Friend and Guest of our country, took his departure from the Scat of Government on Wednesday, recommended by the authorities and the people of this District, to evince their respect for this venerated individual. the deep feeling which pervaded the rines, the Volunteer Companies of the First Brigade of the District, and those of the Alexandria Brigade, were on the ground designated on the President's Square, where they were joined by Gov. the arigo's and Capt. Dunlor's troops of past, the present, and the future age, join-Cavalry from the State of Maryland; ing in one universal chorus of delight at up the escort.

the District, headed by their respective land. lavors, entered the President's house bout half past eleven o'clock. The addresses of those several Municipal tion of a national ship for your accommoda entrance which leads to the Drawing in the story of your sufferings and of our In-Room, supported on each side by the Heads of Departments and Officers; silence, a side door was opened, and General LABATETTE entered the Hall, attended by the Marshal of the District, and one of the Sons of the President, and presented himself in the emotion, delivered, in a clear, distinct, and very impressive manner, the follow. ing Address :

GENERAL LAPATETTE: It has been the good fortune of many of my distinguished fellowcitizens, during the course of the year now elapsed, upon your arrival at their several places of ahode, to greet you with the welcome of the Nation. The less pleasing task now devolves upon me, of bidding you, it the name of the Nation. Adien.

It were no longer seasonable, and would be superfluous, to recanitulate the remarkable incidents of your early life-incidents which associated your name, fortunes, and reputation, in imperishable connexion with the Independence and History of the North Ametican Union.

The part which you performed at that important junction, was marked with characters so preuhar, that, realizing the fairest fable of antiquity, its parallel could scare ly be found in the authentic records of human history.

You deliberately and perseveringly preferred toil, danger, the endurance of every hards ip, and the privation of every comfort in defence of a holy cause, to inglorious case, and the allocements of rank, affluence, and ourcestrained youth, at the most splendid and fascinating Court of Europe.

That this choice was not less wise than magnamin ous, the sanction of half a century, and the granulations of unnumbered voices, all unable to express the gratitude of the heart with which your visit to this hemisphere has been welcomed, efford ample demonstration.

When the contest of freedom, to which on had repaired as a voluntary champion, all closed, by the complete triumph of her cause in this country of your adoption, you hes of the philan returned to fulfit the d spropist and patriot in the land of your nativity. There, in a consistent and undeviating career of forty years, you have maintained through every vici-situde of alternate suc- following terms : cess and disappointment, the same glorious cause to which the first years of your active life had been devoted-the improvement of the moral and political condition of man.

Throughout that long succession of time, the People of the United 8 arcs, for whom, and with whom, you had fought the battles of liberty, have been living in the full possession of its fruits, one of the happiest a mong the family of nations. Spreading in population; enlarging in territory; acting and suffering according to the condition of their nature; and laying the foundations of the greatest, and, we hambly hope, the most honeficent power that ever regulated the concerns of man upon earth.

of men with whom you co-operated in the every part of the other hemisphere; to have conflict of arms, has nearly passed away. Of received at every stage of the Revolution, the General Officers of the American Army and during forly years after that period, from in that war, you alone survive. Of the Sages the People of the United States, and their unusual length of days has been allotted by support of a long and eventful life. Heaven, all now sleep with their fathers. A But how could I find words to acknowsucceeding, and even third generation have ledge the series of welcomes, those unbounarisen to take their places; and their childed and universal displays of public affection, stood in the harouche of the President, Il seed, have been taught by them, as well as of a twelve months' progress through the of the Treasury, and of the Navy. Afmomished by their own constant enjoyment twenty four States, and which, while they ter the review, the General proceeded of free lom, to include in every benison on overwhelm my heart with grateful delight, to the steam vessel, under a salute of their fathers, the name of him who came from have most satisfactorily evinced the concur-

or to fall. ments was signally manifested by a Resolutin every part, and at the central seat of the tion of Congress, representing the whole peo-ple, and all the State sof this Union, request-ing the President of the United States, to the President of the United States, to -in the wonders of creation and improve-communicate to say the assurances of grate- ments that have met my enchanted eye; in tuhand affectionate attachment of this Go- the unparalleled and self-ielt happiness of heart that lives on it. termient and People, and desiring that a nat the people, in their rapid prospecty and inthan I ship might be employed, at your con- sured security, public and private; in a pracvenicher, for your passage to themorlars of tice of good order, the appendige of true a iff buttille.

