OCCASIONAL ODE

ON THE

Royal British System of Education.

WRITTEN

For the Anniversary at the Freemason's Tavern, MAY, 1812.

"Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting, get Understanding." Proverbs, ch. iv. ver. 7.

OF all that live, and move, and breathe, Man only rises o'er his birth; He looks above, around, beneath, At once the heir of heaven and earth: Force, cunning, speed, which Nature gave The various tribes throughout her plan, Life to enjoy, from death to save, These are the lowest pow'rs of Man.

From strength to strength he travels on, He leaves the lingering Brute behind; And when a few short years are gone, He soars—a disembodied mind: Beyond the grave, with hope sublime, Destined a nobler course to run, In his career the end of Time Is but Eternity begun!

What guides him in his high pursuit, Opens, illumines, cheers his way, Discerns the Immortal from the Brute, God's image from the mould of clay? 'Tis Knowledge—Knowledge to the Soul Is Power, and Liberty, and Peace; And while celestial ages roll, The joys of Knowledge shall increase.

Hail to the glorious Plan! that spread This light with universal beams, And through the human desert led Truth's living, pure, perpetual streams. Behold a new Creation rise, New spirit breathed into the clod, Where'er the Voice of Wisdom cries, "Man, know Thyself, and fear thy GOD!" J. MONTGOMERY.

IMPROMPTU.

Britannia, sick of many an ill, Sees various plagues await her; Now finds another bitter pill, Prescribed by one Decatur. Let her go on and still contrive, To make the world all hate her; Her venom we shall still survive, While we have one Decatur. Then let's maintain the sailor's right, And not one inch abate her; We need not dread her force or spite, With Hull and with Decatur.

AN ACT

TO

Suspend executions for a limited time

L. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when any judgment shall be obtained for any debt or damages in any Court having jurisdiction thereof, against any debtor or debtors at any time after the 31st day of the present month of December, and before the 1st of February, 1814, it shall be the duty of such Court before whom such judgment shall be obtained, to stay Execution and all further proceedings thereon until the first term or regular session of such Court after the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, on such debtor or debtors first giving two sufficient Freeholders (such as shall be approved by the Court) securities for the stay of Execution, an acknowledgment of such securities in open Court, and entered on the records of the same, shall be considered as part thereof; and if such judgment shall not be paid, with six per cent interest thereon, before the first term or session of the Court after the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, it shall then be the duty of said Court, immediately to award execution, in a summary way against the principal, and his securities for the full amount of such judgment, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid, together with the lawful interest thereon and costs.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any judgment shall be obtained before any Justice of the Peace against any debtor or debtors, on or after the thirty-first of the present month of December, it shall be the duty of such Justice of the Peace, before whom such judgment shall be obtained, to stay Execution and all further proceedings thereon until the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, on such debtor or debtors first giving sufficient security in two Freeholders (such as shall be approved by said Justice) for the stay of Execution; and if such judgment, with six per cent interest thereon, be not paid and satisfied before the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, then it shall be the duty of the Justice of the Peace on application, to award Execution instantly against the principal and his securities, for the full amount of such judgment, or so much thereof as shall remain unsatisfied, together with the lawful interest thereon and costs; Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any defendant or defendants from claiming or obtaining the stay of Execution as heretofore practised.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of every Sheriff, Constable or other Officer to whom any other Execution has been or shall be directed in consequence of any judgment already obtained, or which may be obtained before the first December current, to stay all further proceedings thereon on the person or persons against whom such Executions has or shall have issued, first giving bond with two sufficient freeholders securities in the full sum specified in the Execution, payable to him, her or them for whose debt or damages such Execution aforesaid has or shall have issued:—Which bond, together with the Execution, the Sheriff, Constable or other Officer shall return to the Court or Justice of the Peace to whom the same shall be made returnable: And the Court or Justice of the Peace on such return being made, should they think such securities fully sufficient, shall stay all further proceedings on such Execution until the expiration of the times respectively specified in the first and second sections of this act; and at the expiration of such times it shall be the duty of such Court or Justice respectively to award Execution in a summary way against the principal and his securities for the full amount of such bond, or so much thereof as shall remain unpaid, together with the lawful interest thereon, and the Constable or other Officer shall receive from the principal giving such bond the sum of two shillings for the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That where any Sheriff, Constable or other Officer has levied or shall have levied on any goods, chattels, lands and tenements before the 31st December current, by virtue of any Execution, or has arrested or imprisoned, or shall have arrested or imprisoned before that day, any person by writ of Ca. Sa. which has or shall have issued for any debt or damages, it shall be the duty of such Sheriff, Constable or other Officer, on bond with sufficient security being given, (as prescribed in the 3d section of this Act) to deliver the property thus levied on the debtor, on demand, and release the person arrested or imprisoned from custody.

V. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to apply to judgments or Executions which are or may be obtained or issued in consequence of any contract made after the first day of January next, or in the name of the State, or at the instance of the Treasurer, or to alter the mode by which such judgments and Executions are carried into effect, or to exonerate Clerks, Sheriffs, County Treasurers or Treasurers of public buildings, and Constables from paying or satisfying on Execution, or otherwise, all such sums of money as they have received and collected by virtue of their office, and if Execution issues against any of them, their property shall be sold to the highest bidder to satisfy such Execution; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent Clerks, Sheriffs, County Treasurers or Treasurers of public buildings from collecting such monies as may be due them for the use of the public.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force and operation immediately from the ratification thereof. [Passed Dec. 17, 1812.]

RALEIGH ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of the above Institution respectfully inform the public, that the Exercises for the ensuing year will commence on Monday the 4th of January, under the superintendance of the Rev. Wm M'PHEETERS. The Female Department will be under the direction of Miss BOSWORTH, from the State of New-York—a young Lady, who, the Trustees are assured, is properly qualified for the undertaking, being well educated, and a perfect mistress of the polite and fashionable accomplishments of Drawing and every kind of ornamental Needle work.
Both Mr. M'Pheeters and Miss Bosworth will be ably assisted in their several departments.
The Preparatory School will be taught by Mr. EDMONDSON, a young Gentleman from Washington College, in Virginia, who is said to be well qualified for this department.
A punctual attendance at the opening of the session is desirable, that the several classes may be formed to the greatest advantage.
Dec. 16. WM. HILL, Sec.

MUSIC, DRAWING, &c.

MRS. SAMBOURNE.
HAVING signified to the Trustees of the Raleigh Academy her intention of relinquishing her situation as Superintendent of the Female Department, at the conclusion of the present Session, wishes to inform her Friends and the Public, that she shall continue to reside in Raleigh, and, at the commencement of the ensuing year, will instruct a few Young Ladies in Music, Painting, Embroidery, &c. so that Students in the Academy, and others, will still have an opportunity of acquiring these polite accomplishments.

For Sale, THE LAND

Whereon I now live,—the former Residence of Green Duke, senior.

LONG known for its healthiness and beauty of situation. This Tract of Land is supposed to contain 3600 acres; and situated within 7 miles of Warrenton—its convenience to which affords a ready Sale for all surplus produce. There is on the Tract a large quantity of excellent Wheat and Tobacco Land.—On Fishing Creek, which intersects this Land, there is a very valuable Saw and Grist Mill.—Convenient to the former there is a large quantity of excellent timber, and its convenience to Warrenton affords a ready sale for the Lumber. On the Mill Stream is at least 100 Acres of Bottom Land, and a large proportion of which is finely adapted for meadow.

5000 dollars will be required in advance—payments for the balance will be made accommodating. Wheat will be put in, and the Plantation be delivered in complete order for the working of 15 or 20 hands.

offers the HOUSE and LOTS which he now occupies in Cermanton, for sale. He deems it unnecessary to give a particular description, as he supposes any person inclinable to purchase, will view the premises, suffice it to say, that the advantages which this Property possesses, either as to local situation or convenient improvements, for a Store or Tavern, are equal, if not superior, to any in the place, and perhaps not surpassed by any in the upper country.

