

DOMESTIC.

From Mr. GALLATIN's letter to the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means...

1. That the bonds given for the value of the goods imported, will fall short of 18 millions of dollars...

2. That of the importations heretofore made, about three eighths in value were in vessels which sailed from England...

3. That the importation falls generally far short of the ordinary former annual importation from G. Britain...

4. That of the forfeitures accrued, one half is by law vested in the Custom house officers or informers...

5. The opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury is "that the one half of the forfeitures which would otherwise fall to the share of the collectors ought to be remitted..."

If the report of the Committee of Ways and Means is sanctioned by Congress, and the whole subject left to the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury, we may presume, of course, that the above opinion will be enforced.

GENERAL SMYTH

Soldiers of the Army of the Centre.

Companions in Arms! The time is at hand when you will cross the stream of Niagara, to conquer Canada...

You will enter a country that is to be one of the United States. You will arrive among a people who are to become your fellow citizens...

You will make this war as little as possible distressful to the Canadian people. If they are peaceable, they are to be secure in their persons and in their property...

Private plundering is absolutely forbidden. Any soldier who quits his rank to plunder on the field of battle, will be punished in the most exemplary manner.

But your just rights as soldiers will be maintained. Whatever is booty by the usages of war, you shall have. All horses belonging to Artillery and Cavalry...

The horses drawing the Light Artillery of the enemy, are wanted for the service of the U. States. I will order two hundred dollars for each to be paid to the party who may take them.

I will also order forty dollars to be paid for the arms and spoils of each savage warrior, who shall be killed.

Soldiers! You are amply provided for war. You are superior in number to the enemy. Your strength and activity are greater. Your weapons are longer. The regular soldiers of the enemy are generally old men...

You have seen Indians, such as those hired by the British, to murder women and children, and kill and scalp the wounded. You have seen their dances and grimaces, and heard their yells. Can you fear them? No. You hold them in the utmost contempt.

Volunteers! Disloyal and traitorous men have endeavored to dissuade you from doing your duty. Sometimes they say, if you enter Canada, you will be held to service for five years. At others they say, you will not be furnished with supplies. At other times they say, that if you are wounded, the Government will not provide for you by pensions.

The just and generous course pursued by the government towards the Volunteers who fought at Tippecanoe, furnishes an answer to the last objection. The others are too absurd to deserve any.

Volunteers! I esteem your generous and patriotic motives. You have made sacrifices on the altar of your country. You will not suffer the enemies of your fame to mislead you from the path of duty and honor...

Soldiers of every corps! It is in your power to retrieve the honor of your country; and to cover yourselves with glory. Every man who performs a gallant action, shall have his name made known to the nation...

POLITICAL.

THE FRIENDS OF PEACE.

It is high time that the party which usurp this title should be stripped of their borrowed plumes. We had no conception that they would pretend to claim this distinction after the facts, disclosed by the late Executive communications to Congress...

"There is no cover large enough to hide itself," says an old Spanish proverb, appropriately quoted the other day by a Member of Congress. If they be genuine Friends of Peace, they must become supporters of an administration which has made such unexampled efforts to obtain it...

The question of re-colonization is again presented to the American people. Can they hesitate what side to take? Honest and honorable men may differ as to the conduct of the war; but they might even have differed as to its original expediency...

created this people an independent nation.

It has given us pleasure to find, that no difference of opinion appears to exist among American Federalists and Republicans as to the conduct of the British government. Its friends and agents in this country may palliate and even dare to defend its conduct; but the sentiment of those gentlemen of the Federal party who love their country, who have a feeling for its wrongs...

Clerical and Political Insanity.

The Rev. Dr. Parish, of Massachusetts, has published a political sermon, which he delivered last July, which is filled with falsehood, profligate falsehood from beginning to end; with traitorous and impious sentiments, at which every good and noble feeling of the human heart shudders with astonishment and horror...

The Rev. Preacher pronounces the contest with England to be "a nefarious warfare," a "war with the lamb," with "the chosen faithful" of the Almighty; he solemnly declares that it is "nothing more nor less than a license given by a VIRGINIA VASSAL OF THE FRENCH EMPEROR to the people of England authorizing them in legal form to destroy the property of NEW ENGLAND..."

the sacred pulpit. But let the reverend madman peacefully pursue his career of folly, treason, political and religious phrensy. His sermons and his writings will open the eyes of many an honest federalist, who will quit ranks filled and headed by such impious zealots and treacherous citizens, and cleave to the standard of their country. American.

Land in Warren.

I Will sell, or barter for Lands in West Tennessee, the Tract of Land lying in and Shocco, containing 432 acres, 100 of good order for cropping. A further description of the Land is deemed unnecessary—suffice it to say, it is surpassed by none in the neighbourhood in the advantages of its situation and the fertility of its soil. The Dwelling House is 28 by 18 feet, and will have barge repairs sufficient to render a small family comfortable. There is a Granary, Smoke house, Corn-cro, &c. Also, about 500 acres of unimproved Land, in the upper part of Halifax County, not very fertile, but the beauty and healthiness of its situation, and the excellent range which it would furnish, would make a pleasant Summer Retreat for any Gentleman living in the low Country. EDMUND JONES. Ransom's Bridge, Oct. 9.

BEING desirous to remove into the County, offers the HOUSE and LOT which he now occupies in Germantown, for sale. Cash or Negroes will be expected in payment, and possession given when required. ANDREW BOWMAN. Stokes County, June 20. 78