for blood early shed in her cause, and for a degrading aristocracy or despotism, of popu-Your delicacy preferred a more private con- section are preserved under a con titutional veyance, and a whole year has elapsed since Our readers are already apprised of the you landed upon our shores. It were scarce- between the States, as it has been the farepreparations which had been made and by an exaggeration to say, that it has been to the people of the Union a year of uninterrupted festivity and enjoyment, inspired by and twenty States of this great Confederacy. All business was suspended in the City You have been received with rapture by the cluring the day; the shops and Banks survivors of your carliest companions in arms. were closed, and every thing indicated You have been hailed as a long absent pa rent by their children, the men and women of the present age. And a rising generation, community on this interesting occasion. the hope of future time, in numbers surpas-At an early hour, the Corps of Ma- sing the whole population of that day, when her the Volunteer Companies of the von fought at the head and by the side of their forefathers, have vied with the scanty remnan's of that hour of trial, in acclamations of joy at beholding the face of him whom they feel to be the common father of all. You have heard the mingled voices of the the whole formed and in waiting to take your approach; and the shouts of unbidden the soil of freedom, have followed every step The Boards of Aldermen and the Common Councils of the three cities of | i g of many waters, from every corner of our

You are now about to return to the country of your birth, of your ancestors, of your posterity. The Executive Government of the Marshals of the day had assembled there Union, stimulated by the same feeling which a short time previous. The farewell had prompted the Congress to the designa-Bodies, having been communicated to tion in coming hither, has destined the first the General by a Messenger, about 12 service of a frigate recently launched at this g'clock they were all summoned to the distinguished trust, of conveying you home. Hall, and having been arranged in a cir- The name of the ship has added one more cle by the Marshals, the President of memorial to distant regions and to future the United States appeared before the ages, of a stream already memorable at once dependence.

The ship is now prepared for your reception and for sea. From the moment of your Civil and Military: Several Members departure, the prayers of millions will ascend of Congress, at present in the District, to Heaven, that her voyage may be prosperand other distinguished citizens, also, ous, and your return to the bosom of your formed a part of this group. The com- family, as propitious to your happiness, as your visit to this scene of your youthful ment! Accept this patriotic farewell of an pany having waited some minutes in glory, has been to that of the American Peo-

Go, then, our beloved friend-return to the land of brilliant genius, of generous sentiment, of heroic valor; to that beautiful France, the nursing mother of the Twelfth Louis, and the Pourth Henr ; the native vacant space within the circle, and at a soil of Bayar | and Coligni, of Turenne and suitable distance, to receive the Address of Fenelon and D'Arguesseau. In that illusf the President. Mr. Adams, then, trions catalogue of names which she claims th much dignity, but with evident as of her children, and with honest pride holds up to the admiration of other nations, the name of LAFATETTE has already for centuries been enrolled. And it shall henceforth burnish into brighter fame; for if, in after days, a Preachinan shall be called to indicate the character of his nation by that of one individual, during the age in which we live, the blood of lofty patriotism shall mantle in his cheek, the fire of conscious virtue shall sparkle in his eye, and he shall pronounce the name of LAFAYETTE. Yet we too, and our children in life, and after death, shall claim you for our own. You are ours by that more than patriotic self devotion with which you flew to the aid of our fathers at the cris.s. of their fate. Ours by that long series of years in which you have cherished us in your regard. Ours by that unshaken sentiment of gratitude for your services which is a precides portion of our inheritance. Ours by of time with the name of WASHINGTON.

At the painful moment of parting from you, we take comfort in the thought, that, whereever you may be, to the last pulsation of your heart, our country will be ever present to mournful delight among the sons of his your affections; and a cheerful consolation adopted country. A considerable peassures us, that we are not called to sorrow most of all that we shall see your face no more. We shall indulge the pleasing anticip tion of beholding our friend again. In he mean time, speaking in the name of the whole People of the United States, and at a rived, and having once more pressed loss only for language to give utterance to feelings of attachment with which the heart of the nation heats as the heart of one man, I bid you a reluctant and affectionate fare-

The General listened with deep at tention, and, at the close of the Address, embraced the President in his arms, saluting him in the French manner, on each cheek. He then replied in the Amidst all my obligations to the General Government, and particularly to you, sir, it respected Chief Magistrate, I have most thankfully to acknowledge the opportunity given me, at this solemn and painful moment, to present to the People of the United States with a parting tribute of profound, inexpres sible gratitude.