Cash or Negroes will be expected in payment, and possession given whenever required.

Land in Warren.

I Will sell, or barter for Lands in West Tennessee, the Tract of Land lying in and Shocco, containing 432 acres, 100 of which are cleared, under good fences, and in good order for cropping.

A further description of the Land is deemed unnecessary—suffice it to say, it is surpassed by none in the neighbourhood in the advantages of its situation and the fertility of its soil. The Dwelling House is 28 by 15 feet, and will have some repairs sufficient to render it a Smoke house, Corn-crib, &c. Also, about 500 acres of unimproved Land, in the upper part of Halifax County, not very fertile, but the beauty and healthiness of its situation, and the excellent range which it would furnish, would make a pleasant Summer Retreat for any Gentleman living in the low Country.
EDMUND JONES,

Hawfield Academy.

THE Subscriber intends opening a School in the neighborhood of Rev. J. P. Paisley and James McNamee, on the first Monday in January next; where will be taught, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, the Latin & Greek Languages, Philosophy, &c. The prices of Tuition will be, for Reading, Writing & Arithmetic, $8 English Grammar, Latin & Greek, Geography, &c. 16. Hoarding may be had in good houses for a low price. The healthiness of the situation, the respectability of the neighborhood, together with the particular attention which will be paid to the Tuition and morals of Youth, are sufficient inducements to give encouragement to this new institution.

Old Six Per Cent & Deferred Stocks

PURSUANT to the Act of Congress, entitled "An Act authorizing a Subscription for the OLD SIX PER CENT and Deferred Stocks, and providing for the exchange of the same," passed on the 6th day of July, 1812, books will be opened on the 1st day of October next, at the Treasury, and at the several loan offices, and will continue open till the 17th day of March next, for receiving Subscriptions, of the Old Six Per Cent and Deferred Stocks, in the manner prescribed by the said act. New Certificates, bearing interest from the 1st day of the quarter in which the Subscription shall be made, at the rate of Six Per Centum Per Annum, payable quarterly yearly, for the unredemmed amount of principal of the Old Six Per Centum and Deferred Stocks which may be Subscribed, will be issued at the Treasury or at the Loan Offices respectively where the Old Stock Subscribed may at the same time stand credited. The New Stock will be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States at any time after the 31st day of December, 1824; but no reimbursement will be made except for the whole amount of the Stock standing at the time, to the credit of any proprietor, on the books of the Treasury or of the Commissioners of Loans respectively, nor till after at least six months previous public notice of such intended reimbursement.

CHARLES PARISH, returns his grateful acknowledgements to his friends and the public, for the liberal encouragement they have given him heretofore, in his line of business, and informs them that his large and commodious Three Story Brick Building, at the Sign of

THE EAGLE,

North of the State-House, is now in complete order to receive Boarders and Travellers—where he earnestly solicits a continuance of their patronage. He pledges himself that nothing on his part shall be wanting to render general satisfaction to all those who favor him with their custom. Honest and active servants alone will be engaged; and his Stables will perhaps be excelled by none.

N. B. An ICE HOUSE and BATHING ROOMS will be constructed by the next Session.

An Accommodation Stage.

THE Mail Stage from Raleigh to Fayetteville having of late been very much crowded with Passengers, so as not only to make travelling very uncomfortable, but frequently to disappoint persons desirous of procuring seats therein, the Subscribers, in order to accommodate Travellers on this Road, and especially such as wish rather to travel by day than by night, have determined to establish an ACCOMMODATION STAGE between Raleigh and Fayetteville, which will leave Raleigh every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 4 o'clock A. M. and reach Fayetteville at 8 o'clock P. M.; and leave Fayetteville on the same days at the same hour in the morning, and reach Raleigh at the same hour in the evening.

As this Establishment will be attended with very considerable expence to the Proprietors, they flatter themselves that the Public will be disposed to give them support in their undertaking.