To have been, in the infant and critical and in the foundation of the American Era of occasion that assembled them, altogea new social order, which has already per- ther produced emotions not easily devacled this, and must, for the dignity and scribed, but which every American will In that lapse of forty years, the generation happiness of mankind, successively pervade readily conceive. who met the fee in the field, or upon the nual marks of their confidence and kindness, General's wheeled off, and the citizens wave, with the exception of a few, to whom has been the pride, the encouragement, the in them assembled on foot around that confederacy.

Yet, gratifications still higher a waited me freedom; and a national good sense, the final my venerable predecessor: himself bound to to recognize a result of the republican prin-you by the strongest ties of personal friend-ship; himself one of those whom the highest honors of his country had rewarded prejudiced minds, of the superiority, over long life of devotion to her welfare. By him lar institutions, founded on the plain rights a national ship was placed at your disposal. of man, and where the local rights of every bond of union. The cherishing of that union well entreaty of our great paternal WASHING-Tov, and will ever have the dving prayer of every American Patriot, so it has become the your presence. You have traversed the four sacred pledge of the emancipation of the world-an object in which I am happy to observe that the American people, while they give the animating example of successful free institutions, in return for an evil entailed upon them by Europe, and of which a liberal and enlightened sense is every where more and more generally felt, show themselves every day more anxiously interested.

And now, sir, how can I do justice to my deep and lively feelings, for the assurances most peculiarly valued of your esteem and friendship; for your so very kind references to old times, to my beloved associates, to the vicissitudes of my life; for your affecting picture of the blessings poured by the several generations of the American people on the remaining days of a delighted veteran ; for your affectionate remarks, on this sad hour of separation, on the country of my of your way, and still resound, like the rush- birth-full, I can say, of American sympathies -- on the hope so necessary to me, of my seeing again the country that has deigned, near half a century ago, to call me hers? 1 shall content myself, refraining from superfluous repetitions, at once before you, sir, be entirely completed on that day, under the and this respected circle, to proclaim my superintendance of the Commissioners apcordial confirmation of every one of the sen- pointed by the Governor and Council, timents which I have had daily opportunities publicly to utter, from the time when your venerable predecessor, my old brother in arms and friend, transmitted to me the honorable invitation of Congress, to this day, when you, my dear sir, whose friendly connexion with me dates from your earliest youth, are going to consign me to the protection, across the Atlantic, of the heroic national flag, on board the splendid ship, the name of which has been not the least flattering and kind among the numberless favors conferred upon me. God bless you, sir, and you all who surround us! God bless the American People, each of their States, and the Federal Governwhen it ceases to beat.

As the last sentence was pronounced, the General advanced, and, while the tears poured over his venerable cheek, again took the President in his armshe retired a few paces, but, overcome by his feelings, again returned, and, uttering in broken accents, "God bless you !" fell once more on the neck of solemn and moving; as the sigh- the moment they are drawn. stealing tears of many who witness- Whole Tickets $5 00 | Quarters $1 25 ed it bore testimony. Having recover- Halves, - - 2 50 Eighths, ed his self-possession, the General stretched out his hands, and was in a moment surrounded by the greetings of the whole assembly, who pressed upon him, each eager to seize, perhaps for No. 114, Market-street, Baltithe last time, that beloved hand which was opened so freely for our aid, when aid was so precious, and which grasped now beamed from the face of this exthat tie of love, stronger than death, which alted man was of the finest and most has linked your name, for the endless ages touching kind. The hero was lost in the father and the friend : dignity melted into subdued affection, & the friend of Washington seemed to linger with a riod was then occupied in conversing if on personal application. Address to with various individuals, while refreshments were presented to the company. The moment of departure at length arthe hand of Mr. Adams, he entered the Barouche, accompanied by the Secretaries of State, of the Treasury, and of the Navy. The carriage of the General, preceded by the Cavalry, the Marine Corps, and Capt. Edwards' Rifle Corps, and followed by the carriages containing of the District, and numerous military ment, moved forward, followed by the remaining military companies. In taking up the escert, the whole column moved through the court in front of the President's mansion, and paid him the passing salute, as he stood in front to receive it. The whole scene—the peals days of these States, adopted by them as a of artillery, the animating sounds of favorite son, to have participated in the numerous military bands, the presence toils and perils of our unspotted struggle for of the vast concourse of people, and the

On reaching the bank of the Potoof the General. The whole military body then passed him in review, as he petition heard ex parte. drea's children, while rising up to call them which have marked each step, each hour, attended by the Secretaries of State, to the steam vessel, under a salute of, artillery, surrounded by as many citiin the immense favors Sestowed on me by zens, all eager to catch the last look, The universal prevalence of these senti- the several branches of their representatives as could press on the large wharf; and, at four o'clock, this great, and good, and extraordinary man, trod, for the last time, the soil of America, follow-

> As the vessel moved off, and for a short time after, the deepest silence was observed by the whole of the vast

The invitation was transmitted to you by arbiter of all difficulties, I have had proudly multitude that lined the shore. The children bidding a final farewell to a Pro the Jail in Nashville, N. C. on Thurs. venerated parent. The whole remain- I day the 1st inst. a Negro Woman as a ed gazing after the retiring vessel, un- Runaway, who says she belongs to John Dob. til she had passed Greenleaf's Point, where another salute repeated the valedictory sounds of respect, and these name is ANNA, and that she was formerly again were not long after echoed by the property of Mr. James Town of Fayettethe heavy guns of Fort Washington, & reminded us of the rapidity with which old, masculine appearance and slow spoken. this benefactor and friend of our country was borne from it.

The General was accompanied the Brandywine by the Secretary of the Navy, the Mayors of the three cities of the District, the Commander-in Chief of the Army, the Generals of the Militia of the District, Com. Bainbridge, Mr. Custis, of Arlington, and several other gentlemen.

> THE WHOLE TO BE DRAWN IN ONE DAY.

In the City of Baltimore on Wednesday, THE OTH NOVEMBER. COHEN'S OFFICE-BALTIMORE, ? September 8th, 1825. We have the pleasure to announce that the drawing of the Grand State Lottery OF MARYLAND, will take place in the City of Baltimore, en Wednesday the 9th of November, and will

rize 30,00	O Dolls.
SCHEME:	the second second
	$30,000
	10,000
	5,000
	10,000
	5,000
	3 000
	3,000
1.0	2,000
	2,000
	2,000
1 130 1 1	80,000
4	80,000
Charles on City	$152 000
	rize 30,00 SCHEME: $30,000 10,000 5,000 1,000 500 100 50 20 10 50 4

20,813 prizes .-40,000 Tickets, A ot 1 blink to a prize

TO BE DRAWN ON THE

Odd and Even System, Secured by Letters Patent under Seal of the United States. The holder of Two Tickets or Two Shares wil be certain of obtaining at least one Prize, and may draw THREE!

The popularity of this scheme is unrivalled -and in consequence of its brilliancy and mode of drawing, has caused a continuance of sales the most unrecedented. Every Mr. Adams. It was a scene at once prize is payable in Cash, which can be had

To be had, in the greatest variety of Numbers (Odd and Even) at

Cohen's Lottery and Exchange-Office, more;

Where all the Great Capitals were sold in the last Grand State Lottery, which was with firm and undeviating hold, the drawn on the 27th July, viz. the $40,000, steel which so bravely helped to achieve the $10,000, the $5,000, (the latter in shares) our deliverance. The expression which and where in the late State and other Lotteries, were sold the great capitals of $100 000, 3 of $50,000, 5 of $40,000, 5 of $30,000, 12 of $20,000, 17 of 10,000, 31 of $5,000, &c. And where more Capital Prizes have been ob-twined than at any other Office in America. Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or Prize Tickets, in any of the Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as J. I. COHEN, Jr. & BROTHERS, Baltimore. C'r COHEN'S " Gazette and Lottery Register," which will be published immediately after the drawing, will contain the complete List of Prizes, and will be forwarded gratis, to all who purchase their Tickets at CO-HEN'S OFFICE, and who signify their wish to receive the same. Baltimore, Sept. 8, 1825. 91 t 10 Oct.

Notice.

THE Lottery & Exchange Business hereofore conducted in Baltimore, under the the Corporate authorities of the cities firm of J. I. Cohen, Jr ... In Richmond and Norfolk under the firm of P. I. & M. I. Coand high civil officers of the Govern- hen and in Philadelphia under the firm of J. I. Cohen, Jr. & Brothers, will for the future be conducted in each place under the firm J. I. COHEN, Jr. & BROTHERS. Baltimore, Sept, 5, 1825. 91 t 10 Oct.

State of North-Carolina,

PERSON COUNTY. Superior Court of Law-May Term, 1825.

John Day & others Petition for order Elijah Day & others, of sale. Land. heirs at law of Jno. Day, deceased. T appearing satisfactory to the Court, that Elijah Day, Philip Day, Sarah Cochran, Richd. a layton and his wife Nancy, Mumford Sneed and his wife -, Jas. Satterfield and his wife Frances, Defendants in this mac, near where the Mount Vernon case, reside without the limits of this State: steam ressel was in waiting, all the It is ordered by the Court, that publication who guided ear Councils; of the Warriors Representatives at home and abroad, contipear at the next term of this Court, plead, answer, or demur, otherwise judgment will be taken against them pro confesso, and the > Test, DUNCAN ROSE, C. S. C. Sheriff's Notice.

BRIGHT MULATTO MAN, has recent ly been put in the jail of this county, suspected of being a slave, and runaway. He is 5 feet 6 inches high, about 25 years of age, continues to keep a House of Entertainment his hair dun coloured and rather bushy, and in Raleigh, for the accommodation of Traeyes dark. He says his name is Henry Wil. vellers and all others who may favor him liams, and that he was born near Louisburg, with a call. He is also prepared to board Franklin county, speaks easily, and very twelve or fifteen members of the approaching well, professes no trade and can write a little. General Assembly. His fare will be good, If he is a slave, his owner is requested to and his terms reasonable. He keeps an ahim, and take him away, or he will dealt with, as is required by the law. JOS. GARRETT, Shift. Washington c'ty, N. C. 2 80-6m July 26, 1825.

Committed

ken up, a pass directed to Mr. Q. Eckles, for the purpose of buying her. She says her ville. She is about thirty-five or forty years prove property, pay charges and take her away, or she will be dealt with as the law directs.

WILLIE G.WHITFIELD. Jailor. Nashville, Sept. 4.

State of North-Carolina

Mecklenburg County. Superior Court of Law, Spring Term, 1825.

Jane Perry,

Petition for Divorce. Grav Perry. T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant is not resident in this state, so that the ordinary process of Law, can be served on him. It is therefore ordered that publication be made three months in the Raleigh Register, that unless the defendant appear at our next Superior Court of Law to be held for said County, at the Court House in Charlotte, on the 7th Monday after the 4th Monday in September next, and plead, answer or demur thereto. the plaintiff's petition will be taken pro confesso, and heard exparte, &c.

J. M. HUTCHISON.

June 11. State of North-Carolina. Rutherford County. IN EQUITY.

Spring term, 1825. James Thompson, Goold Hoyt, James B. Murray, Arthur Bron- | Bill to foreclose mortson and others,

Augustus Sacket. T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant, Augustus Sacket, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is ordered that publication be made three months successively in the Raleigh Register, that unless he appear at the next Court of Equity to be held for Rutherford county, at the Courthouse in Rutherfordton, on the Sd Monday after the 4th Monday of September next, and plead, answer or-demur to the bill of comlaint filed against him; it will be taken pro confesso, and heard exparte.

T. F. BIRCHETT, C. M.E. Test.

State of North-Carolina. Rutherford County.

In Equity. Spring term, 1823.

David Patterson, Original Bill. William Holloway and Benjamin Jordan.

T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court I that the defendants are not inhabitants of this State; it is ordered that publication be made three months successively in the Raleigh Register, notifying them to appear at the next Court of Equity, to be held for the county of Rutherford, at the Courthouse in Rutherfordton on the 3d Monday after the 4th Monday of September next, then & there to plead, answer or demur to the complaint now filed against them, or the same will be taken pro confesso, and heard exparte.

Test. T. F. BIRCHETT, C. M. E. May 3-

Milton Masonic Lottery,

for the benefit of

Authorised by Special Act of Assembly, GOLDEN FLEECE LODGE, No. 74, N. C.

SCHEME. $3000 2000 1000 1000 1000 100 7500 1500 1639 Prizes

$20,000 4000 Tickets at $5 is Drawing to commence in MILTON, as soon as a sufficient number of Tickets shall have been sold .-- Superintended by the following

2361 Blanks

ALEX'R. HENDERSON, JAMES RAINEY, ARCHIMEDES DONOHO, JOHN R. CLARK. THOMAS I. STEVENS. SAMUEL WATKINS.

Orders for tickets, post paid, and enclosing the Casa, will be thankfully received and punctually attended to by the Treasurer in Milton, N.C. Tickets Five Dollars each ;-- Tickets to be had from Agents residing in the different towns, villages and public places throughout the State. -By order of the Managers, PHUJPH. THOMAS, Treast.,

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE SIGN OF THE (100 Yards West of the State-House.

I friends and the public generally, that he prove him to be so, pay the charges upon bundant supply of Corn, Fedder and Oats, and as he is about to erect new Stables, will in a short time have the best Stabling for

horses. JOSIAH DILLIARD